Dear Mr. DelNero:

Pursuant to the Federal Communications Commission's ("FCC" or "Commission") Open Internet Order,[1] Smart City Telecommunications LLC d/b/a Smart City Telecom ("Smart City Telecom" or the "Company") hereby notifies the Wireline Competition Bureau ("WCB" or "Bureau") of its intention to cease offering its broadband Internet transmission service as a separate component of its broadband Internet access service effective January 9, 2017. As such, the transmission component will not be provided as a separate regulated service and will only be provided as part of the complete broadband Internet access service that the Company offers to end user customers, either through the Company or through an affiliated company.

Smart City Telecom currently provides broadband Internet transmission service as a detariffed Title II offering. The only customer for the Company's broadband Internet transmission service is the Company's affiliate nonregulated ISP. Notice to the affiliate ISP was provided this date by interoffice memorandum that the Company will discontinue the offering of broadband Internet transmission service as a separate component of its broadband Internet access service effective January 9, 2017. Smart City Telecom is not a member of the National Exchange Carrier Association traffic sensitive pool.

[1] Protecting and Promoting the Open Internet, GN Docket No. 14-28, Report and Order on Remand, Declaratory Ruling and Order, 30 FCC Rcd 5601, ¶ 460 and n. 1378 (2015).

Post Office Box 22555 Lake Buena Vista, FL 32830-2555 phone (407) 827-2000 fax (407) 828-6651

The Commission made clear in the Rate-of-Return Connect America Fund Order,[2] as well as the Clarification Order,[3] that a rate-of-return carrier could make the retail offering described in the foregoing first paragraph, and thus the revenues associated with the broadband Internet access transmission would no longer be subject to the federal universal service assessment pursuant to FCC Form 499-A.

This notice is effective 60 days from the date of this letter unless withdrawn or extended prior to that time.

Please contact the undersigned if you have any questions,

Sincerely,

James Schumacher
