Dear Ms. Kreisman,

I think that some violence in moves or on TV are somtimes bad but I like scarey moves. But sometime I get scard because I think I hear stuff moveing arouna. But of that think we should keep all scary moves. But get rid of all the cussing.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Kreisman,

I do not like to watch T.V. with violence. The killing is not good for children. There is to much violence in the movies and T.V. programs. Children can't watch T.V. any more.

Sincerely,

Violence in the media it doesn't scare me. But rest assured that a few million people are petrified of it. Also I think that if it isn't cut down it should be censored

Dear Mr. Kreisman,

The violence on television and in the movies is getting worse everyday. I'm only ten, but everyday the television shows getting worse. I hope someone does something about it soon. When I go somewhere I always hear people talking about how violent new movies are. I'm glad your doing something about violence in the movies and on television.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Kreisman,

I don't like violence because on movies people swear and do bad stuff and things like that. And people in TV shows swear too. And this show Pet Cemetery, it is to scared for little kids. People shouldn't make scary TV shows. Do you like the scary TV shows? I sure don't. Well, Goodbye!

Dear Ms. Kreisman

I think all violent movis should be PG 13 or R. There are some violent movies that are PG. One example, The movie Dick Tracy I hear is very violent. And they rated it PG. If there's a violent movie on, put it on in the night.

Sincerily,

Dear Ms. Kreisman,

I think violence on T.V. is okay but it is wrong for children to watch it. I think it should be on at night so children can't watch it.

I think violence in T.V. is bad I think that T.V. stations should clean it up or put it on when kids are asleep. I think violence is bad because it can scare kids like me and sometimes it is exaggerated and scares kids. That is what I think about T.V. violence can you help us?

Dear Ms. Kaisman

I think there should be a cutback on violence. There was a girl who watched pet cemetery and she was imitating a scene and accidentally hung herself. And too much violence may cause more serious things to happen.

Dear Mr. Kreisman,

I do not watch violent movies. I thinks violence is stupid. In R rated movies there is too much violence and swearing. I don't think there should be that much violence on TV or in the movies.

I think movies that have violence in them or programs should be on late at night, or about ten o clock, to give children a chance to go to bed. If not, they might have nightmares, be afraid to go out at night, and so on.

I like violence on T.V and movies but sometimes exaggerates the violence a little bit. Putting down on the violence on the news would be a good idea.

Dear Mrs. Kreisman, May 4, 1993

Alot of people watch TV and go to the movies so people see alot of violence. Only they know if they like to see violence. I don't care if I see violence, but I think that's because I'm older than my little sister, and I'm really not afraid of it. But, my sister might be.

I think violence on T.V. programs and movies is kind of stupid, But some people seem to like it. I think it is stupid because it can lead to people doing bad or deadly things Example some kids might like the movie and decide to act it out and they can end up killing themselves or someone else. But since some people seem to like it I think you could have some violence but not alot

When scary movies come on T.V. a kid will see it and get scared. Then they will start to take knifs, guns, with them so they can defend their selfs. Then they'll kill somebody.

How can you help us?
