Dear Madam, Sir:

As a retired teacher, now working as a volunteer in Seattle Schools, it concerns me greatly that children are being exposed to so much of violence & sexual encounters on the menu of programs available. An article in the Seattle Times suggested we send our comments & ideas to you. Here in Washington state our Legislature has voted to levy additional taxes on cigarettes and alcohol to help pay for a new health care system in our state. I would like to propose that some such levy be designed to tax any "R" rated show aired by any network. with perhaps a lesser levy on any suggested "PG" rated show. This would help offset the
