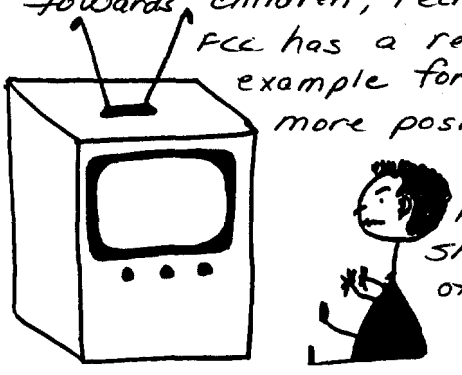
Dear FCC —

Our ~~con~~ country has a serious problem with youth + violence — and TV has such a strong influence on young minds. Please remove violence from programming of all kinds geared towards children, teens + young adults. The FCC has a responsibility to set an example for kids. Lets see a more positive, uplifting approach to TV. I'd like to see music, humor, educational shows, art, shows with people helping others, etc. Sincerely,



Nancy Severns

Make ~~your voice~~ heard:

I Like: family shows without bad language & how to love each other in a family - Lucy Desi H.

I Hate: all the sex & violence & how to have affairs within a marriage. why not show the strengths of developing a marriage.

Please Take Off: VVPO & all adult entertainment fit for R rating only

For Better Programs Please: Show family programs with Clean language, morals, respect, responsibility & patriotism & how to develop them in families. Teach good parenting skills

Help the FCC improve television programming for your children.

Make your voice heard:

I Like: Quality Shows like "Fox Cub House", "Barney". They entertain but also have good messages & morals.

I Hate: Kid's shows with so much violence and "Adult" themes like "Gargoyles" and "Xmen", "Tales of the Crip"?

Please Take Off: Actually I don't feel it is my Place to tell you what or if to take anything off the air. For the most part we are able to stay away from shows we don't like.

For Better Programs Please: remember they are Children and help promote good role models. Help them see that people can at least try to get along & be kind to eachother.

MAKE YOUR VOICE HEARD:

As the parent of 2 teen-age children I am extremely concerned about the sex (especially deviant sex) and violence routinely portrayed on prime time T.V. shows. We watch very little T.V. because of this, but feel that the F.C.C. should assume a stronger role in limiting our children's exposure to anti-social & deviant behaviors

I'm no prude (I'm a child of the sixties!!) but daytime talk shows are shocking! People discuss amoral behaviors with pride and amusement. (The audience cheers them on!) Latchkey kids have no parent around to screen this. Violent cartoons are still around; violent shows should be after 10 p.m., please. Family shows ("Step by Step") have lots of sexual innuendo. Need childrens shows of QUALITY.

Make your voice heard:

I Like: Waltons, Little House on the Prairie, Joseph

I Hate: Many of the cartoons, because of the violence and sitcoms because of the language and lack of any basic values being portrayed. and evening movies because of the sex and violence,

Please Take Off: Simpsons and other movies that portray disrespect to adults. Also movies & shows of violence & sex during daytime & evening hours.

For Better Programs Please: Our children do not need to be exposed to such media. Due to the lack of acceptable shows on TV now, our family rarely turns the TV on.

How about ~~movie~~ Disney movies on Fri, Sat & Sun. night.

I Like: Family programming which reflects family values and moral values

I Hate: Violence, language, and immoral situations portrayed including the daytime talk shows and soaps.

Please Take Off: Programs that promote immoral situations that portray a sense of acceptance in this behavior - daytime talk shows some prime time programs

For Better Programs Please: Keep Dr Quinn, Medicine Woman; Touched by an Angel and Christy programs on and promote more programs like these.

Make your voice heard:

I Like: shows with good moral Stories that help others (without guns or violence).

I Hate: The Violence shows that make guns a toy not a weapon

Please Take Off: Power Rangers / Ninja Turtles Shows or Cartoons where violence shows no blood or real hurt as well as those that do.

For Better Programs Please: think about the children (the even 7-10 year olds) who are so easily influenced by TV

Thanks for listening.

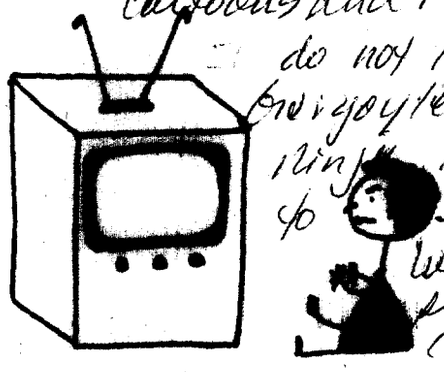
We enjoy channel 6 programs + the Discovery Channel - with all the specials on animals. We like Barney, Sesame Street + the Disney cartoons and Full House.



I do not let my kids watch Power Rangers + Ninja Turtles - they seem to be violent in nature. We would love more programming like Discovery Channel or

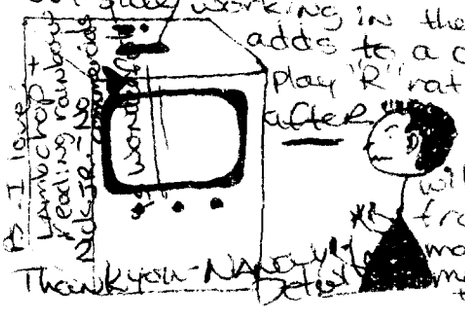
The last 2 saturday afternoons, there have been horror - "R" rated movies on Fox + a local station. An "Elm street" - "Nightmare" movie + one of the "Jason" series. When I called the program manager here in Denver, he quickly pointed out that they had put a disclaimer on as it started. I was really shocked that he would think that that was all his responsibility was. Their responsibility is to know that there are lots of young kids watching T.V. while their parents are maybe outside working in the yard. Their disclaimer just adds to a child's curiosity. If they must play "R" rated "junk" then it should be after 10 pm when all good kids will be in bed. I had nightmares from an "Nightmare on Elm street" movie + I was 16. It really makes me upset at how many kids were terrified to rest + sleep after watching that



Thank you - Nancy

There is far too much violence on T.V. these days Even many animated shows contain violence and vulgar language that is inappropriate for children. We need more quality in programming + selection.

Please help break the cycle of "(TV) art imitates life and life imitates (TV) art." The reality of sex, violence, greed, money, low morals, low standards should not be held up as "regular" to our children, youth. If we make it "par" it will indeed become that. How sad! We are in alot of trouble as it is.
