WIRELINE COMPETITION BUREAU ANNOUNCES CLOSURE AND ARCHIVING OF SECURE DATA ENCLAVE IN PRICE CAP BUSINESS DATA SERVICES AND USTELECOM FORBEARANCE PETITION PROCEEDINGS

WC Docket Nos. 18-144, 17-144, 16-143, 05-25; RM 10593

By this Public Notice, the Wireline Competition Bureau (Bureau) announces that access to the Secure Data Enclave containing highly confidential data submitted in the 2015 Data Collection in the price cap business data services (BDS) proceedings, will close after June 30, 2019. All parties' data and work product stored in the Secure Data Enclave will be saved and archived as of June 30, 2019, pending potential judicial or administrative review.

In the April 15 Public Notice, the Bureau sought public comment on the extent to which the April Data Tables, derived from the 2015 Data Collection, inform the Second Further Notice in the price cap BDS proceedings¹ and the USTelecom Forbearance Petition proceeding.² To facilitate access to this data, the Bureau announced that it would reopen the Secure Data Enclave which is the exclusive method for authorized parties to access and analyze the 2015 Data Collection pursuant to the relevant protective orders.³ The Bureau also announced that it would close the Secure Data Enclave at the end of the comment and reply period, "unless an interested party demonstrate[d] a continuing need for access."⁴ In a public notice released May 14, 2019, the Bureau extended the reply comment deadline until May 28,

2018.⁵ The Bureau also extended access to the Secure Data Enclave until June 30, 2019 to allow interested parties additional time to conduct further analysis of the data.⁶

To date, no party has claimed that continued access to the data contained in the Secure Data Enclave past June 30, 2019 is necessary to their meaningful participation in the price cap BDS and USTelecom Forbearance Petition proceedings. There is no evidence in the record that parties will suffer harm if the Secure Data Enclave closes after June 30, 2019. We find that ending access to the Secure Data Enclave will not affect parties' meaningful participation in these proceedings. Accordingly, we will close access to the Secure Data Enclave after June 30, 2019.

Consistent with past practice, as of June 30, 2019 the Bureau will archive all parties' data and work product contained in their "virtual lockers" in the Secure Data Enclave.⁷ After June 30, 2019, parties will no longer have access to the Secure Data Enclave including their virtual lockers. Archiving data and virtual lockers will protect highly confidential data, and allow the Commission to provide parties access to the data and their related work product should it become necessary as a result of judicial or administrative review.⁸ As of June 30, 2019, all parties' data contained in the Secure Data Enclave, including all data, notes and analysis stored in the virtual lockers, will be saved and archived pending judicial review or reconsideration of an order adopted in the price cap BDS and USTelecom Forbearance Petition proceedings.
