Re: Cell Phones on airplanes? — Bad Idea!!

It would be so annoying! People talk louder on cell phones. It's bad enough in the supermarket or the stadium, but it would be totally unacceptable on a cramped airplane! I wouldn't consider it.

Air travel is already a hassle. Flights are jammed. Security is a pain. People are nervous. I could see fights occuring over the added nuisance. Let them wait to talk until the plane lands. No cell phones on airplanes! Thanks!!
