RE: CC: Docket NO. 92-77

Dear Ms. Searcy:

At the request of Mark Nadel of the Common Carrier Bureau's Policy and Program Planning Division, BellSouth has reviewed the cost it submitted in the above referenced proceeding. Based on current information, BellSouth now estimates that the opportunity cost caused by reduced revenue from Operator Transfer Service with the introduction of Billed Party Preference will be $15,930,000 in 1996 rather than $21,463,000. With this change, total annual cost is projected now to be $83,021,000 as opposed to $88,554,000.

Sincerely,

Whit Jordan
