Do not approve any avenue for robocalls to continue, especially without ringing to my phone. That activity causes consumers to lose any control over our phones. I get approximately 20 calls a day on my house phone, almost all of which are robocalls and almost all of which are hang-ups. It has made my telephone unusable.