REQUEST FOR REVIEW AND WAIVER

INTRODUCTION

Section 54.719(c) of the Commission's rules provides that any person aggrieved by an action taken by a division of the Universal Service Administrative Company ("USAC") may seek review from the Commission. Carinos Charter School ("School") hereby appeals the current action taken by USAC in the following case.

BACKGROUND

On March 27, 2014 Carinos Charter School electronically certified two of their Form 471 applications numbered 991896 and 991900 (attached as Exhibit A) for the School's Funding Year 2014 funding requests.

On August 28, 2014, USAC issued two letters (Attached as Exhibit B), indicating that the Forms 471 were "Postmarked Outside of Window".

FACTS

The School submitted the Forms 471 for E-rate Funding Year 2014 in a timely manner with the good intention of complying with USAC guidelines.

The School was, and has remained, in compliance with the certifications requested on the Forms 471.

The forms were assigned the status of "Certified – Out of Window" by USAC for failing to post the form online by the close of the filing window. The School did electronically certify the forms the day after the filing window closed.

BASIS FOR THE SCHOOL'S APPEAL

A. The missed USAC deadline for the Form 471 certification was due to clerical error, not due to noncompliance with E-rate program rules.

The School submitted the Forms 471, with the good intention of complying with program rules regarding the forms. On the day the filing window closed, the School electronically certified one of three applications. At the time the first application was certified, the School did not realize this would not suffice to certify the other two applications. The next day, the school went back online and certified both of the remaining applications. The School did not intend any waste, fraud, or abuse on the program by certifying the two applications one day late.

B. Granting a Waiver in this case follows previous decisions made by the FCC.

On August 28, 2014, the FCC released an appeal Order granting 5 applicants a waiver from the 2014 and 2013 filing window deadlines. As in the current case, the applicants certified their applications within 2 weeks of the close of the window.[1] The FCC has consistently found that as long as an applicant files the required certification pages within two weeks, the applicant should be granted a waiver. There has been no evidence of waste, fraud, or abuse by the school in all of its participation in the E-rate program, and it would serve the good of public interest to waive the certification deadline for the School's application.

SUMMARY

For the reasons given above, Carinos Charter School respectfully requests that the Commission waive the certification deadline for Forms 471 application numbers 991896 and 991900, and change the form status from "Certified – Out of Window" to "Certified – in Window".

Sincerely Submitted,

Rianna Harris-Serrano
