FILING AN APPEAL WITH USAC OR WAIVER WITH THE FCC

Filing an Appeal: If you wish to appeal this decision, you must first file an appeal with USAC seeking review before filing an appeal with the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). USAC appeals can be submitted to Appeals@sl.universalservice.org or mailed to Schools and Libraries Program Correspondence Unit, Attn: Letter of Appeal, 30 Lanidex Plaza West, PO Box 685, Parsippany, NJ 07054-0685.

Once a decision has been made on a USAC appeal, a party may appeal USAC's decision to the FCC.

Filing a Waiver: Parties seeking a waiver of the FCC invoicing rule itself should file a waiver request directly with the FCC because USAC cannot waive FCC rules. This would be necessary if, for example, you filed an extension request after the invoice deadline or filed more than one 120-day extension because you need additional time to invoice.

A party may submit a request a waiver to the FCC as a "waiver" in proceeding number 02-6 in the Commission's Electronic Comment Filing System (ECFS), located at http://apps.fcc.gov/ecfs/upload/display. If you are submitting your waiver request by mail, send to: FCC, Office of the Secretary, 445 12th Street SW, Washington, DC 20554.

We strongly recommend that you use the electronic filing options.
