See 47 C.F.R. §§ 1.1206, 1.1200(a). Persons making ex parte presentations must file a copy of any written presentation or a memorandum summarizing any oral presentation within two business days after the presentation. See 47 C.F.R. § 1.1206(b)(1)-(2). On June 20, 2018, we issued a Public Notice (Report No. 325-00213) announcing that the Application filed by GLR Southern California, LLC for a Section 325(c) permit had been accepted for filing and established a pleading cycle to permit interested parties an opportunity to comment on the application.¹ On August 8, 2018, Chinese Sound of Oriental and West Heritage (CSO) filed a Petition to Deny the Application.² On February 15, 2019, we issued an Information Request to GLR Southern California, LLC and its parent company H&H Group USA LLC (together Applicants). Applications for permits to deliver programs to foreign broadcast stations for rebroadcast into the United States are subject, unless otherwise provided, to treatment by the Commission as restricted proceedings for ex parte purposes under Section 1.1208 of the Commission's rules. 47 C.F.R. §1.1208. Because this proceeding presents broadly applicable policy issues under Section 325(c), we have concluded that classifying this proceeding as permit-but-disclose would, in this case, serve the public interest.⁴ Accordingly, pursuant to Sections 1.1200(a) and 1.1208 Note 2 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§1.1200(a), 1.1208 Note 2, the ex parte procedures applicable to permit-but-disclose proceedings will govern our consideration of the instant applications. See 47 C.F.R. §1.1206.
