Dear Gentlemen and Ladies

In regards to proceeding number 17-108 Restoring Internet Freedom. I am writing to voice my strong opposition to stripping the internet of Title II classification. I respectfully demand the FCC throw out Chairman Ajit's plan to give telecom giants like Verizon, Comcast, and AT&T the power to create Internet "fast lanes" by discriminating against certain kinds of data and charging business more to have their content or services served. This gives ISPs the power to essentially veto innovation and determine what I can do online. Thankfully current Title II rules prevent this behavior and I feel it strikes a fair balance so that all businesses may compete on a level playing field.

Sincerely,

Aldo A. Hernandez
