Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Long
271 Bryn Mawer Ave.
Auburn MA, 01501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Monroe Heyman
25 Hopkins Road
Boston MA, 02130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The dimensions of democracy are far reaching and net neutrality is a large part of it. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you and I am truly grateful! When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elise Schlaikjer
528 Leyden Road
Greenfield MA, 01301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helena Donovan
27 Montague Road
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Covey
20 Woodridge rd
Maynard MA, 01754

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gregory Etter
8 Hardy Lane
Essex MA, 01929

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas Buckley
50 Cardinal Lane
Westfield MA, 01085

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Russell
339 Bunker Hill St. #2
Charlestown MA, 02129

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Brown
225 Loring Ave.
Salem MA, 01970

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carlos Diaz
13 Willow St. #301
Lynn MA, 01901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Marie Lahaie
30 Kernwood Drive
Lynn MA, 01904

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Therese Young 57 Forbes Street
Boston MA, 02130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Holmes
51 Green Road
North Brookfield MA, 01535

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

charles thiesen
6 monadnock street
dorchester MA, 02125

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandra Starr
West St
Georgetown MA, 01833

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Shockey
PO Box 71469
San Juan, PR, 00936

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Valerie Giglio
26 Flat Rock Drive
Easton CT, 06612

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David L West
107 Strong Rd
Southampton MA, 01073

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barry De Jasu
20 Hampton Ave. apt. 512
Northampton MA, 01060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Dellicarpini
73 Vinton Pond Road
West Townsend MA, 01474

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andy Espo
4 Squire Court, Ste. 15
Natick MA, 01760

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Phillips
4 Ashburton Place
Cambridge MA, 02139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I'm a former financial service executive (GE , Bank of America) I understand how big corporations work and so do you... No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you.

When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

American business needs to be saved from American business. Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's net neutrality plan.

Thanks

Sincerely,

Robert Jennings
36 Lincoln Road
Lincoln MA, 01773

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please stand up for what you believe. It will make such a difference. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amanda Luyster
100 Walnut St
Shrewsbury MA, 01545

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Riley
32 Breakwater Dr
Chelsea MA, 02150

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

This issue is about our personal freedom as Americans and our right to access information. Libraries and the Internet are two places where we currently enjoy these rights without dominance by special interests. These are places where we have freedom of choice and representation of all. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

We Need Your Help!

Sincerely,

Dale Thomas
540 Riverglade Dr.
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diana Bailey
2757 Pumpkin Village Road
Enosburg Falls VT, 05450

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Rosenstein
129 Upland Rd
Cambridge MA, 02140

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Massey
26 Willow St
Cambridge MA, 02141

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Avery
50HighSt
Mansfield MA, 02048

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronnie v Bosch
41 norwood greenfield MA, 01301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Marple
175 Summer Road
Boxborough MA, 01719

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jordan Burke
69 Gore St
Cambridge MA, 02141

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Shersnow
600 Royalston Rd.
Phillipston MA, 01331

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.
We need your bold leadership to keep internet open to all. A tough position to be in but you understand how the public feels and just do it. with thanks,

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

dolores jordan
97 derby st
Salem MA, 01970

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donna Eyssi
Brook St
Andover MA, 01810

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Bennett
5 Crawford Street
Cambridge MA, 02139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Handverger
281 Village St
Medway MA, 02053

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Spatz
56 BRIDGE ST
Lanesboro MA, 01237

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne O'Brien
1015 Washington St.
Hoboken NJ, 07030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Seymour Epstein
37 Bay Road
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amy Lippert
108 Trowbridge St., Apt. 3
Cambridge MA, 02138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Stolarz
99 Pratt Ave
Dedham MA, 02026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas Sapola
53 Grove Street
Middletown NJ, 07748

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shelley Lee Watson
230 Fairmount ave.
HydePark MA, 02136

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

james hunt
338 copeland st ap 28
quincy MA, 02169

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erik Wood
15 N Dittmar Dr
Ocean NJ, 07712

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cathy Delaware
7 Carney St
Medford MA, 02155

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann McNeal
33 Enfield Rd.
Pelham MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Brown
28 Main Street
Goldens Bridge NY, 10526

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ian Murray
77 Rodiman Avenue
Fitchburg MA, 01420

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hannah O'Neal
162 Washington St.
Malden MA, 02148

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erik Streeter
12 Pope Street Apt. B1013
Salem MA, 01970

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patti Ouderkirk
48-16 30th Avenue #3G
Astoria NY, 11103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Raymond Ourand
31 Pilgrim Drive
Westfield MA, 01085

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lise Brody
41 Putnam St
Orange MA, 01364

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda lauretta
P O Box 1191
Woodstock NY, 12498

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Maffie
116 Fort Hill Road
Putney VT, 05346

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Enid Futterman
661 Route 23
Craryville NY, 12521

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Turausky
41 Phillips St
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph A. Mustich
Red Studio Farm, 404 Nettleton Hollow Rd
Washington CT, 06793

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Schilirio
352 7th Avenue
New York NJ, 07010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Danielle Piscatelli
33 Walter Street
Medford MA, 02155

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ginnie taylor
31 pond view dr
canton CT, 06019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dara Yardumian
9 Connemara Way
West Yarmouth MA, 02673

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Holden
84 Ellery St. #2
Cambridge MA, 02138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Moulton
575 West End Avenue
New York NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debra Minard
41 Brackett Rd.
Newton MA, 02458

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Babitz
14 Gordon Road
Carmel NY, 10512

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Melsaether
63 Carmine St # 1D
New York NY, 10014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lissy Friedman
56 North Margin St.
Boston MA, 02113

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan H Yule
176 Elizabeth Street
New York NY, 10012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Bump
17 Longmeadow Road
Westborough MA, 01581

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I can imagine the pressure being placed upon you from many special interests.
I ask that you stand firm and protect internet neutrality.
No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.
Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

stephanie scheck
349 washburn road
spencer NY, 14883

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joyce Weston
204 loon Lake Rd
Plymouth NH, 03264

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Claire Barliant
95 India St Apt 2D
Brooklyn NY, 11222

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Glenn Davis
1035 McGeary Place
Mays Landing NJ, 08330

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert James
36 west 84th street
New York NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deborah Vallance
P.O. Box 3162
Brewer ME, 04412

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Wolff
63 Pokeberry Ridge
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gregory Crockett
130 Rocky Hill Rd.
Essex MA, 01929

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul J. Crowley
275 Grove Avenue
Leominster MA, 01453

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Abbott
496 Main Street
Somers CT, 06071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ed mues
434 greenville road
sundown NY, 12740

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Applegate
22 Waltham Drive
Tabernacle NJ, 08088

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jon Batson
33 Prospect St.
Rochester NH, 03867

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Ramage
964 East State Street
Ithaca NY, 14850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lara birk
372 cornell st.
boston MA, 02131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gregory Pais
2304 Steam Valley Rd.
Trout Run PA, 17771

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dianne Carroll
4811 Dearborn St
Pittsburgh PA, 15224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Robbins
458 W 52 Street
New York NY, 10019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

On December 21st, please take a stand FOR net neutrality. Access to the net is and should always be a public, not a private resource; equal access, not prioritized access for those who have greater resources.

Thank You

Sincerely,

Tom Flittie
49 Ridgecrest Rd
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Fairbank
1307 Pleasant Street
Athol MA, 01331

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Nangle
3 Ballard Road, Unit B
Andover MA, 01810

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Allen
56 Juniper Brook Road
Northborough MA, 01532

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gail P. Otis, Esq.
77 Cushing Rd.
Cohasset, MA, 02025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Francine Molay
25 Friend Ct
wenham MA, 01984

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Justin Small
5-B Notre Dame Street
Westfield MA, 01085

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beth Ryder-Kenna
88 W Walnut Park
ROXBURY MA, 02119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Forman
37 Kensington Ave
West Newton MA, 02465

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Monte Becker
335 Crawford St
Northboro MA, 01532

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jon Aske
6 Casino Rd
Marblehead MA, 01945

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sebastian Bach
92 Bradford Street
Everett MA, 02149

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Shapiro
18 Nashua St
Somerville MA, 02145

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Heveron-Smith
1233 Wall Road
Webster NY, 14580

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

I am counting on you to protect all of us who need the internet.

Sincerely,

claire mount 123 Tower Road
lincoln MA, 01773

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Warren Croce
479 Belmont Street
Belmont MA, 02478

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David R Yale
38-11 212th St
Bayside NY, 11361

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

You're the Final line of defense!

Sincerely,

David Miller
187 Whitehead Ave
South River NJ, 08882

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kathy white 128 sylvan ave
west hartford CT, 06107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

judith allen
Washington lane
Jenkintown PA, 19046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joyce Lahna
454 Loring road
Barre MA, 01005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dewey Odhner
439 Avenue A
Horsham PA, 19044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sue Glickstein
726 Bruce Drive
East Meadow NY, 11554

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Cornfeld
617A Vanderbilt Ave Apt 2
Brooklyn NY, 11238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

E. A. Hirai
14 The Fairway
Montclair NJ, 07043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

It's nice to know that at least one person at the FCC has been pushing for real net neutrality; that's you. Please DO NOT support the false net neutrality plan that Chairman Genachowski's which clearly is designed for business interests, not the American people. Your vote may well be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Keefer
822 Hancock Drive
Gettysburg PA, 17325

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Rottinger
111 Crosshill Road
Wynnewood PA, 19096

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Allowing "fake" neutrality will not only limit free speech, but will allow misleading information to appear as fact. Please stop this before it has a chance to start! Thankyou for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Dana Loew
700 Wachusett Street
Leominster MA, 01453

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cristina Ramirez
5522 North 39th Street
Pennsauken NJ, 08110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rob Gambino
R. R. 3
New Milford CT, 06776

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Juan Jimenez
15 Channel Ctr St Apt 313
Boston MA, 02210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Melvin 21 Cromwell Drive
Chester NJ, 07930

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Koury
Sahler Mill Road
Olivebridge NY, 12461

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

liz wassell
po box 156
new paltz NY, 12561

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

daryl muniz 166 linwood street
brooklyn NY, 11208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ian Reclusado
725 Bergen Street
Brooklyn NY, 11238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alana M. Davis
176 W King St
Malvern PA, 19355

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Viskup
1401 North Grant Avenue
Wilmington DE, 19806

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joanne Szamreta
37 wilshire pk
needham MA, 02492

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lyra Fiske
84 Willow Springs
New Milford CT, 06776

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please Vote No on Chairman Genachowski's proposed, so-called, net neutrality plan.

The open Internet has been an overwhelming force for both the public good and economic good. Allowing private companies to regulate content and applications would turn the internet into a fancy cable television vehicle for delivering paid entertainment to consumers.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Fritzson
2 Sunset Dr
Paoli PA, 19301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Boxer
24 Whites Avenue, Apt. 68
Watertown MA, 02472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen S. Anderson
22 Winter Street
Middleboro MA, 02346

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Kauffman
P. O. Box 276
State Line PA, 17263

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Casella
13-18 140th St
Whitestone NY, 11357

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jen Makrides
NW
Washington DC, 20005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne B. Minkoff
57 Buxton Rd
Great Neck NY, 11023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Meehan
828 Falcon Lane
West Chester PA, 19382

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Schreiber
301 Summer St
Arlington MA, 02474

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Clair Touby
113 Forest Hill Ave.
Saranac Lake NY, 12983

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Schlosser
10213 US Hwy 322
Conneaut Lake PA, 16316

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry and Vanessa
935 Longvue Drive
Ellwood City PA, 16117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Serena Dollive
3411 Chestnut St
Philadelphia PA, 19104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maureen Floryan
191 Sterling Rd.
Jefferson MA, 01522

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rachel Usher
92 3rd St
Glens Falls NY, 12801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joann Puskarcik
PO BOX ONE
STArlight PA, 18461

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john papandrea
110 west 90 street
new york NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

L. Glasner
27 W 96 St.
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

cristobal curis
2 acorn path
east quogue NY, 11942

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paulo Padilha
285 Division Ave #20
Brooklyn NY, 11211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andre Belisle
145 Chaplin St
Chaplin CT, 06235

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Loretta DeMarco
603 Walnut Lane
Philadelphia PA, 19128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Virginia Vennett
1951 Sagewood lane
Reston VA, 20191

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Luke Keller
108 W North Lane Apt C-7
Conshohocken PA, 19428

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Chamberlain
12 Gage Ave. Apt. 5
Lowell MA, 01854

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Wyatt
530 Park Ave., Unit 202
Scotch Plains NJ, 07076

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

In this day and age when corporations rule, we need a voice for PEOPLE. There would be no corporations without people. Make our wishes a priority, we need our government to stand up for us. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Teri Stratford
8 Elm St.
Walton NY, 13856

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aaron Ucko
2701 Calvert St., NW, Apt. 309
Washington DC, 20008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

The telecom industry has never been "fair" or even "neutral" when it came to squeezing another dollar from their customers and I can't imagine them changing their stripes now. The U.S. is far behind other nations in both the cost and speed of our internet services. We, the American public, need legal protection from Big Telecom.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Yurick
421 Hickory St.
Warren PA, 16365

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Annie Hutchinson
627 Kenyon St NW
Washington DC, 20010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hank Wollman
752 Newman Springs Rd
Lincroft NJ, 07738

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David J Iacono
442 Barnes Avenue
Westminster MD, 21157

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wendi Quest
234 Main Street
Medford MA, 02155

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erin Higgins
4431 14th St NE
Washington DC, 20017

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Zeiler
17 Bradford Ave.
Hull MA, 02045

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JAMES SCHMIDT
271 SO PROSPECT ST - STE 11
HAGERSTOWN MD, 21740

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard & Eileen Heaning
12 Seneca Dr
North Massapequa NY, 11758

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randy Gyory
33 Hawk Mountain Road
Kempton PA, 19529

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Ben Guthrie
9258 Rt. 96
Interlaken NY, 14847

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Shatto
22045 Camp Drive
Millsboro DE, 19966

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Westclark
58 Griswold Drive
Bellows Falls VT, 05101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathy Kroll
205 Colbert St
Stroudsburg PA, 18360

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

crystal goodson
p.o. box 4272
baltimore MD, 21205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rui Moreira
7002 Blvd East
Guttenberg NJ, 07093

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

elaine o'brien
170 E. Hadley Rd # 83
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Philip Kramer
84 Davis Avenue
Brookline MA, 02445

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Villani
258 Harvard St. 372
Brookline MA, 02446

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Brown
School road
Voorheesville NY, 12186

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Carman
11012 Horde Street
Silver Spring MD, 20902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jonathan von Ranson
6 Lockes Village Rd
Wendell MA, 01379

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Henry
9245 Three Oaks Dr
Silver Spring MD, 20901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Hite
6374 Dakine Circle
Springfield VA, 22150

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Cohen
240 E 207th St
Bronx NY, 10467

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Tyndell
107 Cherry Blossom Ct.
Schenectady NY, 12306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

patricia lasek
8432 trenton falls rd po box 56
barneveld NY, 13304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dr. Frank Dall
20210 Yankee Harbor PL
Montgomery Village MD, 20886

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

We people deserve true net neutrality.
Thanks.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Louden
12403 Denley Road
Silver Spring MD, 20906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Justin Smith
521 S Chapel St
Baltimore MD, 21231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joi Washburn
7088 Sutton Rd.
Newark NY, 14513

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Armen Sonentz-Papazian
12 Heather Rd
Watertown MA, 02472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Claire Blood-Deschamps
28 Colonial Drive
Arlington MA, 02474

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Ewing
510 E. Mt. Pleasant Ave.
PHILADELPHIA PA, 19119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Taustine
50 White Cove Walk
Massapequa Park NY, 11762

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Halberstadt
35 Staunton Rd
Belmont MA, 02478

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Shulman
685 Academy St
New York NY, 10034

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Olson
351 North Mason St, Apt 305
Harrisonburg VA, 22802

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

It's just not good enough to have only the wired internet be neutral: the wireless internet must be neutral, too.

Sincerely,

John McPeak
3113 Buccaneer Ct. #001
Fairfax VA, 22031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith E
228 Rachel Carson Way
Ithaca NY, 14850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jacquelline Salomon
12 East 88 Street
New York NY, 10128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Gregorio
1105 Timberland Drive
West Chester PA, 19380

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kristian habenicht
2359 Railroad St
Pittsburgh PA, 15222

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edward Warren
512 Carpenter St.
Philadelphia PA, 19147

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mina Jones
597 Carroll Street
Brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Blitzblau
234 West Hickory Street
Canastota NY, 13032

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Snope
31 School St.
Califon NJ, 07830

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

charles george
1075 maple st
rochester NY, 14611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Georgia Pettit
102 bedford ave
New york NY, 10014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kirk Fromm
434 Hermit Street
Philadelphia PA, 19128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

joe mullaney
3615 green point rd.
east new market MD, 21631

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

charlotte schoenaman
6843 eastern av
Takoma Park MD, 20912

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adam Zuckerman
17 Old Hawleyville Rd
Newtown CT, 06470

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michael kuehn
70 louis st
new brunswick NJ, 08901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

leslie sternberg
390 Old Lancaster Rd.
Sudbury MA, 01776

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Uriel Meshoulam
15 Centre Street
Cambridge MA, 02139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vicky Steinitz
105 Trowbridge St
Cambridge MA, 02138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bond Collard
Emerson College Bond Collard RM LB 1008 PO Box 9145
Boston MA, 02117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John O'Dowd
61 Old marlboro rd
Maynard MA, 01754

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alex Sinclair
PO Box 5
Belchertown MA, 01007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deborah Baker
86 Nonantum Street
Brighton MA, 02135

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fernando Cruz de Sousa
35 Linden Street
Somerville MA, 02143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marlene Faust
51 Lafayette St unit 406
Salem MA, 01970

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shaun O'Connell
121 Nixon Ave
Staten Island NY, 10304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Krashefski
3954 Summerway Lane
Hamburg NY, 14075

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adriana Di Cecco
P.O. Box 228
Topsfield MA, 01983

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Curran
681 Malden Street
Holden MA, 01520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Caron 1435 Main Rd.
Westport MA, 02790

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick Williams
PO Box 111
Northbridge MA, 01534

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ROBERT DAUWER
48 SPRSGUE ST.
REVERE MA, 02151

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Caci
288 Wellman Avenue
North Chelmsford MA, 01863

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kelly MacKinnon
5 Hardhill rd.
Carver MA, 02330

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

marc roulstone
30 maple ave
Kingston MA, 02364

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Fernandez
10 Old Cross Rd
Warwick NY, 10990

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doug Brill
29 Archer Glen Ct
Greensboro NC, 27407

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Skye Rhodes-Robinson
13673 Legacy Circle Apt. N
Herndon VA, 20171

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Smith
15796 Enchanted Way
Georgetown DE, 19947

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Philip Gerstein
28 Kelly Rd #1
Cambridge MA, 02139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Fargo
76 Whitefield, Unit 302
Ocean Grove NJ, 07756

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

America needs meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.

Sincerely,

Mary Cole
221 Forest Street
Norwell MA, 02061

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Luiz Felipe Perrone
437 James Road
Lewisburg PA, 17837

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The Genachowski plan is carte blanche for throttling. Please vote against it!

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hilda Marshall
68 Cameron Ave.
Somerville MA, 02144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Rice
57 So. Plain Rd.
Sunderland MA, 01375

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ian Thal
110 Line Street #2
Somerville MA, 02143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Darren Meyer
434 Lincoln St
Duxbury MA, 02332

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

barbara chu
1 green needles road
westford MA, 01886

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Sackett ONeil
4 Nixon Lane #2
Stoneham MA, 02180

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Kyle
5124 Falcon Ridge Rd.
Roanoke VA, 24018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cory Rahmberg
113 Hancock St.
Somerville MA, 02144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Weeza Matthias, MD
20 Division St.
Bangor ME, 04401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katrina Ruelle
9 Granite St
Salem MA, 01970

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Batya Bauman
22 Lessey Street
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william foster
290 main street
easthampton MA, 01027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Zambo
203 Old Bedford Road
Westport MA, 02790

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,
Please preserve net neutrality.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Micky McKinley
114 Ripley
Montague MA, 01351

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Ziegel
90 Ledgewood Hills Drive
Nashua NH, 03062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Smith
penn ave
Deerfield NH, 03037

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gustavo Rodriguez
Visalia B-23 , Santa Juanita
Bayamon PR, 00956

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Strassman
60 Moraine St.
Jamaica Plain MA, 2130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Recht
35 Keenan St
Watertown MA, 02472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

morgana bradley
166 sage drive
reading PA, 19608

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Casey
34 Kent Cornwall Rd
Kent CT, 06757

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john meserve
60 dwelley st
pembroke MA, 02359

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Corshia
353 Carver Rd.
Plymouth MA, 02360

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Neil Merrick
346 Baltic Street
Brooklyn NY, 11201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Foster
20 E Hartford Ave
Uxbridge MA, 01569

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joy Johns
43 Trow Road
Cummington MA, 01026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ria Brodell
163 south st
jamaica plain MA, 02130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leigh Cox
0 Rubin Ct. apt D10
Canton MA, 02021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Francis Brown
17 Orchard St
Medford MA, 02155

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adam Paterna
110 Cottage St
Easthampton MA, 01027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Worthington
929 Broadway
Somerville MA, 02144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Wiele
1 East Dunstable Rd.
Nashua NH, 03060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

The spread of information should not be regulated by money. Everyone on this earth deserves the same information. ANY sort of regulation will only pave the way for more and more regulation, and wil do more hurt than help. No one should have the power to pick and choose which information is more readily available to people who already pay a great deal for this service.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Gennaro Piccolo
158 Maple St Apt D
Springfield MA, 01105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ryan Humes
1345 Martin Court
Bethlehem PA, 18018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Jacobson
2418 Sylvale Rd
Baltimore MD, 21209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

april gabor
150 dekalb ave
Brooklyn NY, 11217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha Donohue
14 Cherry st
Downingtown PA, 19335

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Kanter
9110 Cty Hwy 14
Delhi NY, 13753

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Louis Fischer
2927 Mckinley St NW
Washington DC, 20015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Field
415 Snow Hill Rd
New Gloucester ME, 04260

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Darren Brannon
2 Clinton St. #22
Cambridge MA, 02139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Paone
1399 Pacific St.
New York City NY, 11216

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Stewart
171 Pleasant View Road
Newbury NH, 03255

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Victoria Wright
PO Box 793
Housatonic MA, 01236

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard McElvain
16 Rust Street
Hamilton MA, 01982

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Carlson
7 desoto Rd.
Essex MA, 01929

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leslie Gildart
57 Atherton Street
Somerville MA, 02143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynne Posner
PO Box 627
Sheffield MA, 01257

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Austin Federa
23 Kendrick Place
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Colette Flake-Bunz
84-12 35th Avenue
Jackson Heights NY, 11372

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Goode
392 Battlefield Blvd. S.
Chesapeake VA, 23322

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Watson
1421 Dellwood
Raleigh NC, 27607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Masarjian
145 river rd
s. deerfield MA, 01373

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Guyton
84 Laurelwood Drive
Hopedale MA, 01747

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Denis Orpen
51 Nina Dr
Tewksbury MA, 01876

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jessia Bombasaro-Brady
149 High St
Hingham MA, 02043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert O'Kelly
16 Summer St.
Somerville MA, 02143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Willard
9 war admiral court
Gaithersburg MD, 20878

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

FAKE NET NEUTRALITY IS AN INSULT TO ALL OF THOSE WHO USE THE WEB ~ FAKERY AND INSULTING BEHAVIOR BREED DISRESPECT AND CONTEMPT FOR THOSE WHO USE THEIR POSITIONS OF POWER AND RESPONSIBILITY TO PERPETRATE WHAT AMOUNTS TO CRIMINAL BEHAVIOR UPON OUR CITIZENS AND SNIP AWAY @ OUR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS.
Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ray Iasiello
220 Buckminster Rd
Brookline MA, 02445

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lucia Egbert
110 Line St Apt 1
Somerville MA, 02143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Burton
111 Queensberry St Apt 8
Boston MA, 02215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's net neutrality plan. As a champion for net neutrality, you must realize that it's a fake. Please do not side with the big telecoms.

Please vote no on December 21.

Sincerely,

Agnes Matenos
877 Auburnville Way E6
Whitman MA, 02382

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I'm counting on you to vote against Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan. Please stand up for an open Internet, be a hero to all Internet users, and vote against this terrible plan.

Sincerely,

Paul Stauffer
11 Waldeck St
Dorchester MA, 02124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Arthur Cohen
383 Newtonville Ave
Newtonville MA, 02460

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Farnsworth
18 Brown Rd
Shirley MA, 01464

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

steven reuss 19 baker st
lunenburg MA, 01462

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adelaide B. Forrest
3 Cantaberry Lane
Coventry RI, 02816

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frances Duggan
102 Ilford Avenue
North Arlington NJ, 07031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Doubleday
617 West End Avenue #10A
New York NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

avie f. mccoy
4080 garmon mill rd.
midland, NC, 28107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Stasi
28 Adams St
Kingston NY, 12401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lloyd Prentice
160 Tea Rock Lane
Marshfield MA, 02050

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James W. Stockinger
4131 Randolph Ave.
Oakland CA, 94602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Irene Jurczyk
65 Montview Drive
Asheville NC, 28801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

[Thank you for your consideration of this important message -- I do believe in a net freer of corporate influence.]

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marc Harshman
43 Romney Road
Wheeling WV, 26003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Landis
127 E Mountain Rd
Guilford VT, 05301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha Abraham
1067 ponder Creek Rd
Mars Hill NC, 28754

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

S Sneve-Schultze
15 Jennie Clark Road
Eastham MA, 02642

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I care very much about an open and free internet with no special interests interfering with my right to this access.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Betty Gelinas
13 Lenox St.
Fitchburg MA, 01420

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheryl DeVine
26 Onderdonk Rd.
Warwick NY, 10990

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan Ellis
1301 S. Williams Cir
Elizabeth City NC, 27909

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

STEVE MUNGENAST
58 LENOX AVE
ALBANY NY, 12203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helen Carter
2 Rose Drive
Jackson NJ, 08527

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ralph Manon
1924 Winston Drive
Hagerstown MD, 21740

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sholey Argani
217 Spring Ave
Takoma Park MD, 20912

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Parr
1602 Twin Maple Ave
Baltimore MD, 21204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Eames
3300 Darby Rd., #5313
Haverford PA, 19041

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ian Burzynski
62 Charter Oak Rd
Southbury CT, 06488

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Baker
302 W. 12th St., Apt 6A
New York NY, 10014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

Sincerely,

Linsi Dayo
289 Twilight Way
Burnsville NC, 28714

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Abikoff
280 perry hill road
Ashford CT, 06278

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Semon
PO Box 582
Monroe CT, 06468

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doreen Dvorin
4737 Rounding Run Rd
Charlotte NC, 28277

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rodney Jay Pierce
150 Ridgeview Center Drive
Duncan SC, 29334

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John de Clef Piñeiro, Esq.
110 West 90th Street Unit 5-J
New York NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann M Babb
194 Rhododendron Dr
Brevard NC, 28712

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Art Rahman
Nightingale Way
LUTHERVILLE MD, 21093

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, YOUR vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

THANK YOU for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Allan O'Brien Denchfield
30 Montebello Road #3
Jamaiaca Plain MA, 02130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please continue to support compete InterNet Neutrality! No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Denise Durkin
6975 Silverwood St.
Philadelphia PA, 19128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Cheston
6309 Buffalo Ridge Rd
Falls Church VA, 22044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Solaperto
10 Malden Street
Worcester MA, 01606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andre Mirabelli
70 Wooster Street
New York NY, 10012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Merrigan
108 Maple St. #4
Malden MA, 02148

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Leach
225 Tinkwig Dr
Hawley PA, 18428

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christa Miller
49 Orchard Park Dr. #24
Greenville SC, 29615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Eames
109A Ellery St.
Cambridge MA, 02138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ray Soloff
141 Applewood Ln
Lansdale PA, 19446

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Stronger
160 West 96 St.
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

A neutral internet is essential to counter the damage done to our democracy by Citizens United. How else can the TRUTH be disseminated, since the Corporatacracy controls the major media outlets?

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Hackney
P.O. Box 187
Green Mountain NC, 28740

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diana Geare
505 Pennsylvania Ave
Claymont DE, 19703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ed Morse
3485 Patterstone Drive
Johns Creek GA, 30022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Macdonald
P. O. Box 198
Belgrade Lakes ME, 04918

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Contos
24904 40th Ave
Little Neck NY, 11363

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Morris
26 Reynolds Rd
Bridgton ME, 04009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

RObert Rivera
95 W 95th St. Apt.24A
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Philips
517 Crown Street
Morrisville PA, 19067

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fran McDaniel
PO Box 43
Lewisburg PA, 17837

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

shamima anis
942 Val Park Ave
valley stream NY, 11580

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I am writing to thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free and to ask you to please vote no to Chairman Genachowski's net neutrality proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Yours vote will be the deciding vote. Please continue to do what's right.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Richard Gast
55 Stewart Dr.
Constable NY, 12926

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

susan sachs
40 half moon trail
wakefield RI, 02879

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Louis M Skypala
213 East Cliveden Street
Philadelphia PA, 19119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Grishkot
7 Bailiffs ct Unit 302
Timonium MD, 21093

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Valerie Graham
420 Lake Rd
Charlotte VT, 05445

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Bradbury
161 Sprague Mills Road
Greene ME, 04236

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Peck
9 Hickory Lane
Higganum CT, 06441

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Armando Fente, Jr.
35-55 29th St
Long Island City NY, 11106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Kauffmann
2124 Sprunt Ave.
Durham NC, 27705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carlton Ward
36 Vernon Ave
Brooklyn NY, 11206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon Lord
110 Escher Ln
Cary NC, 27511

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry CoBabe
5884 State Park Road
Point Pleasant PA, 18950

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Doggett
574 Hermitage St
Philadelphia PA, 19128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Coryndon Luxmoore
21 Sarah St. #2
Providence RI, 02906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

chris arnesen
5 lawrence st #2
cambridge MA, 02139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

david mishkin
2 Freedom rd
Forestdale MA, 02644

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Howard Bernstein
6 Oak Street
Lexington MA, 02421

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please put the best interests of everyday people ahead of the interests of big-money corporations by voting NO on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Natalie MacKnight
38 Pinewood Rd
Bolton MA, 01740

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

This may be a form letter but it is no less sincere or less important in its message to assure genuine net neutrality!

Sincerely,

Nadine Rutledge
444 Concord Road
Sudbury MA, 01776

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anthony Ricciardi
783 Harold Ave SE
Atlanta GA, 30316

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Parlin
54 Clifford St
Taunton MA, 02780

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lauren Grasch
21 east 21st street #1a
new york NY, 10010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Douglas
251 Seaman Ave, #1J
New York NY, 10034

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harvey Meieran
305 South Dallas Ave.
Pittsburgh PA, 15208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

christopher fairchild
2232 holly run dr
jonesboro GA, 30236

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please review the Chairman's plan for net neutrality. You will find it does not comply with a true net neutrality stance. We are urging you to vote NO on the Chairman's proposal.
Paid prioritization is not the solution. I join with my fellow citizens and organizations who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sally Martin
103 Henry Street
Cambridge MA, 02139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mitchell donian
204 w 10 st
new york NY, 10014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Beardsley
1 wolfe way apt 66
plattsburgh NY, 12901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Bloomfield
344 Brooks ave
atlanta GA, 30307

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rick Wood
PO Box 803
Burdett NY, 14818

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Meredith Minnich
1239B Patrick Circle
Cary NC, 27511

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Lillis
1264 Ginger Wood Dr
Stone Mtn GA, 30083

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Norman Costa
24 Vassar St
Poughkeepsie NY, 12601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Josh Burris
730 peachtree hills cir ne
Atlanta GA, 30305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Darryl Myles
5424 Arlington Street
Philadelphia PA, 19131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph F Muratore
PO Box 445
Upton NY, 11973

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Hey, this is Serious.

And We Care.

None at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

doug shapiro
574 5th st
brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Lellis
106 Sherman St.
Brooklyn NY, 11218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judson B. Perry, Esq.
1611 Penn Street
Harrisburg PA, 17102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Karaffa
2797 Fantasy Lane
Decatur GA, 30033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Simmons
2480 Devon Leigh Walk
Duluth GA, 30096

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joel Straley
16-05 Putnam Ave
Ridgewood NY, 11385

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Gillman
1825 New Hampshire Ave., NW
Washington DC, 20009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

MAY LU
15 W37th Street
NEW YORK NY, 10004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles McClelland
43 Graves Ave Apt B
northampton MA, 01060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Stewart
507 South Church St.
Monroe NC, 28112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Heather Gehron-Rice
131 N Charlotte St
Lancaster PA, 17603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amy Breakwell
2937 Saint Paul Street
Baltimore MD, 21218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hayne III Palmour
2707 N. Mayview Road
Raleigh NC, 27607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Storm Cunningham
2426 N. Powhatan St.
Arlington VA, 22207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sophia McAllister
21 Sunlet Bnd
Johns Island SC, 29455

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan Sage 914 Kimball Street
Philadelphia PA, 19147

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

KATHLEEN MIDGETTE
113 BRAY VIEW DRIVE
Moyock NC, 27958

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ovsanna Mooradian
60 East Rd.
Troy NY, 12180

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maureen Gallagher
15 Trumbull Road
Waterford CT, 06385

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeremiah Glazer
782 Bergen St. Apt. #1
Brooklyn NY, 11238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Donnelly
151 Tremont St.
Boston MA, 02111

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Raymond Lanier
8 Windham Drive
Concord NH, 03301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Moll
511 W 112th Street
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara McKenzie
240 Monroe Street
Philadelphia PA, 19147

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

linda klein
107 Autumn Street
New Haven CT, 06511

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Picardi
27 RAND RD
Shelburne falls MA, 01370

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Walter Masten
35A Gilman St.
Nashua NH, 03060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joshua D'Errico
462 Mercer Rd
Rome ME, 04963

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Heather Long
7 Revere St
Jamaica Plain MA, 02130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vidya Sivan
27 Phillips Street
Boston MA, 02114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alley Stoughton
18 Tarleton Road
West Roxbury MA, 02132

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Calhoun
245 Holt Road
Andover MA, 01810

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Jamison
PO Box 81
Putney, VT, 05346

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronald Curcio
43 Depot Rd
Stratham NH, 03885

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathy Bakane
1081 Parsonage Road
Madison GA, 30650

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat Evans
9 East Willow Grove Avenue
Philadelphia PA, 19118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fran Fortino
19 Poplar Hill Rd.
Haydenville MA, 01039

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Hoff
363 Meadowbrook Road
North Wales PA, 19454

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ashley Nylin
478 Union Ave. #4F
Brooklyn NY, 11211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane Smiley
73 Chelsea Street - Apt. 402
Charlestown MA, 02129

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Carter
56 Mountfort Road
Yarmouth ME, 04096

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andy Tang
47 Mystic Street
Arlington MA, 02474

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

albert aucoin
4 the flume
amherst NH, 03031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

phoebe fisher-wolters
14 seabright ave
east hampton 11937 NY, 11937

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lori evans
10204 swanhaven ct
raleigh NC, 27617

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marvin Whitehead
112 S Fenwick St
Arlington VA, 22204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please save net neutrality by voting against Chairman Genachowski's plan.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Wood
11533 Fenchurch Court
Germantown MD, 20876

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Fried
66 Chiswick Rd, #28
Brighton MA, 02135

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Morrison
957 Miller Rd.
E. Dummerston VT, 05346

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Net Neutrality is the basis of our entire approach to the internet. Without it great harm will be caused to all individuals, both young and old, who have come to rely on this great service we all pay for. Would it make sense for the phone companies to tell you who you can call without charging extra fees? Or the cable company to charge you for watching the news program they want you to instead of another one? That what big telecom is trying to do to the internet, and you can stop it.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Rand
270 Canal Street Unit 320
Lawrence MA, 01840

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Santella
42 Lowell Street
Malden MA, 02148

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laurel Facey
47 Davis Rd
Millers Falls MA, 01349

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Reinhold Lange
49 Mountain Street
Bristol VT, 05443

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Kasnitz
216 Quails Hll Rd
Brattleboro VT, 05301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

As the owner of a small website and someone who uses the Internet for just about everything, I don't want to see regulations that allow internet providers to dictate what I can see and charge different fees for me to view different sites.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Allen
135 Woburn St
Lexington MA, 02420

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Karney
424 Lynetree Drive
West Chester PA, 19380

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Auwaerter
5 Primrose Ln
Malvern PA, 19355

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andr'e Neal
3221 Clyde Dr
Jacksonville FL, 32208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard A. Rankin
10205 Windbluff Drive
Richmond VA, 23238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

micki owens
1601 woodrun drive
Wilkesboro NC, 28697

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jon Patton
1229 Northview Road
Baltimore MD, 21218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ernie Howard
500 Rockhold Rd.
Asheville NC, 28804

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alicia Wayland
105 W. Town St.
Lebanon CT, 06249

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Williams
4820 NW 15th Place
Gainesville FL, 32605

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Penelope Mayer
101 Lake Winnemissett Dr
Deland FL, 32724

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jay Caplan
155 Chestnut Plain Rd
Whately MA, 01093

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Lennon
51 Tracy Cir
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sean Gaines
16 Island Pond Road
Groton MA, 01450

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

It is the American people--not the carriers--who have the most to lose in the forthcoming Dec 21 vote in which FCC Chairman Genachowski supports regulations that he calls "net neutrality," which is the kind of trick described by George Orwell, by applying favorable name to a policy that will greatly reduce the options of millions of internet users. His policy is NOT neutral; it is tilted in favor of the industry, and it should be stopped.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Ledbetter
21 Tennyson St
Worcester MA, 01610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amanda Byrnes
119 College Ave Apt 6
Somerville MA, 02144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jenifer Daniels
12106 Windy Rock Way
Charlotte NC, 28273

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Emmet Brennan
1050 Old Mission Road
New Smyrna Beach FL, 32168

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Becci Blankenship
217 Bonnie Glen Lane
Apopka FL, 32712

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kim Scalia
25 Harris St. #25
Acton MA, 01720

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Mauroff
710 Darmstadt Ave.
Devonshire NJ, 08215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kent BOWKER
11 Indian Rock Ln
Essex MA, 01929

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joel Pelletier
1295 Forest Avenue, Apt. 2
Portland ME, 04103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Tyler
2 Jay Street #1
Montpelier VT, 05602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas C. Hart
8 Grove Street
Putnam Valley NY, 10579

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Henry T. Duncan
2200 Virginia Dare Pl
Raleigh NC, 27610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william j granche granche
24 lincoln st
Ridgway PA, 15853

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tiffany Marie Gaal
101 N. Merion Ave.
Bryn Mawr PA, 19010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Jones
3817 Ridge Road
Chantilly VA, 22003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Fowler
PO Box 539
Charlestown NH, 03603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harry Hochheiser
5742 Woodmont ST
Pittsburgh PA, 15217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kristin Norderval
110 Seaman Avenue Apt 4J
NY NY, 10034

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sal Ferro
700 N Illinois St
Arlington VA, 22205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Allgaier
214 Cedar Ln
Williston VT, 05495

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keith T Allshouse
27 Old Brook Cir.
Melrose MA, 02176

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Russell
43 Highland Rock Dr
Stoughton MA, 02072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Doutre
5 Irving Street, #3
Somerville MA, 02144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Renee Masiello
131 Briarcliff Lane
HOLLISTON MA, 01746

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas Lufkin
313 Beaver Meadow Rd
Norwich VT, 05055

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

B.J. Herbison
203 Long Hill Road
Bolton MA, 01740

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

thomas king
546 NHRT 25
Warren NH, 03279

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rob Cope
7721 Beech Lane
Wyndmoor PA, 19038

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel F. Cunningham JR.
8240 Cleary Blvd APT:2411
Plantation FL, 33324

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Kaiser
59 Wilkes Barre Ave
Morris Run PA, 16939

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lori Fustos
3226 Pinewyn Circle
Lancaster PA, 17601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kim Clune
167 Curtis Hill Rd
East Nassau NY, 12062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John McCarter III
145 Old Mims Rd.
Geneva FL, 32732

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael August
54 Farrand Drive
Parsippany NJ, 07054

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ira Goldman
7515 NW 65 Lane
Parkland FL, 33067

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

My son and I exchange letters weekly over the internet, whether he is in Washington, Beijing or Islamabad. We do not want, and would gain no civic benefit by having, to be limited according to the preferences of some body, governmental or private, that has an ability to modify, censor or squelch our communications.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Goldthwait
49 Sandpiper Dr
St Augustine FL, 32080

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann S Harris
1315 Denniston Street
Pittsburgh PA, 15217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Watkins
Bryan Drive
Rehoboth Beach DE, 19971

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michele MT Gielis
147 Dudley St
Cambridge MA, 02140

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

stephen winter
417 St. Johns Place #2A
brooklyn NY, 11238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ernesto Franco Jr.
200 West 105th Street, Apt. 4A
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

PLEASE DON'T LET THE CORPORATIONS' GREED WIN OVER THE PEOPLE'S RIGHTS AGAIN.

PLEASE VOTE NO. I AM COUNTING ON YOUR INTEGRITY AND SENSE OF FAIRNESS.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

H.L.Chris Chrissos
19 Yawbux Valley Rd
North Stonington CT, 06359

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Virga
6 Fordham Hill Oval Apt.9A
Bronx NY, 10468

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Jones
1090 Townsend Ave
New Haven CT, 06512

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barry Plaxen
297 Stone Schoolhouse Road
Bloomingburg NY, 12721

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Angela DiPaolo
1740 Crowder Avenue
Shillington PA, 19607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doris Lehr
58 13 213 St
Bayside Hills NY, 11364

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Josue Monge
1921 New Garden Rd.
Greensboro NC, 27410

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Kloster
129 Ramona Rd
Old Forge NY, 13420

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Mintz
6712 Sulky Lane
North Bethesda MD, 20852

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alisha Langerman
180 Shore Acres Rd.
Parsonsfield ME, 04047

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Butler
37 Arnett Rd
Rhinebeck NY, 12572

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

david stone 18 sturges st
binghamton NY, 13901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Denis Moore
417NE 2nd Ave
FORT LAUDERDALE FL, 33301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

alexis gilbert
56 N. Holden St.
north adams MA, 01247

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's weak net neutrality plan.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, YOUR VOTE WILL BE THE DECIDING VOTE!.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Todd Spidle
8 W King Street
Lancaster PA, 17603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Rusinko
PO Box 395
Swan Lake NY, 12783

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Houghton
9 Mckinley Ave Apt. 3
Plattsburgh NY, 12901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

nick strate
417 Driftwood Rd.
Neptune Beach FL, 32266

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeanne Hervey
411 Carolina Circle
Durham NC, 27707

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please vote against Chairman Genachowski's proposed regulations of the Internet. They favor monied interests over open access, and open access has been what has enabled far-flung communications.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Mary-Helen Sullivan
2023 Grove Avenue
Richmond VA, 23220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Chester
978 Lorimer Street
Brooklyn NY, 11222

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Antalek
1508 Arezzo Circle
Boynton Beach FL, 33436

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Hesselgrave
3267 Antica St
Fort Myers FL, 33905

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wayne Harris
7642 49th AVE E
Braden River FL, 34203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Walter Ward
305 West 68 St
Hialeah FL, 33014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn Suruma
3025 Spring Branch Way
Tucker GA, 30084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katherine Charron
1504 Ruffin St
Durham NC, 27701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Hess
19 Rosecliff Street
Roslindale MA, 02131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Di Anna C. Kruse
2720 Armfield Road
Hillsborough NC, 27278

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mara Jerman
211 W. 102nd Street
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Commissioner Copps,

I know that you have been a champion for the cause of net neutrality.

I was alarmed to learn of Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, which permits paid prioritization, can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline, and nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emlyn Addison
186 8TH St
Providence RI, 02906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Gladis
829 Downingtown Pike
West Chester, PA, 19380

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Buchwald
300 East 40th Street Apt 22K
New York NY, 10016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

brenda kamen
140 7TH AVE
New York NY, 10011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lewis Woodward
3020 Arundel on the Bay Rd
Annapolis MD, 21403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Sleeper
24716 Carnoustie Ct.
Bonita Springs FL, 34135

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Stand up for what is right, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan. We need real net neutrality, not an industry-written set of rules that are called "net neutrality" while in reality being nothing of the sort.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Blake Winter
6313B W. Quaker St.
Orchard Park NY, 14127

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hy Lampe
4731 Sextant Cir
Boynton Beach FL, 33436

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas Warren Kinney
P. O. Box 463
Otego NY, 13825

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Fawls
324 Grove St N Apt 104
Saint Petersburg FL, 33701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Dunphy
286 1st Street Apt2
Brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Ridge
1850 Seton Dr
Clearwater FL, 33763

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH MILLER
257 W. 117 ST. 2-H
NEW YORK, NY, 10026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Buckley McClure
P.O. Box 1103
Pawcatuck CT, 06379

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Candace Todd, Ph.D.
4715 Boonsboro Rd, #83
Lynchburg VA, 24503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Trish Stevens
142 N Dixmont Rd
Troy ME, 04987

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's his so-called net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people like me, a Grandma net user who reflects America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion and who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please, again do what's right, and vote no to Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Betty C. Miller
1600 Washington St. #202
West Newton MA, 02465

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Moore
298 Ohayo Mtn Rd
Woodstock NY, 12498

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wendy Edds
2721 Sevier St
Durham NC, 27705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Morgan
500 Dogwood Court
La Plata MD, 20646

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Russell Burk
108 Huntingdon Court
Phoenixville PA, 19460

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gilbert Gott
2202 Parkview Dr
Plant City FL, 33563

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
Internet access is now a basic human right if a society is to call itself free and democratic. Please do the right thing once again.

Sincerely,

Maria Lambert
310 Pleasant Street
Marshfield MA, 02050

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

betty boyd
1950 dabney road
henderson NC, 27537

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ryan Stone
3024 Derby Town Drive
Greenbrier TN, 37073

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Lisbin
3361 Parker Road
Avoca NY, 14809

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha McGinnis
5151 Burlingame Drive
Atlanta GA, 30360

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mehmet Bengisu
4959 Bella Terra Dr.
Venice FL, 34293

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Topher Heigham
82 Richfield Rd
Arlington MA, 02474

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. We support you and count on you not to be fooled

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alice Overton
720 West End Ave. 1511
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jacob Louis
181 Chatham Rd
Asheville NC, 28804

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan M. DiGiacomo
63 Pine Grove
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Gish
1647 Brunson Ct., #5
Key West FL, 33040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Forrest Brown
1845 Summit Pl.
WASHINGTON DC, 20009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

roberto manz
315 e 5 st
ny NY, 10003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

phyllis olsen
973 Westkill Rd.
jefferson NY, 12093

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Shaver
634 Patriot Drive
Lancaster PA, 17601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandy Byrne
2363 Crooked Creek Road
Mars Hill NC, 28754

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Crystal T Green
69 Perks Blvd
Cold Spring NY, 10516

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandra Korn
9050 NW 28th St. #111
Coral Springs FL, 33065

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ricardo Corrales
Urb. AFROVIA, casa 24, La Aurora, Ulloa
Heredia, Costa Rica NY, 10101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Hickling
2301 SW 27 Ave Apt 602
Miami FL, 33145

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven S. Wolf
94 Amherst Rd
Pelham MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Juan Vanegas
10470 W Okeechobee Road
Hialeah FL, 33018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Meyer
1597 Daws Rd
Blue Bell PA, 19422

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jackson barker-fornal 12 union st
northampton MA, 01060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ryan Daoedsjah
1733 NE 4th St
Fort Lauderdale FL, 33312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

josh Fincke
390 huron ave #2
cambridge MA, 02138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cathy Powers
16 N. College St.
Weaverville NC, 28787

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

This an opportunity to keep the ideal of the American Dream a reality. Please help!

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doug Miller
936 East Butler Pike
Ambler PA, 19002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gavin Bates
39 Bradshaw Street
Watertown MA, 02472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Felipe Padilla
202 E South stree.
Orlando FL, 32801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Addison Neva
41 McKinley
Keene NH, 3431

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Silverstein
171 Benson Ave
Mansfield PA, 16933

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Years ago the FCC wisely saw the potential dangers of allowing the telcos to be in the programming or content business and prohibitted them from entering into the 900 services. Today we must take similar action and begin to remove the owners of the broadband distribution systems from programming or content side of the Internet, and for that mater cable TV as well.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Willett
4535 Baywoods Ct
Pensacola FL, 32504

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

June Cunniff
4015 Montclair Road
Birmingham AL, 35213

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rachel Jones
1007 Malvern Road
Franklin TN, 37069

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,
Please keep up the good fight to keep net neutrality.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruby Wood
200 Florence Ave
interlachen FL, 32148

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

So much of what goes on today is harmful to the American people. Please help us out and make this thing right!
No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Halgren
737 1ST St
Culpeper VA, 22701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rachel Parnell
5912 Santo Domingo Court
New Bern NC, 28560

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Fischer
1648 NW 22nd Circle
Gainesville FL, 32605

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Shapiro
500 Linwood Dr Apt 5C
Fort Lee NJ, 07024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Bailis
xxx
Queens NY, 11103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Rivera
1446 77th Street
Brooklyn NY, 11228

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Albright
4828 Rippling Run Rd
Red Lion PA, 17356

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Melton
10381 Tintinhull Dr
Indian Land SC, 29707

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ada Sonnenfeld
3531 Mt. Zion RD
Upperco MD, 21155

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Polo
17228 S. Norrisville Rd.
Conneautville PA, 16406

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joshua Funt
20326 Oak Key Ct.
Tampa FL, 33647

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Starr
901 Collier Court, #602
Marco Island FL, 34145

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Denise Black
3870 Max Place, 202
Boynton Beach FL, 33436

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pierre-Andre Devaud
295 7th St. #3
Brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, ultimately leading to the destruction of an open internet, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation. The internet is a public commons paid for by the American taxpayer and it should not be allowed to be hijacked by rapacious and fundamentally anti-American trans-national corporations that see democracy and freedom of communication as a threat and a money loser.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

PI Norton
39 Sussex
Lewes DE, 19958

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melissa Peters
508 Portwest Ct
Henrico VA, 23238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Haskett
4116 30th St.
Mount Rainier MD, 20712

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maureen Gill
3116 Lawrence Pl
Wantagh NY, 11793

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sally Speller
560 W 151 St.
New York NY, 10031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Atkins
Almada At Hamilton NY, 12345

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kristina Olive 840 Cherry Lane
Southampton PA, 18966

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janis Talbott
211 3rd Street
Chickasaw AL, 36611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronald Gurney
507 Hubbell St
Utica NY, 13501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fran Divine
15 Turtle Rock Ct
New Paltz NY, 12561

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Colleen. ----
18 Browne Street
Brookline MA, 02446

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

It's imperative that we keep a free and open internet with EQUAL access for all and not tiered access that benefits corporations and leaves the average Joe sucking wind. In a modern digital age, it can mean the difference between democracy and a dictatorship where individual citizens have no voice. VOTE NO ON GENACHOWSKI's FAKE PLAN.

Sincerely,

Paul A Herzig
255 21st Ave NE
Saint Petersburg FL, 33704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Valerie Bartolo
20201 E. Country Club Drive
aventura FL, 33180

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Snyder
823 S 3rd St
Philadelphia PA, 19147

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronald Kestler
2101 Challedon Way
Louisville KY, 40223

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Arnold Brown
27 Silver Darter Lane
Biltmore Lake NC, 28715

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

BJ Wahl
279 Centre St.
Sullivan NH, 03445

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Tharp
2820 Kell Rd
Signal Mtn TN, 37377

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brad Tarver
59 Sagewood Dr
Brandon MS, 39042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marguerite Brown
3636 Northshore Road
Columbia SC, 29206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Branson
6787 Chase Cove
Horn Lake MS, 38637

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ki ogilvie
nashville TN, 37209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you have done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what is right once more, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David B. Chandler
6 Georgian Circle
Newark DE, 19711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Booth
541 Royce Street
Pensacola FL, 32503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ruben neeley
p.o box 142
scottsboro AL, 35768

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sarita dotson
106briarwood place
parkersburg WV, 26104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ryan Parzick
110 Blue Ridge Ct.
Durham NC, 27703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Bromborsky
12435 Kemp Mill Road
Silver Spring MD, 20902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dr. Elias J. Moor
220 Sequoia Dr.
Pasadena CA, 91105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Hanson
610 Oak Pond Rd
Skowhegan ME, 04976

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pristine Parr
2285 Metropolitan Pkwy
Atlanta GA, 30315

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Troupe
2201 Berkshire Road
Lancaster PA, 17603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Roden
307 Daleview Drive
Yardley PA, 19067

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Victoria Nichols
900 85th Street South
Birmingham AL, 35206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Higgins
8744 Mallard Cir
North Ridgeville OH, 44039

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Atid Kimelman
128 Greenwood Drive
Millburn NJ, 07041

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Stone
53 Maple Grove Rd.
Starrucca PA, 18462

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pauline Wagner
102 Alder St
Mechanicsburg PA, 17055

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Cramm
21 Hyde St
winchendon MA, 01475

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

We should not allow telecom companies to interfere with a consumer's right to a free and open internet. Please be our voice on "net neutrality". Make the day count and vote NO.

Sincerely,

Helen Weed
61 Nancy Lane
Ewing NJ, 08638

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Breckenridge
65 Daniels St.
Pawtucket RI, 02860

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William McGrane
331 West St.
Mansfield MA, 02048

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Hanlon
241 washington St
Franklin MA, 02038

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dave Dittman
5112 Hurst Rd.
Ellicott City MD, 21043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alison Kinney
814 E. 13th Street
Brooklyn NY, 11230

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brandon Starkey
7034 Breckton Pl
New Albany OH, 43054

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jordan Tishler
28 Seaverns Ave
Boston MA, 02130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Estey
2402 Western Avenue
Newburgh ME, 04444

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy E. Rice
22 Jarvis Drive
Manlius NY, 13104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michelle Filleul
60 Center ST #5
Andover MA, 01810

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gerald Parker
165 Everidge Road
Winston Salem NC, 27103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John B Kube
138 Stratham Hgts Rd
Stratham NH, 03885

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from protections; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Greg Mikkelson
P. O. Box 332
Richford VT, 05476

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

WE NEED YOUR COURAGE, WE NEED YOU CHARACTER, WE NEED YOUR BRAINS AND PATRIOTISM.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. THANK YOU FOR YOUR REPRESENTATION AND HARD WORK THUS FAR!

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you AGAIN for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

janice golden 326 spring street
rockland MA, 02370

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diana Philip
25 Temple St.
Newburyport MA, 01950

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennie Blodgett
125 Walnut St. #2
Somerville MA, 02145

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tod Harter
13 Edward Dr
Shelburne VT, 05482

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

This would a the BIGGEST MISTAKE in recent communications history!

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Jablon
73A Fairview Street E
Greenfield MA, 01301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Siens
51 Libby Hill Rd
Unity ME, 04988

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Nunes
127 Garden Street
Milton MA, 02186

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charlotte Palumbo
18 Graham St
Wareham MA, 02571

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronnie Friedland
25 Boston Post Road
Sudbury MA, 01776

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen La Serra
52 High St.
Stoneham MA, 02180

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Russell
1079 Cookeville Road
Corinrth VT, 05039

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I hope that we won't remember these past years as the golden age of net neutrality that is long since gone. With Comcast about to take over NBC, little will remain of independent media if net neutrality is lost for the benefit of giant corporations, Verizon, Google, ATT, etc.

Please be on the "right side of history" and try to prevent this outrage.

Sincerely,

Robert Cowen
16422 75th Avenue
Fresh Meadows NY, 11366

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Roemer
6 Birchtree Circle
Franklin MA, 02038

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maureen Fox
15 Jewel Ave.
Attleboro MA, 02703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Fellows
62 Glen Eagle Dr
Bristol CT, 06010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Garrison
94 William St.
Stoneham MA, 02180

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Geyer
PO Box 80
Fryeburg ME, 04037

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paula Somma
2 gertrude rd
N Attleboro MA, 02760

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gail Fleischaker
62 West Pelham Road
Shutesbury MA, 01072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Anderson
705 Trenton Ave.
Cincinnati OH, 45205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

These are difficult times for the Internet and a lot depends on your vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

I appreciate the pressure you are under being the deciding vote. Please say no to this attempt by the big telecoms to take control of one of the powerful tools for communications.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dale Wiehoff
3901 Harriet Ave
Minneapolis MN, 55409

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan LaCob
100 Moss Pointe Dr
McDonough GA, 30253

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Mccarthy
1100 Beech Grove Road
Brentwood TN, 37027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Boardman
2729 Church Hill Road
Woodstock, Vermont VT, 05091

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Sikes
4 Sadec Lane
Carriere MS, 39426

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erica Oleszczuk
7111 Woodmont Ave. # 108
Bethesda MD, 20815

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely

Thaddeus J. Machowski

Sincerely,

Thaddeus Machowski
400 Victoria Gardens Drive
Kennett Square PA, 19348

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carrette Perkins
16 Beaver Street, 3rd Floor
New York NY, 10004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alison Masterpasqua
211 Park Ave
Swarthmore PA, 19081

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry Nance
61 Mill Creek Drive
Charlottesville VA, 22902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dr. Elizabeth A. Gilbert
15 Catharine Street
Springifield MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat Gordin
11462 Pembrook Run
Estero FL, 33928

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helen Colby
8615 SW 126 Terrace
Miami FL, 33156

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Ledford
2039 Post Street
Jacksonville FL, 32204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kim Goforth
16 Baxter St
Asheville NC, 28801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carrie Armstrong Reid
153 Riviera Terrace
Waterford MI, 48328

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Dodson
7 School Lane
Chester CT, 06412

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keith W. Boone
17 Norroway Ave
Randolph MA, 02368

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolin Daly
11 Wachusett St, #3
Jamaica Plain MA, 02130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

fran renaud
74 school st
westminster VT, 05158

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lee Kefauver
34 Rowe St.
Auburndale MA, 02466

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ralph Lombreglia
80 Winslow Avenue
Somerville MA, 02144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Pankewicz
9 Pulpit Rock Rd.
Raymond ME, 04071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Annette Lorraine
PO Box 1466
Montpelier VT, 05601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marie Metoyer
340 Medford St
Manchester NH, 03109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda E. Guttman
21 Locke Street
Winchester MA, 01890

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jon Stewart
6A S. Main St.
Ipswich MA, 01938

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Belisle
17 Mountain View St.
South Hadley MA, 01075

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Rooney
144 Power Street
Providence RI, 02906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eileen Geoghegan
36 Kendall Ave
Sherborn MA, 01770

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Dunn
1 Palm Blvd
Warwick RI, 02888

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I have been affected by both the consumer and industry sides of the FCC's mandate for over 40 years, but have never found it necessary to petition the FCC before.

Please vote against Chairman Genachowski's net neutrality plan. It is not what he expressed as his goal in the past, and it is not net neutrality.

Thanks.
Gary Helmstetter
Harvard, MA

Sincerely,

Gary Helmstetter
48 Blanchard Road
Harvard MA, 01451

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Bonsaint
16 Middle St
Brunswick ME, 04011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William G. Nicholson
44 Fairwinds Drive
Osterville MA, 02655

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

What do you think of FCC Chairman Julius Genachowski's latest plans for the Internet? Are you satisfied with regard to preservation of net neutrality?

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Unlkess you are fully satisfied, vote no on what many are xalling Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Because no acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization or exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aaron Agassi
52 Summer St
Somerville MA, 02143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edmund Jabson
600 Angell St.
Providence RI, 02906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

timothy price
239 indian acres road
Fairlee VT, 05045

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marcia Liotard
3609 Ireland Road
Starksboro VT, 05487

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Rowen
134 West 93 Street
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James N Brooks
302 Lakeside Drive
Aiken SC, 29803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bobby Ann Packwood
224 Old County Rd
Sedgwick ME, 04676

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

vince hults
2811 Wild Horse Rd
orlando FL, 32822

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Raul B
2012 Countryside Circle South
Orlando FL, 32804

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michelle Lightcap
6035 Large Street
Philadelphia PA, 19149

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jacqueline Springwater
PO Box 255,81 Koch Rd
Norwich VT, 05055

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,
I urge you to stand up to chairman Genachowski's cynical ploy and cast your vote against this pseudo net neutrality and for all users of the internet. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marjorie Siegel
59 Linden Street
Brookline MA, 02445

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Campbell
255 Egypt Road
Presque Isle ME, 04769

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mary fitzer
485 1st ave
new york NY, 10016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

patricia gump
5 North Washington Street
Masontown PA, 15461

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mira Scott
583 hancock st. apt. 2
Quincy MA, 02170

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet!

Be a hero for the American Interney users!

Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization.

No acceptable proposal cane xempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline.

No acceptable proposal can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time.

Vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Andes
300 Estate Drive
Mount Juliet TN, 37122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

At the FCC, you have been the biggest champion for REAL net neutrality. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan. We need you to be our hero, once again.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you so much for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Again, we ask you to please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Mo
1551 Chenoweth Circle
Bowling Green KY, 42104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

leslie kefauver
4831 Park Avenue
bethesda MD, 20816

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Bell
8122 Trail Lake Dr
Powell OH, 43065

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Scriven
363 School Street
Whitman MA, 02382

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Alice Madden
One Boston Place
Boston MA, 02108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

MarBeth Dunn
5401 Collins Ave Apt 1407
Miami Beach FL, 33140

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bryan sharland
220 church st apt 149
raynham MA, 02767

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Lawson
10240 Valle Dr
Tampa FL, 33612

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

SAve true net neutrality - our economy depends upon it!!!

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lillah Schwartz
16 Finalee Ave
Asheville NC, 28803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Sharfman
50 Riverside Drive
New York NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Vincek
49 Warren St
Clifton NJ, 07013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Baker
202 Jones St.
Martin TN, 38237

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Big corporations now control almost completely the dissemination of news and opinion vital to the working of our democracy. If the Internet is allowed to be controlled by big corporations, there will be no hope for continued functioning of our democracy. Net Neutrality is essential to our maintaining democracy!

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alvin Gann
1312 S Crest Rd
Rossville GA, 30741

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Elgin
2109 Baycourt Trl
Hillsborough NC, 27278

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Please don't allow the boundless transformative potential of the Internet be sold out to the special interests of faceless corporations. Net neutrality is NOT something we should ever compromise on. We cannot let this fake net neutrality go on. It sends the completely wrong message to anyone who might not really understand how deep the implications of this proposal really run. PLEASE HELP.

Sincerely,

Bruno Torquato
3854 Lyons Rd Apt 306
Coconut Creek FL, 33073

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gerald crean
79 Kiowa dr
ft myers beach FL, 33931

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dave Swank
3347 Bethel Church Road
Pittsburgh PA, 15241

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Harwin
260 Elizabeth St, Apt 4
New York NY, 10012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Burton Whalen
99 Scott Road
Montrose PA, 18801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Hammond
52 Riley Road #312
Celebration FL, 34747

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Homsy
6741 Quartz Way
ARVADA CO, 80007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lisa dolph
1342 stratford dr
piqua OH, 45356

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kyle Andrei
3645 Tansel Road
Indianapolis IN, 46234

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

S M Storm
PO Box 1318
Hayesville NC, 28904

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

O. Lamoree
1708 S.W. 4th Street
Fort Lauderdale FL, 33312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dawn Griffis
45 Larch lane
WRJ VT, 05001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anthony Marici
290 naples cove dr unit 2301
Naples FL, 34110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronald Norman
245 SW 9th Street Apt 1
Miami FL, 33130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ben Schwendener
24 Hampstead Road
Jamaica Plain MA, 02130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rayleen G Nunez
725 Tremont St. #413
Boston MA, 02118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Jewett
186 Huron Ave.
Cambridge MA, 02138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Labriola
150 Neal St
Portland ME, 04102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Hebb
767 Barker Rd
Post Mills VT, 05058

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lee Purcell
146 Buck Hill Rd
Arlington VT, 05250

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kim Pederson
29 Front St #2
Marblehead MA, 01945

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

leo Somma
2 gertrude rd
N Attleboro MA, 02760

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Angel Winges
840 Calhoun Ave. #B
Pensacola FL, 32507

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for scoreline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Pizzonia
4 Red Rock Road
Branford CT, 06405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martin Lappin
27 New Ocean Street
Lynn MA, 01902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Perry Chapman
101 Stults Road
Belmont MA, 02478

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

charles gans
240 east 35th Street
ny NY, 10016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Wilkins
441 Lynn Street
Oviedo FL, 32765

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

DEBORAH JOHNSON
9 CHESTNUT LANE
BROCKTON MA, 02301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Thoma
326 Spirea Dr.
Dayton OH, 45419

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gene Hillgass
12 Oriole Lane
Reading PA, 19606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandra Turner
221 Cooper Dr.
Santee SC, 29142

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Edelstein
308 Heidinger Drive
Cary NC, 27511

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I am utterly alarmed at the direction the FCC Chairman is heading in, and sincerely petition you to stand up for real net neutrality.
No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for net neutrality than you - your vote will be the deciding one and I hope you will vote no on this plan which will only hinder real freedoms, which out country was founded on.
There is already enough corporate control of our airwaves and news - please stand strong and be a champion for freedom of access and expression on the internet.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for listening to the voices of the people.

Sincerely,

Shannon Rooney
22 Maple St.
Casco ME, 04015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rob Rocke
98-A Linden Street
New Haven CT, 06511

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debra Cash
79 Marlboro St
Belmont MA, 02478

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Harned
16 Bates Street Apt 2
Northampton MA, 01060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Perry
51 Valleywood Road
Cos Cob CT, 06807

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tonopah Greenlee
98 Franklin St Apt1
Quincy MA, 02169

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Perry L. Adler
51 Slade St
Belmont MA, 02478

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

phil wells
114 belmont st
somerville MA, 02143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christie Fisher
190 Wooster
New Haven CT, 06511

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

geary kaczorowski
p.o. box 52
cataumet MA, 02534

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

At the FCC, you have been the greatest champion for real net neutrality. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.

Please do not back down now.

Sincerely,

Emilie Marlier
123 Rugh Lane
Morgantown WV, 26508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Scourfield-Murphy
5509 E. 79th Street
Indianapolis IN, 46250

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Camp
215 Evans Street
Morganton NC, 28655

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Kitchen
241 Perkins St. #E202
Jamaica Plain MA, 02130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

I am a sole proprietor artisan, building stringed musical instruments to custom order. My art and business depend vitally on easy access to my website by all users. Once the idea of "tiered" access is allowed, it is just a matter of time until small users such as myself are squeezed out to the point where our business model is unsustainable.

We have only you and people like you to fight for us.

Sincerely,

Dwain Wilder
289 Rich's Dugway
Rochester NY, 14625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David L. Webb
2 Butternut Lane
Hanover NH, 03755

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Rumson
10 Cammock Road
Scarborough ME, 04074

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

marion glick
229 stony creek rd
branford CT, 06405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ted & Grace Curtin
9 Little Pond Rd.
Plymouth MA, 02360

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eszter Samodai
60 Jones Street
Ansonia CT, 06231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

larry bye
28 school st
branford CT, 06405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Smedley
12 Abbott Street
Lewiston ME, 04240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Tauber
244 Foxon Rd
North Branford CT, 06471

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deborah Barolsky
159 Scituate St.
Arlington MA, 02476

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joshua Wenglin
907 Gay St
Westwood MA, 02090

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ray Odiorne
136 Woodside Ave
Waterbury CT, 06708

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lorele featherstone
10 Primrose Way Unit 3306
Haverhill MA, 01830

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathy Dunn
196 Shutesbury Rd
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randall Balmer
91 Minortown Road
Woodbury CT, 06798

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chad Eagleton
133 Maddox Lane
Bedford IN, 47421

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brenda Davis
31 Plains Rd
Honeoye Falls NY, 14472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Cumberledge
121 Colonel Thomas Heyward Rd
Bluffton SC, 29909

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vicky Rymshaw
330 Oakridge Drive
Mountville PA, 17554

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Russell
135 Ocean Ave #6H
Brooklyn NY, 11225

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Hamlin
194 Pyramid School Rd.
David KY, 41616

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Cohen
18 Woodcliff Ave
Woodcliff Lake NJ, 07677

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick McLendon
3827 Larchview Dr
Cincinnati OH, 45236

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael
484 W.43rd. St. 14-G
NYC NY, 10036

Jaye

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Howard Cheetham
4 Monxton Court
Chapel Hill NC, 27517

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas B. Ragle
640 Melendy Hill Road
Guilford VT, 05301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amber Crouse
2105 Jefferson Ave
Knoxville TN, 37917

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marc Garber
417 W. 145th St.
New York NY, 10031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Green
42 West main Rd. #2F
Middletown RI, 02842

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katherine Dallas Hammond
2939 Lanergan Drive
Troy MI, 48084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tracy Thomas
1 Yates Street
Troy NY, 12180

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

chip thomas
1219 E. Henry Ave
tampa FL, 33604

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gwynne Lewis
145 Haggett Rd
Montpelier VT, 05602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Luke Taylor
207 Cecil Miller Rd
Boone NC, 28607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Benefiel
68 Bailey St.
Dorchester MA, 02124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Orman
13609 C.R. 109A
Lady Lake FL, 32159

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Bessette
3466 Dorr Road
Brighton MI, 48116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please don't allow the FCC to sell us out!

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Bennett
171 Beacon Ave
Jamestown RI, 02835

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Lacombe
35 Pleasant St
Dorchester MA, 02125

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Fields
122 Woodbury St.
So. Hamilton MA, 01982

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Serin Hale
9 Hughes St, Apt 2
Quincy MA, 02169

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carl Ricciardelli
4261 Pleasant Hill Road
Kissimmee FL, 34746

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Moreland
3508 Winding Dr
Lexington KY, 40517

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ben Barnes
209 Gypsy Lane
Youngstown OH, 44504

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gloria Bonali
109 Timberline Drive
Conway SC, 29526

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Frierson
14 Mt. Pleasant St #2
Somerville MA, 02145

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

daniel petruzzi
84 wooster st #503
new york NY, 10012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Angela Kallman
34 West 65th Street
New York NY, 10023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeremy Shannon
969 Lincoln Pl Apt 1
Brooklyn NY, 11213

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

karah stokes
706 Hambrick Ave.
Lexington KY, 40508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Ross
211 Sparrow Hawk Rd
Waltham VT, 05491

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Berglund
95 Fiske St
Waltham MA, 02451

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shelli Dimarco
5984 Edmondson Pike
Nashville TN, 37211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Schlosnagle
94A Cedar St
Somerville MA, 02143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ark Lemal
1188 Three Mile Bridge Rd.
Middlebury VT, 05753

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Seth Hamlin
46 Burnside Ave
Somerville MA, 02144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrea Dierna
165 Powder House Blvd #2
Somerville MA, 02144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Net neutrality does not permit paid prioritization; nor exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Thank you for considering my request, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Icek Aizen
24 Forestedge Road
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Fredricks
344 Depot Rd.
Williamsville VT, 05362

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

As an internet professional, a web developer, I am quite concerned about keeping a level and fair internet, not tilted to the advantage of giant corporations.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Lehet
17 Center of Town Road
Hartland VT, 05048

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Will Blake
12 School St
Bath ME, 04530

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joel Trupin
143 School St.
Marshfield VT, 05658

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Annmarie O'Toole
41 Arborway Drive
Braintree MA, 02184

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Caroline Herr
1028 Buchanan Avenue
Lancaster PA, 17603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Russ Maurer
6251 South Lima Road
South Lima NY, 14558

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Morgan
50 E 21st St Apt 2A
Brooklyn NY, 11226

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

As a teacher I use the VARIED sources of the internet with my students all the time. I want guaranteed free-roaming over the internet.

Sincerely,

Duane Whittier
103 Perkins Road
Madbury NH, 03823

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tricia DeFelice
2 Horatio St Apt 1H
New York NY, 10014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Crystal Sloan
114 Ledgerwood Lane
Rockwood TN, 37854

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Arthur Lane
202 North Ole Hickory Trail
Carrollton GA, 30117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bonnie dean
281 salt pond rd
blue hill ME, 04614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jay Bellanca
197 Riley Hill Rd.
Salem NY, 12865

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21. We need your support! Be the voice of those of us who so often feel unrepresented by our government.

Sincerely,

Stan Lanier
P. O. Box 637
Waycross GA, 31502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Stockstill
4420 Broadway Apt 2E
New York NY, 10040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Frazier
8 Arrowhead Dr
Hadley MA, 01035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Len Ziefert
145 Silk Farm Road
Concord NH, 03301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM LAUGHLIN
25 School Street
Wellfleet MA, 02667

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Kahler
PO Box 98
Lakeville CT, 06039

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jono chapin
261 Belden Falls Rd.
New VT, 05472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Epstein
111 Oak St.
Holliston MA, 01746

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joey Mornin
189 Cedar St.
Somerville MA, 02145

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john sweet
4 Timber Frame Way
Mount Desert ME, 04660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bobbi Bailin
PO Box 704
West Falmouth MA, 02574

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan Tyniec
100 Gelderman Road
Hawley PA, 18428

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Spund
15115 Interlachen Dr Apt 203
Silver Spring MD, 20906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lliz fein
225 adams st. #4c
brooklyn NY, 11201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

troy grant
east atlantic blvd
pompano beach FL, 33060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Fialko
1420 H Cedarwood Dr
Westlake OH, 44145

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathy Bentley
9502 Ridgely Ave
Baltimore MD, 21234

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Miller
8460 Springlake Ct
Cincinnati OH, 45247

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jacob Popovich
5823 Castleknock Rd
Dublin OH, 43016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please sir, keep the entire internet neutral. Everyone that knows this issue, know yous you have been a huge champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Again I ask you, be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's or anyone's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Tillotson
11027 Foxhaven Drive
Charlotte NC, 28277

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Heather O'Malley
1746 Bridgewater Drive
Ypsilanti MI, 48198

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william walls
po box 21
jamestown NC, 27282

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Stanley
2555 Joe Ashton Rd
St Augustine FL, 32092

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I am writing to you about a matter that is extremely important to me as a user of the Internet, and I am counting on you for help.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

Charles Walker
6387 New Market Way
Raleigh NC, 27615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gregory Sullivan
1400 Frank Drive
Monroe MI, 48162

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Einar Gunnar Einarsson
30 Woodlawn Avenue
Clifton NJ, 07013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roberta Fox
34 Renee Ter
Newton Centre MA, 02459

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sarah-marie balcastro
278 Bay Road
Hadley MA, 01035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Christensen
17 Sefton Dr.
Cranston RI, 02905

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Griswold
4 Gloria Drive
Lakeville MA, 02347

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terri Natale
4 Meadow Drive
West Warwick RI, 02893

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Lloyd
430 Gulf Road
Middletown Springs VT, 05757

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ernest Buford
176 Lily Pond Circle
Richmond, VT, 05477

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

According to Credo Action, no one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote may well be the deciding one.

Please vote "No" on Chairman Genachowski's hypocritical and fake net neutrality plan.

I agree completely with CA, that no acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections. I am proud to be part of it.

Moreover, American's regardless of their politics need to put a stop to the hypocrisy of false and pejorative labels to obfuscate issues such as Chairman Genachowski's falsely named proposal.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harlan Lachman
165 Goodsell Point
Colchester VT, 05446

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rhetta Sapp
1106 Fernbank Dr
Madison TN, 37115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Pennington
669 Colonial Way
Greenwood, IN, 46142

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ed Emanus
5328 brantford
Memphis TN, 38120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Kirkey
10 Warren Street
Danvers MA, 01923

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Seibert
806 S Broadleigh Rd
Columbus OH, 43209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Babcock
395 Mac Miller Rd
Morrisville VT, 05661

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

149 Marine avenue #2HJ
Brooklyn, NY 11209
Brooklyn NY, 11209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Glasser
617 Middlesex Tpke.
Billerica MA, 01821

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kathleen pritchett
679 S. Broadway
englewood FL, 34223

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Schwarz
331 Graciela Circle
St. Augustine FL, 32086

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Stevens
504 Wayne St
Middlebury IN, 46540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

I depend on my computer personal and political communications and national news. An open internet is imperative to me.

Sincerely,

George Sowards
11608 Yalding Drive
Jacksonville FL, 32223

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Gamson
1520 Glen Oaks Dr. E.
Sarasota FL, 34232

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Sellers
601 Ann Street
Frankfort IN, 46041

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Silvers
404 Manor Ridge Drive
Carrboro NC, 27510

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

You have been a champion for effective net neutrality. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's version of "net neutrality". Your vote will be the deciding one.

The Chairman's perception of what constitutes net neutrality seems to appease business interests, but does not address the real needs of the millions of everyday users of the net. The net is now a major basic utility and needs to be available to all.

Sincerely,

Michael Stein
263 Parker Rd
Chapel Hill NC, 27517

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Noah Liebman
32341 Olde Franklin Drive
Farmington Hills MI, 48334

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Ridgley
12016 Gates Road
Cement City MI, 49233

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

andy middleton
549 highland ave
montclair NJ, 07043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,
I appreciate your stand for net neutrality! When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Equal access to the internet is a key component to remaking the United States competitivity in the world.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Fox
9229 Willow Rd
Willis MI, 48191

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sylvia Russell
8 Croghan Ln
Durham NH, 03824

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Dolan
165 N. Georgetown Square
Royal Oak MI, 48067

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sherry Clark
124 Galleon Drive
Newark DE, 19702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Lochow
56 Beacon Street
Beacon NY, 12508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harriet Stucke
8149 Terry Street
Philadelphia PA, 19136

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Cain
2807 Sterling Dr
Tallahassee FL, 32312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Furst
222 Goff Station Rd.
Boyers PA, 16020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kimberly Richardson
2035 Waymont Rd
Columbus OH, 43229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Durant
11 Surrey Dr
North Haven CT, 06473

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

norman weinberg 216 w 89 st
ny NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Gottschalk
62 Village Walk
Wilton CT, 06897

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Hart
85 Winthrop Rd
Columbus OH, 43214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

chuck silva
2427 benjamin ave
royal oak MI, 48073

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lathel Duffield
2808 West George Mason Rd
f VA, 22042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gayle Jenkins
3448 Cobble Street
Nashville TN, 37211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Pierce
4636 Joe Lewis Rd.
Knoxville TN, 37920

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

levon vincent
3517 longview ave
bloomington IN, 47408

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jenn Brandel
161 Mount Hope Street
Roslindale MA, 02131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Howard R Schwartz
Bowline Drive
Forked River NJ, 08731

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Coon
11994 Pleasant Lake Rd
Manchester MI, 48158

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Guy Gerhard
20 West Oak Street
Council Bluffs IA, 51503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nevette Michael
75 W. Silver Lake Rd., South
Traverse City MI, 49684

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gina Aranki
10002 E Bingham Road
Traverse City MI, 49684

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Dicker
240 E 82ND St Apt 9E
New York NY, 10028

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Nooden
2148 E Delhi Rd
Ann Arbor MI, 48103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erik Johnson
585 Hwy 965 S Apt. 1
North Liberty IA, 52317

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Crum
103 Crums Lane
Lemont Furnace PA, 15456

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Gegunde
2717 W Cordelia St
Tampa FL, 33607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kenny patterson
po box 198
buford GA, 30515

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Moody
112 Witcher Rd
Carlton GA, 30627

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Haines
6 Tanner Rd.
Keene NH, 03431

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Howard Magaliff
138 Shadwo Lake Road
Ridgefield, CT, 06877

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Solaperto
670 West Boylston Street
Worcester MA, 01606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Juliana Kunz
69 Chestnut St.
Cambridge MA, 02139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jillian Mellen
20 River Ct Apt 2003
Jersey City NJ, 07310

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Zollo
830 Elm St
New Haven CT, 06511

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Victor Rakovich
163 Tappan St Fl 2
Kearny NJ, 07032

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

victoria smith
PO Box 1227
Grantham NH, 03753

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebecca McBee
20411 Delaware Ave
Redford MI, 48240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jessica Ferren
220 Nh Route 4A
Wilmot NH, 03287

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

teresa juni
110 mohawk rd
oak ridge TN, 37830

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mike brod
9579 Benchmark Ln
cincinnati OH, 45242

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn Elliott
2429 Plum Creek Road
Taylorsville KY, 40071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

margaret riswadkar
137 tolers road
williamsburg VA, 23185

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shawn Sheatler
3719 Gough St
baltimore MD, 21224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Damian McDonnell
5 Harriet Dr.
Bridgewater MA, 02324

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Penny Mondani
2612 Barbara Drive
Fort Lauderdale FL, 33316

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rachel Folsom
132 High Street
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Smith
1310 Delmont Avenue
Havertown PA, 19083

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael H Miller Jr
2200 Ben Franklin, Apt S 410
Phila PA, 19130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please preserve real Net Neutrality.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

stephen sullivan
2510 Lincoln Ave.
Kansasville WI, 53139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matt Murphy
198 Main St Ste 3
Penobscot ME, 4476

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lorraine null Fontana
410 Candler Park Drive NE
Atlanta GA, 30307

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sean farrell
2700 N. Tamiami Tr.
sarasota FL, 34234

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mariellen harland
182 dolphin cove
stamford CT, 06902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Cook
121 Waldoboro Road
Jefferson ME, 04348

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jessica Shurlow
106 Bourne Street
Jamaica Plain MA, 02130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken McKay
198 Davis St.
Springfield MA, 01104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Faulkner
16 Parsons Court
Mahwah NJ, 07430

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

This message was composed by CredoAction, and I support it.

Sincerely,

Duncan Cox
27 High Street
Marblehead MA, 01945

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Please VOTE NO on Chairman Genachowski's fake plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and VOTE NO on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Grandoe
2505 S 44th ST.
MILWAUKEE WI, 53219

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carl Olsen
25 Sylvia St
Fairhaven MA, 02719

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Corey Robinson
714 Park Circle
Sun Prairie WI, 53590

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anthony Palmer
3B Autumn Drive
Hudson MA, 01749

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Koda
409 Main Street
Ridgefield CT, 06877

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Broderick
84 Bunker Hill Ave.
Stratham NH, 03885

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barton Bremer
50 Grampian Way
Dorchester MA, 02125

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Catherine McMahon
P.O. Box 1783
Wolfeboroe NH, 03894

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane Vieira
75 Atlantic St
New Bedford MA, 02740

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ray Pidgeon
25 crystal brook
springfield MA, 01118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jacqueline Strzesak
5 Holly St.
Salem MA, 01970

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Leopold
227 Three Islands Rd
Colchester VT, 05446

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan Warren
57 Ragged Mtn Road
Camden ME, 04843

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michael baker
1 Atlantic St.#3
lynn MA, 01902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marie Wilkinson
65 Oaklawn Rd
Fair Haven NJ, 07704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robin Hoyt
1384 Commonwealth Ave Apt 4
Allston MA, 02134

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rich Haddad
33L Garden Terrace
North Arlington NJ, 07031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynna Dhanani
539 Prospect St Apt 4
New Haven CT, 06511

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne C Martin
9 Applegarth St
Newton Centre MA, 02459

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sydney Parlow
16 Harcourt Street Apt 5 G
Boston MA, 02116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Glenn Lyons
206 West End Ave
Hopatcong NJ, 07843

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynette and Robert Carsten
72 Spencer Hollow Road
Springfield VT, 05156

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Todd Millette
720 River Road
Deerfield MA, 01342

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lucas Morgan
700 Harrison Ave.
Boston MA, 02118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

MARK VANNOTE
P.O. BOX 450
WALPOLE NH, 03608

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michele Hood
2604 Napoleon Bonaparte dr
tallahassee FL, 32308

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Theodore Bahn
428 Childers St
Pensacola FL, 32534

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Noah Paessel
84 Plymouth St.
Carver MA, 02330

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jay Skriletz
40 Bayside Place
Perry ME, 04667

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Boasberg
48 Laws Brook Rd.
Concord MA, 01742

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Henry
21 Jason Way
West Bridgewater MA, 02379

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melissa Warren
289 Fulton St
Medford MA, 02155

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Ryan
620 Ocean Park Ave
Bradley Beach NJ, 07720

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Bartlett
131 Clifford St.
Hamden CT, 06517

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maryanne Preli
9 West Street
Windsor Locks CT, 06096

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

M Sloan-Howitt
4 Glenn Road
Belmont MA, 02478

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barry Draper
423 Blake Hill Rd.
New Hampton NH, 03256

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Juan Hernandez
622 Rosewood Ave.
Roselle NJ, 07203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sylvain Korzennik
165 Fayerweather St
Cambridge MA, 02138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Lamb
18 Ashmont Street
Dorchester MA, 02124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane R. Orenstein
34 Stevens Rd.
Needham MA, 02492

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Rapp
96 Linn Drive
Verona NJ, 07044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christine Soccio
157 First Ave
Little Falls NJ, 07424

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Attessa Bagherpour
56 Maple Place
Dedham MA, 02026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Goldblatt
68 Mace Hill Rd.
Hartland VT, 05048

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

carol jagiello
91 wood pl
bloomingdale NJ, 07403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynne Weintraub
8 Fairfield St.
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Sandritter
3B Ashwood Mall
Old Bridge NJ, 08857

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Just as the Freedom of Religion DEPENDS on the separation of Church and State, so does the FREEDOM of thought DEPEND on the FREEDOM of communication offered only by real net neutrality. Like a common carrier status for those who own the wires.
Just because they own the wires does not mean they own the Internet. WE own the internet.

Sincerely,

Amy Rothstein
100 Hardy Pond Road
Waltham MA, 02451

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Miguel Couturier
Palenque 559
Mexico D.F. NM, 03650

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jean taraskiewicz
23124 Hollander
Dearborn MI, 48128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Szulya
15 Margo Trail SE
Rome KY, 40161

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Copps! Copps! Copps! Copps! Copps! Copps! Copps!

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Lee
306 Hampton Ave SE
Grand Rapids MI, 49506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolyn O'Hara
89 Hiddenbrooke Drive
Beacon NY, 12508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melissa Rapp
447 Woodside Meadows Place
Gahanna OH, 43230

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

When President Obama was elected, we all hoped for real change. Letting Big Business dictate the way things will work in our country is (unfortunately!) status quo.

Please be part of the change we all hoped for when we voted for President Obama, and put Big Business in its place -- BEHIND the interests of ordinary people!

Thank you.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Victoria Neff
409 Arbana
Ann Arbor MI, 48103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Roche
3415 State Road 16 West
Green Cove Springs FL, 32043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kim Meldahl
1509 N 21st Street
Superior WI, 54880

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sue and John Morris
1392 Vermont Route 232
Marshfield VT, 05658

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stuart Russell
82 Auburn ST
Concord NH, 03301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

timothy strong 7 woodbrook
e aurora NY, 14052

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Miles Sherts
Winchester Rd
G. Bend VT, 05842

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Young
4044 Chetham Way
Woodbridge VA, 22192

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

A. Lamberti
117 Baker, 0502
Cedar Falls, IA, 50614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Herbert Heinicke
1302 W. Boston Ave.
Indianola IA, 50125

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maureen Westrick
po box 63
Intervale NH, 03845

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tania Eldin
1004 Linden Street
Decorah IA, 52101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Buckingham
38 Lower Cassidy Rd
Putney VT, 05346

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Belser
34 River Road
Penacook NH, 03303

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Wallis
354 Cabot Street, Unit 4
Beverly MA, 01915

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Gulbis
335 Beacon St. Apt #5
Boston MA, 02116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Harley
665 Boulger Road
Stamford VT, 05352

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael C Travali
1507 Grand Avenue
Asbury Park NJ, 07712

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leticia Rivera-Torres
75 Prince Street
Boston MA, 02113

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicolette Pawlowski
921 S. Brooks. St. Apt. 3
Madison WI, 53715

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Jacke
48 Bullard Road
Jaffrey NH, 03452

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Louis J. Esposito
521 Meetinghouse Circle
Orange CT, 06477

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Derek Emanuel
126 Chandler Street
Boston MA, 02116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donna Grant
128 Melrose Rd.
Melrose CT, 06016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gretchen Ward Reinhardt
105 Barlow Ave.
Cherry Hill NJ, 08002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Nave
9 Turkey Lane
Winthrop ME, 04364

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Suzanne McIntosh
722 Bishop Drive
Lexington KY, 40505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please do not cave into the giant telecom near-monopolies. The internet is at the core of society now. Let's make it better, faster, more affordable, more accessible --- like they do in other countries. Let's not make it just a black hole we pour our money into for enrichment of a few large companies.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Berthold Horn
176 Little Chatham Road
Chatham NH, 03813

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

wesley yaeger
3509 wennington trace
alpharetta GA, 30004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

joseph strach
1054 cricklewood
grand rapids MI, 49509

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

S D
1111 W. Lafayette
Detroit MI, 48226

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elaine Cory
120 Fayerweather St #2
Cambridge MA, 02138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Jamieson
15 Evergreen Road
Auburn ME, 04210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

roland kennedy
615 river road
oakfield ME, 04763

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Eliscu
86 packers falls rd.
Durham NH, 03824

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doris Luther 861 River Road
Hollis ME, 04042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debra Ricci
13 Thornfield Circle
Sewell NJ, 08080

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

theresa swanick
158 Province Lake Road
Effingham NH, 03882

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Camille Martinez
117 Plantation
Duxbury MA, 02332

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

This is about freedom of speech. Corporate domination is NOT acceptable. Be a patriot.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wayne Paquette
16 laurel hill road
brooklyn CT, 06234

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Allain
63 Federal Rd
Barrington RI, 02806

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Markowski
23 Brearly Crescent
Flanders NJ, 07836

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wesley Meeker
25 Carrington Ave.
Milford CT, 06460

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lucy Calkins
18 Pelham Lane
Ridgefield CT, 06877

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael D
240 Prospect Ave. Apt 348
Hackensack NJ, 07601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Megan Ahern
216 N. State St. #3
Ann Arbor CT, 06810

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bob young 61 fleetwood drive
hazlet NJ, 07730

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's "net neutrality" plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Colin Dieck
9 Woodward Ave.
Gloucester, MA, 01930

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leslie cerier
58 Schoollhouse Rd
amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Brown
410 Angels Way
Mars Hill NC, 28754

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Keep America the land of the Free, for all Americans.

Sincerely,

Jens J Jorgensen
333 E 34th St. Apt 9-o
New York NY, 10016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jedde V. Reganta
1612 United Street
Key West FL, 33040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jenny moser
626 Sasser st.
raleigh NC, 27604

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Colman
4612 Baltimore Ave #1F
Philadelphia PA, 19143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Liesa Cordi
563 Olde Mill Drive
Westerv ille OH, 43082

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

J Levan
2502 Penn Avenue
West Lawn PA, 19609

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Wisdom
4 Rock St.
Middleboro MA, 02346

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Gallagher
182 5TH Ave Apt 4F
Brooklyn NY, 11217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Please do the right thing for our country!

Sincerely,

Pam Riggs
526 Cape Coral Pkwy West
Cape Coral FL, 33914

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Char Sokatch
1242 Jessie St.
Saint Paul MN, 55130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Meyers
629 N Sherman Ave
Madison WI, 53704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Laufer
17007 Smugglers Cove
Clinton Township MI, 48038

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Kainulainen
533 W Meisenheimer Road
Scottville MI, 49454

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

wesley yaeger
3509 wennington trace
ALPHARETTA GA, 30004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marion Olson
33 Donica Rd
York ME, 03909

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Finn
2215 Dublin Rd.
Richmond MA, 01254

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sophia Maniaci
81 Sacramento Street
Somerville MA, 02143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Gates
Pine Street
Sandwich MA, 02563

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Colter
6 Bay Road, Unit 18
Newmarket NH, 03857

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chuck Slotkin
382 Springfield Ave Ste 208
Summit NJ, 07901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Meachem
99 Bond Lane
Dorset VT, 05251

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Jay
898 Helen Street
Teaneck NJ, 07666

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Corso
72 Rankin Avenue
Providence RI, 02908

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lois Martin
175 Adams St Apt 34
Newton MA, 02458

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Summers
185 Maple St
Burlington VT, 05401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

halcyon blake
12 School St
Bath ME, 04530

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christine Casner
124 Eastern Avenue
Lynn MA, 01902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Walsh
72 Inverness Street
Portland ME, 04103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roxanne Friedenfels
36D Loantaka Way
Madison NJ, 07940

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jesse Beaham
139 Sherman Street
Cambridge MA, 02140

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Spencer
18 Hall Rd #3
Londonderry NH, 03053

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Burnison
40454 Newport Dr
Plymouth MI, 48170

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Fayers
2627 Interlachen Drive
Stillwater MN, 55082

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janice Rael
4 Roosevelt Blvd
Clayton NJ, 08312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Nevin
28 Wheeler Rd
Litchfield CT, 06759

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brendan Surpless
638 Middle Road
Acushnet MA, 02743

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tony Taylor
17 New Portland Rd
Gorham ME, 04038

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pamela Scoville
1554 Greenwood Lake Tpke
Hewitt NJ, 07421

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Equal access has been a hallmark of the internet and reflects on some of America's highest ideals. I urge you to vote against the proposal currently being put forth.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laurie Lasky
18 Greenough Circle
Brookline MA, 02445

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vincent Frazzetta
21 Beaver Dam Rd.
Bristol ME, 04539

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Gallagher
107 Posner Cir
Ludlow MA, 01056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christina Knapp
15 Southbourne Rd
Jamaica Plain MA, 02130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

We need to end corporate control of our democracy.

Sincerely,

Larry Braverman
100 Ash St.
Westwood NJ, 07675

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Liford
9082 Dover Rd
Shelbyville KY, 40065

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please stand up and protect the consumers.
Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.
Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edward Sweeney
94 Cedar Rd
Longmeadow MA, 01106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Cutting
873 Washburn Rd
Alexandria NH, 03222

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Field
3 St. Louis St.
Sanford ME, 04073

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sarah whitehead 140F long hwy
little compton RI, 02837

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Richman
99 Greensboro Road
Hanover NH, 03755

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The Internet is the United States' final frontier, where individual inventiveness will bring America back to greatness or crass commercialism will sap the lifeblood of our country.

Just Say No to those who want to line the Internet with billboards, tollbooths and their gain at our loss.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ted Roche
278 Kearsarge Ave
Contoocook NH, 03229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rajan Karunakaran
93 Richards Ave
Norwalk CT, 06854

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ryan Midura
20 Myrick St
Allston MA, 02134

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maria Ambeel
67 8th Street
Piscataway NJ, 08854

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Hoot
5038 N. Diversey Blvd
Whitefish Bay WI, 53217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Olga Semenova
25970 Radclift Pl.
Oak Park MI, 48237

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Hedden
390 Laurel Trail
Crownsville MD, 21032

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Penelope Crawford
1158 Baldwin Ave
Ann Arbor MI, 48104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Raymond Farrington
2103 South Ave.
Syracuse NY, 13207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anthony Pandolfo
609 Florida Avenue, NW
Washington DC, 20001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robbin Lucker
2491 Martin Way
White Bear Lake MN, 55110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

matthew Drew 3321 E. 9th
Des Moines IA, 50316

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

RuthMarie Kinley
3712 Ebert Rd.
Winston-Salem NC, 27127

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne C Lalley
45 King Street
Asheville NC, 28804

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Prostko
PO Box 54
Caledonia MI, 49316

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mary anne muller
2012 haring st
brooklyn NY, 11229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

D A Smith
minneapolis
minneapolis MN, 55415

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

The internet needs net neutrality ... not another service dominated by super-power private companies who can dictate what you can and can't have access to ... enough is enough already. If the right-wing nuts can scream bloody murder about the 2nd Amendment, then what about our 1st Amendment rights?

Sincerely,

Patricia Ridley
4400 E West Highway 411
Bethesda MD, 20814

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Patzke
5252 Norway Dr.
Pulaski WI, 54162

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps, Please vote NO on Genachowski's weak "net neutrality" plan. Thankyou.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andy grimes
612 wichita dr
lexington KY, 40503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Norman Page
2309 Rosemary Curve
Hudson WI, 54016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Haxton
31462 Merriwood Park Drive
Livonia MI, 48152

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hendrik Visser
P.O. Box 120
Thimphu AL, 11111

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Malcolm Krongelb
55 Parker
Acton, MA MA, 01720

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rachael Cole
112 S. Elliott Place #1
Brooklyn NY, 11217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Lane
2211 Lloyd Ave
Knoxville TN, 37920

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wayne Teetz
106 Coventry Circle
Brockton MA, 02301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Cooper
48 Old Driftway
Wilton CT, 06897

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Travers
247 Nepomset Vly Ply, PO Box 76
Boston MA, 02137

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Al Shields
3886 26th St
Dorr MI, 49323

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deanna Stillings
358 East Street
Carlisle MA, 01741

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Carr
84 n. 9th st.
Brooklyn NY, 11211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Cole
1301 Highway 7
Hopkins MN, 55305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ED ALEXANDER
367 BRUCK AVE
PERTH AMBOY NJ, 08861

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Elliott
163 High Ridge
Ridgefield CT, 06877

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bonnie Shapiro
500 Linwood Drive
Fort LEE NJ, 07024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Uwe Koehn
83 Separatist Road
Storrs CT, 06268

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aaron Keller
122 forsyth st 3c
nyc NY, 10002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Doble
PO Box 565
Union ME, 04862

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Fontaine
71 School St
Plainville MA, 02762

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda LaForge
144 Lepage Dr
Southington CT, 06489

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Damian Gonzalez
PO Box 26
Somerville NJ, 08876

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Michaels
84 Wedgewood Terrace
Holyoke MA, 01040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Richardson
115 Brady Ave.
Salem NH, 03079

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon Bulovcsak
127 Hauser Avenue
Yardville NJ, 08620

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,
PLEASE HELP! Once this huge mistake is made there will be no going backward. We are losing our democracy bit by bit to Corporations and I truly fear what will happen when they get control of the Internet. This "deal" is the first step down a very slippery slope.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joanne Hudson
3 Carpenter Close
Ridgefield CT, 06877

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

daniel shalit
225 Mendham Road
morristown NJ, 07960

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Don't cave to big money and support the "people"

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom O Westheimer
18 Antrim Rd
Hancock NH, 03449

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

paige gillies
231 judd road
easton CT, 06612

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Di Rienzo
32 Romney Rd
Bound Brook NJ, 08805

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Let the creators of the Genachowski bill know Americans cannot be bamboozled by another seemingly harmless corporate scheme.
The Genachowski bill surreptitiously does the opposite of provide for net neutrality. It provides for corporate net control.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ruth pennoyer
26 buchanon ct
west orange NJ, 07052

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tracy Hart
25 Blue Heron Road
Wakefield RI, 02879

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Tweedy
4205 Wooddale Ave
Saint Louis Park MN, 55416

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

You are the biggest champion for real net neutrality, when the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Colin and Janet Dodd
7870 SE 166th Hibernia Lane
The Villages FL, 32162

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Arrindell
1563 Grandview Way
Melbourne FL, 32935

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Gholami
3610 Ripple Creek Dr.
Louisville KY, 40229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Story
1805 Gracewood Dr.
Greensboro NC, 27408

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martin Flood
1344 Spaight St Apt 2
Madison WI, 53703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pamela Seltsam
7 Blaine Avenue
Augusta ME, 04330

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ryk Loske
P.O. Box 176
Glover VT, 05839

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

cirri nottage
106 Sweetwater Drive
White River Junction VT, 05001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda McPhee
243 Campbell Ave
Revere MA, 02151

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan Pinkham
207 Glendale Road
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sara mitter
194 norfolk st
cambridge MA, 02139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Ploski
P.O. Box 7245
Prospect CT, 06712

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy F. Havel
306 Commonwealth Ave.
Boston MA, 02115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cam Jonesa
16 Whaleboat Road
Portland ME, 04103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Carlyle Pietsch
126 Broad Meadow Road
Groton MA, 01450

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bronwyn Williams
16 Sheridan St.
Boston MA, 02130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Veronica Feinstein
71 Strawberry Hill Ave, Apt 908
Stamford CT, 06902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph McCormick
4119 Waterside Island Ct.
Tampa FL, 33617

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan Parker
72 Library St.
Chelsea MA, 02150

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Carr
1110 E 6th Street
Des Moines IA, 50316

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Craig Smith
8321 Oak Ave.
Gary IN, 46403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Gross
374 Old Montague Rd
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David D. First
22085Blooming Valley Road
Meadville PA, 16335

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

peter waasdorp
57 Beccles Rd
Falmouth MA, 02540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christina Beck
17 Regent St
Roxbury MA, 02119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

schuster deutsch
300 river rd
Manchester NH, 03104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

L. Maeve Ward
22 Carver Road
Newton MA, 02461

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michael coyne
125 avenida veneccia #3
sarasota FL, 34242

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Forbes
516 Wingra St
Madison WI, 53715

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

martha lipton
392 Central Park West 17X
new York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Franchello
2072 Welsh Hills Rd
Granville OH, 43023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adrian Chadwick
39 Clinton St Apt B
Cambridge MA, 02139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

This letter says it all. Please stand up for true net neutrality.

Sincerely,

Greta D. Sibley
9 Cedarwood Avenue
Easthampton MA, 01027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Miller
145 Northwood Dr NE Apt M1
Atlanta GA, 30342

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nikolaus Obholzer
123 Sewall Ave
Brookline MA, 02446

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Reichheld
7 Sparro Ln.
Holliston MA, 01746

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bryan Carson
3 South Leno Lane
Middlebury VT, 05753

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Danek
PO Box 6784
Lawrenceville NJ, 08648

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for your past support of real net neutrality. I strongly urge you to maintain that support and vote against Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan. Your vote will be the deciding one.

I believe this will prove vital in ways we can not even predict -- that access to information not be altered based on the financial interests or ideological whims of industry.

Paid prioritization of content, and exempting wireless will undermine the unbiased access to information that we prize as a free country. We don't permit the government to control our access to information -- why should we permit industry to do so?

Please help the FCC to serve the public rather than bowing to industry special interest. Put the long-term public good first. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Thank you again for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Rubel
107 Yorktown St
Somerville MA, 02144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rachel Wein
26 Chestnut Ave
Unit 2 MA, 02130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

PLEASE - USE YOUR INFLUENCE AND VOTE FOR R E A L NET NEUTRALITY: protection of internet infrastructure from predatory, gate-keeping, for-profit content providers.
THANK YOU!

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jl keith
P.O. Box 603182
Providence RI, 02906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicole Freund
103Minnetonka Ave
Absecon NJ, 08201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Davis
2004 Phoebe Dr
Billings, MT, 59105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrea Rugg
4638 Garfield Ave.
Minneapolis MN, 55419

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christina Kionka
504 East F Street
Iron Mountain MI, 49801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Humphreys
26 Crescent St Apt 100
Northampton MA, 01060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Hill
353 Crooks Avenue Apt.4
Paterson NJ, 07503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Readel
70 Nottingham Drive
Brick Township NJ, 08724

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Nall-Crist
4156 Sherman Ave
Louisville KY, 40213

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lucy sexton
675 hudson st 5s
new york NY, 10014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Christiansen
470 Hammett Hill Road
East Montpelier VT, 05651

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wayne Stotts
20 Waterside Plaza, 3B
New York NY, 10010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's "net neutralit"y plan. It is'net neutrality in name only. Thank you for all that you do for the american people.

Sincerely,

Robert Murray
409 Wordsworth
Ferndale MI, 48220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dale Johnson
319 2nd Ave
New Glarus WI, 53574

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bryan Mix-Dean
5565 124th Ave. (M-89)
Fennville MI, 49408

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Cox
3111 12th Ave. S., #1
Minneapolis MN, 55407

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rosemary Vander Wyde
452 Claremont AVe
Teaneck NJ, 07666

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Wrobel
35682 Dearing Drive
Sterling Heights MI, 48312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chad Vega
248 Cambridge Ave
Jersey City NJ, 07307

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

A. Ward
4330 Georgia Ct.
Cincinnati OH, 45223

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Owen S. Durigan
21475 Mary Lynn Drive
Brookfield WI, 53045

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aubrey Jaffer
33 Buehler Rd.
Bedford MA, 01730

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Field
2917 Debra Drive
Raleigh NC, 27607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Danny Arg
PO Box 390
Stockbridge MA, 01262

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Morse
200 Toothaker Pond Rd
Phillips ME, 04966

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

joe bender
14 Calvin St #2
Somerville MA, 02143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglass Reeves
325 East 5th St., Apt. F4
New York City NY, 10003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Courtney Hemsley
109 Maple St
Burlington VT, 05401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert DeLeys
273 Kingbird Ct.
Three Bridges NJ, 08887

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Duquette-Hoffman
58 Otterside Ct.
Middlebury VT, 05753

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Chace
1384 Commonwealth ave
Allston MA, 02134

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paigi Guerra
379 Weeks Hill Rd.
Stowe VT, 05672

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

DAVID CALLAHAN
81 Locke Road
Chelmsford MA, 01824

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nadine Gallagher
PO Box 532
Camden ME, 04843

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

A. Scott Falk
243 E. 59th St. #5B
New York NY, 10022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Yvonne Imperiale
251 East 51 Street
New York NY, 10022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christine Roane
120 Mooreland St.
Springfield MA, 01104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Davis
1608 N. Warren Ave #12
Milwaukee WI, 53202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Kubisek
2731 Lottridge Road
Coolville OH, 45723

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Louis Cipro
1426 Q Street NW
Washinton DC, 20009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Cease Campbell
7755 Lakeview
Lexington MI, 48450

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maxine Special
13576 Viola Dr
Sterling Hts MI, 48312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rev. Elizabeth Dodd
18678 Cape Sable Drive
Boca Raton FL, 33498

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Hughes
12 Massasoit Ave.
Oak Bluffs MA, 02557

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Olson
PO Box 281
Prior Lake MN, 55372

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeremy Gill
425 Moren rd
London KY, 40741

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harry Edelman
1240 Cleveland Road
Miami Beach FL, 33141

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christian Sweningsen
18 Riverview
Stuyvesant NY, 12173

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anthony Davis
38128 184th Street N.E.
Regan ND, 58477

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amye Rosenberg
245 East 25th St. APT. 14H

New York NY, 10010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

nellie mathis
84 w spring st apt2
west haven CT, 06516

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruth Murray
23032 Buena Vista Road
rockbridge OH, 43149

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

elias eliadis
6110 Garden Avenue
West Plam Beach FL, 33405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Many millions of us need you to stand up: No more Washington compromises! When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the huge majority of folks who use the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Meg Fidler
315 w 106th St, 16C
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Trindle
132 Naperville Drive
Cary NC, 27519

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ari Miller
119 bay State Rd
Boston MA, 02215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Englehart
9457 Alysbury Place
Montgomery AL, 36117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Martin
1106 Skytop Circle
Charleston WV, 25314

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roberta Schonemann
4515 Erwin Road
West Lafayette IN, 47906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gail kelly
1953 copperfield cir
decatur GA, 30035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Yangbo Du 471 Memorial Dr.
Cambridge MA, 02139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

C. J. Robinson
245 Grace Chapel Road
Irvine KY, 40336

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phil Orem
917 N Vail Ave
Arlington Heights IL, 60004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Harvey
61 Floridana Rd
DeBary FL, 32713

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Danielle Cenci
1437 Cornell
Grand Rapids MI, 49506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Portus Barlow
55 Guerrant St
Umatilla FL, 32784

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. So put your vote where your word is. Wellyn Dawson

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wellyn Dawson
1900 Charles Blvd., Apt. 22-A
Greenville NC, 27858

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kelsey Rubenking
17701 Franklin Avenue
Lakewood OH, 44107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrea Velic
2429 N Bartlett Ave
Milwaukee WI, 53211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruth Tringo
171 Swanton St Unit 14
Winchester MA, 01890

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the democracy. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tusi Ritachild
121 Willow St
Florence MA, 01062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marianne Swan
2317 Canaan Southfield Rd
Southfield MA, 01259

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elyahu Segev
30 Lawrence Street, #2
Boston MA, 02116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Isham
12 Manhattan Avenue, #1
Jersey City NJ, 07307

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Seth Austen
401 Haines Hill Rd
Wolfeboro NH, 03894

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Turtell
292 Elizabeth Street, Apt. 2R
New York NY, 10012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edward Foster
1102 Long Cove Rd.
Gales Ferry CT, 06335

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joanne Sunshower
71 Wendell Road
Shutesbury MA, 01072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alvin Sher
4 N. Pine St.
Niantic CT, 06357

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I understand that you have advocated strongly for true net neutrality. Chairman Genachowski's so-called "net neutrality plan" looks false to me. Please cast a deciding vote against it!.

Be a hero for the Internet. - which is surely one of the most amazing systems in human history.

The chairman's proposal permits paid prioritization; exempts wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; and does not reclassify broadband, which would provide the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Thousands of organizations and millions of everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections. Help make their voices heard!

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the December 21 FCC meeting.

Sincerely,

Susan Lanspery
34A W. Central St.
Natick MA, 01760

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dirk Faegre
225 Ashville Rd
Gouldsboro ME, 04607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Hindle
312 West 51st Street Apt. 1F
New York NY, 10019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Collings
949 High St
Bath ME, 04530

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

susan oakes
60 Blueberry Hill Rd
hope ME, 04847

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kimberly Shaub
566 Cleardale Avenue
EWING NJ, 08618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chilton Ryan
1 Blueberry Hill Rd.
Weston CT, 06883

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Lincoln
350 W 50TH St Apt 10G
New York NY, 10019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nova Kim
1281 Bloodbrook Road
Fairlee VT, 05045

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elpida Joyce
16C Fairfield Avenue
danbury CT, 06810

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Swierczek
"26 Old Beach Rd., Apt. 4"
Newport RI, 02840

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy Smith
78 Pilgrim Road
W Hartford CT, 06117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Flanagan
179 Covell Road
Fairfield ME, 04937

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Nocerino
139 W 19th St., 2B
New york NY, 10011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gregg stocki
4824 sierra drive
old hickory TN, 37138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Colin Johannen
27 McIntosh Road
Chelmsford MA, 01824

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ganie DeHart
24 Elm St.
Geneseo NY, 14454

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carole Baker
30 Northway Dr.
Huntington IN, 46750

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shirley Samson
1400 Lakeview Circle
Coral Springs FL, 33071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas Ower
1812 Dusk Dr
Zion IL, 60099

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Ofsevit
302 Woodland Road
Auburndale MA, 02466

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Toth
130 Freeman Ave
Stratford CT, 06614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lee Fremault
46 Pine Street -- Apt. 321
Attleboro MA, 02703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kim Bradshaw
16430 W. Teton Drive
Lockport IL, 60441

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Muhammed Jargboh-Sillah
94 Bartlett Street Apt2
Somerville MA, 02145

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Phillips-Rehm
34 Sunset Dr.
Chatham NJ, 07928

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wendy Malmid
268C Glen Road
MONROE TOWNSHIP NJ, 08831

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

We're counting on you to help us! No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Heather-Lyn Haley
39 Seminole Drive
Worcester MA, 01603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rich Maggiani
137 Lost Nation Road
Essex Junction VT, 05452

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jann Dalton
43 West High Street
East Hampton CT, 06424

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Bosch W4
New York NY, 10012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Carbin-Hardee
130 Stage Road
West Chesterfield NH, 03466

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Arn
152 Colburn Rd
Milford NH, 03055

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Hoffman
350 W 56th St Apt 5A
New York NY, 10019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rich Maggiani
137 Lost Nation Road
Essex VT, 05452

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

charlie mccullagh
311 river rd
red bank NJ, 07701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alice Anderson
164 John Meyers Rd
Brownsville VT, 05037

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gina Vezzola
242 Saybrook Rd
Higganum CT, 06441

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maura Farrell
460 Hopkins hollow road
Greene RI, 02827

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

francis curtin
20 jackson ave
mystic CT, 06355

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Strean
38764 N Linden Ave
Beach Park IL, 60099

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michelle Chesebro
1134 Schneider Ave
Oak Park IL, 60302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Snow
609 Spring Valley Ln
Chattanooga TN, 37415

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Mackesey
PO Box 1495
Sag Harbor NY, 11963

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn Bengston
37 North St
Belchertown MA, 01007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Welke
8 aura Jane Lane
Griswold CT, 06351

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Wilson
314 Jefferson Ave
Salem MA, 01970

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

miriam cantor cantor
588 Grand St G2506
NY NY, 10002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Scherrer
16 Comins Road
Hadley MA, 01035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Caitlin Mollison
195 East Chestnut Avenue
Metuchen NJ, 08840

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Hrobsky
28 Spring Ridge Drive
Berkeley Hts NJ, 07922

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

DALE WILLIS
104 HERNDON DRIVE
EVANSVILLE IN, 47711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Burke
195 Coppermine Rd
Unionville CT, 06085

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Michielini
426 Washington Ave
Belleville NJ, 07109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you, and I truly appreciate it. I rely on the Internet for my business, as do more and more Americans. Ensuring Net Neutrality is extremely important to me, and to the future of America. It should not be limited so that telecom giants can control the flow of information.

There is a vast majority of Americans with a wide diversity of race, class, and political opinion, who want meaningful, enforceable, Net Neutrality protections. They don't want a plan that permits paid prioritization or exempts wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline. They want the FCC reclassify broadband, thereby providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

The government was foresighted enough to make telecommunications neutral; the Internet is no different. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's false Net Neutrality plan, I believe that your vote will be the deciding one. I hope you'll continue to fight for Net Neutrality, be a hero for the Internet, and vote NO.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote NO Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Hudson
17 Parkview Road
Southwest Harbor ME, 04679

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

matthew malina
410 east 6th street
New York NY, 10009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rika Henderson
301 Huron
Cambridge MA, 02138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

doug friend
57 phillips st
boston MA, 02114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

E Beal
480 East Broadway
Haverhill MA, 01830

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gina Marsh
143B Cliffside Drive
Manchester CT, 06042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Lutzker
61 W. 62 St.
New York NY, 10023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Thompson
469 Burgess Rd
bennington VT, 05201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Slocum
26 E. North Ave.
Lake Bluff IL, 60044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

andrea chitouras
10 Packard Ave
Somerville MA, 02144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rusty Simpson
1523 Marshall st
Baltimore MD, 21230

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas M. Norton
1474 Hillside Lane
Howell MI, 48855

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffery Yamada
1198 Royal Glen Dr Apt 101
Glen Ellyn IL, 60137

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronald Johnson
4908 Silverthorne Court
Oldsmar FL, 34677

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James J Cherry
520 Majestic Ln
Oswego IL, 60543

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Monday
2297 SW 14 Ct
Fort Lauderdale FL, 33312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

catherine brennan cortland OH, 44410

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Veiga
8 Timothy Lane
Plymouth MA, 02360

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
Stop sell out the American people and work in their interest not money interest

Sincerely,

Mary Kallenborn
15919 LECLAIRE AVE
Oak Forest IL, 60452

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

paula Scardamalia
306 County Route 6
Berne NY, 12023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

M. Ross Adams
835 Arbor Lane
Glenview IL, 60025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Faust
1321 Arlington Ave W
St. Paul MN, 55108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alex Cohn
2116 W. Cortez St
Chicago IL, 60622

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ray Bellamy
509 Vinnedge Ride
Tallahassee FL, 32303

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry Foreman
1623 Sunset Drive
Murray KY, 42071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Garth Bjorklund
820 south Tenth street
Goshen IN, 46526

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Graziano
12110 Butternut Circle
Knoxville TN, 37934

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

I urge you to be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation. None of this can possibly be considered net neutral, but rather a gift to the telecoms. The telecoms, in fact, love the Chairman's plans, which should be enough to tell anyone that the plans are not good for net neutrality, and not good for the public.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections. We want to be able to access any legal website at any time, from whatever Internet-capable device we have, without interference from companies whose only interest in increasing their already staggeringly large profits.

We already pay to access the Internet, and we pay more than the residents of any other country for that access, and we get slower Internet speeds than most countries. The Chairman's plans would only make it worse for the end users.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please keep doing what's right and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Josephine Marie Thane
4885 Stewart Rd
Tunnel Hill GA, 30755

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Madden
27 Indianwood Drive
Thornton IL, 60476

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No Paid Prioritization and No Double Talk!

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dirk Hart
174 Barton Road
Stow MA, 01775

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please do the right thing!

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

robert friedman
27 weaver dr
martinsville NJ, 08836

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jay Decker
279 N 21st St.
Columbus OH, 43203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andy Green
5002 Valley Ridge Drive
Durham NC, 27713

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anna Clark
1930 N Sheffield Ave
Chicago IL, 60614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Avrunin
53 Dennis Drive
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Bishop
536 Cooper Rd.
Raleigh NC, 27610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marian Allen
2690 Owens Ln NE
Corydon IN, 47112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Saqib Bhatti
1514 Glenside Dr
Bolingbrook IL, 60490

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeremiah Christopher Lynn
3939 Apache Trail
Antioch TN, 37013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lawrence pruner
647 S. Pleasant St.
Amherst MA, 1002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization or exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tisha Stacey
7317 W. 58th Pl.
Summit IL, 60501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paula Bishop
83 Appalachian Way
Asheville NC, 28806

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Guillermo Ramon
641 Minorca Ave
Coral Gables FL, 33134

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Trudy Gibbs
112 Hollywood Ct.
Wilmette IL, 60091

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ingrid Komar
4100 W Street,NW
Washington DC, 20007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Commissioner -

You have consistently supported the one and only Internet to which consumers should be allowed continued access any legal website, service or application on any device of their choosing (wirelessly or otherwise) without interference from big telecom.

There is a public mandate supporting meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections. Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Singer
P.O. Box 312
Skokie IL, 60076

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Rudstrom
5929 Krogerus Rd
Chisholm MN, 55719

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

annelle taylor
PO Box 6020
Ridgeland MS, 39158

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beth Ritchie
31 Creekside Way
Madison WI, 53717

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gregory Rosenthal
908 Mohegan Road
Schenectady NY, 12309

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jen Devaney
513 19th Ave S
Minneapolis MN, 55454

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Barwick
3208 St Francis Ave
Columbus GA, 31904

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Will Lovsmith
907 38th St.
Sioux City IA, 51104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marshall Flax
5141 Door dr
Madison WI, 53705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kristina Meservey
810 Samoset Road
Eastham MA, 02642

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

joan woolsey
4025 washburn ave. s
Minneapolis MN, 55410

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's weak net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Porter
103 Riverview Ave
Portsmouth VA, 23704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jared Polens
366 1/2 Houghton St.
North Adams MA, 01247

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

anne ackerman
315 W. 21st St. #3F
new York NY, 10011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephanie JOhnson
51 Elm St
Willimantic CT, 06226

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Gibb
6 Mosswood Terrace
Maplewood NJ, 07040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Visco
11 Stockton Road
Peabody MA, 01960

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wendy Spurling
PO BOX 484
Haverhill MA, 01831

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marianne L. Adkins
247 Woodhaven Drive
Wilder VT, 05088

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Christian
Ibbetson St
Somerville MA, 02143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Audrey Hackel
29 Crestview Dr
Clinton NJ, 08809

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Clayton Brillhart
455 Kenwood
Grand Rapids MI, 49505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

SUSAN DANIELS
185 MOOSE HORN RD.
NEW SALEM MA, 01355

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jordan B. Sanders
2359 Preston Ln
West Dundee IL, 60118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Victor Callirgos
250 Cardinal Ln
Bennington VT, 05201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Todd Olin
1720 Fairway Dr.
Columbia Heights, MN, 55421

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

As a person with a disability, I depend on the Internet for my day to day business. Shopping, socializing and education would be impossible without the Internet. Imposing restrictions on my usage, will limit, even more, my inclusion in society at large.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

RUBEN ORTIZ
101 COLLEGE ST APT 312
BURLINGTON VT, 05401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry Wellman
PO Box 27
Claytonville IL, 60926

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Warne Randall
146 No Country Rd
Mt Sinai NY, 11766

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Moore
9 Hough Street
Lebanon NH, 03766

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hadassah Fleishon
3 Chauncy,
Cambridge MA, 02138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Potter
8 Hancox Street
Stonington CT, 06378

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Murphy
57 Longfe
Portland ME, 04103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Witz
35 Lake Shore Ct., Apt. 2
Brighton MA, 02135

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

campbell peters 12 cherry hill st
bellows falls VT, 05101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stefano Monti
25 Atherton St. #24
Somerville MA, 02143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mike simonet
1220 stelton road
piscataway NJ, 08854

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gregory Tucker
17 Mattoon Street
Springfield MA, 01105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Suzie DeBrosse
212 Buckingham Dr
Colchester VT, 05446

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan M MacRobert
260 Davis Rd.
Bedford MA, 01730

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

R. Potasznik
247 E. 77 St.
NY NY, 10075

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ben Alsip
4402 N. Malden Unit G
Chicago IL, 60640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Baribeau
7904 Vista Ave.
Grand Ledge MI, 48837

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

joan lourie
21 E. Grand Ave.
Scarorough ME, 04074

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diana Filibert
67 Main St South
Bridgewater CT, 06752

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Castro
52 Lebanon Road
Winterport ME, 04496

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vojislav Pejovic
1509 Oak Ave,#1S
Evanston IL, 60201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bonnie Harzewski
306 Moosehead Trail
Dixmont ME, 04932

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christian Hernandez
13622 NW 9TH LN
Miami FL, 33182

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Boone
5 Moody Cir
Sandwich MA, 02563

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Addesa
239 E. Markison Ave.
Columbus OH, 43207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Victor Dotson
5401 Norton Rd
Grawn MI, 49637

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Please keep the internet for the people and not for the wealthy to exploit.

Sincerely,

James Nicoll
28 Georgetown Lane
Fairport NY, 14450

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lance Q Johnson
204 Chestnut Hill Road
East Hampton CT, 06424

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Cole
9 Garfield St
Bristol VT, 05443

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Gettle
715 E. Lehman St.
Lebanon PA, 17046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Sang
5759 N Winthrop Ave.
Chicago IL, 60660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JUAN O RODRIGUEZ
7 CALLE GEORLLETI
COMERIO PR, 00782

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Knight
2067 Belfast Road
Lincolnville ME, 04849

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cory Otto
647 W Oakdale Ave
Chicago IL, 60657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

steve clarke
9137 15th Ave S
mpls MN, 55425

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
I look forward to your reply.

Sincerely,

David Gustafson
3419 50 Street
Moline IL, 61265

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Caroline Johnson
7695 E 625 S
Knox IN, 46534

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard D. Jewell
P O Box 662
Evansville IN, 47704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Huntington
105 Pollock Ave.
Pittsfield MA, 01201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Mickelsen
67 Harland Rd.
Waltham MA, 02453

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elsa Stutman
978 Wesley Avenue
Huntingdon Valley PA, 19006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Darren Campbell
2487 dorfield dr
rochester hills MI, 48307

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John D Switzenberg
839 S Clinton ST APT 9
Stockbridge MI, 49285

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marjorie McCommon
1666 S. Troy St.
Chicago, IL, 60623

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Claridge
4153 Star Island Dr.
Holiday FL, 34691

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy Ericson
45 Wall St.
New York NY, 10005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

suzanne Kuffler
49 Gosnold Road
Woods Hole MA, 02543

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Crofter
15 Reynolds Dr
Brattleboro VT, 05301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Jelineo
360 West 21st Street
New York NY, 10011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Madelyne Salyer
143 Eastridge Dr.
Waterbury CT, 06708

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane Bland
2507 Sherwood Hills Road
Minnetonka MN, 55305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sophia Drinis
1601 W. Coneflower Drive Apt 4310
Peoria IL, 61615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

david levy
395 Rutland Ave.
Teaneck, NJ, 07666

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrea Giltner
2200 88th Ave. West
Rock Island IL, 61201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The ability for individual citizens to us the net for school, self-employment, and a host of other things is at risk. Please support REAL net neutrality, not something crafted and named that to fool the public.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandra Emmanuel
6381 Kentstone Drive
Indianapolis IN, 46268

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Russell Grigg
15 Broadway
Bayonne NJ, 07002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Kosturko
25 Beacon Street
Boston MA, 02108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

GEORGE HUNT
43 VILLAGE OF STONEY RUN APT G
MAPLE SHADE NJ, 08052

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

joseph fazio
32 boulevard
hasbrouck heights NJ, 07604

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margo Wood
18 Lawn Ave.
Portland ME, 04103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan Emery
225 Appley Avenue
Libertyville IL, 60048

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Imagine the following: You try to send an online response to your political party but there's a problem with the server. It happens frequently. Any message your brother sends from the opposition seems to pass without obstruction, but your attempts to counter the propaganda are thwarted.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Forshtay
326 Bridge Plaza North
Fort Lee NJ, 07024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Connie Wyluda
1F Melborn Drive
Monroe Township NJ, 08831

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Capron
58 Hampton Meadows
Hampton NH, 03842

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

K. Paro
15 Linda Ave
Mystic CT, 06355

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

FRANCISCO MERCADO
2065 ST RAYMOND AVE - apt. 6A
BRONX NY, 10462

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Hiestand
1830 Riverline Drive
Chesterton IN, 46304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John and Karen Wilson
PO Box 347
Egg Harbor WI, 54209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Parker
766 Gresham PL NW
Washington DC, 20001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Houghton
410 Saline River Dr.
Saline MI, 48176

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christian Wedemeyer
1413 E 57th St, Apt. 1
Chicago IL, 60637

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matt Fitzgibbons
844 N. 29th St.
Philadelphia PA, 19130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eve Hermann
214 W. Kanawha Ave
Columbus OH, 43214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary K. Loberg
2810 Jewel Lane
Plymouth MN, 55447

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Henry Pratt
150 new paltz road
Highland NY, 12528

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Schmidt
178 S Lombard Ave
Lombard IL, 60148

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joanne Wood
503 W 13th St
Sterling IL, 61081

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Halvorson
5353 Chickadee Dr.
Kalamazoo MI, 49009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Gloudemans
33 North Road
Hancock NH, 03449

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Lucas
3017 Girardeau Avenue
Columbia SC, 29204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anabela de Oliveira
256 Bergen Avenue
Kearny NJ, 07032

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alex Pirie
337 Somerville Ave. 2nd Floor
Somerville MA, 02143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Liberty Goodwin
Fourth Street
Providence RI, 02906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gene Wisniewski
20 48th Street #4F
Weehawken NJ, 07086

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank M Omar
39 Water St
Hallowell ME, 04347

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Abraham Leibson
82 Coryell Street
Lambertville NJ, 08530

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elena Yobaccio
65 Bacon Street
Watertown MA, 02472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Diamond
680 West End Avenue
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rick Strong
100 Bennett Avenue Apt 6A
New York NY, 10033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Kuruna
1651 W North Ave
Chicago IL, 60622

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john heasley
96 colonial dr
sturbridge MA, 01566

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aileen Gribbin
184 Thompson Street
New York NY, 10012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Don't stop working for net neutrality. When big telecommunications companies scream, then you'll know the regulations are strong enough.

Sincerely,

Kristina Cooper
2215 Stoneybrook Dr
Erie PA, 16510

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David MacDonald
266 Grandview terrace, hartford, ct 06114
Hartford CT, 06114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Samantha Habeck
3443 N Pierce St
MIlwaukee WI, 53212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary McBride
2537 Otis Rd SE
Cedar Rapids IA, 52403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Alseth
1410 Janis Rd
Cloquet MN, 55720

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

linda somma
110 beach road
salisbury MA, 01952

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's version of net neutrality, a deceptive ploy to give over the net to the heavyweights of the telecom industry , your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet.

Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's disingenuous net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon Gary
24 Prince Street
New York NY, 10012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Kurzej
P.O. Box 447
Island Pond VT, 05846

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Russo
318 E 80th St
New York NY, 10075

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Sinzer
168 Cedar Street
Cedar Grove NJ, 07009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sheri Bresson
14A Walnut Hill Road
Bethel CT, 06801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lorna Sgammato
9 Washington Street
Plymouth MA, 02360

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard E. Hughes
79 Fifth Street
Cambridge MA, 02141

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nani Panourgia
410 Riverside Dr Apt 71
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keith Lammers
822 Belmont Ave.
Collingswood NJ, 08108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

It is in America's interest to foster a healthy, Capitalist marketplace with a free, open, and well-regulated Internet.

Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ryan McAtee
6576 SR 1
Spencerville IN, 46788

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

josh karan
160 cabrini BOULEVARD #54
new YORK NY, 10033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carlos Contreras
135 Russell
Rockton IL, 61072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joel Hofslund
632 Melrose Lane
Beecher IL, 60401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Harman
6851 Roswell Rd NE #J8
Atlanta GA, 30328

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Owen
P.O. Box 703
Red Lodge, MT, 59068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Irene Pomianowski
377 South Harrison Street
East Orange NJ, 07018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry Smith
2897 north druid hills road, 230
atlanta GA, 30329

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

joan cushman
4301 park gle rd #332
st louis park MN, 55416

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kaylyn Wingo
6560 Fieldview
West Bloomfield MI, 48324

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Benton
150 Chestnut Lane
Bolingbrook IL, 60490

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Hardy
3102 Kimberly Dr
Champaign IL, 61821

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sylvia Rolfs
27494 682nd St.
Kasson MN, 55944

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anita Brooks Appelbaum
36 Summerhill Road
Wallingford CT, 06492

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Noerenberg
3230 Fountain Lane North
Plymouth MN, 55447

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

B fleitman
24 McComb Rd
Princeton NJ, 08540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julius A. Luck
79 East Ridge Rd
Southwest Harbor ME, 04679

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Sideleau
969 W Main Rd / Apt 8401
Middletown RI, 02842

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Clark
193 Camp St., J-1
West Yarmouth MA, 02673

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shirley Pearson
P.O. Box 1208
Mattapoisett MA, 02739

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron May 1599 King St
Enfield CT, 06082

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Parker
8 Douglas St #3
Bostgon MA, 02127

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Teresa Kinsella
36 Risley Rd.
Chestnut Hill MA, 02467

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Violet Gadapee
74 Heatherfield Rd.
Fairlee VT, 05045

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anthony Glover
22-24 Marble Hill Avenue, Apt. 4G
Bronx NY, 10463

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicolina Contardo
1313 SILVER CT
Hamilton NJ, 08690

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dina Willner
115 Vreeland Ct
Mahwah NJ, 07430

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eileen Althouse
79 Garden St
Edison NJ, 08817

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger Nelson
106 Valley Road
Princeton NJ, 08540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wendy Hardenberg
116 Mascoma Street
Lebanon NH, 03766

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wendy Sirois
PO Box 6477
Brunswick ME, 04011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doris Carlino
4 Avon Street
Everett MA, 02149

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dr. David Baltimore
887 main sr.
monroe CT, 06468

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

If it's not broke...

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John L Smith
25B Harbour Village
Branford CT, 06405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joanne Morse
PO Box 202
Waterford ME, 04088

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Benson
650 Drum Point Rd
Brick NJ, 08723

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Americans have come to rely upon the connected world - help keep it fair for all. The economy will grow by giving new enterprises fair footing rather than being squeezed by the big money,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keith Strand
133 W 123 Street
NYC NY, 10027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Olson
16648 Saddle Horn Ct
Eden Prairie MN, 55347

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randy Childers
3121 Campbell St.
Kansas City MO, 64109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gerald Strickland
695 SW Salerno Rd
Stuart FL, 34997

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marguerite D. Allen
1735 Chicago Ave.
Evanston IL, 60201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Riddell
12383 State Hwy 210
Brainerd MN, 56401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

THOMAS AHEARN
55 RYDER RD
OSSINING NY, 10562

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Letitia Noel
55 W Goethe St
Chicago IL, 60610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Kienzynski
13860 Ivanhoe Ct
Plainfield IL, 60544

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brenda Be 146 Pilgrim Rd
Weymouth MA, 02191

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Moraima Suarez
215 21st Street
Brooklyn NY, 11232

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Bitler
1440 Lyons Chase Circle
Murrysville PA, 15668

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Lems-Dworkin
2305 Brown Avenue
Evanston IL, 60201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

As a champion for real net neutrality, vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Consumers should be allowed to access any legal website, service or application on any device of their choosing (whether they're accessing the Internet wirelessly or not) without interference from big telecom.

Vote no on December 21.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Marilynn Osborne
275 Krystal Dr
Bethel VT, 05032

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Daniels
5400 Thornburg Ct
Columbus OH, 43230

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

J.C. Webber III
2040 W Main St #210-1936
Rapid City SD, 57702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Choquette
19 Cambridge Dr
Rocky Hill CT, 06067

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Ramey
27044 Park Court
Madison Heights MI, 48071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

This is the most important issue of our times - the net is the only source of information not yet controlled and censored by big business. If we lose the fight for true net neutrality, we will ultimately lose our democracy and only money will influence votes.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sheri Miller
17 Johnamac N.
Littlestown PA, 17340

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nathan Burrows
315 W. Franklin Ave. Apt. # 324
Minneapolis MN, 55404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Butrym
50 arbor drive
howell NJ, 07731

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Santos
34 Choate Rd
Belmont MA, 02478

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Klein aka Paul Pagk
67 Vestry Street
NYC NY, 10013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lewis Gould
80 Central Park West Apt. 19FG
New York NY, 10023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Pollak
PO Box 22
Bristol VT, 05443

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sara lerner
70 Bonnell St
Flemington NJ, 08822

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's poor net neutrality plan.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Sikoryak
10 Stuyvesant Oval # 10D
New York NY, 10009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Taveras
4672 Broadway
New York NY, 10040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jef Weisel
8 Brookline St
Pepperell MA, 01463

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Butz
5800 Arlington Ave 1-D
Riverdale NY, 10471

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Webster
122 Riverway, Apt 18
Boston MA, 02215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lucy Slavinsky
116 Farrell Ct
Marblehead MA, 01945

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Dotson
33 Hampshire St Apt 4
Portland ME, 04101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nathan Logus
400 Washington Street
Cambridge MA, 02139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Myers
59 Flanagan Drive
Framingham MA, 01701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

howard newman
55 farewell st.
newport RI, 02840

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Xantha Karp
3524 Cambridge Ave
Bronx NY, 10463

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Sturm
19 Hill Ave.
Easthampton MA, 01027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Bongiorno
37 Red Bank Drive
Sicklerville NJ, 08081

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tyko Kihlstedt
305 East 140 Street Apt 3B
Bronx NY, 10454

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen J. Hammerlof
434 E. 89 St., 1D
New York NY, 10128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Shea
338 West 49th Street
New York, NY, 10019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jennifer tozzi
1141 carlow drive
toms river NJ, 08753

[illegible]

FCC Federal Communications Commission Public Comments
445 12th Street SW
Washington, DC 20554

As a consumer interested in protecting competition, innovation, and legitimate use of cable TV content, I urge you to refuse requests for waivers of 47 CFR 76.1204 a 1 by NCTA, Charter, Verizon, and all other cable providers. The FCC's integration ban, which in effect requires cable companies to integrate CableCARDs into their own set-top boxes, remains good policy today.

Now ten years after the Telecommunications Act of 1996, cable companies have dragged their feet long enough on competitive alternatives to proprietary set-top boxes, thus hampering innovation and harming consumers. The integration ban will also help market competition prevent further restrictions on cable subscribers' ability to make legitimate use of recorded content.

By adopting content protection limits (encoding rules) in docket no. 57-[illegible], the Commission recognized the importance of allowing consumers to make certain uses of TV content, regardless of a particular cable provider's or copyright holder's wishes. With competition spurred on by the integration ban, consumers would have the freedom to choose the least restrictive cable-compatible device available. The CableCARD standard already prescribes restrictions that harm consumers by limiting non-infringing uses, and such restrictions will get even worse if cable providers' set-top boxes are unchecked by competition.

Please refuse requests for waivers of 47 CFR 76.1204 a 1.

Sincerely,

Mr. [illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dean Robb
1118 Hillside Ave
Plainfield NJ, 07060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

charlotte elsner
1133 boynton ave
westfield NJ, 07090

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Constance Waters
104 Gate House Lane
Edison NJ, 08820

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hilary Shadroui
42 Franklin St.
Barre VT, 05641

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrea Ackerman
109 West 26th st
New York NY, 10001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bonnie wood
67 stoney brook dr
limerick ME, 04048

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Plourde
100 Rathbun WIllard Dr
Attleboro MA, 02703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Mattson
908 Park Ave
Hoboken NJ, 07030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Yvette Pratt
88 Summit St
South Portland ME, 04106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I have long admired your stance on net neutrality and willingness to fight for it. But Chairman Genachowski's net neutrality plan is a fake, and your vote could be the deciding one. Please vote no!
Thank you.
Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Curt Barnes
114 West Houston St. #2
New York NY, 10012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christine Dail
30 Parker St Apt 6
Quincy MA, 02169

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sapna Desai
329 W 88th St. Apt. 3S
New York NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Roess
6 William Lane
Clinton CT, 06413

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Walker
875 Boulevard E Apt 23
Weehawken NJ, 07086

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Harkins
45 Lockwood Ave
Old Greenwich CT, 06870

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Ehrenfeld
44 N. 7th Ave.
Highland Park NJ, 08904

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mark tsetsilas
60 main st
bar harbor ME, 04609

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Mooney
96 Perry Street #17A
New York NY, 10014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Roy Jr
4 Miller Lane
West Stockbridge MA, 01266

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

I hope you will be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please make the best choice again, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

dale carr
22a School Street
Hanover NH, 03755

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Almerindo Portfolio
160 2nd St
Hoboken NJ, 07030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Mathison
41 Beach St
Warren RI, 02885

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robin Cole Sunbeam
PO Box 1133
Ukiah CA, 95482

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kenyon Karl 17 Ephraim Page Rd
Wentworth NH, 03282

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Net neutrality has only one definition. That every carrier treat every packet of information equally. There should be no compromise on that.

If we go with a "wireless is one thing, wired is another" I can guarantee that the wired world will become smaller and less supported over time. As a public librarian, I know the people who depend on a fair internet, and I know who will be hurt. I've seen filters in action. They slow down sites unnecessarily. And, like the stupid decision to count broadband as something other than a telecommunication service, fake rules will hurt consumers. We have the slowest broadband in the world, because true competition between services hasn't happened.

Please tell Genachowski to go jump in a lake. Net neutrality is too valuable a resource to be destroyed.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Dye
61 Webster St.
E. Boston MA, 02128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Evan Johnson
29 Myrtle Ave.
Edgewater NJ, 07020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Ruas
347 West Broadway
New York NY, 10013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pam Spritzer
473 West End Avenue
New york NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Audra Friend
66 Salisbury Rd
Watertown MA, 02472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Padraic Smith
2 Pearl St.
Graniteville VT, 05654

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom E. Canavan
8 Geno Ave. #2
Rutland VT, 05701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Sarfaty
82 Woodward Av
Waterbury CT, 06705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kim Pratt
166 Norfolk St. Apt B
New York NY, 10002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Konstantin Goranovic
42 Bow St
Stoneham MA, 02180

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you.

When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all US citizen's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.

Please do what's best for USA citizens one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Duane J. Matthiesen
10 Seaborn Place
Lexington MA, 02420

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bia Winter
2012 North Rd.
Mount Vernon ME, 04352

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

aimee hertog
15 glenridge avenue
montclair NJ, 07042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Stillman
2 Three Acre Lane
Princeton NJ, 08540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rhoda Forte
One Arcadia Drive
New City NY, 10956

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kerri Long
167 Sutter Street
Toms River NJ, 08753

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Neumann
89 Church St
Tarrytown NY, 10591

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jessica Thomas
114 Yale St
Portland ME, 04103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

KEVIN POWERS
830 BURNT TAVERN RD.
BRICK NJ, 08724

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

harold donohue
310 greenwich st
new york NY, 10013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Hilder
210 W. 150th St., #1C
New York NY, 10039

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michelle Steger
35 Warwick St.
Longmeadow MA, 01106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Belikoff
471 Sweet Hollow Road
Bloomsbury NJ, 08804

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mariAnne zahn
6 bartlett/clusters
turnersville NJ, 08012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Raymond Blumenfeld
29 Crestview Dr
Clinton NJ, 08809

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Stucin
85 Devoe Street
Brooklyn NY, 11211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

PLEASE PROTECT THE FREEDOM ALL AMERICANS DESERVE, TO HAVE ACCESS TO A TRULY FAIR INTERNET!!! ALLOWING CORPORATIONS CONTROL OVER OUR ONLINE ACCESS IS A CLEAR CORRUPTION OF OUR FREEDOM.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Rideout
209 Chestnut St
Cambridge MA, 02139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Chorpenning
1 Bronxville Rd Apt 5E
Bronxville NY, 10708

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

* * * *

The guys that wrote this form letter are much nicer people than me. I cannot for the life of me fathom why you would allow corporations to shape the flow of information on the Internet. We already have a GIGANTIC problem with corporate propaganda. The Internet is the ONLY place where a person can truly look for and find ANYTHING. It's the only source of information John Q.

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Emerson
29 Horton Ave
Middletown NY, 10940

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Joiner
545 W 111th St.
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Goldberg
270 Littleton Road
Chelmsford MA, 01824

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

FRANK LOPICCOLO JR.
1042 BARNES STREET
FRANKLIN SQUARE NY, 11010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeremy Del Nero
31 Hallock St
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stella Kramer
449 E. 14th St. #5F
New York NY, 10009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Brophy
20 Wills Ave.
Stanhope NJ, 07874

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Thorne
2771 Campbell Street
Coolville OH, 45723

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Shearwood
156 Hortontown Road
Kent Cliffs NY, 10512

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Esther Krivda
2400 Johnson Avenue, Apt. 4J
Bronx NY, 10463

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doris Munger
56 Horton Lane
New Canaan CT, 06840

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Alfano
235 East 57th Street
New York NY, 10022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack David Marcus
215 West 92nd Street Apt. 15E
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bruce Livingston
27 Maple Ave
Asbury NJ, 08802

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections. It is crucial that we protect one of the few instruments the public has to access information and to exercise their right for free speech.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Elena Llado
690 Hope Street
Providence RI, 02906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael J Curtis
53 Oakwood Vlg Apt 8,
Flanders NJ, 07836

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Meyer
21 Middle St
Gloucester MA, 01930

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Enough, already!

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edwin Pickett
18 Bayview Place
Staten Island NY, 10304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sue Barrell
422A Chatham Court
Lakewood NJ, 08701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Cabaniss
96 s. portland ave
Brooklyn NY, 11217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Meredith
1982 Asylum Ave
West Hartford CT, 06117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carl Martin
1277 Commonwealth Ave., #106
Allston MA, 02134

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Caldarone
21 Carolyn Dr.
Danvers MA, 01923

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lorraine Olla
156 Karrville Rd
Port Murray NJ, 07865

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick Smith
box 96
pearl river NY, 10965

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Somers
89 Reynold Street
Bronx NY, 10464

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

I live in New York, NY but I'm from one of poorest areas of the Appalachian mountains of North Carolina. Most of my family still lives there and I know this will greatly affect them and the people that live there.

Please stand up for a free and open internet. It's good for our society-especially in an age where there is such income disparity.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Rob Howell
354 E. 91st. St Apt 1004
New York NY, 10128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brad Christen
228 8th Avenue, #15
New York NY, 10011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kevin Loomis
2 Ridgely Place Apt 1
weehawken NJ, 07086

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Gibbs
P.O. Box 726
West Tisbury MA, 02575

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Gregory
59 Chippenham Dr
Voorhees NJ, 08043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Lendvai
46 Appletree Point Lane
Brooklin ME, 04616

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Daghlian
203 West 107th Street, Apt 8C
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald MacKechnie
45 Foothills Drive
Jericho VT, 05465

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kate Mun
131 Highland Ave
arlington MA, 02476

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean-David Beyer
6 Parker Place
Shrewsbury NJ, 07702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

smedley throbbins
300 river rd
manchester NH, 03104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mariam dolan
53 berwick lane
cranston RI, 02905

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robin Holland
430 Greenwich Street
New York NY, 10013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Deasy
1736 Second Avenue, #GA
New York NY, 10128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Gaudette
44 Metropolitan Oval, Apt. 11H
Bronx NY, 10462

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

fred thomas
188 autumn avenue
brooklyn NY, 11208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charmaine Broad 410 Central Park West
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Vorbach
969 Park Avenue, 9E
New York NY, 10028

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Morris Leibovitz
51 Butman Street
Beverly MA, 01915

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Voorhies
38 Clark Point Rd.
West Tremont ME, 04612

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

August Popkin
38 Tuers Ave
Jersey City NJ, 07306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

stephen hopkins
70 locust ave b-602
new rochelle NY, 10801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronald Spainhour
1570 First Avenue
New York NY, 10028

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dakota Smith
box 96
pearl river NY, 10965

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

It would be far better to make the carriers regulated public utilities, with limited market-related rates of return.

Sincerely,

Gene Sidore
56 Buttonwood Drive
Hollis NH, 03049

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for taking th\e time to read this. I"m hoping that me adn family can count on you to vote no on the upcoming net neutrality vote. Here's a little more on that:

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Thank you!

Sincerely,

Christopher Scanlon
37 Orchard Street
Northampton MA, 01060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please preserve TRUE net neutrality, and save the internet from corporate interests. Control of information and it's flow serves only to control the public. Net neutrality is the 21st century equivalent of freedom of speech. Do not cede this, please. It is essential that it be preserved as an unalienable right.

Sincerely,

Christopher Pietras
400-B Main Rd
Gill MA, 01354

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Newman
266 Pelham Rd
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH MITTON,JR.
830 BURNT TAVERN RD.
BRICK NJ, 08724

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

EricaRudloff
195 Call Rd
Exeter ME, 04435

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Kostis
7 Fox Hill Drive West
Warren NJ, 07059

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections for the one remaining truly democratic thing in our society--the only thing not yet operating solely in the corporate interest.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Chalfen
300 commercial st
Boston MA, 02109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amy Blake
11 Maple st
whitefield NH, 03598

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please, be a hero for integrity. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero and vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done and continue to do to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Valerie Meluskey
20 A Andover Circle
Princeton NJ, 08540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Winglass
3 Spencer St
Ellsworth ME, 04605

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Clifton Power
POB 371
Belfast ME, 04915

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Petrochko
PO Box 51
Vernon NJ, 07462

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lea girardin
10 pleasantdale ave
waterville ME, 04901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lucy Wolpin
4245 Waterloo Circle
Tucker GA, 30084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan Lenihan
9115 Colonial Rd Apt 1E
Brooklyn NY, 11209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

You have done a great job so far at championing real net neutrality - but the fight's not over yet. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sylvia Foley
"136 Prospect Park West, #2B"
Brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randi Klein
95 Maynard Rd.
Northampton MA, 01060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Urbonas
15 Myrtle Ave
Wakefield MA, 01880

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Belinda Jones
632 West Pond Meadow Road
Westbrook CT, 06498

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Todd Clark
68 Pierce Street
Greenfield MA, 01301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

robert skierski
1623 chestnut ave
haddon heights NJ, 08035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please support true net neutrality.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ralph Palmer
7 South High Street
Turners Falls MA, 01376

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew LeBlanc
7 Hill St
Medway MA, 02053

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Keiser
410 East 6 St., Apt. 17B
New York NY, 10009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Fritsch
P.O. Box 3080
Nantucket MA, 02584

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Irma Wagner
22 Robeson St
Jamaica Plain MA, 02130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dwight Hutchison
5 Maple Place
Jamaica Plain MA, 02130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

C. Alexander Cohen
39 S Pine St
Dover NH, 03820

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bonnie Kipperman
11 Shady Hill Road
Woodbridge CT, 06525

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The struggle between the citizens' free speech & internet access vs the corporate monied elites' quest for endless profits, continues to rage. Vote with the people! Protect REAL neutrality!!
No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Bertolotti
20 First Avenue
Port Monmouth NJ, 07758

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pablo Calvi
275 Park Avenue
Brooklyn NY, 11205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Betsy Burton
106 Madbury Rd
Durham NH, 03824

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

karie bresnahan
135 old village rd.
groveton NH, 03582

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Holtzman
135 Greencrest Drive
Middletown NY, 10941

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Albert Ginouves
22 Meadow St
Lakeville CT, 06039

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

dakota smith
box 96
pearl river NY, 10965

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roberta Waddell
100 Riverside Drive
NEW YORK NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Asya I Pritsker
333B Crowells Rd
Highland Park NJ, 08904

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Penny Colman
138 Knickerbocker Rd
Englewood NJ, 07631

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rita Nadler
41 Bedford St.
NY NY, 10014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gwendolyn Albert
111 DeKoven #203
Middletown CT, 06457

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Arnold
351 Lincoln Ave
Portland ME, 04101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jonathan A. Thomas
24 Doane Ave.
Providence RI, 02906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helen Anbinder
144 Southlawn Ave.
Dobbs Ferry NY, 10522

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

george nicholson
405 Clinton Street
Brooklyn NY, 11231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Grigley
30-90 42nd. Street
Astoria NY, 11103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Claire Novosad
69B Damascus Rd
Branford CT, 06405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Fass
380 Riverside Dr
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nick Chen
340 e. 75st
new york NY, 10021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

janice cechony
60 First Ave. (Apt. 12 H)
New York NY, 10009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jo Anne Caputo
52 Helmsman Drive
Yarmouth Port MA, 02675

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael A Serrano Jr.
133A Prospect Ave
Bayonne NJ, 07002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jared Howe
71 W. 107th #2E
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Clawson
484 County Road 513
Califon NJ, 07830

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Sroka
229 South Third Street
Brooklyn NY, 11211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia A Medeiros
33 Water Street
Attleboro MA, 02703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ewa Bartos
24 5thavenue
New York, NY, 10011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Russell Warne
76 Blueberry Hill Lane
Cooper ME, 04657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Wion
180 Riverside Drive 7F
New York NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sue Tarlton
P.O. Box 3001
New York NY, 10163

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Montalbano
125 Congress Street
Brooklyn NY, 11201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Kavin
53-61 McCormick Terr
Stoughton MA, 02072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Manno
1 Constitution Ave.
Succasunna NJ, 07876

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

M Ruth
155 Pearl Street
Somerville MA, 02145

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Willie Sordillo
66 Berry Street
Framingham MA, 01702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ELIZABETH EARLE
44 Venable Road
Harrisville NH, 03450

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william wurtz
513 Grand Street
New York NY, 10002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The rights of citizens have been under attack. The net is becoming or perhaps has become the main line of communication accross generational lines. Keeping the net free and open is essential! No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nona Russell
200 Riverside Dr. #4B
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roland Zwicker
3426 Steinway St
Long Island City NY, 11101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

D. Michael Berkowitz
203 Bleecker Street
New York NY, 10012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Colin Jones
11-2 Nicole Circle
Ossining NY, 10562

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chyld King
71 Paul Gore St
jamaica plain MA, 02130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Martin
7 Executive Boulevard
Yonkers NY, 10701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Weyand
14 East 28th Street
New York NY, 10016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ross Adams
Sand Hill Rd.
Peterborough NH, 03458

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Gott
87 Canaan Road 2A
Salisbury CT, 06068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chad Pearson
19 West 26th #3
New York NY, 10010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Freid
195 Garfield Pl
Brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon Utakis
39-65 51st St. apt. 3B
Woodside NY, 11377

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

james mcgettigan
2 south tallahassee avenue
atlantic city NJ, 08401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

You've made a difference before and this is a chance to make a real difference for the American people. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Sherlock Campbell
26 Brentwood Drive
Wallingford CT, 06492

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ANNIE BIEN
29 Tiffany Place
Brooklyn NY, 11231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Thank you for consideration concerning this important issue.

Sincerely,

Cesar A. Grullon
3986 Hillman Avenue
Bronx NY, 10463

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Elmore
41 Spring Valley Rd.
Ossining NY, 10562

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daron Reid Gardner
1497 Chapel Street
New Haven CT, 06511

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ashley javier
250 5th Ave.
new York NY, 10001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Agnes Cross
1095 Madrona S
Salem NJ, 07302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edward Connor
425 E 73RD St Apt 4RW
New York NY, 10021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Conway
44 Crest Dr
Yorktown Hts NY, 10598

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

We need solutions that are based on physics, engineering, and the needs the American people, NOT the on wishes of business people who merely want more control over the market place.

Sincerely,

John Zavgren
16 West End Highway
Wilton NH, 03086

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Dunlea
160 Daniel Webster Hwy Apt 311
Nashua NH, 03060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ben Maraniss
115 Carlton Ave
Brooklyn NY, 11205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Caban
244 Roebling St, Apt 14
Brooklyn NY, 11211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dr. Majid Charmchi
5 Coachman Rd
Windham NH, 03087

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Day
3354 28th Street
Astoria NY, 11106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Kern
7001 Ridge Blvd. #5F
Brooklyn NY, 11209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Jane Ferrier
96 School St Apt 2
S Portland ME, 04106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gene Lubow
115th Ave
New York NY, 10003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

j dylan rivis
12 st paul st
montpelier VT, 05602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marsha Boer
75 Lohs Place
Harrington Park NJ, 07640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel F. Pawling
140 West 58th St. # 6B
New York NY, 10019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane Berrigan
49 Jamie Court
Bloomfield NJ, 07003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael-Astynax Caminiti
16 Victoria St.
Exeter NH, 03833

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger Rochefort
32 Gramercy Park South
New York NY, 10003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebekah Spicuglia
732 Sackett St Fl 3
Brooklyn NY, 11217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erma Lewis
1736 63 Street
Brooklyn NY, 11204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Nelson
462 Esplanade
Pelham NY, 10803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Henderson
6 Giles Road
Lincoln MA, 01773

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tony Ward
22 Lincoln Place
Brooklyn NY, 11217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jasmi Kehoe
225 Kings Hwy
Warwick NY, 10990

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Stadnik
2466 44TH St
Astoria NY, 11103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Schiffer
201 E. 17 St.
New York NY, 10003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Giovanni Garcia-Fenech
4108 47th Street
Sunnyside NY, 11104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cindy Guarnieri
27 Pamlynn Road
Stamford CT, 06905

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phoebe Pitassi
24 Scenery Lane
Johnston RI, 02919

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

alyson hayes
12 forbush ave
quincy MA, 02169

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Walter Baron
170 Old Chequessett Neck Rd.
Wellfleet MA, 02667

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lev Pinskiy
2653 E 27th St.
Brooklyn NY, 11235

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Walter Bradhering
101 Washington St.
Rocky hill NJ, 08553

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

CS Mo
35 Dexter Avenue
Watertown MA, 02472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JANET GRILLO
504 County Road 519
Frenchtown NJ, 08825

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Snyder
543 47TH St # 3
Brooklyn NY, 11220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alejandro Hernandez
Villas San Agustin #Y5 Calle 20
Bayamon PR, 00959

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon Koogler
91 Chestnut St.
Brookline MA, 02445

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

rich kiamco
104 bentley ave
jersey city NJ, 07304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

roberta galant
5 ridge drive
chappaqua NY, 10514

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jon Lyness
4116 47th Ave
Sunnyside NY, 11104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Leek
57B North Plains Industrial Rd
Wallingford CT, 06492

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stanislav Miroshnikov
512 Fourth Ave
Pelham NY, 10803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe powell
7 Rockridge Road
Larchmont NY, 10538

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carla Colson
117 Foster Road
Southwick MA, 01077

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Gertz
227 Mountain Rd
Ringoes, NJ, 08551

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

annie laurie
115 sicard ave
dracut MA, 01826

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thaw Malin iii
p. O. Box 8
chilmark MA, 02535

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Seth Kaplan
17 Douglas Drive
Sudbury MA, 01776

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve McFarland
383a 6th St
Brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Genser
32 First St
Suffern NY, 10901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Buck
142 Oak Road
Monroe NY, 10950

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

B Persky
1815 Palmer Ave Apt 2J
Larchmont NY, 10538

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniela Iannone
103 Penn Place
Linden NJ, 07036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Keating-Secular
6361 99th Street
Rego Park NY, 11374

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ben Bohen
408 Saint Johns Pl Apt 6C
Brooklyn NY, 11238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kathleen cassel
3 Washington Square Village 6D
new York NY, 10012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Gile
3678 Cold River Rd.
Shrewsbury VT, 05738

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nathaniel Doherty
63 Meadow Wood Rd
Branford CT, 06405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please champion REAL net neutrality: Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Schafer
13 Highland Ave. #3
Roxbury MA, 02119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Please keep the faith in AMERICAN freedom alove.

Best, W. Powers

Sincerely,

Wesley Powers
186 Millbrook Rd
Hardwick NJ, 07825

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

susan carey
15033 20th road
whitestone NY, 11357

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patti Knorps
6637 Fairmount Ave
Downers Grove IL, 60516

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mara Loeb
3904 Harrison Street
Monroe LA, 71203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JAMIE MANDRAKE
17 QUEBEC ST
PORTLAND ME, 04101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I admire your leadership at the FCC on behalf of real net neutrality. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's "net neutrality" plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please consider your work a truly democratic Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's "net neutrality" plan which is NOT neutral by any means.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Weiss
1359 Blair Ave.
St. Paul, MN, 55104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Davies
13 Lantern St
Greenlawn NY, 11740

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Preston Kroll
1180 N Prairie St
Galesburg IL, 61401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ashley Olson
468 W. Johnson St. #2
River Falls WI, 54022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katherine Lorencz
10312 Page Road
Streetsboro OH, 44241

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

DAVID LINDSEY
313 VALLEY VIEW DR
BEAVER DAM KY, 42320

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Duff
415 Delcamp Dr.
Lexington KY, 40508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Krenz
101 Femrite Dr.
Madison WI, 53716

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rodney Roberts
40 Howard Street
Portsmouth NH, 03801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Walton
2207 Gerald Ave.
Missoula MT, 59801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Woodbury, Ph.D.
8579 Darnel Road
Eden Prairie MN, 55347

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Madden
582 N Oaklawn Ave
Elmhurst IL, 60126

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Crispin Garcia
W332 S5424 Hood Parkway
North Prairie WI, 53153

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Reinke
2845 Moland Street
Madison WI, 53704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donna Olsen
575 Stinson Blvd.
New Brighton MN, 55112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gayle B. Wade
6040 S. Harper Ave., Apt. 908
Chicago IL, 60637

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane LeDuc
95 Church St
Harwich MA, 02645

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

d g
3508 Black Gold Dr
McKinney TX, 75070

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

June Polewko
329 Wood St.
DeKalb IL, 60115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Don't let our internet be sold to the highest bidder. If real net neutrality dies with a bill like this one, then what we are allowed to do, see, and say on the internet will be in the hands of whoever pays the most to companies that do nothing more than let us through the toll-booth onto the internet. Freedom of speech and the press will die on the internet without Net Neutrality, and what this guy is proposing just isn't it.

Sincerely,

Brett Durci
13679 Route 19
Waterford PA, 16441

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Liz Howard
5700 scruggs way apt 5212
Plano TX, 75024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alison Wagner
901 S Washington Ave
Park Ridge IL, 60068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Wheeless
13500 Mockingbird Ln.
Bentonville AR, 72712

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Wiland
10104 Kay Ridge
Yukon OK, 73099

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christine Morrissey
1102 N Union St
Appleton WI, 54911

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Martin
455 Longmeadow Drive
Shelburne VT, 05482

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stacy Morse
3217 E Lake Dr
Nashville TN, 37214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
ALSO BRING BACK THE FAIRNESS DOCTRIN!!!!!!

Sincerely,

Kendrith Wimberley
10076 Charlois RD
Milton FL, 32583

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Ehrenberg
4539 W. Deming Pl.
Chicago IL, 60639

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

justin ram
5100 verde valley ln
dallas TX, 75254

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Byron C. Hood
13225 Cloverleaf Lane
Oklahoma City OK, 73170

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kendra Holt
1111W.Univ.Blvd.
Wheaton MD, 20902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Geiger
12909 E 39th Ter S
Independence MO, 64055

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Dedelow
1032 City Park Ave Lowr
New Orleans LA, 70119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Bennedum
100 Chenango Pl. Apt. #203
Binghamton NY, 13901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Holly Tyson
110 W State St
Kennett Square PA, 19348

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

TC Carstensen
2423 Indiana Ave.
Columbus OH, 43202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

brad fanger
18 Forest St
Wilmington MA, 01887

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Garten
4432 N COLONY BLVD
THE COLONY TX, 75056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, please vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Luther 1407 Farrar Drive
Rolla MO, 65401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Kelly
10810 Lombardy Road
Silver Spring MD, 20901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shane McAndrew
911 E. Park Sq.
Prospect Park PA, 19076

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Gervais
634 Albany
Ferndale MI, 48220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Colleen Brathwaite
200 Old Army Road
Scarsdale NY, 10583

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Geralyn horton
49 washington pk
Newton MA, 02460

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

We need your continued strong support for net neutrality and appreciate what you have done to date to keep the net equally accessible to all.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margo Vanderhill
504 Garfield St
Alton` IA, 51003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aaron Brown
1642 Chestnut Dr.
Crown Point IN, 46307

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Taub
14 Ferris Ave #7
Norwalk CT, 06854

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard E. McGinnis
14617 Turtle Creek Circle
Lutz FL, 33549

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Wilbanks
12714 El Marro
San Antonio TX, 78233

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gloria Reiser
2301 Maine St
Quincy IL, 62301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brenda Peterson
164-10 107th Ave
Jamaica Queens NY, 11433

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dena Dincauze
123 Spencer Drive
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aidria Torres
33 Ruskin Ave
Methuen MA, 01844

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Purcell DVM
32 Old Nashua Road
Londonderry NH, 03053

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stacy A. Zimmerman
2712 Pecan Leaf Lane
Flower Mound TX, 75022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Ebert
240 Lucious Dr
Pembroke GA, 31321

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Phillips
1109 Rear Main Street
Boonville MO, 65233

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Richardson
1330 W. 91st Street
Cleveland OH, 44102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathy Moseley
3576 W. Lyndale
Chicago IL, 60647

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Allan Linscott
17 Fairview ave
Natick MA, 01760

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Rookey
10710 Sleeman Creek Rd
Lolo MT, 59847

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bonnie Johnston
4031 Green Valley Drive
Bryan TX, 77802

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sam Stamport
7272 Marvin D Love Fwy
Dallas TX, 75237

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Savidge
1105 Primrose Ct Apt 301
Annapolis MD, 21403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jared McGrath
9307 Long Branch Parkway
Silver Spring MD, 20901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marvin Engel
21 Chute Rd
Dedham MA, 02026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leslie Provatas
PO Box 363, 350 King Street
Orient NY, 11957

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Rutkowski
2527 Faxon Ct.
Topeka KS, 66605

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julia Rola
6319 Morningside Dr
Kansas City MO, 64113

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kat Jepson
16 Ledgelawn Ave
Bar Harbor ME, 04609

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brett Goldberg
452 Park Place
Brooklyn NY, 11238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Jasper
110 Hampton Way
Merrick NY, 11566

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Talia Braude
269 Macon St # 3
Brooklyn NY, 11216

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ed Ferrara
651 2ND Ave Apt 2A
Long Branch NJ, 07740

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Levine
35 Clark Street Apt 5B
Brooklyn NY, 11201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Neill
19 Windingway
cape may court House, NJ, 08210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ralph Alessi
31 Park Place #1
Brooklyn NY, 11217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kevin lapin
169 park place
Brooklyn NY, 11238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Kurzweil
P.O. Box 290601
Brooklyn NY, 11229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Libertino
161 Henry Street, #3D
Brooklyn NY, 11201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tayo Gabler
64 W. Pleasant St.
Bristol VT, 05443

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

adam mendola bedford avenue
Brooklyn NY, 11205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cody Lancaster
4134 Crescent St Apt 12K
Long Is City NY, 11101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

M Kirshner
Mariners Way
Copiague NY, 11726

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Theodore Wirth
2101 Middlefield Court
Denville NJ, 07834

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lance McKee
10 Circuit Avenue East
Worcester MA, 01603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Beran Sanderson
545 Prospect Place #8D
Brooklyn NY, 11238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Montgomery
10 Gerome Ave
Burlington NJ, 08016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Catherine Graham
70 Margaret St.
Arlington MA, 02474

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brenda Bartone
477 South Rd
Wakefield RI, 02879

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

DONNA ZSOLDOS
27C Lincoln Place
North Brunswick NJ, 08902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laurie Lawler
225 Elm
Annandale MN, 55302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Bidgood
1428 S Pearl St
Independence MO, 64055

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Lang
550 Main Street
Northport NY, 11768

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

maria martinez
42 Hicks St.
Brooklyn NY, 11201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please do not let the giant corporations take over the Internet -- this is the free speech issue of this era -- we will see them latch on and start tearing away chunks of it as their private domain, soon there will be two internets one for the rich and a slow bandwidth-starved one for the people who could no longer afford to pay for what the will be charging.

Don't let them hijack the net. It should be for everyone.

Thank you.
Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeanne Lorenzo
1601 Church Road
Southampton NJ, 08088

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Eddison
1109 Cresswell Dr
Pflugerville TX, 78660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Abby Leigh
49 E 68TH St
New York NY, 10065

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lauren Price
532 6th Avenue, #2L
Brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Herb Salmon
249 Federal Hill Rd
Milford NH, 03055

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The best net for everybody is the best path to a strong future.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Hay
6 Everit St
New Haven CT, 06511

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helena Cortes
926 Sierra Vista Lane
Valley Cottage NY, 10989

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amanda Justice
279 Prospect Ave. #2B
Brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JIM VEGHER
PO Box 2577
Providence RI, 02906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rob Arnow
358 Dean St # 2
Brooklyn NY, 11217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Krista Spencer
12t turnbull ave
Wakefield MA, 01880

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you (YEA!). When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's FAKE net neutrality plan, I know you can be a Champ again.!

Be a hero for the American people, who rely on the internet for communication and information.. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's plan.

Thank you for what you have done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Saeger
74 Richards St
Dedham MA, 02026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jonathan ortiz
1307 pacific street
Brooklyn NY, 11216

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Yoches
83 Hester St. Apt 5A
New York NY, 10002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charlotte Alexandre
5732 E. 62nd Place
Tulsa OK, 74136

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sal Mangiagli
54 Old Turnpike Rd
Haddam CT, 06438

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Stauff
2583 N Oakland Ave
Milwaukee WI, 53211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

latonya pulley
14435 long meadow drive
houston TX, 77047

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The last thing in the world I want is for the internet to be controlled, sorted or prioritized in any way. The little guy's web site should come up just as fast as the big guy's and all devices should have equal access to all content. The net is free as it stands now. Don't change it.

Sincerely,

Tobias Hurwitz
238 east burke ave
towson MD, 21286

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michelle Ognjanovic
7 West 104 St.
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Ronan
6435 Bayou Glen Rd
Houston TX, 77057

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Shuffield
4510-A Depew Ave.
Austin TX, 78751

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lance Keimig
55 Corporate Park Dr
Pembroke MA, 02359

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

robert penney
po box 10881
brooksville FL, 34603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jody McAllister
188 Newark Ave.
jersey city NJ, 07302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Shortell
206 Saint Marks Ave #3R
Brooklyn NY, 11238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edward Cruz
607 W. Elizabeth St.
Austin TX, 78704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn Armstrong
P.O. Box 119
Fayetteville AR, 72702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shawn Simonson
49898 211 Street
Lake Crystal MN, 56055

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Grosse
333 Point Ct
Algonquin IL, 60102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Travis Vaughan
501 Holland Lane Unit 505
Alexandria VA, 22314

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erica Mena-Landry
32 Beacon St. #3
Somerville MA, 02143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fidel S. Arbolaez
5550 Highlands Vista Cir.
Lakeland FL, 33812

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Johnson
10551 CR 404
Spicewood TX, 78669

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jana crawford o'brien
po box 454
bradley beach NJ, 07720