To whom it may concern...

This is in reference to the recent shock from Sprint and the long distance announcement — I have been a Sprint customer for at least ninteen years and this is devastation for me as I had a wonderful long distance service with them - it affects my family with whom I made those long distance calls plus Sprint was receiving revenue from this service - I am elderly and I do not have a cell phone - plus having to find a substitute now —

It is upsetting and doesn't seem fair in any way —

Thank you
