Issued: December 7, 1992 ; Released: December 8, 1992

At the conclusion of the field hearing in this proceeding on November 20, 1992, counsel for Calvary Educational Broadcasting Network, Inc. (Calvary) requested leave to introduce into evidence the affidavit of Kevin Fisher, the licensee's consulting engineer. On November 25, 1992, counsel for Calvary exchanged the affidavit and requested that it be identified as KOKS Exhibit No. 14 and received in evidence. The Mass Media Bureau, in a letter dated November 30, 1992, states that it "does not object to KOKS Exhibit 14 (Affidavit of Kevin Fisher) and will not notice Mr. Fisher for cross-examination."

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that the affidavit of Kevin Fisher, consisting of a total of five (5) pages, IS IDENTIFIED as KOKS Exhibit No. 14 and, without objection, IS RECEIVED in evidence.[1]

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the record in this proceeding IS CLOSED.[2]
