Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debora Anthonisen
6045 Lyndale Ave S, #360
Minneapolis MN, 55419

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen J Pickford
2239 Lick Ridge Road
Check VA, 24072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Showalter
15607 SW 85th Lane
Miami FL, 33193

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Renee Maxwell
201 Fourth Ave
Columbia MO, 65203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martin Beck
3166 Georgetown Rd
Paris KY, 40361

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mike downs
8001 wilkerson ct
auxvasse MO, 65231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ivah Urbanski
2816 W Estes
Chicago IL, 60645

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Spillers
7776 SE 168th Lone Oak Loop
The Villages FL, 32162

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I am a writing teacher at a community college, and I will always be a huge champion for net neutrality because I believe it is an essential tool for democracy. We must not allow corporate interests to dominate the Internet. They have plenty of buying power - let them fend for themselves. Keep net neutrality so that my students and other ordinary citizens will continue to have equal access to the Internet to share their views and experiences and develop their ideas along with others. In an open society like ours, the Internet has become an indispensable tool for citizenship.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karin Evans
1040 Erie St Apt 303
Oak Park IL, 60302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Sanborn 709 W Broadway
Winona MN, 55987

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Georgiana Brown
18W772 Ave Normandy East
Oak Brook IL, 60523

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Rothstein
8415 Whispering Woods Court
Lakewood Rnch FL, 34202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Voss
69 Gray St
Billerica MA, 01821

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Metcalf
509 N. Prospect Manor Ave.
Mount Prospect IL, 60056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Drew
6171 N. Sheridan Rd., #806
Chicago IL, 60660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

A. G. Hansen
4949 W. 141st Street
Crestwood IL, 60445

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Atom Davis
302 w 32nd st. apt b
Savannah GA, 31401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dianne Gentrup
356 Lewis Clark Tr
Yankton SD, 57078

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Herbert Wrabel
38 Somerset DriveS
Suffern NY, 10901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Cummings
13951 W. 115th St.
Olathe KS, 66062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Catherine Haug
PO Box 1693
Bigfork MT, 59911

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

I am one of many of all classes and persuasions who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Philippa Solomon
9 Marshall Drive
Edison NJ, 08817

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for being a champion for real net neutrality.

When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Hart
4 Mallard Pl
South Windsor CT, 06074

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

As an American who believes that giant power-players of all kinds ought to be limited in their ability to dominate business and political affairs whilst oppressing the "little guy, I urge you to do the right thing and protect real internet neutrality.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Seth A Read
197 Cedar St
Somerville MA, 02145

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Max Keene
4101 1th St. NE
TUSCALOOSA AL, 35404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ed Morse
326 Hatchery Ln
Lake Mills WI, 53551

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you.
Please! Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's [fake] net neutrality plan. Where is neutrality the plan actually permits paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; requires reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate for meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.
Please, one more time, do what's right and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bryan miller
102 w taylor ave
charleston IL, 61920

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ismini Karvela
56 N. Evergreen Dr.
Selden N. Y NY, 11784

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Boston
149 portland ave.
Dover NH, 03820

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

martin arnold
17 arnold ln
mt vernon ME, 04352

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alfred Zlotopolski
9434 Altonwood Dr.
St. Louis MO, 63136

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

BiLL Fowlie
19 Wellington Rd
Harmony ME, 04942

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Rainey
246 W. 16th St.
New York NY, 10011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sherry McCowan
2619 South 11th Street
Saint Louis MO, 63118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Duane Ullrey
2090 TAMARACK DRIVE
OKEMOS MI, 48864

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James J. O'Malley
922 Dartmouth Drive
Wheaton IL, 60187

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeannie Finlay-Kochanowski
229 Majestic Drive
Toledo OH, 43608

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

TRACEY WOLFE
4105 N WAPPEL DRIVE
COLUMBIA MO, 65203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Heriberto
1446 W Highland Ave
Chicago IL, 60660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Barnum
734 Villa Place
Saint Louis MO, 63132

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack & Elaine Buttermore
4046 Merrimac Ave
Dayton OH, 45405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cherie Miner
1129 S Avenue
Elliott IA, 51532

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard O'Meara
655 W. Irving park Rd Unit 417
Chicago IL, 60613

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Whalin
3526 Whitehall Drive #302
West Palm Beach FL, 33401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ashley Hietpas
128 Page Street
Orlando FL, 32806

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lana Hampton
4517 N. Ashland Ave.
Chicago IL, 60640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Fry
645 Sapphire Circle
Dubuque IA, 52001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. Decide for the internet and for freedom.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Delaney
4531 Candleglow Dr.
St. Louis MO, 63129

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Willem Dickhoff
4750 Westminster Pl
Saint Louis MO, 63108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john hutchinson 11 andrews ct
parkton MD, 21120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Dorman
300 west 108th street 6A
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amy Robbins
2547 Lu-al Dr.
Benton Harbor MI, 49022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mary clark
1113 coral dr
roseville CA, 95661

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gregory Stark
P.O. Box 1713
Gambier OH, 43022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rajan Wadhwani
1 Franklin Town Blvd. Apt. 710
Philadelphia PA, 19103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Gooch
31987 Hawk Rd
Vandalia MO, 63382

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dana Nigro
5112 maple
Mission KS, 66202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Angarone
73 Hillhurst Avenue
Hamilton NJ, 08619

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thelma Coogler
Pinewood Ave
Toledo OH, 43607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Callaghan
7108 Daggett Terrace
New Port Richey FL, 34655

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger Underhill
520 Shields St.
san francisco CA, 94132

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott King
4038 pillsbury avenue south
Minneapolis MN, 55409

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

leslie frederick 1636 chappel woods trail national city MI, 48748

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Esther Pinterits
3019 Chestnut St
Grand Forks ND, 58201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

This is a matter of utmost importance to millions of internet users like me. Don't let us down, please.

Sincerely,

Barry Ford
1334 N. Las Palmas Ave., #217
Los Angeles CA, 90028

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Engdahl
19 Hall Lane
St. Paul MN, 55107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas Love
3-D Plateau Place
Greenbelt MD, 20770

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rikje Maria Ruiter
Zaagmolenkade 7
Utrecht CA, 35155

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Lucas
28w719 Barnes Ave
West Chicago IL, 60185

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Romans
7 Barton Dr
Greensboro VT, 05841

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Valorie Calton
693 Three Springs Road
Russellville TN, 37860

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet and for our country. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

So many Americans will be switching to wireless broadband and they deserve the same Internet as wired citizens.

Sincerely,

Parker Langvardt
1501 Montague
Midland MI, 48642

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diana Washburn
400 Willard Street
Leominster MA, 01453

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerry Edward Porter
10406 Forestglen Ct.
Peoria, IL. IL, 61615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Silver
1829 Sea Oats Drive
Atlantic Beach FL, 32233

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alexandra Gordon
11701 SW 80 Rd.
Miami FL, 33156

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Woodard
5510 N. Sheridan Rd
Chicago IL, 60640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lloyd Loring
19025 Oakmont South Dr
South Bend IN, 46637

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

robert spiro 256gristmilllane greatneck NY, 11023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Russ Beaver
4428 Meadow Dr
Pekin IL, 61554

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Blane
2427 W Medill Av
Chicago IL, 60647

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alberta Lesko
50 Corte de Sabla
Greenbrae CA, 94904

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

It is with dismay that I write to you today. The future of the open internet is at stake, and you are a key figure in what happens. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Grish
7502 Northcrest Blvd.
Austin TX, 78752

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Avolio
20 Gardner Pl.
Oneonta NY, 13820

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dr. Rollen Halvorson
1933 Mt Carmel
Alexandria MN, 56308

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Morris G. Huck
2602 S. Nottingham Court
Champaign IL, 61821

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janis s
PO Box 4697
Santa Rosa Beach FL, 32459

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Porter
5305 Denton Place
Madison WI, 53711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Paula Widmer
P. O. Box 711
Wilton ME, 04294

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martin Powers
6330 Washington street
Chicago Ridge IL, 60415

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lucky Mosqueda
3751 W. Agatite Ave #2
Chicago IL, 60625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Johnson
17852 Bramer Lane
Spring Lake MI, 49456

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

R. Bush
no paper mail please
Jeffersonville IN, 47130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

karenr rouse
2052 atwater circle
norfolk VA, 23509

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marilyn A. Waltasti
83 Duncan Hill Court
Wentzville MO, 63385

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Loreen Troy
13225 Silver Fox Dr
Lemont IL, 60439

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maurice Horn
404 Pondera Ave.
"Bozeman," MT, 59718

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ero Lippold
3 Lexington Green
S. Burlington VT, 05403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lori Mallams
142 S Front St
North Liberty IA, 52317

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I know you care about true net neutrality. Please vote against Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. The future of the internet could be in your hands.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Menamin
109 Jenna Dr
Verona WI, 53593

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

I am incredibly grateful that you are in a position to "stand in the gap" at this critical juncture in the struggle for a truly open and user-friendly internet.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jenifer Morgan
279 Sunnyridge Road
Burnsville NC, 28714

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Grenfell
35 Marsh Woods Lane
Wilmington DE, 19810

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lee Rachel Jurman
306 Webster St.
Auburndale MA, 02466

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debbie Biere
7617 Meadowbrook Lane
Barnhart MO, 63012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cara Rosson
901 E Mossville Rd
Peoria IL, 61615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gene Jorg
411 W Olive
Prospect Heights IL, 60070

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

cynthia Lehman
51 Avery Avenue
Buffalo NY, 14216

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Sanford
P.O. Box 826
Saugatuck MI, 49453

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chessa Rae Johnson
5423 Constance Street
New Orleans LA, 70115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michelle Darbro
5311 SW 22 Terr.
Fort Lauderdale FL, 33312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peggy Schramm
1335 N. Jackson St.
Waukegan IL, 60085

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Denise Hill
508 2nd Street
Nashwauk MN, 55769

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Gogins
150 West 95th St. Apt. 4-D
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Glenn Welsh
619 Maple Ave
Ho Ho Kus NJ, 07423

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Conrad
3191 Route 9
Cold Spring NY, 10516

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

brian jessup
11341 hiawatha ln.
La Grange IL, 60525

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doug Ford
8202 LakeAve
Cincinnati OH, 45236

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sally Vitamvas
314 Pearl Street
Silver City IA, 51571

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Spain
6955 Fords Station Road
Germantown TN, 38138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Blue
3046 Viola Drive
Sarasota FL, 34239

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

W Jean Rohrer
311A Main St/PO Box 444
Southwest Harbor ME, 04679

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

J. Alessi
3555 N. Racine Ave.
Chicago IL, 60657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cindy Nodland
2122 E 13TH Ave
Denver CO, 80206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Eaton
743 Bushwick Ave., Apt. 2
Brooklyn NY, 11221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Billie Watkins
Box 1056
Clinton MS, 39060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
Ben Eisenstein
Portland OR

Sincerely,

Ben Eisenstein
766 nw westover sq
Portland OR, 97210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Wise
741 Ponce de Leon Court NE #8
Atlanta GA, 30308

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandra Cutter
2399 Skyline Way, Unit 102
Anacortes WA, 98221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kelly sakir
201 N. Figueroa #1200
Los Angeles CA, 90012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shelley Burns
P.O. Box 604
Duvall WA, 98019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bill sutton
412 w. california
urbana IL, 61801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Miller
5929 Sunrise Dr
Minneapolis MN, 55419

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Penni S. Livingston
5701 Perrin Road
Fairview Heights IL, 62208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Anderson
905 A St Apt 7
Charleston IL, 61920

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Bishop
907 Scott Station Rd
Jefferson City MO, 65109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Tomlinson
PO Box 163
Minetto NY, 13115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please know that I am standing behind you when you vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.
No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. Thank you.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lydia Busler-Blais
15 Pleasantview St
Montpelier VT, 05602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

tim mcmahan 1727 N hood
wichita KS, 67203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Behrens
1500 Mount Vernon St.
Orlando FL, 32803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marsha Brown
68-24 Utopia Parkway
Fresh Meadows, Queens NY, 11365

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas J. Littelmann
5506 W Brooklyn Pl
Milwaukee WI, 53216

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jesse Ahlman
3170 Kagen Ave NE
Saint Michael MN, 55376

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Vrabel
4929 38th Ave. S.
Minneapolis MN, 55417

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jose Peralta
1334 Fielding St.
Ferndale MI, 48220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Arel
4 Longfellow Dr
Dennis MA, 02638

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Aceto
221 Joseph St.
Greenville NC, 27858

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Wirtz
PO Box 896
Harrisonburg VA, 22803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Larimer
4611 Valley Road
Lincoln NE, 68510

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

The fact that Big Telecom Companies like the Chairman's plan is all the proof needed that it is not in the interests of American Citizens. Please reject it. Vote NO!

Sincerely,

Kieran Ladner
904 W Barry
Chicago IL, 60657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Splan
80 w. nw hwy
Palatine IL, 60067

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

nicole kaghat old farm road newtown CT, 06470

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harold Brown
3770 County Road 1
Hector NY, 14841

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marisa Kalt
172 West Rock Ave.
New Haven CT, 06515

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan Breit
PO Box 252
North Newton KS, 67117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Zacharias
7 Short Hills Ave
Short Hills NJ, 07078

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Moira Howard-Jeweler
5626 Tower Hill Circle
Alexandria VA, 22315

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Smith
468 Westdale Ave.
Winona MN, 55987

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathe Garbrick
2944 Keats Ave
Manhattan KS, 66503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nolan Burchfield
455 Higgason RD.
McCool MS, 39108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Wanek
5627 Erskine St.
Omaha NE, 68104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william warner
8345 NW 66th St., #6706
Miami FL, 33166

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JULIE KORN
304 S. STATE STREET
CHIPPEWA FALLS WI, 54729

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Goodwin
72 Lawrence Street
Yonkers NY, 10705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Glaser
713 56th Street South
Birmingham AL, 35212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sue E Fiedler
6770 Dupere Lane
Lake Worth FL, 33467

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Jefferson
240 Alabama, Apart. A
Lawrence KS, 66044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lee Althen
325 Annette Drive
Centerville OH, 45458

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eli Brown
9 Windsor Pl # 3
Brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Widman
802 Pearl Ave
Baytown TX, 77520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please be a hero for the Internet. Vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote NO Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21. We're counting on you!

Sincerely,

Marilyn Voorhies
38 Clark Point Rd.
West Tremont ME, 04612

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Truesdale
8086 Queen Palm Ln.
Fort Myers FL, 33966

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

* * * *

The guys that wrote this form letter are much nicer people than me. I cannot for the life of me fathom why you would allow corporations to shape the flow of information on the Internet. We already have a GIGANTIC problem with corporate propaganda. The Internet is the ONLY place where a person can truly look for and find ANYTHING. It's the only source of information John Q. Public can really trust, precisely because it is not being shaped by gatekeepers. Kill it with your ersatz net neutrality, and you will do grievous harm to our democracy.

Sincerely,

Leslie Mulkey
8 Peter Cooper Road
New York NY, 10010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Our democracy is at stake!

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Wyndham
36 Union Street
Peterborough NH, 03458

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Oilicec
24 Euclid Avenue
Ridgefield Park NJ, 07660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.
This is not the time to lossen the protecion on access controls . The only thing that businesses have an intrest in is increased proffits at th expense of the public.
Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Turek
2372 Como Ave.#2
Saint Paul MN, 55108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phyllis Pallett-Hehn
90 Riverview Road
Westbrook CT, 06498

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sean Mac an Airchinnigh
6709 Falcon Ridge Ln
McKinney TX, 75071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Everhart
80 Damon Rd
Northampton MA, 01060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nathan Rosen
5300 Merceron Ave.
Baltimore MD, 21207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Kellermann
915 Olive Strteet
St. Louis MO, 63101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wendy Robertson
P O Box 450
Amherst VA, 24521

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john brinkman
385 graham ave
brooklyn NY, 11211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maude Wahlman
9700 Overbrook Rd
Leawood KS, 66206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary E O'Kiersey
938 Ontario St., #1
Oak Prk IL, 60302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Ladd, Jr.
174 Oneal Lane
Aydlett NC, 27916

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Hogarty
1710 Dollar Lake Dr.
Kent OH, 44240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Rodgers
1102 Park Place
College Station TX, 77840

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Travis Israels
1800 Watrous Ave
Des Moines IA, 50315

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Colleen Briedrick
650 N Wood 2N
Chicago IL, 60622

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Howard Baer
1110 Mockingbird Lane
Norman OK, 73071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Dowbusz
20709 Bellerive Dr
Pflugerville TX, 78660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bradley Hoot
839 W. Cornelia Ave.
Chicago IL, 60657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Holger Tressin
Braunfelsweg 33
DÃ¼sseldorf KY, 40229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Bigelow
349 Corbett Ave.
San Francisco CA, 94114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michelle Greene
2613 Washington Ave
Kansas City KS, 66102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Davis
220 E Downer Pl
Aurora IL, 60505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I apologize in advance for killing a small part of a tree to send this.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Hooper
1104 S. Third St
Effingham IL, 62401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Russell Lockett
177 Caldwell Dr Apt B4
cincinnati OH, 45216

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
I just wanted to add that the potential for hacking, or harvesting personal information is multiplied exponentially here; there is no accountability with corporate overseership--they don't have an electorate.

Sincerely,

bronwyn mills
134 W. Hewitt Ave
Marquette MI, 49855

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helen Corkin
4584 Seneca Dr
Okemos MI, 48864

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rodney Derbigny
PO Box 16303
Sugar Land TX, 77496

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Middleditch
244 Montrose Ave #2L
Brooklyn NY, 11206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john hansen
424 lake ave. apt.210
racine WI, 53403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn Marie Macy
115 Elm Street
Cranford NJ, 07016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lori Troupe
1012 Bertch Ave.
Waterloo IA, 50702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a champion for the free Internet. Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

TL Parson
517 Doddridge Ave
Cloquet MN, 55720

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nick Cooper
8377 Westview Drive
Houston TX, 77055

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard I Sunshine
38 Gaston Mountain Road
Asheville NC, 28806

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

PLEASE SUPPORT TRUE DEMOCRACY AND FREEDOM OF INFORMATION and NOT corporate interests!!!!

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Angus
336 Melrose Drive, Unit 12C
Richardson TX, 75080

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kimberly Roseberry
116 Main St Ste 201
Biddeford ME, 04005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Greenberg
910 S. Michigan Ave. #2007
Chicago IL, 60605

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Kay
1317 Rhode Island Ave NW
Washington DC, 20005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Cutler
20 Avenue A-
New York NY, 10009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Reneau
5647 S. Blackstone Avenue
Chicago IL, 60637

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

rosalinda sanquiche
1344 Grant St.
Saint Augustine FL, 32084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I'm told you've been a strong supporter of real net neutrality. The proposal Chairman Genachowski will present at the Dec. 21 meeting is not real net neutrality. Please vote against it.

It's a very important issue and your choice will make a great difference to millions.

Real net neutrality should not permit paid prioritization or different rules for wireless broadband. Real net neutrality should include proper reclassification of broadband..

There's wide support in the US for such measures. The internet is a vital part of our society's future, not only as a part of modern culture but as part of our country's future as a leader in technology.

Thank you for your time and efforts.

Sincerely,

David Brandt
26 Coolidge Ave
Stamford CT, 06906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erica Pfister
265 Quaker City Rd.
Unity NH, 03603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

DANIEL HILLAKER
400 E 59th st
Kansas City MO, 64110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

MELissa Mays
Box 395
Knox PA, 16232

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jordan Peterson
150 S Hancock St # 978
Madison WI, 53703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Wemstrom
3451 N Carriageway Dr
Arlington Heights IL, 60004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Mackowski
PO Box 201
Fairport NY, 14450

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phyllis Fischer
104 Court St.
Farmington ME, 04938

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps, No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan. No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections. Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Glenn
3918 1st Avenue N
Saint Petersburg FL, 33713

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher van Wert
610 W. Main St, APT 223
Durham NC, 27701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Turuc
7509 marblehead
Wonder Lake IL, 60097

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Monica Rook
8843 Reshard Lane
Tallahassee FL, 32309

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kenneth Thomas
9222 Crawford Ave.
St. Louis MO, 63144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jama Robinson
3625 Knight Ct SW
Cedar Rapids IA, 52404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Thank you for everything you've done and continue to keep the Internet open and free.

Sincerely,

Rob Milburn
2751 W. Giddings St. 3W
Chicago IL, 60625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Ozias
2097 Highfield
Waterford MI, 48329

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lou Elsaesser
6958 Mill Road
Brecksville OH, 44141

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Elias 7629 N. Seneca Road
Fox Point WI, 53217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Green
735 Delaware Rd
Buffalo NY, 14223

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick Martin
1034 W. Oak St.
Fort Collins CO, 80521

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marjory Trott
8 Dukes Road
Nantucket MA, 02554

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helen Gennari
5368 N. Kenrick Parke Dr.
St. Louis MO, 63119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
A quick analogy, paying to enter a dept store, then paying to visit each dept of interest, is not good business, the internet is for communication and education, the list is endless and demands the protections of regulation from predatory business

Sincerely,

Fred Coplin
4885 1st ST NE #212
Saint Petersburg FL, 33703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ML Menikheim
527 S Broadway
Stillwater MN, 55082

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Malloy
7395 Crompton Ct. N
Atlanta GA, 30350

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Ireland
1975 Selby Ave.
Saint Paul MN, 55104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John S Freitag
1081 Trevino Lane
Herndon VA, 20170

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael W. Armstrong
1917 Dana Drive
Adelphi MD, 20783

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lucy hunnicutt
30448 orange st.
perdido beach AL, 36530

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Schmeck
209 Pinewood Drive
Columbia MO, 65203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Morris
233 W Spring St
Plymouth MI, 48170

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lester Nunnelee
268 Meadow Lane
Murfreesboro TN, 37128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shirley Anderson
103 Boxwood Trl
Locust Grove VA, 22508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thuan Trinh
209 Tulip Dr.
Gaithersburg MD, 20877

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dirk Durant
111 S. 3rd St.
Lindsborg KS, 67456

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edmund Good
640 Sandra Ave
Harrisburg PA, 17109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

nancy badura
4218 calif st
o NE, 68131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Mohning
7029 Wikle Rd W
Brentwood TN, 37027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Tyler
611 Mohawk Dr
Erie PA, 16505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

MA Holland
16 South Main St
Derry NH, 03038

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Virginia Magee
7517 N. Bell
Chicago IL, 60645

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Snowden
5145 Westbard Ave.
Bethesda MD, 20816

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cathryn Kissinger
61266 Kadon Drive
New Concord OH, 43762

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

A lot of people like to throw around the phrase "This is America" in order to say "we're free here, you can't do that". In the spirit of America, not the one that violently eliminates opposition, but the one that takes freedom seriously, I ask that you become a hero. Everyone wants to be a hero right?

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carl Hayman
1213 Vance Ave
Coraopolis PA, 15108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Vandenboom
23 Willow Circle
Cary IL, 60013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ryan Davis
6435 Oak Crest Lane
Loves Park IL, 61111

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michael nall
1800 atlantic blvd.
key west FL, 33040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Copple
4472 Periwinkle
Manhattan KS, 66502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Farrar
356 Middle Country Rd
Coram NY, 11727

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Garness
102 S. Lathrop Ave.
Forest Park IL, 60130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Riley
1420 S 18th St
Lafayette IN, 47905

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chase Hiller
3301 Serenity Way
Owings Mills MD, 21117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Oliver
9355 Konocti Bay Road
Kelseyville CA, 95451

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you.

When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet.

Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.

Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Thank you for your considerations.

Sincerely,

Curtis Holley
615 Cherry St. #311
Terre Haute IN, 47807

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christine MERLLIE-YOUNG
7318 N County rRd 1380E
Charleston IL, 61920

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gracie Dumeny
25 Mohave DR
Sherwood AR, 72120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ranelle Christle
1732 nestlewood LN
TALLAHASSEE FL, 32301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Binter
1941 S. Park ave
Haddon Heights NJ, 08035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Net neutrality is a big issue for Americans now, and I hope that you will vote to maintain the internet as truly neutral. I am counting on the government to preserve the internet as I know it, and not turn it into a pay to play scam.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Rodd
7429 Southwest Highway worth IL, 60482

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat Poggi
PO Box 688
Laguna Beach CA, 92652

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Liz Campbell
605 n 64th street
seattle WA, 98103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Harper
5045 Rochester Pl.
Riverside CA, 92504

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Reilley
1122 E Pike
Seattle WA, 98122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Viken
1750 Washington St. #4
San Francisco CA, 94109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amy Tucker
5174 Metolius Ave SE
Salem OR, 97306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Brehler
2332 Morning Star Dr.
Roaming Shores OH, 44084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Cwik
320 E. 21st St. #411
Chicago IL, 60616

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jesse Friedlander
769 South Ave
Rochester NY, 14620

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ML Ewing
2211 E county Rd 1680
Carthage IL, 62321

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melanie Mangels
1625 NE Clubhouse Dr.,#302
North Kansas City MO, 64116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Luke Belz
5739 N. East Circle
Chicago IL, 60631

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Ertelt
PO Box P216
South Dartmouth MA, 02748

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Maxfield
53 Tanner Street
Portsmouth NH, 03801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Dunford
521 Red Oak Dr
Mandeville LA, 70471

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

richard bard
435 East 57th St, Ap[t 6B
New York NY, 10022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Miller
92 Poteat Street
Fletcher NC, 28732

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

charles james 511 east 8th St #3
little rock AR, 72202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Lovett
18310 Otter Creek Trail
Humble TX, 77346

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Isaac Emery
116 South 6th Street
Lafayette IN, 47901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ryn turner
3326 golden tee ct
MISSOURI CITY TX, 77459

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joanna Bonnheim
2911 Sturdevandt Place
Wichita Falls TX, 76301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rick Sherman
po box 9221
Missoula MT, 59807

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
thank you for standing with the people on this very important issue. we need more people in government like you. davey cunningham

Sincerely,

davey cunningham
2239 n. sawyer
chicago IL, 60647

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Faye Lewis
2842 Donjoy Dr
Hebron KY, 41048

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for being the FCC's biggest champion of genuine net neutrality. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, I urge you to reject it -- your vote could be the deciding one.

Please continue to be a hero for the Internet! Organizations and everyday people of every race, class, and political opinion in America want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections. With most other media now in the hands of huge corporations, this nation's best remaining chance for the widest possible access of individuals and small businesses to the widest possible array of information and services depends crucially on genuine net neutrality.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor move forward without reclassifying broadband and thereby providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark C. Abbott
5124 N. 25th Place
Arlington VA, 22207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christine Polson
4923 Valley Street
Omaha NE, 68106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Swanson
9345 Earl St.
Golden Valley MN, 55427

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

vivian and john drean
4426 stonesriver ct
new port richey FL, 34653

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brigitte Kinniburgh
26 E 2ND St
New York NY, 10003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Moe
300 N. A1A
Jupiter FL, 33477

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Davis
4561 Anderson Ave
Homeworth OH, 44634

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Seth Cooper
350 E. 19th St. Apt. 5H
Brooklyn NY, 11226

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Cowan
13 Turner Dr
Bigelow AR, 72016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elaine Wolff
446 Rhododendron Dr
Terra Alta WV, 26764

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dee Vogel
132 mason Street
Santa Cruz CA, 95060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Roseberry
2151 E Lincoln Hwy
Levittown PA, 19056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Feliccia
12204 Academy Rd
Philadelphia PA, 19154

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Molesky
4301 Steubenville Rd SE
Amsterdam OH, 43903

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a better champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's dubious net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please continue to champion neutrality on the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's dubious net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gasper Sciacca
1370 Mission Drive
Sonoma CA, 95476

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rhonda Hertesntein
756 Farm Hill Court NE
Woodstock GA, 30188

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James M Nolan
1525 Clough Rd
Reno NV, 89509

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Anderson
41 Pine Hill Park
Valatie NY, 12184

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marla Serrine
354 Townhall Rd.
Metamora IL, 61548

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerry Bixby
891 KIRTS BLVD
TROY MI, 48084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Fairfield
27125 Edenbridge Court
Bonita Springs FL, 34135

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Harkins
PO Box 18
E. Parsonsfield ME, 04028

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Waldo LaTowsky
1404 Haysboro Ave.
Nashville TN, 37216

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jenna Conley
501 Franklin Ave W #303
Minneapolis MN, 55405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cindy Thompson
1084 w 2nd st
Xenia OH, 45385

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Emerson
1020 Berkeley Street
Durham NC, 27705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carson Kreitzer
4219 20th Ave. South
Minneapolis MN, 55407

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Ryan
1452 Hwy 2850
Verona KY, 41092

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peggy H..-Julius E. Harris
803 1Wormley Creek Drive
Yorktown VA, 23692

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kenneth Kris
3840 Dale Drove Brookfield WI, 53005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fred Krauss
2215 Oxford St
Rockford IL, 61103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David A. Gaddy-Cox
6344 georgia avenue
Kansas City, KS, 66104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Hahn
8003 Fawn Court
Brentwood MO, 63144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

amos c hummell
19 squiresgate road
hilton head island SC, 29926

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Marten
5716 N 225 W
West Lafayette IN, 47906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger Cormier
139 Buckeye Ave.
Oakland CA, 94618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jacob Schuman
8372 Navajo St.
Denver CO, 80221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Denise Christensen
2201 loreco st
bossier city LA, 71112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Novack
3717 Wyoming Way
Racine WI, 53404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Lomax
6012 Brown's Park Circle
Louisville KY, 40272

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marti Cohen-Wolf
355 South End Ave
New York NY, 10280

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
I'm counting on you to truly keep the internet open!

Sincerely,

Rolaine Smoot
5624 Coolidge St.
Riverview FL, 33578

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher D'Amato
P.O. Box 619
Blairstown NJ, 07825

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

marty Kraft
5644 Charlotte
Kansas City MO, 64110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathy Thurmer
2198 Hickory Path Dr
Cordova TN, 38016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Bauer
524 West 5th Street
Joplin MO, 64801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Spooner
106 Pinehurst Ave. Apt. A-26
New York NY, 10033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Pedersen
132 Bellehurst Drive
Rochester NY, 14617

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Mendez
19 Flint street
somerville, MA, 02145

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ronald g. ward 231 lenz dr.
kodak TN, 37764

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Keers
1946 W Potomac
Chicago IL, 60622

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Williams
8423 Woodbox Road
Manlius NY, 13104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

hector nava
5633 S Sacramento Ave
Chicago IL, 60629

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ray Huffman
14230 Marietta Run
Amesville OH, 45711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

joe jay
po box 233
ridgewood NJ, 07451

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sue colucci
7155 Hillside
Clarkston MI, 48346

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Moats
1100 Maple Ave.
Downers Grove IL, 60515

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Henry Wiggs
3238 Bryant
Minneapolis MN, 55408

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thad Pendleton
11550 S Justine St
Chicago IL, 60643

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I am a Comcast customer and I am appalled by their actions towards Netflix. I am paying for bandwidth and I should get it equally wherever I choose to surf!

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Garren
135 Spring Lake Rd
Cuttingsville VT, 05738

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandy Rounds
69 Bixby Hill Rd.
Essex Jct. VT, 05452

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Garrett
8530 Canfield Dr. #109
Dearborn Hts. MI, 48127

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen E Simon
851 Woodlea
Birmingham MI, 48009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maureen Sullivan
2232 Brightmoor Ct
Henrico VA, 23238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Crisler
2545 Crestwell Place
Kettering OH, 45420

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keyon Jeff
120 Alex Williams Ln
Houma LA, 70360

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Madison Lacy
850 Avalon Road, #5
Lawrence KS, 66044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cindy Waltershausen
E1790 Jeffers Lane
De Soto WI, 54624

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Moshe Nadby
2615 NE 1st CT. #303
Boynton Beach FL, 33435

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Kocalis
722 Kent Rd.
Kenilworth IL, 60043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janiece Senn
4140 Burgen Ave
St. Louis MO, 63116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Bivens
119 Hagar Court
Santa Cruz CA, 95064

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Wallace
5332 21st Ave SW
Seattle WA, 98106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Whatever happens, some people are going to be unhappy. For once, let that be the big corporations; the telecoms. Whether from my phone or computer, if I am paying for bandwidth, I should be able to use it any way I see fit INCLUDING ILLEGAL ACTIVITY! I include illegal activity because criminals are the problem, not their tools.

An American, George Williams

Sincerely,

George Williams
800 WRIGHT AVE
Richland WA, 99352

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randy Beaver
257 Fenner Hill Rd.
Hope Valley RI, 02832

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Kelly
303 23rd ave. S
Seattle WA, 98144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stuart Murphy
1110 Moreau Dr
Jefferson Cty MO, 65101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Malcolm
2121 Paula Drive
Jonesboro AR, 72404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joanne Shank
560 E. Holland Dr.
Bloomington IN, 47401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tyler Rhoads
495 Luarel Hill Rd.
Norwich CT, 06360

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Davis
9919 Mariner St
Portage MI, 49002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cindy Shore
42 Hill Crest Rd
Fayetteville PA, 17222

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

SUSAN MEKOLITES
8905 PIQUAD ROAD
ELIDA OH, 45807

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

As I can recall the FCC has never seen a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.
Stand up with us all and
be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done so far to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

P. Monroe
1469 N Melrose Dr
Avon Park FL, 33825

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jon Markle
5914 Melbourne Dr
Raleigh NC, 27603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

henri andre Fourroux III
1494 athis st.
New Orleans LA, 70122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bert feinberg
east 7th street
brooklyn NY, 11230

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Wittner
20 Irving Street
Albany NY, 12202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Bussell
2970 NE 16th Ave B205
Oakland Park FL, 33334

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The following massaage may be the generic massage created by the group, but it is well said...

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Abrams
1200 Moncoeur Drive
Saint Louis MO, 63146

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I use the internet every day for both business and personal use. It's important to me. I am just a regular person, but I believe very strongly that the internet should be neutral, without paid prioritization or wireless broadband protection exemptions.

We in America need REAL net neturality -- I don't think that Chairman Genachowski's plan is real! Paid prioritization does not keep the net neutral.

You have been a champion for net neutrality. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Frame
2205 California St NE
Minneapolis MN, 55418

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please maintain the equall acess all websites currently have on the internet. Do not pass legislation or rules which weaken or eliminate this equal access.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

brian galaviz
6248 n wayne
chicago IL, 60660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert & Marjorie Clarke
153 Barn Hill Rd P.O. Box 1025
Woodbury CT, 06798

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick Sturgeon
516 N Magnolia
Newton KS, 67114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara D Massy
203 Hollister Way N
Glastonbury CT, 06033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lee Leinweber
795 W Rathburn St
Carbon Hill IL, 60416

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Hed
713 S Holt Avenue
Sioux Falls SD, 57103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The free flow of information accessible to all equally is vital for human progress. Control, especially control that is in the hands of power and money, does not serve the whole of humanity. This is a vital time for setting the course of the next era of human history... renaissance or dark ages.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeanie DeRousseau
902 18th Avenue N
Lake Worth FL, 33460

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Koehler
814 5th Avenue
Two Harbors MN, 55616

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Berres
9106 Belleforte Ave.
Morton Grove IL, 60053

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Pichiotino
848 Traverse
Harbor Sprngs, MI, 49740

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Weber
PO Box 794
Park Forest IL, 60466

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Penelope Guyton
5112 Donovan Drive #411
Alexandria VA, 22304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Adams
1107 30th St. N.E.
Cedar Rapids IA, 52402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel P. Kolesar
box 163
Sonoita AZ, 85637

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ralph Stewart
1206 Sande Hill Pl
Augusta GA, 30909

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

BRIAN LORELLE
521 MORNINGSIDE DR. NE
albuquerque NM, 87108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kelley Vandiver
17386 S 153rd W Avenue
Sapulpa OK, 74066

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Shaw
2613 E. Coffelt Rd. Lot 112
Jacksonville AR, 72076

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

susan buhler
536 NE Thompson St. Apt. C
portland OR, 97212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Sabroff
532 North Sherman Avenue
Madison WI, 53704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

patrick L. Tolle
703 4th st.
edgar NE, 68935

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jutta Poteat
8134 Robalo Dr.
Orlando FL, 32825

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Justice
626 Happy Hollow
Fayetteville AR, 72701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Theresa Harrison
809 Cloudland Dr
Johnson City TN, 37601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Winifred A Koukol
2464 E 29th Road Unit 25
Seneca IL, 61360

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ross Bowman
1939 Fulton St.
Harrisburg PA, 17102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Irvin Nussdorfer
611 Alayne Ct.
Brighton MI, 48114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter L Del Re
2627 W Walton
Chicago IL, 60622

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bryan Stafford
7641 Charolais St.
Billings MT, 59106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

We were warned by George Orwell and still we have allowed our television news to be highjacked by men, some of whom are not even from America. The internet is our new frontier for truth and freedom of expression. They are already positioning themselves to duplicate what they did with television and journalism in general.

Please act to keep them at bay.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rex Walker
15151 SW 166 Street
Miami FL, 33187

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Duhamel
4343 N. Clarendon
CHicago IL, 60613

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha Vest
63 Fairview Avenue S.
St. Paul MN, 55105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,
You have the power to save the Internet and on a grander scale, democracy itself! Thank you for championing real net neutrality in the past. Please say no to Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality proposal at the FCC meeting on Dec. 21. Trusting you to do the right thing. You're the man!

Sincerely,

Bonnie Rubin
9 Kewaunee Road
Highland Lakes NJ, 07422

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Hawkins
380 Bay Shore Ave
Mobile AL, 36607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william diantonio
19 kristen
mantua NJ, 08051

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Stephens
5172 Goethe
St. Louis MO, 63109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Boyce
735 S 37th St
Lincoln NE, 68510

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Sears
910 W. Benton St., D305
Iowa City IA, 52246

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erik Stevenson
1041 4th Ave
West Belmar NJ, 07719

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wright E Harris III
19 s barat
ferguson MO, 63135

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Welsh
5133 Oak Valley Drive
Madison WI, 53704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Branca
328 Pleasant St
Ithaca NY, 14850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mary pat white 2545 bayou rd
new orleans LA, 70119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

brandi scheiner
546 e11th st
new york NY, 10009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aaron Allen
3601 Dogwood Dr
Greensboro NC, 27403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shirley Bryan
3667 Taylor Ave.
Bridgeton MO, 63044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Allen Wickell
2801 Co. Rd. 4043
Holts Summit MO, 65043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fred Gratzon
1930 Cherry Tree lane
Fairfield IA, 52556

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Yacucci, Sr.
2621 Pecksniff Road
Wilmington DE, 19808

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bharat Ratra
3700 Stratford Terrace
Manhattan KS, 66503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Toni Rorapaugh
2976 Rte 26 So.
Vestal NY, 13850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Todd Barry
1822 w huron st
chicago IL, 60622

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Pohl
2121 W Melrose St #1
Chicago IL, 60618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jesse Rosbrow
160 W. 9th St., Apt. 3
Brooklyn NY, 11231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon N Fors
28 Chestnut Trail
Coventry CT, 06238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michele St Peter
29155 Van Riper
Flat Rock MI, 48134

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chaz Hiroko
8447 Thundr Rdg Way Unit 202
Littleton CO, 80126

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

randy hunt
915 johnson st
Red Bluff CA, 96080

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Henderson
4 Lester Place #2
Jamaica Plain MA, 02130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

karen copp
N8141 975th Street
River Falls WI, 54022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Wechter
p.o. box 1359
Fairview NC, 28730

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wanda "Lisa" Hitchcock
1720 Richmond Dr #323
Louisville KY, 40205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Bilsky
464 Ewing St.
Princeton NJ, 08540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha Yoshida
570 Amsterdam Ave #5R
New York NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rosemary Blau
33 Bradwood Street
Roslindale MA, 02131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Travaline
602 Old Deerfield Pike
Bridgeton NJ, 08302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Parker
72 Library St.
Chelsea MA, 02150

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rachel Henderson
209 14th Ave NE
Minneapolis MN, 55413

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Ortiz
247 Spring dr
Roswell GA, 30075

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Marsh
7500 Butler N. Liberty Rd.
Butler OH, 44822

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pamela Nordhof
3135 60th St.
Hamilton MI, 49419

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Rohwedder
522 Harrison St
Oak Park IL, 60304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jake Anderson
2160 Royall Dr
Winston-Salem NC, 27106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eli Williamson-Jones
53 Earl Roberts Rd.
Higganum CT, 6441

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alexis Young
4241 Castleman Ave
Saint Louis MO, 63110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick Hume
419 Kaelin Dr.
Louisville KY, 40207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

maurice culver
2711 maple ave
south plainfield NJ, 07080

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gary miller
7450 N Rogers Ave #1012
Chicago IL, 60626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Haas
1133 Bramble Trail
Murfreesboro TN, 37129

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Evans
7409 N. Claremont Ave. #3
Chicago IL, 60645

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Herb Greenebaum
128 Paugassett Lane
Shelton CT, 06484

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Rogahn
2042 Lenhart RD.
Hatfield PA, 19440

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Henry Batten
1403 LaVista Road NE
Atlanta GA, 30324

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Garmon
83353 Beason Rd.
Folsom LA, 70437

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Ellis
7500, SE 35th Ave
Portland OR, 97202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hattie Guy
14123 Edgewood Dr
Grass Valley CA, 95945

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

June Forbes
1611 El Capitan St.
Davis CA, 95616

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Conley
81 Avenel Blvd. Apt. 105A
Long Branch NJ, 07740

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

daniel dorsey
1007 west lewis st
rossville GA, 30741

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

al macina
1501 india
san diego CA, 92101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

It is time for the consumer to be given some breaks and not the big corporations and their interests.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Schultz
501 Andrus Rd
Downers Grove IL, 60516

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bobbi Achey
25 12th St
Union Dale PA, 18470

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ROBERT GRAY
6947 Alabama Ave.
Hammond IN, 46323

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jan levy
115 CENTRAL PARK WEST
NEW YORK NY, 10023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please be a hero for the Internet. Vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha Ellert
621 Sheppard Lane
Makanda IL, 62958

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katherine Grady
1151 Appian Dr.
Webster NY, 14580

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Victoria Blair
288 Ward Ave
Montevallo AL, 35115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Feinberg
838 West End Avenue
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Hoy
217 Cherry Street
Evansville IN, 47713

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you have done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what is right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Evan and Elaine Hazard
3119 Apple Tree Ct NW
Bemidji MN, 56601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doris Kelsey
2585 Tomahawk Rd
Fort Scott KS, 66701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

catherine holley
303 Gordon Ave.
Wilmington DE, 19809

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ed Glick
557 Village Dr
Edgewood KY, 41017

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Micheal Moffat
19 roy st
Lincoln AL, 35901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carl Twisselman
23 Penwick Circle
Salinas CA, 93906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Goehl
3808 Holiday Dr.
Quincy IL, 62305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

judith wittner
822 South Blvd
Evanston IL, 60202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy Weber
9801 Van Buren Lane
Cockeysville MD, 21030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joanie Vigh
4736 Eastern Ave SE
Kentwood MI, 49508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Rios
930 N Arlington Mill Drive
Arlington VA, 22205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Vermillion
1525 S. 93rd St.
West Allis WI, 53214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eugene Frazer
1032 Saint Johns Bay
Saint Paul MN, 55129

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lee Frisari
794 Dekalb Ave
Brooklyn NY, 11221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's FAKE net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Omeed Javidan
3431 Pomeroy Road
Downers Grove IL, 60515

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Russell Serra
Bugbee street
WRJ VT, 05001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Nelson
1326 9th Street NW
Washington DC, 20001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jenny Schwartzberg
853 W. Fullerton Avenue
Chicago IL, 60614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stacey Winkler
405 B Hawthorne Crt
Belton MO, 64012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fred Fraim
6 Pawnee
Cherokee Village AR, 72529

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Luke Mele
1511 N 18th Ave.
Melrose Park IL, 60160

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Les Harrison
3344 3RD Ave S
Minneapolis MN, 55408

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Meredith Kowalsky
18432 111th Rd
Winfield KS, 67156

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Nelson
6130 Tennessee Ave.
St. Louis MO, 63111

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erline Towner
49 Quarry Circle
Milford NH, 03055

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marianne Gagnier
151 Driggs Avenue, Apt. 1R
Brooklyn NY, 11222

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lanna Ultican
1204 SW 18th
Blue Springs MO, 64015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rose Cnudde
6004 Misty Ridge Road
Holly Springs NC, 27540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

carolyn anderson
1416 Bloomingdale Lane
Mt Pleasant SC, 29466

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Penkrot
10526 Fort Plaza #102
Omaha NE, 68134

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Todd Nadenichek
2421 N Francisco Ave
Chicago IL, 60647

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Franklin
3276 Rossmoor Pkwy. #3
walnut Creek, CA, 94595

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha Carlisle
23969 NE State Route 3, Suite G #97
Belfair WA, 98528

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Verona Da Costa
1607 Woodhaven Court
Mundelein IL, 60060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kristin Tomasek
731 Griswold St.
Howell MI, 48843

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ross Thompson
9189 Montague Road
Rockford IL, 61102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger Lichty
502 College Ave.
Rockfird IL, 61104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Crotty
1467 Cherry Creek
Manchester MO, 63021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Wiles III
9100 Cottonwood Cv
Olive Branch MS, 38654

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vicki Willard
6005 Malabar
Madison WI, 53711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Shaw
103 Glenview Place
Chapel Hill NC, 27514

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

arthur kettner
146 galigher st
zanesville OH, 43701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Bostrom
204 Columbia Hts.
New York NY, 11201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ed Doyle
411 N Middletown Rd
Media PA, 19063

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deborah Gerish
917 Oak St.
Emporia KS, 66801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Howell
1305 Woodfield Ave Apt 205
South Bend IN, 46615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matt Hanzel
2459 Alexander Manor East
Steubenville OH, 43952

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

james fellers
1108 spring
new castle IN, 47362

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be continue to support openness and free expression by voting no on Chairman Genachowski's inadequate net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Polodna
2124 Park Ave
La Crosse WI, 54601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

R L Guthrie
Box 328
Athens AL, 35612

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jacqueline Birnbaum
311 Bronxville Road
Bronxville NY, 10708

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wayne Johnson
6191 Cowell
Brighton MI, 48116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wendy Calman
500 S Hawthorne Dr
Bloomington IN, 47401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Raul San Narciso
3921 North Hamilton Ave
Chicago IL, 60618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christa Beauregard
12 Anna Mac Dr.
Cumberland RI, 02864

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Chrisman
P.O. Box 124
White Pigeon MI, 49099

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy James
3455 rowe rd.
dodgeville WI, 53533

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Helms
8105 The Hague
Raleigh NC, 27606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amelia Bruehl
18032 Cedar Cove Road
Seneca SC, 29672

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Glenn Martin
17 Arbor Road
North Chelmsford, MA, 01863

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lauren Chilson
6262 N. Astor
Portland OR, 97203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

dee carlson
265 s lake st
los angeles CA, 90057

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George McCain
211 S 4th Ave
Tucson AZ, 85701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Schulz-Behrend
3901 Palomar Lane
Austin TX, 78727

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maureen McKeon
220 Stone Rd.
Dayville CT, 06241

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Richards
1002 North Main Street
Mt. Airy MD, 21771

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas Peterson
9508 Russell Ave S
Bloomington MN, 55431

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat Harcarik
2528 Guilford Avenue
Baltimore MD, 21218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Philip Welanko
434 jade cirle
Vallejo CA, 94590

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Gagne
1261 Michael Ave
Lewisville TX, 75077

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helen Thomas
319 South Arnold
Mt. Pleasant MI, 48858

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Mace
9450 Woodridge Drive
Eden Prairie MN, 55347

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rhonda Ruiz
1503 Somerset Place
Duncan OK, 73533

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lanlan Hoo
198 Danada Dr.
Wheaton IL, 60187

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Wickliffe
2210 Pioneer Road
Evanston IL, 60201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Strong
2818 Barrett Baxter Dr.
Newton NC, 28658

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Fox
507 4th Street
Aurora IN, 47001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick Cherry
24 Warbler St.
New Orleans LA, 70124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Friedman
6641 Ashland Ave
Chicago IL, 60626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Young
2237 Doswell Ave
St. Paul, MN, 55108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I'm an artist with a website and am also launching a website to educate people about food and its impact on our health. To have elite access to fast internet is utterly & completely UNdemocratic and extremely dangerous. What a travesty if the US would be the government that allows such a thing to happen.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debby Reelitz
24 Silkey Road
North Granby CT, 06060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karla Moore
312 Rugby Road
Brooklyn NY, 11226

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert G von Giebel
26 Windtryst Way
Belvidere NJ, 07823

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Moody
4080 Jacksonville Rd.
Tallapoosa GA, 30176

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bonnie sabbi
71 church road
malvern PA, 19355

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anita C Hill
100 Oxford St N
Saint Paul MN, 55104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Bruce
7298 Lakewood Drive
Oscoda MI, 48750

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Speevack
3 HUGHES PL APT C
NEW HAVEN CT, 06511

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Clark
6001 France Rd # 29
New Orleans LA, 70126

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Freeman
2516 Waukegan Road
Glenview IL, 60025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

I support the following statement by CREDOaction.com. I may also add that the attack on net neutrality is no surprise to me, and that you will continue to do whatever is necessary to conform to corporate standards. Nevertheless, I feel the need to add my oar to the river of net neutrality.

Sincerely,
Ron Picker
West Virginia

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronald Picker
RR 1, Box 178
French Creek WV, 26218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane Carl
10212 Rosewood Street
Overland Park KS, 66207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Dhoore
416 N. Main st
South BEnd IN, 46601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

I, Tynan Wyatt, fully support the faxed message that follows.

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tynan Wyatt
10292 Camino Ruiz
San Diego CA, 92126

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Waymire
12201 Loganberry Drive
Alexander AR, 72002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn Shafel
456 Marston Ave
Madison WI, 53703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joel Lounds
28644 Wahoo Drive
Bonita Springs FL, 34135

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kris Marohn
717 N. Harwood, Suite 900
Dallas TX, 75201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Oscar Elam Holder
6204 Pawtucket Dr
Lynchburg VA, 24502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

El-Malik Bey
1448 East 52nd Street
Chicago IL, 60615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gabriel Graff
6355 N Haight Ave
Portland OR, 97217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I've worked on the Internet since soon after its inception. Up to now it has been truly net neutral. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gregory Garnant
23 E 10th St. Apt.516
New York NY, 10003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Warren
3653 N Prince Village Pl
Tucson AZ, 85719

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

marguerite king
3480 Schoharie Turnpike
earlton NY, 12058

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James M. Lamb
5435 S Oxford Ave
Tulsa OK, 74135

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Shane
9 Violet Drive
Hatfield PA, 19440

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

r.p. tucich, Sr.
5336 briarcliff knoll
w. bloomfield MI, 48322

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Salamander
3083 S Scott St
Des Plaines IL, 60018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry Sprecker
West St
W. Hatfield MA, 01088

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

TJ Allen
6359 18th St NE
Saint Petersburg FL, 33702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pamela Richardson
5741 North Lansing
Chicago IL, 60646

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rick Hart
3614 Bois D'Arc Rd
McKinney TX, 75071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Holdsworth
4317 Amelia
Lyons IL, 60534

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brad Miller
316 S Madison
Anthony KS, 67003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John C Willman
3214 Kirkwood Dr
Rapid City SD, 57702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

carmen chae
172 W BergenDr
Milwaukee WI, 53217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David M. Butler
2211 Rainbow View Drive
Urbana IL, 61802

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James van Maanen
34-21 80th St., #41
Jackson Heights NY, 11372

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Colleen Haney
2657 W. Iowa 1R
Chicago IL, 60622

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jill Hartleip
125 E Clearview Dr
Columbia MO, 65202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Sumler
4010 Midway Road
Plant City FL, 33565

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Henderson
18 Simpson Rd
Castine ME, 04421

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Hughes
824 Exposition Ave
Dallas TX, 75226

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Heather J. O'Leary
23 Pine Ledge Drive
Scarborough ME, 04074

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Johnny Jones, Jr.
3523 24th Avenue South
Minneapolis MN, 55406

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Peden
3480 Blueridge Drive
Pensacola FL, 32504

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dave Conna
54 HOMESTEAD LN
STOW MA, 01775

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Octavio Bueno
6038 Howard
Dallas TX, 75227

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Reid Wood
271 Elm St.
Oberlin OH, 44074

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Scott
4606 Cedar Springs Rd Apt 1218
Dallas TX, 75219

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jarrod King
1224 Chautauqua
Norman OK, 73072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

HENRY GRIMES
3190 RIDDLE RD
WPB FL, 33406

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Price
219 W. 2nd Ave
Johnstown NY, 12095

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

4703 Otterbein Ct.
Godfrey
Ilinois IL, 62035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gillian Boudreau
7 State Drive
Harrisburg PA, 17112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Reese
1583 Hunter Road
Fairfield OH, 45014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Spaziani
13 Candlewood Dr
Amherst NH, 03031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ann cutillo
51 upper montclair plaza
upper montclair NJ, 07043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

LEO STELLA
1 KULAS LANE SUITE 608
PARLIN NJ, 08859

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

We cannot be a nation dedicated to the principles of democracy and free speech while ceding those rights for corporate political interests to become our censors.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Barrett
1450 Jefferson Street
Hollywood FL, 33020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Flinn
3622 Gratiot Ave.
Flint MI, 48503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Armour
8022 Mathilda
St. Louis MO, 63123

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Suzy Knutson
4546 45 Avenue SW, #18
Seattle WA, 98116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charlene Szaller
28470 Hilliard Blvd.
Westlake OH, 44145

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

arin jones
33314 e. trail ridge circle
adel IA, 50003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wendy Hoffman
309 Tamarack Lane
Ontonagon MI, 49953

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Willa Friedman
5514 Callander Drive
Springfield VA, 22151

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen King
2324 Dawes Rd
Mobile AL, 36695

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melany Klinck
110 Pine Circle Drive
Franklin TN, 37069

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Heiser
1510 46th Street South
Wisconsin Rapids WI, 54494

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kenny Villacorta
10736 S Buffalo Ave
Chicago IL, 60617

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don & Nancy Lehman
2200 Greenfield Dr W
Northfield MN, 55057

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Merlino
28 Garrison Rd.
Shady NY, 12409

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Borda
157 W 93RD ST
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john koch
1688 yellow rock road
De Soto MO, 63020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha Lynch
1967 Pinecrest Dr
East Lansing MI, 48823

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Lucia
520 E. Frye Ave
Peoria IL, 61603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Coleman
1457 S. White Pine St.
Terre Haute IN, 47803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deborah Arndt
165 Bernard Road
Kalispell MT, 59901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lori Grant
3100 48th St.
Des Moines, IA, 50310

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Orion Schmidt
1602 Park Ridge Ln
Toledo OH, 43614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alexander Clark
1423 North Front Street
Harrisburg PA, 17102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christine Dieter
17 Wheeler Ave # 3
Medford MA, 02155

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Petri West
4084 Halsey Rd
Mayview MO, 64071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon Bort
950 Main St
Worcester MA, 01610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

josh bracken
1420 Shermer rd
Northbrook IL, 60062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JuLayne Trimble
915 Willow Creek Dr
Bartlesville OK, 74006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Esteban Reyes, Jr.
P.O Box 147
Volcano CA, 95689

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

PLEASE===PLEASE===PLEASE

Sincerely,

George Hague
1 3rd street #201
Astoria OR, 97103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21. The American public does not have paid lobbyists in Washington, DC. Therefore we must depend on you to stand up for us.

Sincerely,

Linda Naylor
3508 Manford Dr
Durham NC, 27707

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leigh Hubbard
5 Withers Peak
Santa Fe NM, 87508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Failure to undo these compromises masquerading as net neutrality will (further) balkanize the internet and it will cease to be the democratizing force on our planet that it is right now.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Craft
925 W 1ST ST TRLR113
Craig CO, 81625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katy C Carroll
5018 S State St.
Tacoma WA, 98409

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fernando Azevedo
115 south elliott place
brooklyn NY, 11217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please support Net Neutrality. The people of America deserve it.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Yeaman
1414 South Hull Street
Montgomery AL, 36104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jerry sorheim
1425 kelly drive
golden valley MN, 55427

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Hessee
2119 N. Marion
Springfield MO, 65803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Hofacre
8430 Nuthatch Way
Columbus OH, 43235

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kendra Dudley
1206 10-1/2 AV NW
Rochester MN, 55901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Sansone
1104 Wilshire Court
Champaign IL, 61821

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura J. Dymkowski
114 Fayette St
clinton IA, 52732

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Christianson
2614 S Bay Dr S
Fargo ND, 58103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debasish Chakraverty
8233 60th St Cir E
Sarasota FL, 34243

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

We're counting on you.

Sincerely,

Ronna Stoddard
906 S. Maple St.
Urbana IL, 61801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Mr. Copps,

I believe in a free and open internet that isn't stifled or held back by a content industry fighting to control the very consumers that are their lifeblood.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Collin Campbell
105 N McKinley St., #2
Kennewick WA, 99336

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Johanson
2301 Silvano Drive
Macungie PA, 18062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Knox
682 Schoolhouse Lake Rd.
Troy MT, 59935

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no to Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Ann Montgomery
206 Jordan Street
Larrabee IA, 51029

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruth Rest
1100 Beloit Avenue
Forest Park IL, 60130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

NED Baldwin
73 Washington Ave
Hastings on Hudson NY, 10706

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anthony R Harris
11456 Enyart Road
Loveland OH, 45140

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Donovan
8408 Dampier Ct
Springfield VA, 22153

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vincent Needham
3024 Mary Kendal Ct
Manhattan KS, 66502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Em Crone
19 S. Church St.
West Chester PA, 19382

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Stevens
5526 S. 48th W. Ave.
Tulsa OK, 74107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Drucker
1691-320 St.
Sherrard IL, 61281

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kori Mill
1140 W Pratt Blvd
Chicago IL, 60626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Evans
923 S. Mitchell St.
Bloomington IN, 47401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wanda Williamson
7332 Cedar Creek Trl
Madison WI, 53717

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

If you allow the internet to be controlled, managed & priced by the invisible hand of the free market that has gotten so good at picking our collective pockets then you're sealing the demise of our country and what it once stood for! Roberts & Alito are covering the judicial aspects, the Corporately owned MSM limits dessent on the air waves and corporate owned & lobbied to the max Congress do noting for the American citizenry. How about you being the hero?!?!?!?!? Stand up to this affront on democracy and don't allow fake net neutrality reign! Instead - get real net neutrality passed for ours and future generations! Put in safe guards and take appropriate control over things you have charter to manage!

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the dociding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sean OMalley
914 Nrt Forestview Ave
Park Ridge IL, 60068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rick Carbaugh
608 E Burkwood Ct
Urbana IL, 61801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aranyani Smith
15118 85TH Dr
Jamaica NY, 11432

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

james schroeder
2056 west 21st. st.
chicago IL, 60608

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charlotte Wales
109 S. Conley
Monticello AR, 71655

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for your long and reliable support of net neutrality. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

As the internet has sailed into widespread use, its initial and exceptional role as a vehicle for the free exchage of information has been challenged by ever expanding commercial interests. While the net can serve a useful purpose in allowing broader commerce, when the internet itself becomes the target of special interest control, we are in grave danger of losing the ability to share information freely.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Hyvonen
1237 Poly Dr
Billings MT, 59102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Grady
315 E Burlington St Apt F
Riverside IL, 60546

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Please!

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cathy Gould
6036 Ridgecrest Rd apt 207
Dallas TX, 75231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Theresa Milne
610 West Elm Ave
Monroe MI, 48162

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Pfleging
1776 Glasco Tpke.
Woodstock NY, 12498

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roland R. Chapman
2477 W Fremont Road
Port Clinton OH, 43452

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Johnson
1925 N. Nicole Ln.
Round Lake Beach IL, 60073

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Wilmoth
975 B. East Central Siloam Springs AR, 72761

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Rodman
2102 Azalea St.
Denton TX, 76205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Roberts
3200 6TH Ave
Sacramento CA, 95817

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

roger wilson
1920 speyer lane
redondo beach CA, 90278

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jordan Stryk
21102 Gladys yoakum dr.
Richmond TX, 77469

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shawna Neumeister
121 NE 12th Ave.
Hillsboro OR, 97124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

This holiday season, stand up once for the values of peace and freedom!

Sincerely,

Gelsomina Becks
1173 Saratoga Ave.
E. Palo Alto CA, 94303

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alex Nunn
2
Sterling Heights MI, 48310

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julio Aviles
319 Cedar Street
Jenkintown PA, 19046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marc Conrad
716 W Waveland Ave
Chicago IL, 60613

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No form letter here. Just a concerned citizen. Please ensure net neutrality with tough, strong regulations.

From what I'm reading, due to industry pressure, the FCC may be headed in a much less aggressive direction.

The Internet has worked great all these years for all users and made ISPs a huge amount of money. We're all doing fine, and we don't need anything slowing us down in order to fatten the wallets of Corporate America.

Do this for the people.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Wilkes
1217 Brookwood Road
Madison WI, 53711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aaron Feinberg
Po Box 223612
Princeville HI, 96722

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michelle Pauling
234 41st Avenue
San Mateo CA, 94403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan MacLaughlin
4326 Newton Street
The Colony TX, 75056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Tepperman
1701 Channing Way
Berkeley CA, 94703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Iain MacAdam
343 Castle Street
Cambria CA, 93428

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Dryer
337 Fieldcrest Lane
Loveland OH, 45140

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marna Jacobsen
1901 Penn S.
Minneapolis, MN, 55405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

filipe fernandes
11 Alpine Drive
Armonk NY, 10504

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tanja Johnson
520 Clarendon avenue
Winter park GA, 31789

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

susan stainback
65 rippling waters rd
blairsville GA, 30512

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eugene Molessa
71 Mapleview Drive
Honesdale PA, 18431

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Westland
78 West Main Street
Westborough MA, 01581

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edward Kadane
P.O. Box 720935
Dallas TX, 75372

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike O'Connell
P.O. Box 6368
Bozeman MT, 59771

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emma Squires
1412 Keeler Drive
Irving TX, 75060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Teresa Plamondon
735 N 3rd St
Blair NE, 68008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Graff
824 Beverly Avenue
Missoula MT, 59801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Fredrick
2994 Mission Dr E
Clearwater FL, 33759

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Marigza
8221 Canning Ter
Greenbelt MD, 20770

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Sullivan
3824 Bluffview Dr
Marietta GA, 30062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Belinda Schmid
371 van brunt street
Brooklyn NY, 11231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Thanks for your time.
I. Craig.

Sincerely,

Isobel Craig
82 Torrisdale street,
Glasgow No, 42888

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gardner Bickford
2723 Pine St.
San Francisco CA, 94115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Dahlhoff
855 Tsunami Lane
Crescent City CA, 95531

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Sedrel
PO Box 383
Diablo CA, 94528

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Silveus
26201 San Roque Dr.
Mission Viejo CA, 92691

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jessica Krakow
62 Joost Ave
San Francisco CA, 94131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chuck Connors
75-212 Aloha Kona Drive
Kailua Kona HI, 96740

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helen Hokom
721 E.First
Colville WA, 99114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Houston
270 E. Main St.
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Adams
3488 N Frederick Ave
Milwaukee WI, 53211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shirley Garland
828W. George St.
Chicago IL, 60657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Shelton
4000 Anderson Rd. 55
Nashville TN, 37217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Carstensen
2423 Indiana Ave.
Columbus OH, 43202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Bunyard
56 Vinal Ave. Apartment 3
Somerville MA, 02143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

janet hendricks
333 uphillrd
milford MI, 48381

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Steele
P.O. Box 155
Bath NH, 03740

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Walsh
910 Hayes Ave.
Oak Park IL, 60302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Kolender
5906 N. Sheridan Rd.
Chicago IL, 60660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Teresa Safron
151 S. Walnut St.
Palatine IL, 60067

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Samuel Cohen
614 W Stewart Rd
Columbia MO, 65203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kenneth Deffenbacher
5016 Parker Street
Omaha NE, 68104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Spencer
P.O. Box 4873
Sevierville TN, 37864

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Josephe Marie Flynn
3945-A W Forest Home Ave
Milwaukee WI, 53215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

DON"T SELL THE INTERNET

Sincerely,

Andres Rodriguez
9720 SW 163 ST
Miami FL, 33157

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

S. Janet Payne
2350 Houston Lake Road
Kathleen GA, 31047

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bo Montgomery
911 N Jackson
Little Rock AR, 72205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michele Glenn
5221 Pond View Drive
Jacksonville FL, 32258

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ralph Novy
S2741 Pine Hill Road
Hillsboro WI, 54634

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

SOMAN MATHAI
3827 N BELTLINE #1504
IRVING TX, 75038

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Jim Heckenbach

Sincerely,

Jim Heckenbach
1808 Elmpood Dr
Lindenhurst IL, 60046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joy Skeel
940 Bexley Drive
Perrysburg OH, 43551

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Ford
2115 Andover Blvd
Andover MN, 55304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Berschig
2313 N Fitzhugh Ave #7
Dallas TX, 75204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Loring
573 Hale Street
Prides Crossing MA, 01965

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lolly Eggers
108 Potomac Dr
IOWA CITY IA, 52245

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Buxton
724 Winters St
River Oaks TX, 76114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mike watt
145 royal drive
mayfield KY, 42066

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Berger
6217 181st Pl SW
Lynnwood WA, 98037

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger Thompson
1731 Locust Pl Apt 202
Schaumburg IL, 60173

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

charles bardeen
427 Lagunitas Ave 3203
oakland CA, 94610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John E. Mijo
7114 North Kerby Ave.
Portland OR, 97217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Paley
3303 Aruba Way, K-4
Coconut Creek FL, 33066

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Szczepanski
1744 N. Franklin
Dearborn MI, 48128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

vic labore
177 bryant rd
manchester NH, 03109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katlyn Stranger
2450 5th Ave.
San Rafael CA, 94901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

james bayley
1125 Ashland Ave
wilmette IL, 60091

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phillip Oliver
2585 Bitterroot Dr
Billings MT, 59105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

wilbur kukes
531 briar road
bellingham WA, 98225

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

You have a huge responsibility protecting the Public's best interest. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan Pederson
209 Orlano Ave N
Canby MN, 56220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Glenn
16130 Lake Street Extension
Minnetonka MN, 55345

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. Thank you for that. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote 'No' on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote 'No' on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21. If you do, you will be a hero in the truest sense of the word and you should be remembered in history for it.

Sincerely,

Alona Mendoza
1550 Delaware Avenue
Buffalo NY, 14209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roland Heidenfelder
25 Smith Johnson Rd.
Green Mountain, NC, 28740

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Metz
P.O. Box 1351
Millbrook NY, 12545

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alexander di Mauro
225 N Columbus
Chicago IL, 60601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Barfield
501 Antoinette St
Deltona FL, 32725

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amanda Kayl-Vaughan
900 Greek row
Arlington TX, 76013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Goodman
2423 Harrison St
Evanston IL, 60201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tamika Sumner
415 Goingsnake Apt D
Tahlequah OK, 74464

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Levanah Darlene Ruthschild
2615 Ailsa Avenue
Baltimore MD, 21214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marianne Handler
1644 McGovern Ave
Highland Park IL, 60035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Norman Badger
P O BOX 503
MCDONOUGH GA, 30253

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael McClennen
951 Burr Oak Lane
Madison WI, 53713

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

keith quate
8191 west 300 north
brownstown IN, 47220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Hartzell
P.O. Box 304
Hudson IL, 61748

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kristie Kay Fuller
9380 SE Jeff Rd-90
Warren IN, 46792

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I have comcast and i pay them for Internet access. Since I pay their monthly charge i should be able to access ANYTHING on the web that i want to. Entities that deliver content regardless of what it is - Video, Web pages or anything else should NOT have to pay to Send their content to me. If i buy something and have it shipped to me. Shipping is paid only ONCE by the sender, Once fedex shows up at my door I don't have to pay them to give it to me. We should not have to pay TWICE!!! I work in IT and any network administrator knows about Traffic Prioritization! VOIP calls, and streaming video should get a higher priortization because of the nature of the content, while web pages and instant messenger would be lower because of the nature of the content, latency is not of a big concern to the later.
Please vote for and keep the Net Natural!

Sincerely,

Jonathan Manley
103 Main Street APT W402
Little Rock AR, 72201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Todd Vachon
342 westchester Rd
Colchester CT, 6415

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lewis Kuhlman
2300 Aldrich Ave S #8
Minneapolis MN, 55405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Martin
306 Ridgecrest Dr
Cannon Falls MN, 55009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sally Allison
289 Lake Meadow Dr.
Rochester NY, 14612

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

margaret stiene
6429 Morgan Av s
Richfield MN, 55423

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Baz Hodgin
PO Box 1245
Coker creek TN, 37385

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phillip Taylor
2343 Meridian Road
Victor MT, 59875

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Fisher
PO Box 975
Granger IN, 46530

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christine Farrell-Riley
20 Canton Rd
Quincy MA, 02171

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wayne Lensu
1309 East Ave
Berwyn IL, 60402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Toomey
4506 N. Malden, #119
Chicago IL, 60640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katherine York
4266 11 Avenue A
Moline IL, 61265

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Loren Skarie
45223 Lone Pine Rd
Vergas MN, 56587

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy Khy
33 Hunter Street
Newton MA, 02465

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

As a licensed amateur radio operator I know first-hand the importance of the FCC when it comes to safeguarding the freedoms of Americans. This applies both to radio frequency allocations and the Internet.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Gottfried
5326 Kassendahl Rd
Houston MN, 55943

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Trunk
441 Delafield Place NW
Washington DC, 20011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Cueva
550 Ortega Ave. #226
Mountain View CA, 94040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Cohn
817 Kalpati Circle $212
Carlsbad CA, 92008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Mr. Copps,

I urge you vote no on Mr. Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan at the FCC meeting on December 21. Like other citizens, I favor true net neutality with enforceable protections.

Thank you for your efforts to keep the Internet open and free.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Hepburn
215 Lost Tree trail
Athens GA, 30605

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christine Edison
466 Bryant Ave
Glen Ellyn IL, 60137

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joann Hill
111 Eagles Pointe Circle
Liverpool NY, 13090

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Please do what is right for We the People, not corporations.
No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.
Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vickie Fouts
29564 Glacier Ct
Coarsegold CA, 93614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Baron
4239 N. Keystone Ave.
chicago IL, 60641

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason DeFuria
248 Amherst Road Apt E10
Sunderland MA, 01375

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Budge
32875 Piney Meadows Ln
Huson MT, 59846

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

H.A. Joshua
PO Box 1952
Newark NJ, 07104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane Christ
2309 Kings Point Dr.
Atlanta GA, 30338

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Lavely
5320 Barry Lane
White Bear Township MN, 55110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Brausen
8301 Virginia Circle North
St. Louis Park MN, 55426

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carl Ilbrink
8737 Kari Ln SW
Byron Center MI, 49315

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

As a personal plea, please prove that there's still at least one person inside Washington that cares more for the well-being and rights of the citizen than for those of the corporation.

Thank you very much for your time.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Knezek
714 Brighton Ln
Garland TX, 75043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary parker
11300 N Parkwood Ct
New Orleans LA, 70128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Philip Gray
436 Crestover Circle
Richardson TX, 75080

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Rynberg
64 newell rd.
yarmouth ME, 04096

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Hanson
9270 Taylor May Rd.
Chagrin Falls OH, 44023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beth Herndobler
7057 N. Damen Ave
Chicago IL, 60645

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

harlow safford
730 N Chipper Ln
Wichita KS, 67212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Waymire
12201 Loganberry
Alexander AR, 72002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Yann Icon
1128 30th ave
Bellwood IL, 60104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edwin Ochmanek
104 Revere St.
Boston MA, 02114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susana Carella
23 Fearless Ave
Lynn MA, 01902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Constance Albert
601 Stambaugh Rd.
Green Bay WI, 54301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wayne Schindler
13330 Noel Road, Suite 228
Dallas TX, 75240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Burghgrave
77 Lynwood Ave.
Geneseo IL, 61254

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Allan Malkis
977 Goodrich Avenue #2
Saint Paul MN, 55105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry Turley
4202 W Curry Court
Bloomington IN, 47403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Walkner
1033 east johnson st.
madison WI, 53703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Byrne
5747 N. Campbell Ave., First Floor
Chicago IL, 60659

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Crotty
1467 Cherry Creek
Manchester MO, 63021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tamara Holmes
4042 S. Hillcrest Apt. E101
Springfield MO, 65807

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronnye Davies
199 5th Ave.
Brooklyn NY, 11217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

PERICLES C. Tsombanis
5403 REBECCA LYNN LN.
RALEIGH NC, 27613

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William H. Karr
19018 jeanette
Southfield MI, 48075

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

janice pritchett
75 Whitefield Ave
Ocean Grove NJ, 07756

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Caroline Davenport
231 Governor Bradford Road
Brewster MA, 02631

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gale E. Jensen
4234 Wentworth Ave S
Minneapolis MN, 55409

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Krista Lindemann
931 Old Marion Rd NE #110
Cedar Rapids IA, 52402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Hester
1317 Greenside Dr
Raleigh NC, 27609

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John P. Davis
10425 Vernon Avenue
Huntington Woods MI, 48070

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helon Raines
2330 Kelly Ave.
Gulfport MS, 39501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Macaire Grambauer
5421 W. Ardmore
Chicago IL, 60646

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lee Steube
2516 W. Grace
Richmond VA, 23220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Miller
6200 Sapphire Court
Grand Blanc MI, 48439

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Charles Tarter
2205 GE RD #3
Bloomington IL, 61704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Sheehan
185 Atlantic Ave Apt C8
Lynbrook NY, 11563

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Lohrentz
415 Walters Drive, Apt. 1009
Manhattan KS, 66502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Virginia Douglas
133 Brandtson Ave.
Elyria OH, 44035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Kluge
10578 Butternut Ct
FORISTELL MO, 63348

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william murcott
8000 4th Avenue
brooklyn NY, 11209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adam Williams
3228 Bridgefield Dr.
Ann Arbor MI, 48108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Loney Bichell
595 W. 11th Street
Dubuque IA, 52001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Howard Black
3318 Lakeshore Dr.
Champaign IL, 61822

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

suzanne weimer
182 five points rd
mertztown PA, 19539

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elinor Miller
15292 Pinehurst Dr.
Lansing MI, 48906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Todd O'Buckley
2572 Barwick Dr.
Durham NC, 27704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Rabalais
6942 FM 1960 Road East #384
Humble TX, 77346

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wes Orlowski
P.O. Box 278
Great Barrington MA, 01230

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Art Emsig
18 Seward Dr.
Dix Hills NY, 11746

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Serena Howe
1011 11th Ave S #4
Hopkins MN, 55343

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I really appreciate the work you have done on the FCC. You have made my life as a computer user much better.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Marie Coleman
6121 S Woodlawn #2
Chicago IL, 60637

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Bacon
2905 ALBANY ST APT 3
Houston TX, 77006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Todd O'Buckley
2572 Barwick Dr.
Durham NC, 27704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

beverly kudski
1309 theodore dr
champaign IL, 61821

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandy Lott
4401 KEATING TER
Madison WI, 53711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JB Wilson
4550 18th Street
San Francisco CA, 94114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick Adcock
3878 Jordan Rd
Norfork AR, 72658

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeremy Atkinson
709 W. 22nd St. Apt. 219
Austin TX, 78705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Tattersall
1385 Bailey Avenue
Eugene OR, 97402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Wendt
6 New Dawn Cir
Chico CA, 95928

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gail Beason
113 Deborah Drive
Talent OR, 97540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Snedden
4348 Montgomery St
Oakland CA, 94611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Sidlo
430 Tophill Rd
San Antonio TX, 78209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

To Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please be a strong voice for the Internet and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization or exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline, nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, which provides the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all of America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections. I hope that you recognize and honor that mandate.

I appreciate everything you've done to help keep the Internet open and free. Please do the right thing one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Kristin Hurley
13243 Aubrey St.
Poway CA, 92064

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nick Renfroe
605 Crestgate Place
Millersville PA, 17551

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rolf Amsler
470 W. Bemis Rd
Saline MI, 48176

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

selden wasson
10187 east palomino road
flagstaff AZ, 86004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Goldberg
703 Canton St.
St. Paul MN, 55102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don McFall
1420 18th St South
Birmingham AL, 35205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margarita Ruiz
204 East Tampa Ave
Cherry Hill NJ, 08034

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bratt Michael A.
26 Charena Rd
Wayland MA, 01778

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathy Oppenhuizen
8135 Olive Trail
West Olive MI, 49460

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael E. Hubbard
4353 50th Terrace South
Saint Petersburg FL, 33711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Candace Lacy
103 twisted oak pl
durham NC, 27705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Karpin
22 Barbara Ave
Prt Jefferson Sta NY, 11776

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Claude Crider
122 Washington Oak CT
Waleska GA, 30183

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Therese Peck
921 Forty Foot Road
Hatfield PA, 19440

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Kelly
801 Main Street
West Newbury MA, 01985

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian C. Jones
P.O. Box 574
Whitefish MT, 59937

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Myers
5605 Harbormist Dr
Powder Springs GA, 30127

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Doucette
1703 Nottingham Rd.
Raleigh NC, 27607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.
It is important that the internet truly be a place for free flowing ideas and if companies can stop that all of americ loses. Furthermore, if companies can slow down or stop webpages just because the program or product doesn't come from them we all lose. Please vote no.
Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.
Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

roger frischenmeyer
104 w 7th
hutchinson KS, 67501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

andrew froehle
28453 ottawa dr
browerville MN, 56438

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kristen Rivard
5110 Fox Hill Drive
Sterling Heights MI, 48310

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bebe McCarthy
27 Cattle Pen Lane
Ridgefield CT, 06877

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark K. King
11663 S. U.S. Highway 35
Selma IN, 47383

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frances Tan
2300 W 26th St Apt E30
Lawrence KS, 66047

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jessica Wilson
1193 Vineyard Road
Griffin GA, 30223

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Liddle
1374 Weast Rd
Schenectady NY, 12306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

T. Tarleton
Box 449
Abita Springs LA, 70420

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dave Sum
710 N. Lake Shore Dr.
Chicago IL, 60611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

M J Smerken
1936 Pine St
Murphysboro IL, 62966

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Roberson
PO Box 66
Richview IL, 62877

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Hawkins
364 E 7th Ave
Durango CO, 81301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dino Teddyputra
11 Davis Ave
Brookline MA, 02445

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Molina
17023 Tibet Rd
Friendswood TX, 77546

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laurence Stanton
5166 Llano Drive
Woodland Hills CA, 91364

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doug Meeker
2908 Terilyn St
Sacramento CA, 95826

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ralph henson
14178 grizzly hill rd
nevada city CA, 95959

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marc Draper
2589 E. 3020 So,
Millcreek UT, 84109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger Garland Horn
32 Barber St
Clarion PA, 16214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donna Knauss
3034 Waterfront Court
Chattanooga TN, 37419

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marc Mendelson
PO Box 20653
Long Beach CA, 90801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

We really need your help when the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Jordan
4531 N Ashland Ave.
Chicago IL, 60640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Walker
3523 McKinney Avenue #377
Dallas TX, 75204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Warner
547 Sunset Rd
Canon GA, 30520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ian Corbett
466 Hart St
Brooklyn NY, 11221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Lorenz
Prairie Lane
Redding CA, 96002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandy Lake
1708 Beechwood Ave.
Nashville TN, 37212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charlotte Blackwell
PO Box 183
Seymour MO, 65746

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Victoria Yunta
14525 sw 108 st
Miami FL, 33186

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

We already pay a premium for faster service into the home. We should not have to one for content too.

Sincerely,

Eric Christiansen
209 Village Walk
Exton PA, 19341

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Milton Pinzon
2503 Shakespeare Street Apt 1
Houston TX, 77030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eugene
1006 Liberty Street
Braintree MA, 02184

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas H. Pendleton
830 Whispering Way
Charleston WV, 25303

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Moffat
52 B Lasatta Ave.
ENGLISHTOWN NJ, 07726

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Ray
311 W. Adams St.
Fayetteville AR, 72701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Veronica Murphy
4122 3rd Ave S.
Minneapolis MN, 55409

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Miriam King
2016 23rd Avenue South
Minneapolis MN, 55404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charlene S Nelson
10877 U S Route 150
Oakwood IL, 61858

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Young 811 Isabelle Street
Memphis TN, 38122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

andrew koopman
7108 village lake dr
cypress TX, 77433

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Penrod
89 Norfork Drive
Maumelle AR, 72113

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

My sincere thanks to you for your strong stands supporting true Net Neutrality. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

I am counting on you to. Vote No on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. And, thanks in advance for doing what's right by stopping Charman Genachowski's bogus net neutrality plan at the FCC meeting on December 21st.

Thank you for representing the true will of the American people.

Sincerely,

john fago
1037 Christian Hill Rd
Bethel VT, 05032

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

margaret mcallen
212 aigburth road apt 208
towson MD, 21286

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please, let's not have yet another privatization of yet another service by yet another greedy corporation!

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Rosser
5459 Rosa Avenue
Saint Louis MO, 63109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Halpin
319 Woods Hole Road
Falmouth MA, 02540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harris Boebel
4001 N. Belt Line Road, #225
Irving, Tx TX, 75038

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Wilson
5761 S. Blackstone
Chicago IL, 60637

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sheila Clark
204 E Walnut St
Perkasie PA, 18944

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hari Newmark
2741 Quail Dr.
Fayetteville AR, 72704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. Please don't let corporations try to buy internet access so that their power will be even greater than it is now.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara White
PO BOX 60114
Pittsburgh PA, 15211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amanda Keppeler
2122 SE Belmont
Portland OR, 97214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Garrison
2214 Franklin Street
Denver CO, 80205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sean Oliver
2710 W MANOR PL APT 203
SEATTLE WA, 98199

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marian Schellin
815 N Fuller Ave
Los Angeles CA, 90046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Dockter
188 Crete Court
St. Augustine FL, 32084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ethlynn Dewitt
3322 Virginia
Kalamazoo MI, 49004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pamela Collett
651 Oakland Ave Apt 2E
Oakland CA, 94611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brien Shanahan
97 Bellmore Road
East Meadow NY, 11554

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Sheehan
220 Falcon Lane
Leander TX, 78641

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter O'Gorman
2224 Third Street
White Bear Lake MN, 55110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael McLeod
210 Hickory Ridge Dr
Shenandoah TX, 77381

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

astaras drolkar
pob 3125
kalispell MT, 59903

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Beede
115 CYGNET LANE
Melrose FL, 32666

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Fosse
6551 Red Cedar lane
West Bloomfied MI, 48324

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Beverly
PO Box 1198
Orange TX, 77631

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joanne Otte
5331 N Winthrop Ave Unit 3
Chicago IL, 60640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beverly Rizzon
237 Sunset Drive
Willsboro NY, 12996

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Barbour
1205 James Street
Monroeville PA, 15146

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Kahng
3363 W. Church St.
Evanston IL, 60203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gene Bridges
3902 Woodview Drive
Winston-Salem NC, 27106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Claude Winkelhake
7707 N. Brookline Dr.
Madison WI, 53719

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wanda Nightengale
1308 Flag Ave S
Minneapolis MN, 55426

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Schueth
421 West Barry
Chicago IL, 60657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Kemble
10908 Jarvis Ct
Fredericksbrg VA, 22407

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

R. Mitchell Deighan
851 N. 5th Street
Philadelphia PA, 19123

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Betty L. Soos
45 Cedar Row Lane
Cuba MO, 65453

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Meiers
166 James Drive #B
Macomb IL, 61455

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha Coronado
2923 Skypark Drive
Houston TX, 77082

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ellen craig
2970 n. lake shore
chicago IL, 60657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keith Kramer
P.O. Box 390920
Cambridge MA, 02139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ethan Fein
652 West 163 Street #22
New York NY, 10032

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Winick
110 Brainerd Rd #8
Allston MA, 02134

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Merwarth
1631 Jaeger Ave
Louisville KY, 40205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leonard Scott
4302 Creekbluff Dr.
Rowlett TX, 75088

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melodie L Paulsen
5414 229th Av NE
Bethel MN, 55005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Predrag Dubravcic
26 Hemlock Trail
New City NY, 10956

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free for indiviuduals. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas A. Scharff
1213 N Sherman Ave #113
MADISON WI, 53704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tawan Saykawlard
6421 N Damen Ave
Chicago IL, 60645

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Coleman
11764 mira lago way
san diego CA, 92131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Kelly
2825 Lexington Road
Louisville KY, 40280

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert G. Larsen
1491 Meadow Lane
Concord CA, 94520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

chet arachy
2106 Beckett Dr.
el dorado hills CA, 95762

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Dekay
10755 Kling St Apt 204
N Hollywood CA, 91602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harold Barling
6164 Pine Villa Ave Unit 102
Las Vegas NV, 89108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Zsuzsa Odry
655 3rd St. #38
Oakland CA, 94607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennie Long
508 N 5th St
Bellevue ID, 83313

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Schafer
14 Maple Ave.
North Brunswick NJ, 08902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Humowiecki
2440 S 9th Avenue
North Riverside IL, 60546

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beverley Patrick
426 Hubbell Ave
Syracuse NY, 13207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bernice Cabral
7830 Lavin Rd
Jacksonvile FL, 32221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christine Mermilliod
32604 SE Hurlburt Rd.
Corbett OR, 97019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Guillory
605 E Thomas St.
Hammond LA, 70401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas J Purrenhage
1123 Clarence
Oak Park IL, 60304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Slonek
910 10TH ST
WILMETTE IL, 60091

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jessica Fallon
224 Ridgewood Ave
Minneapolis MN, 55403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Geoffrey E Gilbert
299 Sherwood Place
Stratford CT, 06615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Bauchelle
18010 Brooknoll Drive
Houston TX, 77084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dave Bart
PO Box 57084
New Orleans LA, 70157

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey J. Dravis
4133 Tennyson St
Houston TX, 77005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Klipper
4105 Winterburn Ave. #1
Pittsburgh PA, 15207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Trinette Stowell
105 Melody Lane
Belton MO, 64012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harvey Miller
107 S. Neilson, Box 151
Tustin MI, 49688

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sam mufalli
709 church road
cherry hill NJ, 08002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anita Weld
110 Burgess Dr
Galesburg MI, 49053

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julia Myron
248 mckibbin st
brooklyn NY, 11206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Vallee
605 Raub Street
Joliet IL, 60435

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Raymond J. DiCarlo
6350 Lee Rd.,South Apt.24
Maple Heights OH, 44137

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrea L Alfred
8306 Windy Oaks Drive
Houston TX, 77040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

hermine Bogin
45 Englewood Roadm
magnolia MA, 01930

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bronwyn mills
207 Gries, NMU
Marquette MI, 49855

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

nancy webster
2425 fort lane rd
geneva FL, 32732

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brandon Fisel
926 Duff Ave.
Ames IA, 50010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

paul buffington
372 bass creek rd
stevensville MT, 59870

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dart Roger 1057 Camille Avenue
Deerfield IL, 60015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Menard
51000 Mott Road
canton MI, 48188

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time.

Sincerely,

Mitchel Osman
617 East Broadway
Mount Pleasant MI, 48858

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Wurster
953 Rocklynn Rd
Springfield PA, 19064

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Spease
9934 Goddard
Overland Park KS, 66214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Lunsford
PO Box 7072
Austin TX, 78713

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Williams
507 Carnegie Street
Linden NJ, 07036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adolphine Carole
109 S. Roosevelt Street
Mountainair NM, 87036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

F. Gale Meseke
R. R. 1 Box 156
Shobonier IL, 62885

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Heaviside
130A 11TH St
Santa Rosa CA, 95401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Nichols
13107 Zeller Rd SE
Yelm WA, 98597

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

richard casmier
3820 e lake shore dr
lake montezuma AZ, 86335

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tawnia
4508 Lareina Dr.
Austin TX, 78745

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Gordon
231 Woodland Ave
Port Townsend WA, 98368

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Morton
71 Clement Road
Rutland VT, 05701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Giles
7009 Hanging Vine Way
Tallahassee FL, 32317

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fred Bevis
1115 Alfred Dr
Orlando FL, 32810

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,
Please protect us from a takeover. Protect internet neutrality.
No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Romaine P. Voigt
6508 W. Montana St.
Milwaukee WI, 53219

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joyce Frohn
425 Congress Ave
Oshkosh WI, 54901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Will you be at the Media Reform Conference in Boston next spring? We will, if we can afford the trip.

Sincerely,

Hannah Johns
POB 38
Moline, KS, 67353

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Rader
5730 Taychopera Rd
Madison WI, 53705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beverly Evans Messer
124 Union Street
Belfast ME, 04915

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Trisha Schultz
2460 Badger rd
Beaverton MI, 48612

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lester Lakey
427 South Farm Road 97
Springfield MO, 65802

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Doudoroff
832 Arkansas
Lawrence KS, 66044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Fraine
4705 Blackfoot Rd
College Park MD, 20740

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Sanderson
3530 Cline St
Houston TX, 77020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation. I use the Internet, and do business on the Internet. Any form of prioritzing would harm the many small business people who are able to do business because of the Internet.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections. Net neutrality is what Americans want. What they don't want is more gifts at their expense to big business.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robin Oye
PO Box 392
Hancock MI, 49930

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Michael Landrum
411 springwood dr
Little rock AR, 72211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Miller
620 Glen Echo Road
Philadelphia PA, 19119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Kobbe
200 Mississippi River Blvd N
Saint Paul MN, 55104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Priscilla Stork
3390 Windsor Ave.
Dubuque IA, 52001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Thompson
7177 Outer Lincoln Ave 6P
Newburgh IN, 47630

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Poudrier
2127 Urban Dale
Shreveport LA, 71118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James S. Smith
1551 Downing Dr.
Lebanon OR, 97355

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Pitsenbarger
6901 W 84TH St Apt 251
Minneapolis MN, 55438

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Isaiah Maldonado
2311 stella st
Denton TX, 76201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JD Overstreet
77 Seventh Avenue
New York NY, 10011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brenda Hull
293 Chestnut Log Gap
Hayesville NC, 28904

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Perkins
4337 Bennettwood
Millington TN, 38053

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for all of your work!

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ben Owen
1130 E Millsap Rd
Fayetteville AR, 72703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Clay Gunter
144 W Putnam Ferry
Woodstock GA, 30189

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rob Barendse
361 Little Burch Hill Rd.
Granville NY, 12832

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Sutton
5247 York Avenue South
Minneapolis MN, 55410

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Magee
10834 Rose Ave #5, LA, Ca 90034
LA CA, 90034

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert D Larson
307 Henry St Ste 310
Alton IL, 62002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stanley Komajda
31290 Dorchester
Madison Heights MI, 48071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adam Gamwell
58 Adams St
Waltham MA, 02453

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Philip Kuhn
120 Cupree Street
Raymond MS, 39154

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

christopher whitten
13613 ravensway dr. #c
cypress TX, 77429

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fali Engineer
7317 Cook Road
Houston TX, 77072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Perez
27007 Fiddlers Pass
San Antonio TX, 78260

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel McFarlin
45 S. Midvale Blvd.
Madison WI, 53705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ryan Stoy
316 S. 5th St.
Goshen IN, 46528

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Ransom
3434 Russell Street Suite 205
Detroit MI, 48207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Schloss
9 Medford Lane
East Northport NY, 11731

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Layne
1419 E Poplar St.
Davisville WV, 26142

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Fava
17 Waldron Ave.
Nyack NY, 10960

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Pykkonen
5205
Duluth, MN, 55811

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Tuminello
251 Pacific St. Apt 11
Brooklyn NY, 11201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Heather McGinnis
314 Marvel Lane
New Carlisle IN, 46552

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laurie Main
5004 Rockland Dr.
Pearland TX, 77584

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amelia Core Jenkins
5425 Gaston Avenue # 112
Dallas TX, 75214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erika Mittag
2506 Wildlife Run
Cedar Park TX, 78613

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronald Marich
1440 N Lake Shore Dr Apt 30A
Chicago IL, 60610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Mikula
183 Little Canada Rd. E. #215
Little Canada MN, 55117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jan conley
7177 E Lake Blvd
lake nebagamon WI, 54849

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie L Routh
10902 205th Avenue
New Richland MN, 56072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas Kilmer
1782 Mission Bay Cir.
Rockledge FL, 32955

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Elves
30560 Forest Place Cir
Pequot Lakes MN, 56472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kevin fox
222 northview dr
Missoula MT, 59803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kenneth quillin
3509 nw 28th
oklahoma city OK, 73107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Maxwell
3422 W. Leland
Chicago IL, 60625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon Autin
8110 Winding Oak Lane
Spring TX, 77379

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anita Harwardt
305 S. Ashdale
W. Covina CA, 91790

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Lynch
4886 Dublin Falls
Columbus OH, 43221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mark sink
3716 valleywood dr
kettering OH, 45429

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Stoddard
305 1st Ave SW
Pine Island MN, 55963

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

tim Fitzgerald
12507 wealdstone dr
Tomball TX, 77377

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Worth
237 E 81
nyc NY, 10028

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Zampieri
5802 Bob Bullock Cl 328C-32
Laredo TX, 78041

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Martin
46 Rocky Top Ln
Signal Mtn TN, 37377

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's pseudo net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Jordan
440 E. Atherton Rd.
Flint MI, 48507

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marco De Leon
8326 N Vandiver Rd Apt 201
San Antonio TX, 78209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Gauthreaux
569 Avenue E
Westwego LA, 70094

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mr. David Gauff
20 Rick Rd.
Milford NJ, 08848

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicole Ricks
7631 Terrier Ln
ROCKFORD IL, 61108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gale Reid
2316 Brittany Pointe
Lansdale PA, 19446

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Hicks
134 1/2 NW 17th St. Apt B
Oklahoma City OK, 73103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thor Sorensen
679 Manhattan Rd SE
Grand Rapids MI, 49506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Evans
49 Buttonwood St.
Lambertville NJ, 08530

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aaron Elsaesser
3223 Harvest Ave
Cincinnati OH, 45213

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you.

You understand that a truely neutral Internet is the only kind that will work!

When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronald Cochran
4920 Coronado Dr.
Wilmington NC, 28409

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Tarr
15907 TC Jester Blvd
Houston TX, 77068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Barlow
109 NE 26th Dr
Wilton Manors FL, 33334

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Norm Conrad
919 N 97th St
Seattle WA, 98103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

LLaury Michlin
6623 Ascot Ln.
dallas TX, 75214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

miriam rico
190 pleasant street
providence RI, 02906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

D Collins
6314 Harts Rd
Ringwood IL, 60072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brandon Cole
2729 W. Evergreen Ave.
Chicago IL, 60622

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eugenie Hopkins
37248 Bolyn Road
Purcellville VA, 20132

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brad Williamson
3101 West Broadway Ave.
Hopewell VA, 23860

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adam Savett
31760 Woodsdale Lane
Solon OH, 44139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adriaan N Roggeveen
220 Stadium Dr
Camilla GA, 31730

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Ruffolo
2407 Hartrey Ave.
Evanston IL, 60201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Aiena
1950 Aspen street
Los Osos CA, 93402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Meeks
1629 NW 40TH St
Oklahoma City OK, 73118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Please protect us consumers.

Sincerely,

Linda Mauck
184 Croydon Rd
Rochester NY, 14610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Georgianne Pagano
335 Encore Dr.
N. Ft. Myers FL, 33903

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nestor Rodriguez
279 N Broadway
Yonkers NY, 10701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Itsik Aviad
301 S. Yellowstone
Madison WI, 53705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Ahern
1224 Cranford Ave.
Lakewood OH, 44107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Albert Roll
3044 Round Hill Ct.
Edgewood KY, 41017

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Poland
25 Fairmount Dr.
E. Greenwich RI, 02818

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

It's coming down to the crunch. Please do the right thing. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jill Schroder
4710 Spring St.
Bellingham WA, 98229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sonia Santana
2005 Barton Parkway
Austin TX, 78704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Culleln
443 S. Main St.
Warrenton NC, 27589

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kurt fisher
7610 cheltenham avenue
wyndmoor PA, 19038

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

CHARLES SRAMS
711 FARMINGTON AVE APT A8
WEST HARTFORD CT, 06119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Lindsey Lewis
2296 Eastway Road
Decatur GA, 30033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Holly Rawson
667 Chaffeeville Road
Storrs CT, 06268

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections. The Wikileaks strikes at MasterCard and Visa show that the public will not tolerate stifling of free speech, here or abroad. Help the fight against increased secrecy by promoting an open, neutral Internet.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Riley
827 W. De Queen Ave.,
De Queen AR, 71832

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sarah wedge
106 clifton place #1B
Brooklyn NY, 11238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nick Naro
nope nopesburgh PA, 15213

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Johann Bruhn
3101 Crawford Street
Columbia MO, 65203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jack mcginnis 819 iar ave nw
palm bay FL, 32907

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stamatios Varias
321 Attig Rd
Selinsgrove PA, 17870

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Lawnick
PO Box 566
Hot Springs AR, 71902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kent Henry
9610 W 92nd ST
Overland Park KS, 66212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Itsik Aviad
301 S. Yellowstone
Madison WI, 53705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard schneider
40-01 littleneck pkwy 23a
Littleneck NY, 11363

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Valerie Rose Brinton
2088 Sycamore Rd.
Fillmore CA, 93015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Becky Butela
PO Box 734
Grandville MI, 49468

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marvin Nieman
5449 Co Hwy F
Wi Rapids WI, 54495

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Edler
908 Elmwood Avenue
Lincoln NE, 68510

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please hold out for meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sylvia McGowan
2161 Springside Drive E
St Paul MN, 55119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roy Pugh
504 E. 8th St.
Owasso OK, 74055

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

This is vital for our nation. It is bad enough that we have the slowest Internet among 38 countries, but this bogus regulation would further hamstring the public's access to the Slow Internet we have.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John-Christopher Ward
918 Stewart Court
New Orleans LA, 70119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fred Barnes
1177 s Kenilworth ave
Oak Park IL, 60304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Quale
2009 Stahlke Way
Chaska MN, 55318

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

paul grigsby
8539 oakview drive
lenexa KS, 66215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Roland
286 Marion Dr
Baton Rouge LA, 70806

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marc Miller
2428
Astoria NY, 11102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Hansen
26964 Mickelson Drive
Starbuck MN, 56381

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Fossard
3432 Culpepper Ct.
SPRINGFIELD MO, 65804

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jared carrano
172 prospect park west #3r
brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Jeason
20823 Racers Ford Ln
Pflugerville TX, 78660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wayne Paul Mattingly
3424 Kingsbridge Ave #15D
Bronx NY, 10463

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hein Moritz
1421 BENS VIEW CT
MARYVILLE TN, 37803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Gleckler
5149 New Sweden Rd
Bainbridge Island WA, 98110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Dube
39 First St B207
Worcester MA, 01602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deborah L. Freberg
14519 W County Road K
Haywared WI, 54843

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jessica Lawrence
31 Caballo Ranch Rd
Russellville, AR, 72802

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ben Scripps
218 1/2 N Mitchell St Apt 1
Cadillac MI, 49601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary O'Keefe Kellogg
Back River Road
Boothbay ME, 04537

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shane Goodwin
1418 Ward Ave NE
Huntsville AL, 35801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

katherine buchanan
16527 brook forest dr
houston TX, 77059

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Sawyer
24 Ricardo St
West Haven CT, 06516

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Hartmann
17012 Steeplechase Pkwy
Orland Park IL, 60467

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Theo Ramakers
4150 Mount Paran Church road
Social Circle GA, 30025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carlos Torres
396 Waymarket Dr.
Ann Arbor MI, 48103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marty Sandler
7635 Southampton Terrace C108
Tamarac FL, 33321

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Selcer
400 Lakeshore
Seabrook TX, 77586

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Louisa Dyer
28 Longs Chapel Rd
Weaverville NC, 28787

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randall Fuhrmann
527 8th Ave
Helena MT, 59601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Zimmerman
3282 S Riverside Dr
Ames IA, 50010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

J Stewart
PO Box 667
Wheaton IL, 60189

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Pirkkala
3042 Holiday Beach Drive
Avon Park FL, 33825

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jonathan draudt
141 tamarac st
warren VT, 05674

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Penny Kinney
2016 3rd Avenue NE
Austin MN, 55912

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas Wright
730 Rollingbrook St #107
Baytown TX, 77521

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Pinkston
100 E 28 Terrace Apt 10
Kansas City MO, 64108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rhonda Farer
400 W 43rd St.
New York NY, 10036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eugene Daniels
1 Iguana Ct.
Fort Myers FL, 33912

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matt Kennedy
32 Puritan way
New Bedford MA, 02745

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Dooley
600 Autumn TRL
Royse City TX, 75189

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doris A Crothers
1621 Holland Court
Chillicothe IL, 61523

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maggie Ritter
826 Mulford St
Evanston IL, 60202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Reid
1405 Miami Ave
Clovis CA, 93611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Arthur J Firth
1011 Emerald Bay Drive
Salisbury NC, 28146

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Angelo Feldkamp
5825 Coors Blvd SW
Albuquerque NM, 87121

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

amy bebervanzo
562 fairview Ct
petaluma CA, 94952

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The record indicates your willingness to stand up for your principles and defend the internet as a free and open platform. But that record will mean nothing if when the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, you are not in opposition.

I implore you to do what is right and what is in the best interest of the population at large. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mitchell hearn
16326 Thunderbay Dr,
Houston TX, 77062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Wiggin
517 City Park Ave.
Columbus OH, 43215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marissa Moritz
11428 Grovedale Dr.
Whittier CA, 90604

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diana Simpson
5616 Preston Oaks Rd. 1205
Dallas TX, 75254

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hank Ronan
4417 Starr Jordan Dr
Annandale VA, 22003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chad Huddleston
6324 Cedar Ridge Ln
Edwardsville IL, 62025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Hewson
32661 Menominee St
Westland MI, 48186

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Mike, over the years you have been the 1 stand up guy for working Americans. You stood up to Powell, etal, so please try again here. Thanks.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gene corl
210 washington st.
wakefield RI, 02879

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ROBERT SCHOENBERG
55 COUTANT ROAD
CIRCLEVILLE NY, 10919

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Molly Griffard
5156 Windleigh Place
St. Louis MO, 63128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Teri Fittro
202 Troonsway Circle
Winston Salem NC, 27127

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Norma Raymond
203 Larkwood Dr.
San Antonio TX, 78209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Carlson
2301 Long Ave
Saint Paul MN, 55114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Ochoa
6263 McNeil Dr
Austin TX, 78729

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Dare
1309 Masonic Ave.
San Francisco CA, 94117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randa Quale
141 East Drive
Centerville OH, 45458

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tesa Dunn
3705 arborlawn dr.
Ft. Worth TX, 76109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

We need REAL net neutrality!

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sanford Brown
165 Spring Valley Trace
Covington GA, 30016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elischa Rensing-Zimmerman
3132 Rowley Road
Williamston MI, 48895

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Grady
7122 Coppermill Court
Indianapolis IN, 46254

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andre Meister
22730 Lain Road
Spring TX, 77379

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joy Bellamy
2931 Celian Dr.
Grand Prairie TX, 75052

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carlos Miranda-Garcia-Tejedor
Avenida de Menendez Pelayo, 111
Madrid NC, 28007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

elvin stewart
110 West Third St.
Jamestown NY, 14701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Louis & Rae Paley
11407 Gilsan St.
Silver Spring MD, 20902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

1629 Columbia Rd. NW, Washington, DC 20009
1629 Columbia Rd. NW
Washington DC, 20009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Sterling
127 McLeod Place
Cedar Creek TX, 78612

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

nathan 6405 w kensington rd
oklahoma city OK, 73132

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joel Mayer
414 Kings Ct Apt B
San Antonio TX, 78212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Wank
336 C North CHristian Street
Lancaster PA, 17602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erin McLaughlin
2420 McDuffie
Houston TX, 77019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Brose
974 Hampden Ave
Saint Paul MN, 55114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Henderson
3280 Stillhouse Lane #208
Atlanta GA, 30339

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elliott Marks
1000 W. Washington Blvd
Chicago IL, 60607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert L Gilbert III
140 Lyman St
Waltham MA, 02452

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Creamer
110 33 72nd Avenue 1L
Forest Hills, NY, 11375

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Gajda
4500 Kelso
North Adams MI, 49262

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ed Mass
8360 Cornell Ave.
St Louis MO, 63132-5026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Berlin
1506 Deer Crossing Dr
Arlington TX, 76002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brett Seabury
4608 Sylvan Road
Grass Lake MI, 49240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donna Hurst
2019 Trinity Drive
Waco TX, 76710

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

M Diane Gibson
1702 Via Lobo
San Marcos CA, 92078

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerri Lawrence
4010 25th Place N
Arlington VA, 22207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Herman Uihlein
1552 Del Mar
Del Mar CA, 92014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

March Rosenbluth
2688 Benson Ln
Eugene OR, 97408

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amy Dicker
203 Keith Ave
Waukegan IL, 60085

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Miller
611 North 3rd ST
Augusta AR, 72006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Barnard
3037 Westmoreland Dr
Birmingham AL, 35223

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Hendrix
533 Allison Ave., S. W.
Roanoke VA, 24016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Biagioli
1352 Shagbark Court
Carol Stream IL, 60188

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Joseph
912 East State St.
Ithaca NY, 14850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Menees
3243 N Downer Ave
Milwaukee WI, 53211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Renner
508 Valley Drive
Manhattan KS, 66502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Joy
1119 Ottawa Ave
W. St. Paul MN, 55118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Enita Torres
224 W 18th St
HOUSTON TX, 77008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Kukulas
655 W Irving Park Rd. #711
Chicago IL, 60613

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Victoria Fuller
1949 W. Wanbansia Ave.
Chicago IL, 60622

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Klinger
307 E. 5th St.
Morris MN, 56267

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Athena Clevenger
941 W Belden
Chicago IL, 60614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ginny Steinberg
67 Pearl St
Melrose MA, 02176

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Constance Del Nero
2831 Edgehill Rd
Cleveland Heights OH, 44118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerry Hicks
14605 W HICKORY AVE
LEMONT IL, 60439

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sheldon Reynolds
6308 Woodhue Dr
Austin TX, 78745

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Howard Mielke
3233 DeSoto Street
New Orleans LA, 70119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Madelyn Amatulli
3 Mall St
Port Jeff Sta NY, 11776

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Todd
38442 N. Munn Road
Lake Villa IL, 60046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

J David Gillanders
PO Box 2786
State University AR, 72467

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul R Hahn III
10224 W Rutland Vlg
Austin TX, 78758

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Orr
901 Summit Springs Dr
Flat Rock NC, 28731

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrice M. Schexnayder
5025 Scottish Thistle Drive
Austin TX, 78739

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rick Potthoff
1814 Pine Village Dr
Houston TX, 77080

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jesse C. Slicer
1303 N. Anne Shirley Dr.
Olathe KS, 66061

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Hogan
12506 Lake Whitney
San Antonio TX, 78253

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Guy Williamson
65 ELIOT STREET, #2
Natick MA, 01760

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

marshall mcwilliams 8102 knightwood forest dr.
houston TX, 77088

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Willoughby
2 Williams Avenue
Middletown NJ, 07748

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rodney Byrd
173 Lee Avenue
Roanoke VA, 24012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Zach Lukes
1331 W. George St.
Chicago IL, 60657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Allen
1831 8th Ave
Seattle WA, 98101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deena Kolbert
100 Riverside Drive
NY NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Best
156 Trueno Loop
Belen NM, 87002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin McPartland
8203 202ND Pl SW
Edmonds WA, 98026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pawnee Furra
15632 NE 15th Place
vancouver WA, 98686

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Spencer Matthews
2630 Sunbird Dr
Houston TX, 77084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

dan grimes 3010 w becker lane
phoenix AZ, 85029

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martin Kilbourne
8887 SW 67th Place
Portland OR, 97223

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Clarence Lorio
highway 416
Lakeland, LA, 70752

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shauna Flynn
4410 N Greenview Ave Apt 1
Chicago IL, 60640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Dowell
3939 Cole Ave
Dallas TX, 75204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas RuBane
512 NW Eubanks St.
Oklahoma City OK, 73118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Batchelor
1823B W 39TH St
Austin TX, 78731

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randy Ragsdale
5878 Bunkers Avenue
Burlington KY, 41005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Norris
2100 Tanglewilde #572
Houston TX, 77063

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kerry Acker
1507 South Kenneth
Monahans TX, 79756

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kaitlin Piraro
3003 Canter Lane
Austin TX, 78759

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Pritchard
829 Onslow St.
Durham NC, 27705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Herb Brandon
1031 W. Voca Rd
Caddo OK, 74729

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Be a hero for the small players on the web who can't compete with the kind of lobbying power wielded by the telecom companies. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Howard
6721 Melrose Ln
Shawnee KS, 66203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kara Potts
3607B Mayflower Place
Nashville TN, 37204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kristen Drumheller
3401 Prairie Smoke Road
Bozeman MT, 59715

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Kilkus
2722 N. Whipple
Chicago IL, 60647

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

james elbaor md
5507 winston ct
dallas TX, 75220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Virginia Downs
3701 - 40th St.
Lubbock TX, 79413

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Henry Wagner
1007 Demerius St
Durham NC, 27701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

D. Rohner
245 Westview Drive
Fort Lee NJ, 07024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Willaim Martin
1623 Military Turnpike
Plattsburgh NY, 12901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daphne Bernard
166 Douglass #2
Brooklyn NY, 11217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Cockcroft
5900 Arlington Ave., Apt 11U
Bronx, NY, 10471

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Waters
197 Markham Dr.
Gulfport MS, 39507

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Hopson
875 W.3900 S.Apt.F206
Salt Lake City UT, 84123

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Holloway
2209 Iva lane
Austin TX, 78704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve doran
402 4th St.
Victor IA, 52347

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Beis
82066 Lost Valley Ln.
Dexter OR, 97431

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tara Tabatabaie
6709 NW 110th CT
Oklahoma City OK, 73162

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aliza Keddem
36 NE 76 Avenue
Portland OR, 97213

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Griffith
2616 24TH Ave
San Francisco CA, 94116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shahid Khan
2212 Micarta Dr
Plano TX, 75025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Marvilli
3628 24th street
Astoria NY, 11106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrea Martinelli
642 Wright St, Cottage
Santa Rosa CA, 95404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

haley schwartz 271 s.44 street
philadelphia PA, 19104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Graham Hollister, Jr.
PO Box 218
Genoa NV, 89411

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas J. Ferrito
9 Simons Way
Los Gatos CA, 95030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Devitt
51 King Rd.
Weaverville NC, 28787

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Austin
2109 Jessie Place
Fort Worth TX, 76134

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marc Garrett
103 Waverly Pl
New York NY, 10011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Sites
16570 W 155th Pl
Olathe KS, 66062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harold Perdon
455B Chesterfield Ct
Manchester NJ, 08759

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

April Brumson
PO Box 796
Putney VT, 05346

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

steve paxton
pob 22
e. charleston VT, 05833

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Raymond Hetherington
12841 Echo Lane
Apple Valley MN, 55124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chaim Julian
1202 N. Dunn St. #4
Bloomington IN, 47408

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Mahlstedt
7811 North Amoret Avenue
North Kansas City MO, 64151

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

You know we need real net neutrality. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Jacobs
6739 S. Atlanta Pl.
Tulsa OK, 74136

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gerry Keen
4911 N. Menard
Chicago IL, 60630

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Freidin
355 Walnut Lane
Princeton NJ, 08540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeanne Johnston
2038 Mississippi Ave.
Englewood FL, 34224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william g. shimek
2000 nobles mill road
darlington MD, 21034

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deborah Sparshott
PO Box 2029
Alpine TX, 79831

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Espey
17842 MAGENTA SPRINGS DR
Humble TX, 77346

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Abasolo
3406 River North
San Antonio TX, 78230

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

robert wing
15 harriette rd
east falmouth MA, 02536

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Becky Coats
567 Sharp Lane #409
Bzton Rouge LA, 70815

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Hurley
8519 Cahill Dr #504
Austin TX, 78729

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

craig rosefelt
307 pleasant st.
mukwonago WI, 53149

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

As a frequent user of the internet, the proposed decision does little to help the users and much to help the powerful who continue their assault on abusing internet freedom. Please don't endorse their efforts.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

stephen Schaitberger
1402 South 8th Street
Brainerd MN, 56401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Liz Kreml
715 W. Highland Ave.
Oconomowoc WI, 53066

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I am sure you will see many faxes with the words below. I do however want to add a personal touch in saying that the internet has been the greatest tool democracy has ever had. The ability to talk and state opinions freely (whether "real" or not) is unmatched by any other form of media. I feel that if we lose any ground at all, the corporations WILL eventually have their way and this is just a start. That being said, I have faith that the almighty $ will not destruct the freedom of the internet. Please do all that you can to keep this from happening.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brandon James
319 St. Anthony Ave
Minneapolis MN, 55414

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jesse D Carter
345 Eagle Hill Ln
Paris TN, 38242

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Kinney
7327 Queen Ave S
Minneapolis MN, 55423

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leslie Sweeney
PO Box 31734
Bellingham WA, 98228

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Schonberg
2403 Birchwood Lane
Wilmette IL, 60091

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pedro Salgado
2502 E Jackson St
Orlando FL, 32803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Chairman Genachowski doesn't seem able to stand up for all Americans who use the internet.

Will you be our Hope?

Millions of ordinary people have petitioned time and time again to keep control of the internet out of the hands of those who would use it for their greater profit - and an even scarier idea, to control the information that reaches the masses. Just as the MSM does way too often.

Big Corporations of every stripe seem to feel that we are here to be used as they see fit, mostly to widen their profit margins, and there are far and away too many politicians willing to be their tools.

Are you the only one who can block them? Are you the only real American on the Commission?

Please stop the really horrible Comcast and those who are too much like them.

Sincerely,

Sara Deatherage
104 S. Hazel Street
West Plains MO, 65775

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Carver
230 Pelham Rd, Apt 228
Greenville SC, 29615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Weill
1114 Academy St
San Marcos TX, 78666

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM CUMMINGS
1505 ALVARADO ST. , #315
OCEANSIDE CA, 92054

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Dube
325 Hancock St
Findlay OH, 45840

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Lippert
14337 Austin Court
Broomfield CO, 80023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sari Hornstein
7208 Heatherhill Road
Bethesda MD, 20817

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Teresa Coffman
6001 Hammersley Rd
Madison WI, 53711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ryan Kroening
3121 Tyler St NE
Minneapolis MN, 55418

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary G. Hazelton
133 Braley Rd.
Hebron NH, 03241

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Wilkins
113 Vanwinkle Grv
Berea KY, 40403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rob Nichols
11325 Yosemite Valley Dr
Little Rock AR, 72212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Campbell
16892 E Hialeah Ave
Centennial CO, 80015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shane McCune
College Heights
Manhattan KS, 66502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Allen
202 Paul Gust Road #329
Chamberlain SD, 57325

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Weber
1512 S.E. Hearne Ct.
Port Saint Lucie FL, 34952

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Getty
1447 Ash Dr.
Bozeman MT, 59715

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Fortson
1702 McKeen Place
Monroe LA, 71201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thanks for your history of representing the interests of net neutrality and opposing consolidation of the media. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fred Stawitz
535 Cool Spring Drive
Houston TX, 77037

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Landers
1211B West Industrial Park Rd
Murphysboro IL, 62966

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Quincy Smith
2116 Robin Street
Valdosta GA, 31602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

nathan erxleben 5th
keokuk IA, 52632

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

A John
1201 Bishop Farms Pkwy.
Watkinsville GA, 30677

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ted McWharf
7 Falling Creek Rd
Pittsford NY, 14534

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ngaire anderson
132 N Mabbettsville Rd
Millbrook NY, 12545

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Millie Kantner
114 Windtree Pointe Dr
Moneta VA, 24121

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

diane arceneaux
p.o. box 140
grand coteau LA, 70541

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free! Please continue to do so by voting no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Ann Christopher
1427 Carriage Lane
Lake Villa IL, 60046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marsha Wiseltier
10 Cedar Lane North
Glen Head NY, 11545

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brando Triantafillou
2525 West Winona Street
Chicago IL, 60625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Levine
24825 Logans Woods Drive
Denton MD, 21629

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Moldenhauer
1932 Malvern St.
St. Paul MN, 55113

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat Gallo
12865 tulane St
Brookfield WI, 53005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harry Wilson
2532 Bay Street
Bakersfield CA, 93301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

chet arachy
2106 Beckett Dr
El Dorado Hills CA, 95762

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you again and again for being a supporter of true "net neutrality". At a time when the rights and interests of average citizens are being eroded on many fronts in favor of increased corporate power and control, please do what you can to ensure that this vital avenue of communication continues to serve the general public interest.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Miller
516 Buena Vista Ave.
Redwood City CA, 94061

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brieanne Farrar
2135 N Monaco Way
Meridian ID, 83646

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JEAN TINNEY
4597 Reggie Road
Reno NV, 89502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jon Secviar
6532 east 135 south
Kewanna IN, 46939

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kelly K Watson
3476 E County Line Road #24
Highlands Ranch CO, 80126

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hamid F. Fard
1644 Novato Blvd.
Novato CA, 94947

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brenda Smith
1411 Tetbury Lane
Austin TX, 78748

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Brannan
6460 Deframe Ct
Arvada CO, 80004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paddy Inman
12310 N. Fairview Rd.
Mead WA, 99021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Agre
2933 se 20th ave
Portland TX, 79904

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hans Krause
8523 De Moss Drive
Houston TX, 77036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Thompson
8033 W. 29th Ct.
North Riverside IL, 60546

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

evan bozarth
2620 choctaw trail
austin TX, 78745

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donna Carty
3 Marks Way
Carver MA, 02330

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Wylie
10720 W 38th Place
Wheat Ridge CO, 80033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Perry R Mauceri
1461 S Danube Way Unit 106
Aurora CO, 80017

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Zirger
113 Hillcrtest Ln.
Mena AR, 71953

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Gail Decker
123 Pinebrook Drive
Hyde Park NY, 12538

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free! Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stacy Braxton
9102 Laguna Rio
San Antonio TX, 78251

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gina Talbot
1868 Wallin Loop
Round Rock TX, 78664

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please continue to be the FCC champion for real net neutrality. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be our Internet hero. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Levin
26181 Paysandu Drive
Punta Gorda FL, 33983

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

The internet is a great avenue for we the people to express our thoughts and ideas without having big corporations trying to influence or manipulate the truth. Please, vote no to Mr. Genachowski's proposal. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Ernesto Tirado
89 Lakeside Rd.
Newburgh NY, 12550

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vicky Killgore
727 E. Dean Keeton St.
Austin TX, 78705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laurence Sopala
909 W. Wolfram St
Chicago IL, 60657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tara Trujillo
466 Racine Street
Aurora CO, 80011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

We appreciate what you've done to preserve Internet neutrality. To keep doing this, please vote "no" on the bogus plan put forth by Chairman Genachowski. The damage would be extremely difficult to undo.

Sincerely,

Khalil Ayoub
1913 Martel
Fort Worth TX, 76103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harold Darling
2515 Lakeshore Drive
Cleburne TX, 76033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Miller
5766 Chatterfield Drive
Dublin OH, 43017

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alison Hirsch
423 Rural Ave.
Williamsport PA, 17701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

IAN O'HAGAN
3011 Trice-Atwater Rd.
Chapel Hill NC, 27516

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Please stand up for the little guy, the American people since the rest of the administration and a lot of it's appointees seems to be tone-deaf to this concept.

Sincerely,
Dave Schectman

Sincerely,

Dave Schectman
2501 Maryland Road
Willow Grove PA, 19090

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Dangel
7765 E. Fremont Ave.
Centennial CO, 80112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ronald gochenour
3011 hickory st
alexandria VA, 22305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stacy Nisperos
4213 W Olive
Fullerton CA, 92833

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cyndi Harris
216 Nicks Bend East
Pittsboro NC, 27312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely, Mary Blickensderfer

Sincerely,

Mary Blickensderfer
140 West Pioneer Ave #121
Redlands CA, 92374

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

2% of the population owns America. Let's keep the Internet "of, by, and for the people!"

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Hester
701 FM 1291
Fayetteville TX, 78940

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Howard Stein
5000 S East End Ave Apt B23
Chicago IL, 60615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rick Garner
407 W M Ave.
North Little Rock AR, 72116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Sanders
42 Goldcup Drive
Fredericksburg VA, 22406

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kerry Koerbling
322 Northridge Dr.
San Antonio TX, 78209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

C. Lux
10704 Sw Lakeview Dr
Rushville MO, 64484

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

There is only one Internet, and consumers should be allowed to access any legal website, service or application on any device of their choosing (whether they're accessing the Internet wirelessly or not) without interference from big telecom.

Please! Please! Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Henrietta McClellan
2721 NE 40th Court
Lighthouse Point FL, 33064

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Martin
1101 Pidcoke Street
Gatesville TX, 76528

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James J. Alstrum
809 N School St.
Normal IL, 61761

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Virginia Ellen
135 Manor Lane E
Lehighton PA, 18235

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brandon Kirk
825 N. Hampton Rd.
Dallas TX, 75208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Spinney
424 Little Lake Dr, #28
Ann Arbor MI, 48103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vernon and Mary Joyce Dixon
6217 Upper Hightower Rd
Hiawassee GA, 30546

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard I. Coleman
6 Duzine Rd.
New Paltz NY, 12561

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Kelz
2808 Cascade Cove
Little Elm TX, 75068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

robert hlavna
599 oak street
elk grove village IL, 60007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Lux
10704 SW Lakeview Dr
Rushville MO, 64484

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerry Umali
39 Mayflower Dr.
Sicklerville NJ, 08081

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Thomas
5021 Burnely Station Road
Barboursville VA, 22923

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha Bullen
125 S. Valley Road
Paoli PA, 19301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bo Baggs
3565 Lake Arthur Drive
Port Arthur TX, 77642

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Todd Edwards
4503A Eigel Street
Houston TX, 77007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Post
1108 NE Independence Ave.
Lee's Summit MO, 64086

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan Lobell
5107 Whiteford Ave.
Baltimore MD, 21212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cindy Christensen
10 Weldon Way
Fairview NC, 28730

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Scouras
1770 CR 411
Lexington TX, 78947

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolina Amoruso
3540 82ND St Apt 3K
Jackson Hts NY, 11372

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicholas L. Abram
4917 Carlton Crossing Drive
Durham NC, 27713

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Bartiromo
10 Cedar Farms Road
Medway MA, 02053

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Chamberlain
117 Quarter Horse Lane
Fairfield CT, 06824

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Broomfield
15 West 81st Street
New York NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William D. Bondsteel
204 Plantation Dr.
Lexingtont TN, 38351

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bryan James 80 Craig Ave,
Madison WI, 53705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Gomez
16 Manor Drive
Cambridge OH, 43725

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha McCann
9 Hidden Ln
Doylestown PA, 18901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Distefano
508 South Main Street
Harlan KY, 40831

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Ruiz
2626 Babcock Rd Apt 2708
San Antonio TX, 78229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Warner
1955 Tatum Lane
Lebanon KY, 40033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Greg Cooksey
3401 Red River St. #244
Austin TX, 78705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

louise levy
220 n zapata hwy #11
laredo TX, 78043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Schneider
808 West End Ave., #1102
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Kuebler
2323 F. Street, Apt. 2
Lincoln NE, 68510

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Derek Lovitch
29 Woodland Rd
Pownal ME, 04069

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's FAKE net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Granger
5021 Sutherland Ave.
St. Louis MO, 63109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
We've been fighting for net neutrality for a long time. You can be the Hero for our rights, Thank You for all you have done.

Sincerely,

Ellen Sue Balk
2211 Stroden Circle
Golden Valley MN, 55427

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Guido Vacano
9055 W. 80th Dr.
Arvada CO, 80005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Flinn
3120 W. 133rd Circle
Broomfield CO, 80020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Baer Bradford
522 Fairmont Ave
Kingsport TN, 37660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vince Medlock
1563 Oxford Dr
Murray KY, 42071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Probst
16207 Summer Wind Dr
Houston TX, 77090

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dr Rebekka Freeman
PO Box 284
Belfast ME, 04915

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

conrado acevedo
9710 cliffwood drive
houston TX, 77096

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Please don't make this December the month when the entire administration capitulates.

Sincerely,

Jeremiah Avins
139 Kendall Road
Kendall Park NJ, 08824

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Barger
10098 Cincinnati Columbus Rd
Cincinnati OH, 45241

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matt Albright
700 N Greenwood Ave
Tulsa OK, 74106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Earl Watson
1688 South Lincoln
Denver CO, 80210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michelle Gebhart
818 Logan St #804
Denver CO, 80203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald G. Appleman
180 E Morris St
Bement IL, 61813

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karl Horstmann
120 3RD St
Schenectady NY, 12302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carl Foner
125 Boerum Pl Apt 3B
Brooklyn NY, 11201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sophia Hartdegen
9 Richdale Ave
Somerville MA, 02145

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Kessler
5995 S. Kenton St
Englewood CO, 80111

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Perez
61 Duncan Mansion Dr.
Silex MO, 63377

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emmanuel Grothear
6418 Eckhert Rd #11304
San Antonio TX, 78240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim W. Kuzniar
9789 S. Autumnwood Pl.
Highlands Ranch CO, 80129

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
The relentless pursuit for extreme wealth and power by corporations at the expense of the citizenry and the giving in by gov. must be stopped!

Sincerely,

Jerry Brucaya
890 CTH PB
Belleville WI, 53508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

PLEASE be a hero for the Internet! Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kelly Bragg
176 Marsh Island Dr
Kiawah Island SC, 29455

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carlos Pecciotto
848 N. Winchester Ave.
Chicago IL, 60622

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cybele Hantman
95 Emerson St.
St. Johnsbury VT, 05819

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.
I live in a rural area, old copper lines that will no longer run internet service. I have only one option here, a PC card. This is not just about iphones or streaming video. This is about clear rules so I as a consumer trust that I have the right to a speed that will turn pages without using old version, one that will allow me to update without errors. A internet that does not take my daughter 35 minutes to download a utube video. [This has happened and FCC helped me through mediation with my provider.] I should at least have the right to the speed and data that I was told I would get. for the price am paying [not that they tell you the speed]. Who do I go to now if FCC does not regulate cell signal?

We need stronger regulation and we need it on cell signal also, we need to know what speed we are getting before we sign a contract and have FCC there if we do not get said service. Please help Chairman Genachowski understand that the current plan will not protect people from the issues we are facing as consumers with few choices. With an internet policy that is not truly neutral I will be paying $60 to my provider for a service I will not be able to use and I will have nowhere to turn.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paula Griffin
1329 st rd WW
Fulton MO, 65251

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judye Pistole
701 7th St.
Alva OK, 73717

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Todd Crawford
P.O. 2403
Surf City NC, 28445

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cameron Harris
103 1/2 S Walnut St, Apt A
West Union IA, 52175

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Keefe
2420 S Meade St
Denver CO, 80219

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Olson
4102 Briarglen
San Antonio TX, 78218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Crystal Ivery
904A W. Live Oak St.
Austin TX, 78704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Wilda
5520 N California Ave
Chicago IL, 60625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linzie Burton
135 Elati Street
Denver CO, 80223

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John R West
414 S Van Buren Ave
Blanchard OK, 73010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Schwartz
2841 Rangewood Terrace
Atlanta GA, 30345

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Citron
PO Box 1785
Mannchester Center VT, 05255

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sue rogan
7106 Fortune Drive #24
Middleton IA, 52562

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Tidd
919 26th st
Parkersburg WV, 26104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brent Gilstrap
P.O. Box 5008-333
Mariposa CA, 95338

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Delila Leber
4561 33rd Ave. S.
Seattle WA, 98118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

pat aguon
po box 112
st hedwig TX, 78152

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julia Hartman
300 Orange St
Tuscaloosa AL, 35401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beth Hooper
6756 Whitneyville Road
Middleville MI, 49333

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

As an IT professional, nothing saddens me more than seeing the United States government consider putting an end to the internet as we know it.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pavel Brodskiy
271 Barton Anders
Ames IA, 50011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leonard R Yang
1537 Dalton Place
Winchester VA, 22601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Reilly
5 Jacob Cobb Lane
Northborough MA, 01532

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John C. Heddens
943 Barnes rd.
Ashfield MA, 01330

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Paulson
6781 W. Linvale Place
Denver CO, 80227

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kimberly Moses
36 Crosswinds Drive
Groton MA, 01450

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Spinale
52 Pine Street
Great Falls SC, 29055

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert serr
707 Green Acres
North Dighton MA, 02764

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Raeann Black
640 Vine Street
Middletown PA, 17057

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paula Grande
201 E 12th St.
New York NY, 10003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Yana Passater
N Kedzie
Chicago IL, 60651

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terrence Glassman
1141 NW 13 St., #4
Boca Raton FL, 33486

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Domiteaux
4435 middleton
dallas TX, 75229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Feran
6454 S. Hudson St.
Centennial CO, 80121

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

V. Kay Jordan
PO Box 601594
Dallas TX, 75360

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sylvia Cohen
17 E97th ST
NYC NY, 10029

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

garrett morris
1002 derry lane
macomb IL, 61455

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Mcdonald
397 orchard st
Cranford NJ, 07016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Malahn Drott
6073 Upper Wyoming Rd
SPRING GREEN WI, 53588

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat Reese
203 Washburn
Elgin IL, 60123

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Young
618 Central Ave
Deerfield WI, 53531

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas W. Blackwell
5399 Zero Lane
Milton FL, 32583

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I've read that you have been a champion for real net neutrality. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, please be a hero and vote no.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.

Sincerely,

Nima Rosepiper
62 Stockbridge Road
Great Barrington MA, 01230

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Stapleton
ninth street
hudson WI, 54016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Judy
PO Box 2112
Gaithersburg MD, 20886

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Glenn Fisher
182 Kelly Road
East Chatham NY, 12060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jennie santos
259 Clerk st 2nd floor
jersey City NJ, 07304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Walt & Sally Blair
2821 sw 167th place
Burien WA, 98166

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bernard Bland
11648 S. Breeze Grass Way
Parker CO, 80134

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jolly Baker
13009 230th Ave SE
Issaquah WA, 98027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

susan pottle
4027 N Stratford Rd, NE
Atlanta GA, 30342

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Williams
2673 Sewell Mill Rd
Marietta GA, 30062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Wallace
116 Fellows Rd.
Oakdale CT, 06370

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alexandra Shirreffs
520 18TH AVE E, #2
Seattle WA, 98112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane Lee Flatt
2120 Robins Lane SE Unit 96
Salem OR, 97306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tamara Randles
17316 East Rice Circle
Aurora CO, 80015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

If the industry likes it, you know that it cannot be good for the customer.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John A. McQuade
164 Wild Horse Valley Road
Novato CA, 94947

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Skye Daniels
7211 W. Beverly Mae Dr.
San Antonio TX, 78229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helen Webb
857 Chestnut Ave.
Redlands CA, 92373

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack R.Hengartner
12873 Cedar Creek Rd.
Wellston MI, 49689

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

stacey young
668 RICHMOND RD
Wrightsville PA, 17368

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sean Cameron
297 Old Eastern Star Trail
Makanda IL, 62958

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Arant
9303 W 87TH Pl
Arvada CO, 80005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Anderson
120 Quebec Ave. South
Golden Valley MN, 55426

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Levis Keltner
1348 Thorpe Lane Apt. 616
San Marcos TX, 78666

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Asheesh Siddique
4615 Morgan Drive
Chevy Chase MD, 20815

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Thoma
491 Patton Cove
Swannanoa NC, 28778

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Mayer
108 Rainbow Dr #825
Livingston TX, 77399

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

In Bolivia, the rainwater was claimed by Bechtel.

Our human genes are being patented by Corporations, fictitious "persons."

As a disabled person without a car, the internet is a road for freedom, and not one REAL person should have her or his liberty encroached upon through the Internet,, which I prefer to spell: i-n-t-e-r-n-e-t, , i.e., with a lower case. The I/i-nternet ought to be as free as possible. Some of the American people keep voting against themselves at very crucial times. PLEASE ADD YOUR NAME TO THOSE WHO WILL GO IN FUTURE BOOKS OF PROFILES IN COURAGE. Thank you for your time in reading this.
No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara A. Slavinsky
500 Virginia Avenue, , Apt., 704
Towson MD, 21286

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Robinson
463 West St. Apt. 3
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william diantonio iii
19 Kristen Lane
Mantua NJ, 08051

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Thile
1407 Cardinal Dr Apt A
Murray KY, 42071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Meilink
2040 W Main St 210-1656
Rapid City SD, 57702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Esacove
238 East Gravers
Philadelphia PA, 19118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dara Tallmadge
4380 Dover St
Wheat Ridge CO, 80033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

e 7780 e 26th ave
denver CO, 80238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Jeter
600 N Barclay St Apt 4
Fairmount IN, 46928

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

katie wakeley
313 Sheridan Rd
Oak Point TX, 75068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mona Lundstrom
512 3rd Ave. SE
Waseca MN, 56093

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lorraine brennan
20 sterling ave
staten island NY, 10306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Gette
24 Nursery Road
Laurel Fork VA, 24352

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brenda Joyce Echols
214 E. Pioneer
Wake Village TX, 75501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Bowne
300 Lafayette Lane
Hoffman Estates IL, 60169

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mikael andrews
2701 reagan street
dallas TX, 75219

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ashley Atkinson
1203 West 5th St.
Winona MN, 55987

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Fischer
618 West 113th St.
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Curt Knudson
1250 Humboldt St 802
Denver CO, 80218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charlotte E Akbari
2728 NE 31 Street
Lighthouse Point FL, 33064

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alexander Finkel
70 Roosevelt Blvd
Berlin NJ, 08009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Todd Templeton
6410 N. 106th Street
Omaha NE, 68134

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Ashley
310 74th Avenue North myrtle beach SC, 29572

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Bergeron
1218 Russell Ave N
Minneapolis MN, 55411

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Lawson
29 W 65th St., Apt 1G
New York NY, 10023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Gile
1530 Buena Park Dr
Frisco TX, 75034

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Isidoro Tamborello
1726 Bedingfield Drive
Tampa FL, 33603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Edmonds
13028 W. Beach Rd.
Wadsworth IL, 60083

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Betty Healy
5019 W. Catalpa
Chicago IL, 60630

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Leeb
10420 South Prospect Avenue
Chicago IL, 60643

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Marshall
3441 Harvey Avenue
Berwyn IL, 60402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rosa white
4750 Cedar Point Rd
Jacksonville FL, 32226

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Yoyi Steele
203 Williamsburg Way Ct
Fitchburg WI, 53719

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vicky Brandt
28 W. 10th ST
New York NY, 10011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Wood
1120 N. Dickens
Missoula MT, 59802

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Carty
3157 Lookout Trail
Tallahassee FL, 32309

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jacob East
2105 Campus Rd.
Toledo OH, 43606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

daniel wood
200 w. 90th st.
new york NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Waive Linden
2615 State Highway 13
Lampe MO, 65681

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Parks
823 Trenton Ave.
Pt Pleasant NJ, 08742

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Raymond Keeling
762 Panorama
Milford MI, 48381

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Gilbert
1701 Huntsman Drive
Aiken SC, 29803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Goad
PO Box 253
Brookhaven NY, 11719

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Smith
5 Hillside Place
Chappaqua NY, 10514

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Davis
W8365 County Rd C
New Lisbon WI, 53950

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dwayne Hinton
639 S. 12th Street
Port Allen LA, 70767

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barry Dahlin
301 Quaker Village Rd
Weybridge VT, 05753

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Day
2622 Gilliom Drive
Houston TX, 77084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Maehling
2755 Rice St Apt 608
Saint Paul MN, 55113

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Griffin
53 Whitewood Cir
Norwood MA, 02062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronald & Christina Lewsader
6171 LL.25 Lane
Garden MI, 49835

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Warren Bagby
2803 Sydney Ave
Forestville MD, 20747

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Blubaugh
35 Little York - Mt. Pleasant Rd.
Milford NJ, 08848

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

norma fleischer
263 Henley Drive
Naples FL, 34104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mark simpson
1313 Cota Street
Shelton WA, 98584

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for standing strongly in support of Net Neutrality.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Art Wagner
200 Oak Dr
Pasadena MD, 21122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerry R. Gutshall
1110 W. Hackberry Dr.
Weslaco TX, 78596

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote "no" on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Woods
68760 Burn Road
Clatskanie OR, 97016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Miche Meizner
90084 Johnson Crk Rd
Leaburg OR, 97489

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leslie Bettanin
P.O. Box 217
Highwood IL, 60040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pamela Robbins
152 Carnelian Way
San Francisco CA, 94131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William V. Giddings
122 Whitetail Circle
Wellsboro PA, 16901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eugene Siegfried
335 Highland dr.
Medina OH, 44256

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anton Rheaume
418 Presidential Ln
Madison WI, 53711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandra Brady
82227 F Street
Pinellas Park FL, 33781

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret ZOLTEK
5808 S NEVA AVE
CHICAGO IL, 60638

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

doug vincent 85 upyours lane
boulder, CO, 80304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Flood
370 20th St. SE
Cedar Rapids IA, 52403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

debra rael
3055 w Denver Place
Denver CO, 80211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne L. Nelson
1458 Rte. 6 West
Roulette PA, 16746

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Dominguez
135 W 23rd Street
New York NY, 10011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Glenn Hanley, Ph.D.
3035 Garfield St.
Denver CO, 80205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Stonebridge
493 S Devinney St
Lakewood CO, 80228

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Harper
650 S. Grant St.
Denver CO, 80209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

max magbee
715 drehr av
Baton Rouge LA, 70806

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Pennington
5525 Perry Ln
Merriam KS, 66203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aaron Danneman
115 Cedar Trace
Roswell GA, 30075

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronald T. Hobbs
10124 4th. St.
Highland IN, 46322

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gudrun Schindler
51821 838 Rd.
Elgin NE, 68636

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Drew Groover
394 Blackfoot Steet
Superior CO, 80027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Bethea
8283 South Carr Court
Littleton CO, 80128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carl Cording
38 So. Clement Ave.,
Ravena NY, 12143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Haney
2929 Long Hollow Rd
Powell TN, 37849

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard L. Parsons
5013 Sharon Dr
Jefferson City MO, 65109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eduardo Lau
1120 Greenway Terrace #5
Brookfield WI, 53005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Howard Berger
788 Columbus Ave. 17 F
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michele Doherty
3300 S Tamarac Dr H302
Denver CO, 80231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Johnathan Adamson
3600 Humble
Midland TX, 79707

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Seager
415 E. Vine St.
Milwaukee WI, 53212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Caroline Kurz
200 Pattee Canyon Dr
Missoula MT, 59803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jesse Faught
11304 se 10th St. Apt. K9
Vancouver WA, 98664

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hayli Walker
PO Box 64
Newberg OR, 97132

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

tom bishop
608 2nd Ave. N.
Edmonds WA, 98020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Van Zuuk
P.O. Box 31
Walterville OR, 97489

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Borgerding
4551 NE Skidmore St
Portland OR, 97218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JC Jones
242 Davenport Rd.
Lafollette TN, 37766

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

james Anton n2742 state road 67
williams bay WI, 53191

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Barber
347 Alplaus Avenue
Alplaus NY, 12008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Fuemmeler
502 NW Azalea Cir
Grain Valley MO, 64029

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mathew Wilson
379 Mitchell Ave.
Oshawa On, 47253

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Montague
7049 N Osceola Avenue
Chicago IL, 60631

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lucy Armstrong
43 N Broadway
Rumford RI, 02916

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sheila Shary
23W200 Blackcherry Lane
Glen Ellyn IL, 60137

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Pouzeshi
1120 Elizabeth St.
Denver CO, 80206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nina Palella
930 Curtis Pl
North Brunswick NJ, 08902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan Amberson, Ph.D.
W11545 478th Ave.
Prescott WI, 54021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

dennis shadbera
18-22 126 st
college point NY, 11356

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Curtis Miller
P.O. Box 1792
Lawrence KS, 66044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leonard Hearne
3105 Trailside Dr.
Columbia MO, 65203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Gabel -Brett
11 Cobbs Rd.
West Hartford CT, 06107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gordon Harwell-Spaulding
6302 Mineral Point Rd. unit313
Madison WI, 53705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

This decision will be the deciding factor in the future of free speech and freedom of information.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lois Fries
1915 cove dr.
Largo FL, 33774

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carrie Berman
5716 Chapman Mill Dr.
Rockville MD, 20852

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Benner
1585 Sea Island Dr.
Toms River NJ, 08753

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Wise
1773 Wells Branch Pkwy, Apt 622
Austin TX, 78728

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick Bertch
743 Mesa Creek Drive
Monument CO, 80132

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erin Rothman
433 Cranberry Lane
Crozet VA, 22932

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John lemmon
154 Cumberland Gap Road
Nederland CO, 80466

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Seth Mirsky
25 Rocky Road
Westport Island ME, 04578

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The Internet has changed people's lives for the better throughout the world. The connectedness it has created is unprecedented and has resulted in the ability to rescue political prisoners, as well as fundraise to help causes everywhere to make a better world, as just a couple of examples. An informed populace is the cornerstone of democracy. The fake net neutrality proposal would destroy the Internet as we know it by creating hierarchies of information access, a pay-to-play scenario that is the antithesis of what the Internet has been and should be. Keep the Internet a democratic institution.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Victoria Baker
3043 N Rampart St
New Orleans LA, 70117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Travis Grogan
10900 w 65th st
Shawnee KS, 66203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Childree
102 Library Ln Apt 1006
Jasper GA, 30143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

PLEASE! Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

amanda moore
2202 w 10th
Austin TX, 78703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Moellers
4345 Maricopa Dr.
Ames IA, 50014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Enoch Bell
5337 Garland Ave
Dallas TX, 75223

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dawn Roberts
3407 N Greenview Ave
Chicago IL, 60657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Mc Cormick
2133 Main St.
three rivers MA, 01080

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

robert nobrega
3601 north military trail
boca raton FL, 33431

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Kerekes
47508 93rd. Street West
Antelope Acres CA, 93536

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

KAYE MILLER
4335 MORGAN CV.
OLIVEBRANCH MS, 38654

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Khalithea Skelly
113 14th St
Hoboken NJ, 07030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bonnie Preston
49 Mattson Ln.
Blue Hill ME, 04614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

barb romano
5807 goddard
shawnee KS, 66203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scot Yates
107 N. Prospect St.
Colorado Springs CO, 80903

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

T Rogers
P O B ox 2486
Albertville AL, 35950

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Pastor
21 Eldridge Road
Jamaica Plain MA, 02130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Farley Ferrante
9600 Golf Lakes Trail #1090
Dallas TX, 75231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Consuelo Moore
1844 Sunset Ave.
Cincinnati OH, 45238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leah Dodds
414 Fulton St.
Aurora CO, 80010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Hamilton
605 Wings Mills Road
Mt Vernon ME, 04352

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Clare Diehl
1517 Bonnie Brae Pl
River Forest IL, 60305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sean Proudlock
3410 134th Pl. SW #B
Lynnwood WA, 98087

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lucy Armstrong
43 N Broadway
Rumford RI, 02916

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Maloney
906 Oak Ridge Terrace
Whiting NJ, 08759

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Virginia Charlton
P. O. Box 6344
Hickory NC, 28603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Black
2031 Kerr Gulch Road
Evergreen CO, 80439

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Yeh
2045 N Halsted St
Chicago IL, 60614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

patricia wynn
12602 SW 88 Street
Miami FL, 33186

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

joe mcelligott
8100 cypresswood dr
spring TX, 77379

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Wrona
7S505 Lynn Drive
Naperville IL, 60540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robin Spock
13 Woodwind Lane
Spring Valley NY, 10977

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nick Altomare
3450 Penrose Pl Ste 220
Boulder CO, 80301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel McCune
13919-B N. May Ave. #162
Oklahoma City OK, 73134

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gerry Stormer
540 S Central Ave
Wood River IL, 62095

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Courtney Burns
3450 Breckinridge Blvd Apt 916
Duluth GA, 30096

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shaw Minor
2120 N. Briarwood Dr.
Stillwater OK, 74075

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bajeera McCorkle
4725 CEDAR AVE APT 2
PHILADELPHIA PA, 19143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tammy Shirley
1389 Dunsford Circle
Suwanee GA, 30024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Noreen Duszynski
4018 Longfellow St
Hyattsville MD, 20781

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Iltzsche
759 Verbena Court
Valparaiso IN, 46385

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Trompeter
512 Rose Hill Ave
Springfield IL, 62704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Riggio
8265 S Poplar Way
Centennial CO, 80112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cindy Parrone
PO Box 103
Murphysboro IL, 62966

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Parrish
8117 Alfalfa ct.
Niwot CO, 80503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Schulman
2803 S 4TH St
Austin TX, 78704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melissa Pinney
416 Dempster St.
Evanston IL, 60202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ryan Robertson
4800 University Dr. Apt.11E
Durham NC, 27707

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Turbin
7820 Durham Way
Boulder CO, 80301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven St. James
1017 S. Birch St. #B509
Denver CO, 80246

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Ripley
1724 Crest Circle
Oklahoma City OK, 73130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diana Klein
12100 Metric Blvd. #412
Austin TX, 78758

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Villarqui
5620 SE 22nd Ave
Portland OR, 97202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Flynn
2509 old NC highway 10
Hillsborough NC, 27278

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Tereba
12407 Torrey Pines Dr.
Auburn CA, 95602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nina McLellan
14014 Shaker Blvd
Shaker Heights OH, 44120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

BJ McGough
4440 LINDELL #403
St.Louis MO, 63108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Aun
135 W 23rd Street
New York NY, 10011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marion Mitten
5521 Texas Bluebell Drive
Spicewood TX, 78669

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
Susan Morrissey

Sincerely,

susan morrissey
731 5th ave nw
valley city ND, 58072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

eric ribellarsi
1000 Gulfton St.
Houston TX, 77006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Mr. Copps,

Vote for real net neutrality not the phony upcoming compromise plan.

Sincerely,

James Zapalac
7748 Armour Rd
Millington TN, 38053

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dolores Ruskie
19103 Woodhaven Drive
Hagerstown MD, 21742

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Claire Arrowsmith
23 Romoda Drive
Canton NY, 13617

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doug Cecere
2308 Owens Avenue #103
Fort Collins CO, 80528

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kenny Villacorta
10736 S. Buffalo Ave.
Chicago IL, 60617

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adam Stenftenagel
PO BOX 7411
Boulder CO, 80306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Dohearty
6230 Lupton Drive
Dallas TX, 75225

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

wayne kompare
4836 bay shore rd
sarasota FL, 34234

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michael moran
4560 nassau pl.
boulder CO, 80301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edward Morgan
353 Taylor Rd.
Stow MA, 01775

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Viall
8108 Hamilton Mill Drive
Chattanooga TN, 37421

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gay Griffin
1102 Hillcrest Drive SW
Vienna VA, 22180

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Victor Delgado Jr
3416 E. San Antonio Ave
El Paso TX, 79905

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jennifer anderson
1611 alta vista ave.
austin TX, 78704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gerhard Oertel
330 Kensington Dr
Madison WI, 53704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nathan Bruss
19346 Oak Shores Road
Hanska MN, 56041

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Butler
2601 Luan Ct
Columbia MO, 65203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Denise Pierce
208 South Battin
Wichita KS, 67218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Mooney
1006 Lancashire Ln
Pendleton IN, 46064

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Todd Hill
13034 King Circle
Broomfield CO, 80020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lauren Bristol
324 Burnet Ave.
Syracuse NY, 13203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Once again, please be a hero for the Internet.

Please vote "NO" on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. So, when the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Any proposal that is acceptable canNOT permit paid prioritization; canNOT exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; canNOT move forward without reclassifying broadband.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.

Once again, please do what's right one and vote "NO" on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elisabeth Pelham
2119A Postoffice Street
Galveston TX, 77550

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Clarissa Delany
21 Rambling Rd
Palestine TX, 75801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Rasmussen
556 La Marina Drive
Santa Barbara CA, 93109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharran Zeleke
1337 Ward Street
Berkeley CA, 94702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Iosu T.C.
7208 S.Yates Blvd.#3
Chicago IL, 60649

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sidney Berkowitz
6485 Leytonstone
West Bloomfield MI, 48322

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mahabba kauffman
po box 508
RIBERA NM, 87560

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharyn Egan
3301 S.E. Riviere Drive
Milwaukie OR, 97267

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Martin
2611 Eastlake Ave. E. #102
Seattle WA, 98102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jo Clayson
842 Phillip Road
Fort Plain NY, 13339

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Glen Pappas
11822 S. Pulaski Rd.
Alsip IL, 60803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

R. Dale Long
P.O. Box 370
Pago Pago AS, 96799

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nathan Bruss
19346 Oak Shores Road
Hanska MN, 56041

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick Karluk
45 Norcross Circle
Hamilton NJ, 08619

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Diehl
1211 Logan Ave
Tyrone PA, 16686

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michael thornton
234 penn lane
rochester NY, 14625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kent Budke
114 Shady Lane
East Peoria IL, 61611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Adams
166 Eely Road
McDade TX, 78650

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Keep Our Line FREE on the Homepage of The BRAVE!

Sincerely,

Victor Bruce Anderson
1999 Bradbury Road
Winter Haven FL, 33880

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jamie chesser
3210 Osceola St.
Denver CO, 80212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Laughlin
827 CHURCH ST.
IOWA CITY IA, 52245

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debbie Christopher
11915 Gow Lane
Bellevue NE, 68123

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lelanda Lee
8591 Bridle Court
Longmont CO, 80503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Clifton Napoleon
7026 Cole Creek Drive
Houston TX, 77092

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Valerie Minowitz
1108 Paula Ln
Euless TX, 76040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Lindholm
7421 Frankford Rd. #1923
Dallas TX, 75252

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Kanarish
19235 E. Cottonwood Dr.
Parker CO, 80138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

don olweean
5445 Stoney Brook Rd
kalamazoo MI, 49009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I trust in your understanding of the true democracy of the net netrality principle becase no one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for REAL net neutrality than you.

Regarding Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan: your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet and, dare I say, humanity! Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Paid prioritization: reject this.

Any exemption for wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline: reject.

Reclassifying broadband: YES. It provides the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections. That alone should have EVERY FCC vote reject the current proposal.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.

Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandy Dvorsky
433 Mary St
St. Paul MN, 55119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julia Wilson
269 Union St.
Brooklyn NY, 11231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gerald Allen
702 Sherman Drive
Bellevue NE, 68005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Teri Vanore
PO Box 2742
Fair Lawn NJ, 07410

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Whitney Kirkman
Box 21654
Raleigh NC, 27607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

dagmar gundersen
2132 Ingman Rd
Tracy City TN, 37387

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joleen Chambers
1717 Arts Plaza, Suite 2109
Dallas TX, 75201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Meagan Ludwig
103 E. 30th St Bldg 1 Apt 410
Austin TX, 78705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ginny Griffin
PO Box 3004
Breckenridge CO, 80424

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Miller
2358 Hwy 66
Estes Park CO, 80517

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stan Cole
PO Box 255
Finlayson MN, 55735

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Hilton
2134 S. Walnut
Boulder CO, 80302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick Pfeiffer
1751 2nd Ave
New York NY, 10128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dr. Kathryn A. Cole
2522 Alpine Road
Durham NC, 27707

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vaughn Watson
2 Indain Trace
Kings Park NY, 11754

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sumner Wilson
18940 county road 7300
Newburg MO, 65550

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Walsh
250 South Whiting St
Alexandria VA, 22304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Lowenburg
7342 Old Santa Fe Trail
Santa Fe NM, 87505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sheila N.
P.O. Box 86
Jacksboro TX, 76458

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sally Giles
73-70 199th Street
Flushing NY, 11366

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Swift
591 Corte Castano
Camarillo CA, 93010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Earl Rubell
14016 Bora Bora Way #124
Marina Del Rey CA, 90292

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right this time also, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Fonda
1956 Norwood Lane
State College PA, 16803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William D Hart
280 Main Street
Westport CT, 06880

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Allison Spencer
749 Cape Cod Cir
Valrico FL, 33594

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ed Driscoll
27-28 Thomson Ave Unit 244
Long Island City NY, 11101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maria Poust
3620 N Elmwood Ave
Davenport IA, 52806

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Theresa del Rosario
881 Otto Avenue
St. Paul MN, 55102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

susan peirce
143 Eagle Feather Way
Lyons CO, 80540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roxann Snyder
413 Hemlock drive
burnsville MN, 55337

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Craig Brown
2908 Southbrook Drive
Bloomington MN, 55431

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Warren S Napier
1722 Shavano St
Longmont CO, 80504

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Webber
3322 W. Belden Ave.
Chicago IL, 60647

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kayla Gilbert
301 E. Reynolds Drive, Apt 3B
Ruston LA, 71270

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Christopherson
12342 Lake St. SE
Mentor MN, 56736

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please don't let us down. Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eleanor Bell
5411 SW 22nd Park
Topeka KS, 66614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lip Betley
3 White Clay Dr.
Newark DE, 19711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Lautenbach
1888 N Water St #17
Milwaukee WI, 53202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Jacke
P.O. Box 997
Block Island RI, 02807

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sonia Ness
328 Banbury Ave.
Elk Grove Village IL, 60007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Max Fuentes
1038 Canyon View Rd
Dripping Springs TX, 78620

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandra Schrotenboer
5841 43rd St N
St Petersburg FL, 33714

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aaron Laibson
1101 Juniper St NE apt 309
Atlanta GA, 30309

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harvey Gitlin
2775 Slaterville Rd
Brooktondale NY, 14817

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anita LaChance
5755 W Alantic Pl #303
Denver CO, 80227

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Tokheim
20 E. Zeller Street
North Liberty IA, 52317

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

anita bixenstine
407 Wilson Ave
Kent OH, 44240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Schmidt
10309 N. Baltimore
Kansas City MO, 64155

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathy Duke
608 E 49th St
Austin TX, 78751

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Heitz
8903 E Carroll Rd
Winston GA, 30187

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Francois Bronsard
15 Laurel Av,
Kingston NJ, 08528

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Sandgrund
1310 Delaware Ave. #110
Buffalo NY, 14209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Arthur E Coates
1296 Rt. 121 East
Grafton VT, 05146

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martin Yaslowitz
10 Cherokee Rd
Manitou Springs , CO, 80829

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Raymond B. Hansel
819 Diablo, Ave. #24
Novato CA, 94947

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Csaszar
11 White Oak Dr
Fleetwood PA, 19522

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Smirnow
1779 Hwy 10 A
Ponce de Leon FL, 32455

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronald James Miller
5230 N. Princeton St.
Portland OR, 97203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janice Rumschlag
4101 N Bell Ave
Chicago IL, 60618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Monica Marsh
6700 Saint Estaban St.
Tujunga CA, 91042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debby Dieckman
1401 E 11th ST
Newberg OR, 97132

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

donna walcott
3315 Richards Dr
Port Huron MI, 48060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aleksey Malishkin
9654 Remington Ave
Firestone CO, 80504

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Walter-Ball
3276 Welmingham Dr. SW
Atlanta GA, 30331

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry J. Williams
4170 Brigadoon Drive
Shoreview MN, 55126

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Valerie Heinonen
205 Ave C
NY NY, 10009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beryl Walker
1000 Piney Creek
Centennial CO, 80015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Kowal
767 W. Lois Ct
Louisville CO, 80027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don White
6202 Hummingbird
Houston TX, 77096

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan S. Wasserman, M.D.
3132 Westminster Avenue
Dallas TX, 75205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katherine Paronto
4423 Campbell St.
Kansas City MO, 64110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn Miller
3401 James Street #14
Syracuse NY, 13206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sam Shone
5412 Manhart St
Sedalia CO, 80135

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lorna Morley
1984 Mass. Ave.
Lexington MA, 02421

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Blackburn
5013 Tree Top
GARLAND TX, 75044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mira Perrizo
6505 Kalua Rd #302
Boulder CO, 80301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom
158 Macintosh Hill Rd.
Randolph VT, 05060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Peach
1512 Irishwood Court
Middleburg FL, 32068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Anderson
1015 New York
Lawrence KS, 66044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Colin Wark
4000 S. Brahma Blvd. Apt. E2
Kingsville TX, 78363

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert E. Walton
Box 105
Jonesboro IL, 62952

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Manuel Pecina
627 S. Ravinia
Dallas TX, 75211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Caldwell
8848 Youree Drive
Shreveport LA, 71115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wendy Rogelle
4784 Fiddle
Waterford MI, 48328

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Denny Harlow
1377 Ridgewood Dr
Mobile AL, 36608

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

At times, half of my broadcast channels on TV are bought up by paid advertising, like how to operate a swiffer mop. No public good in that. Don't let the same thing happen to the internet. -- Carey

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carey Carlson
2624 Pierce St. NE
Minneapolis MN, 55418

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Chenelle
21 James Street
Newark NJ, 07102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emma Raymond
1017 3rd Street
Baraboo WI, 53913

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Garland
10 Pheasant Run
Chatham IL, 62629

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Terhune
3911 N. Chestnut St.
Colorado Springs CO, 80907

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bonita Balkenol
P.O. Box 2072
Arvada CO, 80001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Merbaum
8 Lincoln Road
Great Neck NY, 11021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Jackson
415 Grand Ct
Golden CO, 80401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Carroll
5216 N. Magnolia Ave # 2
Chicago IL, 60640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vreni Naess
5492 S. Everett Avenue
Chicago IL, 60615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Ermey
7005 Creighton Ln
Austin TX, 78723

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cherie J. Grimm
1376 Williams St. #1
Denver CO, 80218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ariadne Lieber
2001 E Linglebach Ln, Apt. 447
Bloomington IN, 47408

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Angone
POB 1405
Bridgeview IL, 60455

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

rebecca romatoski
1464 s michigan unit 1311
chicago IL, 60605

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Albert
104 N Brookdale Dr
Spartanburg SC, 29303

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karl H. Moltmann
1424 SE Anspach
Milwaukie OR, 97267

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin McKeever
4106 41st Ave. S.
Minneapolis MN, 55406

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jo Roberts
3852 GRAND AVE S APT 2
MINNEAPOLIS MN, 55409

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Moore
422 Bobwhite Dr.
Purcell OK, 73080

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Messing
619 5th St.
Traverse City MI, 49684

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Ceglowski
Box 38
Rupert VT, 05768

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan. LET'S HAVE REAL REGULATION, WITH REAL TEETH IN IT. ENOUGH KOW-TOWING TO CORPORATE INTERESTS -- ISN'T THIS SUPPOSED TO BE A DEMOCRATIC ADMINISTRATION? I'm starting to wonder . . . and I'm not the only one. Do Democrats HAVE to bend over every time corporate bullies tell them to? Is Ralph Nader RIGHT, for god's sake? Say it isn't so! And MEAN it!

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Suzy Charnas
212 High St. NE
Albuquerque NM, 87102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Laborowicz
171 India Street
Brooklyn NY, 11222

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ben Corbett
302
Detroit MI, 48201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gregory Tutko
PENINSULA RD
Tarpon xc3xb9springs FL, 34689

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Indira Raichoudhury
1800 Aiken Ct
Norman OK, 73071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Sibley
1235 Washington Street
Denver CO, 80203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please continue working for internet neutrality. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's misleading "net neutrality" plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Foxvog
9293 1925 East St
Tiskilwa IL, 61368

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dulcey Simpkins
2780 W 106th Loop Unit A
Westminster CO, 80234

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Toy
1723 Dexter Ave (Apt 2)
Ann Arbor MI, 48103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Conan Payne
1124 Maple Grove Circle
Leesville LA, 71446

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chuck Block
7267W Lanice Lane
Winter WI, 54896

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Hauser, LCSW
1825 S. Jersey Way
Denver CO, 80224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jake Hebert
1943 W Winnemac #1
Chicago IL, 60640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

THANK YOU! No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

fred rosenberg
302 west adams
fairfield IA, 52556

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Crystal Lee
2104 Connecticut
Youngstown OH, 44509

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rich Warner
3100 Newport Court
Arlington TX, 76015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

pirato chris
5 wheat path
mount sinai NY, 11766

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Jahnke
2515 Maroon Bells Ave
Colorado Springs CO, 80918

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alice Stuhlmacher
1580 N. Blanchard Ct
Wheaton IL, 60187

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Enser
650 S Yarrow St
Lakewood CO, 80226

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

margaret tatum
mtatum@ktc.com
kerrville TX, 78028

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edward Bielaus
6912 Breezewood ter
Rockville MD, 20852

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

If this is what they Chairman Genachowski thinks is net neutrality, then he needs an education. Or a swift kick in the pants. Please stand up for Americans and take him to task for this outrage.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sam Mead
708 Medina Dr.
Columbia MO, 65202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Wincek
177 North Main St.
Plains PA, 18705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin McLaughlin
173 Haight st #204
San Francisco CA, 94102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kari Knabe
21525 County Road H East
Weston MO, 64098

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

blaine gilruth
123 main st
philomath OR, 97370

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Troy Lynn undisclosed
Sacramento CA, 95827

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Danya Gass
3045 8th St
boulder CO, 80304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kay yeuell
220 white oak cir
Maitland FL, 32751

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sherry Caldwell
1813 Redtail Hawk Drive
Estes Park CO, 80517

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Calhoun
115 spring valley rd
bristol VA, 24201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michele Algreen
3881 26th Street
Boulder CO, 80304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Hanley
11755 Darlington
Los Angeles CA, 90049

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven LeBlanc
995 E. Badger Rd.
Crestone CO, 81131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mandy Elsea
2115 Burlington Ave.
Missoula MT, 59801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon D'Agostino
120 St. Paul Lane
Ligonier PA, 15658

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrea Dezendorf
7210 W 8TH Ave
Lakewood CO, 80214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

david collins
2357 main st
stratford CT, 06615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jude Wrzesinski
5120 Rotary Rd.
Cherry Valley IL, 61016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Salisbury
535 N. Main St.
Wayland MI, 49348

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bruce davidson
4099 wcr# 50
ft. collins CO, 80521

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stonna R Shores
9515 Wildwood Rdg
San Antonio TX, 78250

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anika Kuhar
1428 9th St
Moline IL, 61265

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn Hartung
3846 Chenlot
Waterford MI, 48328

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Coker
408 Parkway Circle North
Fort Collins CO, 80525

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie A Figueroa
22500 Sacramento Avenue
Port Charlotte FL, 33954

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Dolan
1602 Shumate Drive
Little Rock AR, 72212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Chaffin
233 Green St.
Schenectady NY, 12305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brad Sherman
421 Boundary Lane
Carbondale CO, 81623

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Miller
1008 Hickory Circle
Wapakoneta OH, 45895

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Lodenkamper
843 Indian Peak Rd.
Golden CO, 80403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Myer
1082 Briar Vista Terrace, NE
Atlanta GA, 30324

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Kleemeier
4187 Elder Ct
Independence KY, 41051

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Derek Brown
7349 Ulmerton Rd Lot 1374
Largo FL, 33771

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mauricio Membreno
851 - 44th Street Box A5
Brooklyn NY, 11220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Caddell
315 Arapahoe Road No 204
Boulder CO, 80302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please don't pushed into telecom industry friendly net neutrality. Give the public true net neutrality. This is saving the internet for you, me, and everyone else.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Yelan Tong
1505 Pearl St. #109
Boulder CO, 80302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Grant Campbell
1037 Bonner Springs Ranch Road
Laporte CO, 80535

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerrold Whaley
9518 Troon Village Dr.
Lone Tree CO, 80124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paula O'Neal
125 Atlantic Ave
Shreveport LA, 71105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Horn, Sr
3969 Natchez Drive
Vestavia Hills AL, 35243

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Calvin
6336 East 17th Avenue
Denver CO, 80220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bart Smyth
32 Victory Lane
Leetsdale PA, 15056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

james cathcart
1418 19 th street
SACRAMENTO CA, 95811

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dr. & Mrs. George B. Kauffman
1609 E. Quincy Ave.
Fresno CA, 93720

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carl Sorem
708 Canterbury
Livermore CA, 94550

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pauline Caulk
193 Tenby Chase Dr., Apt. 154M
Delran NJ, 08075

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

barbara stover
807 north church street
livingston TN, 38570

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

More and more, it seems there are very few people who are willing to take a stand on issues of importance. Please, be one of the few who are willing to do so. Do not let Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan be ok'ed.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Thank you!

Sincerely,

Kate Brady
42 Medway Street
Norfolk MA, 02056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

eliza gilkyson
5405 Jeffburn
austin TX, 78745

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Arthur Preisinger
5151 Edloe, #14202
Houston TX, 77005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jessie Powell
9 Ackinbac Rd
Middleboro MA, 02346

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rodney Proffitt
263 Woodsman Drive
Pagosa Springs CO, 81147

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Denise Ogier
7733 S. Elm Ct
Centennial CO, 80122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Cleek
809 Morningstar Trail
Richardson TX, 75081

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Andrew Harris
921 Hamilton Bridges Drive East
Mobile AL, 36695

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Wisser
1455 Euclid Avenue
Miami Beach FL, 33139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Boudreaux
2218SouthAltonWay
Denver CO, 80231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roseanne Hartman
5112 E 23rd St
Tulsa OK, 74114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carlos Boueres
1337A Jackson St
Tallahassee FL, 32303

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

marc c linden ave
chicago IL, 60622

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian McGuire
2512 Buttonwood Dr.
Jacksonville FL, 32216

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Greg Dorsey
313 West Meadow Road
Thomaston ME, 04861

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kaitlyn Davidson
13903 Parkhill Street
Overland Park KS, 66221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

thanopoulos harris
33 birch pond drive
saugus MA, 01906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ingeborg Mooney
2700 Bayshore Blvd #9 102
Dunedin FL, 34698

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christina Pender
321 Redstone Drive
Bellvue CO, 80512

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Xaq
7301 Garland Avenue
Takoma Park MD, 20912

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terri Weinstein
1417 Medina Ave.
coral Gables FL, 33134

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dana Sanchez
135 Meadow Dr.
Bailey CO, 80421

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kenny Davis
1638 S Brentwood St
Lakewood CO, 80232

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.

Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hugh Smyser
538 East 89th St
New York NY, 10128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Martin
9423 Leader
Houston TX, 77036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard E. Fluhr
3523 stanford st
Houston TX, 77006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chadwick Wright
8952 Marchbank Lane
Lewis Center OH, 43035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Arin Tememe
10820 SW 200 Dr. #168
Miami FL, 33157

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

An acceptable proposal will NOT:
1. permit paid prioritization
2. exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline
3. move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

New Neutrality is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people (like me). We reflect America's diversity and are of every race, class, and political opinion. WE WANT MEANINGFUL, ENFORCEABLE NET NEUTRALITY PROTECTIONS.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.

Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Campbell
1634 W. 51
Kansas City MO, 64112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Manwiller
1614 60th St.
Turtle Lake WI, 54889

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Leidy
36 Austin Street
Wellsboro PA, 16901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

thanopoulos marria
33 birch pond drive
Saugus MA, 01906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Aisenberg
55 Parade Pl #A8
Brooklyn NY, 11226

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

In the vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your voice will be the deciding one.

You have been a vocal champion for Net Neutrality on the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

These aspects of the proposal are inherently wrong: paid prioritization, exempting wireless broadband from the protections offered for wired access, and essentially reclassifying broadband to provide the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

The American people have no lobbyists, but we want and need meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Dukes
512 Rittiman Road
San Antonio TX, 78209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Reed
515 W. Park
Sheridan IL, 60551

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Naved Ali
5532 Ivanhoe Dr.
Troy MI, 48085

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Milada Lee
721 Lincoln Avenue
Carbondale CO, 81623

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Javier GonzÃ¡lez
urb. luga de castiello 8 1B
Castiello de jaca GA, 22710

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barry Seth
1355 Wilmot Road
Deerfield IL, 60015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susie OConnor
3488 Mt Baker Hwy
Bellingham WA, 98226

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Simha Chandran
107-40 Queens Blvd. Apt 16A
Forest Hills NY, 11375

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Cooper
5631 Castle Drive
Oakland CA, 94611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Evan Marshall
38 Center St.
Bennington VT, 05201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David RICE
733 North Kings Rd. #256
Los Angeles CA, 90069

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Hayes
185 Rainbow Dr
Grand Jct CO, 81503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Nowicki
907 Summit St
Downers Grove IL, 60515

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Glickman
2251 Willowbrook Drive
Clearwater FL, 33764

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ana antunes
4219 habana avenue
jacksonville FL, 32217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Hightower
1021 Patrick Henry Drive
Arlington VA, 22205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Simone
n/a
Bethlehem PA, 18018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Duncan
PO Box 15103
Asheville NC, 28813

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerri Lincoln
P.O. Box 4513
Durango CO, 81302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Bramlette
10210 Inwood Drive
Houston TX, 77042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Kansas
1743 Stumpf Blvd., Suite 200
Gretna LA, 70056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Dailey
1708 13th Avenue
Greeley CO, 80631

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Hartman
5112 E 23rd St
Tulsa OK, 74114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michael Black 5139 Elm rd.
Dundee NY, 14837

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Waldron
548 S Alkire St
Lakewood CO, 80228

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susanna Yurick
567 9th street
Brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Samuel Wilson
1613 Clay Road SW
Mableton GA, 30126

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sister Mary W. Swann
1835 Franklin St.
Denver CO, 80218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Driscoll
3477 S. Marion
Englewood CO, 80113

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha M. Hauer
5635 SE 26 Road
Osceola MO, 64776

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Solomon
302 Elizabeth St. #2
New York NY, 10012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Skelly
258 River Dr.
Hadley, MA, 01035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rand Ross
4418 Arco Ave
St Louis MO, 63110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jon Prochovnick
136 Crossing Way
Lindenwold NJ, 08021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Betty B Bailey
105 Slate Ave
Owingsville KY, 40360

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas A Pickarts
4001 E. Douglas #4
Wichita KS, 67218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Since I am a constant user of the Internet for both business and pleasure, My request is simple:

Vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's big-industry-approved net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

This is a must! Sll my contacts in the not-for-profit world and specifically the Arts here in rural Southern New Jersey really need neutrality to be enforced.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Paul M. Somers
zip: 08329

Sincerely,

Paul M. Somers
1924 East Buckshutem Road
Mauricetown NJ, 08329

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Kenworthy
107 Caribou Place
Longmont CO, 80501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you.

When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization, exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline, or move forward without reclassifying broadband and providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people... we all want meaningful net neutrality protections.

In this shaky economic climate, American simply cannot afford for a few companies to establish a stranglehold on the Internet, one of the best sources of innovation, hope, and wealth-creation in the USA.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

AJ Summers
3232 santa clara avenue
El Cerrito CA, 94530

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Claudia Jacobson
8300 Fairmount Dr
Denver CO, 80247

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lowell Eliason
6124 Tonga Circle
Cypress CA, 90630

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Stickel
90 Quincy Shore
Quincy MA, 02171

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Will Hawkes
500 Gillums Ridge Road
Charlottesville VA, 22903

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Chesney
8172 Zenith Court
Brooklyn Park MN, 55443

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

L Shaw
6900 Millville Plains Rd
Anderson CA, 96007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Banning
1404 Keele Dr.
Carpentersville IL, 60110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Black
1549 N. Falkland Lane
Silver Spring MD, 20910

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leslie Cassidy
534 East 83rd Street
New York NY, 10028

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

D. Rein
770 S Palm
Sarasota FL, 34236

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harriet Glickman
493 Wortser AVenue
Sherman Oaks CA, 91423

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Rusk
403 Claridge Court
Point Pleasant NJ, 08742

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Regina-Sophia Siegel
175 Nevis Rd
Tivoli NY, 12583

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Oskar Oliver Horyd
184 Ottawa Drive
Troy MI, 48085

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alex Couey
2273 North Aronmink Way
Meridian ID, 83646

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Annette Jacobson
766 Judson ave.
Highland Park IL, 60035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Gage
87 Erb St.
Buffalo NY, 14215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Millward
1301 N Palafox
Pensacola FL, 32501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I'm concerned about Chairman Genachowski's so-called "net neutrality" plan. It seems to me to be anything but.

Please pay extra scrutiny to the details of this plan and vote accordingly when it comes up for decision. I'm confident you can readily discern the accurate meaning and impact of this proposal.

Sincerely,

Ian Blackburn
614 W Hill Ave Apt 11
Knoxville TN, 37902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan Beeson-Healy
121 Wentworth Ave.
Lowell MA, 01852

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Daniello
PO Box 10622
Swanzey NH, 03446

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no, on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Clayton Hunter
14000 Renaissance Ct, #1024
Austin TX, 78728

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mrs D Noller
Security B
Colo. Sprgs CO, 80911

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please, this is no less than a first amendment issue.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tomas Zuccareno
P.O. Box 3917
Basalt CO, 81621

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerome Schaack
830 Grape St
Denver CO, 80220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Brand
unit #2
Butler NJ, 07405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Casper Roos
3 Cozzens Court
Newport RI, 02840

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kay Bone
110 EZE Avenue
Waverly TN, 37185

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Kanak
114 South Lawrence Street
Cherry Valley IL, 61016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. . Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Brunswick
7 Ole Buck Run
Shelter Island NY, 11965

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alessandra Rafferty
90 Reservoir ave
JErsey City NJ, 07307

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lye Woon Chan
2251 - 64th Street
Brooklyn NY, 11204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Vaughn
531 Canyonside Drive
Boulder CO, 80302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Miles Crutchfield
1521 E Douglas Ave
Nashville TN, 37206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dawn Grib
1170 S York Rd
Dillsburg PA, 17019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matt Nagy
1582 Inca dr.
Laramie WY, 82072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ross Paulger
10716 Barton Place
Oklahoma City OK, 73170

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Young
11826 Cherry Dr
Denver CO, 80233

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Heino
5212 FM 343
Nacogdoches TX, 75964

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cathy Pedersen
2044 North 55 Street
Omaha NE, 68104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Burdick
1920 Mediterranean Road West
West Palm Beach FL, 33406

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Walker
1621 W. Genesee
Saginaw MI, 48602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Harris
1375 Washington St. #201
Denver CO, 80203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Net neutrality only means one thing and this is not it. Please remember the American people and what the free flow of information means to this country and fight for true net neutrality.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Kimmel
2038 Kentucky St
Lawrence KS, 66046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I understand you have been the FCC's biggest champion for real net neutrality. Thanks for that. Now the public needs you to stand up again and stop or fix the problems with Chairman Genachowski's proposed net neutrality plan.

You can be certain that the companies providing service will gouge subscribers big-time if given the ability to charge higher prices for greater bandwidth. Subscribers in places like Korea and France get much better service for less money than Americans do. That will only get worse if tiered service is allowed. No wonder the ISPs are so gung-ho for tiered service.

The other big problem is exemption of wireless service from regulation. Soon, more people will get data wirelessly than through wired connections. Their access must be protected, or freedom of speech will be lost in this most important medium.

Of course most of the public has not heard of the issue, and of the few who have, many don't understand. But public-interest organizations have spoken out, and they support true net neutrality.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, unless these problems are definitively fixed.

Sincerely,

Will Stites
425 Bukolt Ave.
Stevens Point WI, 54481

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Megan Wedge
6121 Erice Street
Venice FL, 34293

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Meyers
6403 Grandview Avenue
Arvada CO, 80002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Manuel Mora
401 Quincy
McCloud CA, 96057

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Mack
9428 S.E. 54th St.
Mercer Island WA, 98040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Collett Pruitt
PO Box 2554
Sun Valley ID, 83353

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Lylte
620 Stawbridge Road
Northumberland PA, 17857

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Philip Koorsen
183 W. Powers Cir #201
Littleton CO, 80120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Martens
403 Lady Bug LN
Vernon CT, 06066

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Penelope Jencks
199 Boundbrook Island
Wellfleet MA, 02667

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katarzyna Sornat
4127 Spring Meadow Ln.
Flower Mound TX, 75028

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha Barry
1915 N. Martin Luther King Jr. Drive
Milwaukee WI, 53212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The world that would result from a pay to play internet is vastly different from a neutral net. I believe the FCC Chairman's proposed plan would, among many negative effects, increase class and wealth divisions, encourage monopolies, and destroy many small businesses. Your vote will shape world cultures for generations to come. Please do what is right!

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ED GOTTLIEB
3795 seneca rd
trumansburg NY, 14886

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Domizi
100 Lenox Rd
Athens GA, 30606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Powell
24 Melvin Ave.
Cortland NY, 13045

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jim hutton
2685 kimberly dr
grand junction CO, 81506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposed "net neutrality" plan at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Net neutrality should be simple. If you're a carrier, you treat all data packets the same. You take a packet from me, you deliver it just the same as a packet from Netflix (or whoever).

If the alleged problem is one of congestion, there is nothing to prevent carriers and ISPs from charging customers by the byte, so long as it's a level playing field and customers (and their various data) are treated the same. The data from my puny server, my personal VoIP, treated no different than the gush of data from MSNBC.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

David Garland
3529 17th Ave. S.
Minneapolis MN, 55407

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sreeram mittapalli
10529 rothenburg rd
woodridge IL, 60517

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sue Konicek
524 W. SIlver St.
Butte MT, 59701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

S Robertson
17 Grove St.
Shrewsbury MA, 01545

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Heinzelman
21 Farm Field Lane
Pittsford NY, 14534

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher M. Losey
2308 Monticello Circle
Plano TX, 75075

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randi Saslow
71 East Gate Lane
Hamden CT, 06514

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rachel Wickart
218 Keiser Ave
Normal IL, 61761

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Yanosik
9005 Quail Run Dr
Perry Hall MD, 21128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Talbott
10376 Witter Springs Road
Witter Springs CA, 95493

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Mooseker
18201 Butternut Road
Lynnwood WA, 98037

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeremy Gibbs
3 Sanger Ave
New Hartford NY, 13413

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

art Benfield
2033 Ridgewood Ln
Pueblo, CO, 81005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marc Groah
14922 Grove St.
Healdsburg CA, 95448

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Our country should have nothing to fear from a free and open Internet. Don't allow vested interests to filter and control our access for their profit.

Sincerely,

Jeff LaChance
Rt 1 Box 228
Lindside WV, 24951

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Airlia Oroszvary
743 SW GREEN AVE
PORTLAND OR, 97205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JACQUIE DUBOIS
107 PRIMROSE CT
VADNAIS HEIGHTS MN, 55127

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Read
xxx
Long Beach CA, 90810

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gina Hernand
11155Whispering Pines Lane
Boca Raton FL, 33248

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Gloeb
20664 County Road 18
Arlington NE, 68002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Watts Seminars and Counseling
145 Olive St.
Petaluma CA, 94952

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jason reverri
3509 fleetwood drive
salt lake city UT, 84109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Clark
12912 Little Elliott Dr, #7
Hagerstown MD, 21742

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Erickson
5806 Colby Ct
Ft Collins CO, 80525

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Huibregtse
42 Hillcrest Ln
Wingdale NY, 12594

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

A truly "neutral" internet is one of the core First Amendment issues of our time. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martin Holsinger
5155 Drake's Branch Rd.
Nashville TN, 37218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anna Lisa Erickson
po box 7264
Avon CO, 81620

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

People in the U.S. need the internet to be open and available to everyone.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lois Schroff
6501A Atlantic Ave
Virgibnia Beach VA, 23451

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat Dutt
135 Westhaven
Ithaca NY, 14850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Chai
529 South Koneta Court
Salt Lake City UT, 84102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Johnson
Dream Home Dr.
Leadville CO, 80461

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Jenkins
2318 S. Atlantic
Boise ID, 83705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Spencer
404 Swaha Dr
Tioga TX, 76271

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lori Colina-Lee
205 Galena
Bellvue CO, 80512

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Malloy
402 Park Dr
Glenwood Springs CO, 81601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Dryden
2373 Parkside Drive
Boise ID, 83712

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Greene
38 Greene Rd
West Dover VT, 05356

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

emily o'somachain-price
6548 arborcrest rd
loveland OH, 45140

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Geoffrey Gardella
1335 Quebec St.
Denver CO, 80220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Elsbury
602 W. Holland Ave.
Alpine TX, 79830

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Williamson
2109 Ponty Pool Drive
Mount Juliet TN, 37122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Stallings
317 King George Lp
Cary NC, 27511

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Burford
9352 Sterling Drive
Sandy UT, 84093

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Klein
14783 Tunnicliffe Rd.
Petersburg MI, 49270

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cathy Galligan
30 Parry Rd.
Stamford CT, 06907

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tony Cooper
208 N. Howes St.
Ft. Collins CO, 80521

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry Buswell
3121 S Tamarac Dr #H-202
Denver CO, 80231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phillip Owens
3815 N Tryon St
Charlotte NC, 28206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JC Tinker
9730 Colleen Rd
Houston TX, 77080

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

BRITTAN HASENOHRL
1623 LAKE DRIVE
HASLETT MI, 48840

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Few things can pierce the cynicism of people my age, but this one issue motivates me. The internet is our best hope for undistorted and free communication among humans in a historical period where private interests have realized the true value of distorting communication. Please support a truly free internet in any way you can, if only because it will be an extremely visible example of hope for generations of cynical cyber kiddies. It is also noteworthy that the philosopher Habermas considered 'systematically distorted communication' to be perhaps the most serious problem facing humanity...how often do you get to test a philosopher's unproven assertions at work?

Sincerely,

kristopher cadwell
606 1/2 S 13th St
Quincy IL, 62301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shirley White
54 Moccasin Trail
Powell WY, 82435

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Wickiser
1469 Vesta Terrace
East Point GA, 30344

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Louis Krbec III
4030 NE 16th Terr
Fort Lauderdale FL, 33334

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Teed
PO Box 1474
Laguna Beach CA, 92652

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul M Nimz
2540 N 1500 East Rd.
Ashkum IL, 60911

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Sumner
6330 Coley Park
Sugar Land TX, 77479

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beverly Porter
2245 S Lone Pine Ave
Springfield MO, 65804

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Quinlan
306 N Madison St #2
Staunton VA, 24401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mason Foster
16010 Kay Avenue
Belton MO, 64012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan Weigle
453 Summerland Ct
Pelion SC, 29123

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

will roush
710 Castle Creek Drive
aspen CO, 81611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Star Seastone
925 Columbia Rd 613
Fort Collins CO, 80525

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Shores
107 Painted Pine Lane
Dobson NC, 27017

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Angela Chan
2251 - 64th Street
Brooklyn NY, 11204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric West
1401 S. Palmetto Ave., #112
Daytona Beach FL, 32114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tracy Sallows
415 West 50th Street #4R
New York NY, 10019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susie Cox
15224 B Los Altos Dr.
Dallas TX, 75248

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Russell Boltz
333 Roosevelt Ave
Salt Lake City UT, 84115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Polly Robinson
386 Granite Falls Way
Grand Junction CO, 81503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ian Cook
3220 Emery Lane
Robbins IL, 60472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Craig Steiner
14768 Haddington Road
Draper UT, 84020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerre Miller
612 N. Walnut St.
Willow Springs MO, 65793

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Lappin
3011 Roundtree Blvd A2
Ypsilanti MI, 48197

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Megan Hartman
1603 Imperial Dr.
Glenview IL, 60026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deana Schneider
6203 E Peakview Ave
Centennial CO, 80111

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Hummel
1223 Race Street, Apt 305
Denver CO, 80206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jayson hodges
462 norris creek rd
boone NC, 28607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Griffith
318 East 19th Street
New York NY, 10003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kelsey hauck
P.O Box 686
Saguache CO, 81149

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kiem-Duc Huynh
88-35 Elmhurst Ave #4C
Elmhurst NY, 11373

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Okei Okusogu
7809 Bennerton Drive
Nottingham MD, 21236

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

robert ebeling
146 W. Dorrance St
Kingston PA, 18704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Bruner
1102 N. Pleasant St.
Royal Oak MI, 48067

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christi DeMark
1 Marineview Plz.
Hoboken NJ, 07030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gregory Rosasco
1748 Arbor Knoll Loop
Trinity FL, 34655

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeanette Obajtek
1390 E 315 S
Winamac IN, 46996

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan McGovern
21 Packard Road
Lincolnville ME, 04849

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Thompson
10523 HWY 125
Rand CO, 80473

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Arturo Tudury
721 GREEN AVE
San Bruno CA, 94066

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helene Wargo
720 Rt 9 South
Freehold NJ, 07728

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tracy Monroe
309 Lafayette Ave
Brooklyn NY, 11238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deb Korb
541 N. Hartland Ct.
Chicago IL, 60622

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Fearing
P.O. 232
Burtonsville MD, 20866

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aaron Robison
1790 W Trafalga Way Unit B
salt lake city UT, 84116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Luck
356 Webster Ave
Jersey City NJ, 07307

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Davenport
730 S. Gardner At.
Scottsburg IN, 47170

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard LaSalle
241 Old Dirt Dr
Tallahassee FL, 32317

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christine Howard
4760 Walnut Street, Suite 106
Boulder CO, 80301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Price
1545 Patton Circle, Unit D
Boulder CO, 80303

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Allan Tarvid
2055 Oro Fino Gulch
Helena MT, 59601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gabrielle Bouzigard
5606 Statfield Glen Ln
Katy TX, 77450

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

richard henry
208-70 grand central parkway
queens village NY, 11427

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Cain
1691 Cody Court
Lafayette CO, 80026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

valerie mansi
c/o Waddell,PO 548
jeffersonville NY, 12791

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Juozunas
4416 Artesian Ave
Chicago IL, 60632

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Beard
605 kitchell
pana IL, 62557

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Drees
608 Franklin Street
Melrose MA, 02176

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please protect the internet for all - not just the moneyed corporate interests.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Howard
4 Kingswood Dr.
Orangeburg NY, 10962

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jose Rosario
283 Ogden ave.
Jersey City NJ, 07307

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wayne Wagie
1219 Euclid Ave
Miami Beach FL, 33139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terrence Cannon
739 N Faver Dr
Castle Rock CO, 80109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark E. Bye
N11916 Deer Lake Road
Tomahawk WI, 54487

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keith Metz
10 Decker Rd.
Phillipsburg NJ, 08865

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Trevor Robinson
1201 BENTWOOD RD
AUSTIN TX, 78722

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Gross
29-49 137 St.
Flushing NY, 11354

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Heather Branton
524 3Rd St.
Ann Arbor MI, 48103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicole Wertz
204 E. 4th Ave
Denver CO, 80203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane K. Jiumaleh
3549 Lucia Crest
Madison WI, 53705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maria Henderson
19070 SE 70th Lane
Morriston FL, 32668

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Hagy
239 Hill Drive
Hamburg PA, 19526

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frederick Snowden
3674 Riedham Rd
Cleveland OH, 44120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leonard Slagle
4780 Reese Rd
Erie PA, 16510

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adam Thaler
5607 Kansas St.
Houston TX, 77007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Kane
2301 Minnehaha Ave #4
Minneapolis MN, 55404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Schneider
247 E. Edgewood Pl.
San Antonio TX, 78209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen L Vater
5904 Point Creek Rd
Cleveland WI, 53015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elisa Mace
492 Sunset Dr
Kaysville UT, 84037

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Abraham Rodriguez
502 Bryan St. Apt D
Peoria IL, 61603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Smith
103 Archer Circle
Daphne AL, 36526

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Aun
2251 - 64th Street
Brooklyn NY, 11204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cavin Leeman
215 West 92nd Street, 13A
New York NY, 10025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carl Elderton
12801 Lafayette Street
Thornton CO, 80241

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Brewer
923 N. Vassar
Wichita KS, 67208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Jones
809 W 12TH St Ste D
Austin TX, 78701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debra Hyson
414 N. King Chalres Rd
RALEIGH NC, 27610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marga Madir
PO Box 158595
Nashville TN, 37215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Murray
419 Southwick Rd
WESTFIELD MA, 01085

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nichoel Ferranti
2967 W Centennial Dr. #306
Littleton CO, 80123

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Tullock
171 Princetown Road
Schenectady NY, 12306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Monte Faucett
3610 Ingalls Street
Wheat Ridge CO, 80033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Jones
3546 W Brigham Rd
Barneveld WI, 53507

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Heller
374 Round Lake Rd.
Rhinebeck NY, 12572

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

christopher Gott
2009 Common st. #1
Houston TX, 77009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tiffany Witmer
156 Thunder Hill Drive
Stamford CT, 06902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Beckman
2326 Tannehill Dr.
Houston TX, 77008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

As streaming and/or downloading Blu-ray-sized files becomes commonplace, it may be necessary to allow some bandwidth management policies, but two things must be off the table:

1. Any policy that hurts competitors to a business that is own by the ISP. Intent need not be considered. Get tough on conflict of interest.

2. Wireless policies cannot be excluded, to be determined by the providers. When have large corporations ever acted over the long haul strictly in the public interest? Get real!

Sincerely,

Steven Hollingsworth
14 N Lynncrest Dr
Chattanooga TN, 37411

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Marsh
192 St. Francis Ave., villa 12 a
Tiffin OH, 44883

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Garrett Randall
1301 M Street NW # 123
Washington DC, 20005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Danny Aun
2251 - 64th Street
Brooklyn NY, 11204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

eric schleicher
2308 30th road
astoria NY, 11102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leo F. Morgan
1829 S. Empire Way
Boise ID, 83709

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ralph Litwin
72 Dean Rd
Mendham NJ, 07945

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

deidre brucker
2639 high st.
denver CO, 80205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

chris feldt
605 E. 6th st
Hays KS, 67601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gretchen Breese
27 Boylston St. #2
Jamaica Plain MA, 02130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dale White
1405 Kuehnle St
Ann Arbor MI, 48103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Sumner
6380 Hathaway Trail
Roscoe IL, 61073

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Bell
P.O. Box 2303
Carmel CA, 93921

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Commissioner enough is enough.
The last 10 years have been one huge largely immoral concession to corporations at the expense of everyday working citizens. This ripoff in the name of immoral profits must stop
.No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

randall dollins
PO BOX 7132
Kansas City MO, 64113

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Leon
217 Valley View Dr.
Wilmette IL, 60091

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Dunne
840 Rogers St
Downers Grove IL, 60515

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Hansel
307 N Astell Ave
West Covina CA, 91790

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Blanz
304 Chimney Hl
Nashville TN, 37221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

This plan will be the first of many to slowly but gradually control the Internet. We as a people (not of a nation, but as a whole) do not have the right to dampen the incredible effect the internet has with being as open as it is for not just this nation but every nation on the planet.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Shelby
1396 North Loop Drive
San Jose CA, 95126

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Franklin
2851 S Xanadu Way
Aurora CO, 80014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brent Barker
420 Evergreen Ave
East Lansing MI, 48823

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vera Love
116 Boot Hill
Horseshoe Bay TX, 78657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
A personal note: I find that large corporations are taking over more and more of our lives. An open Internet, on the other hand, maintains freedom and equality of access for all and thus helps to assure a higher level of Net democratization.

Sincerely,

Scott A. Fisher
159 N. Liberty Street
Delaware OH, 43015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Biehl
11419 Robinair Dr.
Fort Wayne IN, 46818

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Please don't - as is happening far too often, these days - allow corporate interests to outweigh those of the rest of us. It is wrong and we all know it is wrong.

Thank you for all you do.

Sincerely,

August Cardea
1218 N Cherry Blossom Dr
Clearwater FL, 33764

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Hesla
933 Vistavia Circle
Decatur GA, 30033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katie Murphy
457 Wright St Building 10 Apt 202
Lakewood CO, 80228

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Iskowitz
26 Cobblestone Blvd.
Monroe Township NJ, 08831

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephan Laurent-Faesi
3965 Carrollton Ave.
Indianapolis IN, 46205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Wambold
144 clubhouse dr. apt 43
roanoke VA, 24019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alexis Fritz
17417 n 20th dr
phoenix AZ, 85023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mitch Day
417 E Spotswood St., #3
Moscow ID, 83843

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. Please, be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sybil Skelton
191 Duchess Dr. Apt 518
Denton TX, 76208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Raymond Lamoureux
24 Edstrom Road
Marlborough CT, 06447

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Otis Daniels
651 East 14th Street,Apt# 2-G
New York NY, 10009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey L Griswold Jr
1239 tennyson ln
Naperville IL, 60540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David C Seglin
5835 N. Kostner Avenue
Chicago IL, 60646

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tracie Nunneker
4339 NW 3rd Terrace
Pompano Beach FL, 33064

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicolas Warner
1040 W Granville Ave
Chicago IL, 60660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Johnson
248 Angel St
Sandy UT, 84070

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gregory R.Reed
30160 County Road 390
Gobles MI, 49055

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew J Herrington
214 E. Main St. #202
Flushing MI, 48433

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Monique Mondragon
4133 Continental Dr
West Valley Cit UT, 84120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Christine Hock
8774 N Columbia Blvd, Apt 3
Portland OR, 97203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

larry thorson
531 e thomas rd
phoenix AZ, 85012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Kley
PO Box 47328
Phoenix AZ, 85068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan Bohac
6419 Lindenwood Place
St Louis MO, 63109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Landers
4658 W. Blue Creek Ct.
Meridian ID, 83642

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Regina Gelston
18786 Trucker's Ridge
Meadowview TN, 37620

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Ward
3424 Summerhill Drive
Woodridge IL, 60517

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lena Sturgis
8 Griscom Lane
West Deptford NJ, 08096

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James H. Jacobs
1309 Cornell Avenue
BERKELEY CA, 94702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Claudia Mackey
5242 Grouse run Dr.
Stockton CA, 95207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick McDaniel
300 East Seminary Street
Mercersburg PA, 17236

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Liz Lee
2495 Soundview Drive
Langley WA, 98260

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Pappas
3645 North Francisco Avenue, Apartment #1
Chicago IL, 60618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Håkan Larsson
68b Seminole Drive
Lakewood NJ, 08701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Loulan
1001 E Griswold Rd Unit 17
Phoenix AZ, 85020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Staerkel
8219 Woody Creek Rd
Woody Creek CO, 81656

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Thomas
2703 N Harper Ter
Peoria IL, 61604

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Scott
627 Hickory Ridge Dr.
Spring TX, 77381

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Ott
6845 S Transit Rd. #3
Lockport NY, 14094

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Kimler
501 Kimball Road
Iowa City IA, 52245

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Florence Hui
2118 - 62nd Street
Brooklyn NY, 11204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Mastrangelo
616 Key Deer Ct.
Apopka FL, 32703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please don't give in and go along with this plan. It will hurt all the small users like me, who just finally got broadband don't take this freedom away.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Etherton
7 Permac Rd.
Jacksonville IL, 62650

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carla Davis-Castro
412 Hickory Dr
Chapel Hill NC, 27517

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leslie Bocuzzo
45 Nettleton Ave
Haverhill MA, 01830

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lloyd Levy
3275 Upham St
Wheat Ridge CO, 80033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Kinneavy
2400 Colfax Ave S
Minneapolis MN, 55405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Deck
Physics Department
Toledo OH, 43606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alison Parker
35 Warrington Dr.
Rochester NY, 14618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Freeman
9524 Newell Rd
Lake Cormorant MS, 38641

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Tuttle
1120A Smith Level Rd.
Chapel Hill NC, 27516

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Liss
1650 Oakwood Drive
Penn Valley PA, 19072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Toney Antonelli
2604 NW 13th
Oklahoma City OK, 73107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laurie Van Egeren
648 Virginia Ave
East Lansing MI, 48823

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gail Bloom
4644 Cty. P
Rhinelander WI, 54501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Smith
105 Channel Drive
Missoula MT, 59804

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruth Watkins
1206 Haines
College Station TX, 77840

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

LaVonne Otwell
2602 Twin Oaks Dr
Marietta GA, 30064

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Kasper
9405 N. 83rd Ct.
Scottsdale AZ, 85258

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Salamanis
40 Sterling Rd
Waltham MA, 02451

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Hensch
16606 Clydesdale Run
Selma TX, 78154

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Altman
1675 East 21 Street
Brooklyn NY, 11210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lydia Garvey
429 S 24th
Clinton OK, 73601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Stoneburner
2445 Dupont Ave S
Minneapolis MN, 55405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

patti reid
2131 sycamore drive
winter park FL, 32789

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynda Zimmerman
8217 Hillside Dr
Eden Prairie MN, 55347

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

thomas hall
20 bowline court
bellingham WA, 98229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

C Sumpter
26814 3rd Ave NE
ARLINGTON WA, 98223

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wes Wallis
1019 Caldwell
Goodland KS, 67735

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William C. Theimer, Jr.
2391 Sayre Drive
Grand Junction CO, 81503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karl Bremer
10949 Stonebridge Trail
Stillwater MN, 55082

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Jacksina
45 Commonwealth Dr
Colchester VT, 05446

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jaron kanegson
58 yosemite avenue Apt A
oakland CA, 94611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Armando Antuna-Melendez
5316 Brody Dr
Madison WI, 53705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mike hartjes
2176 meadowbrook way
wausau WI, 54403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susannah Dyen
208 Raritan Ave, Apt A
Highland Park NJ, 08904

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Griffin
1108 S. Stanley St.
Stillwater OK, 74074

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

In addition the FCC should revisit the safety and environmental rules to reflect the growing scientific evidence of non-thermal biological effects of electromagnetic frequency emissions.

Sincerely,

Ada Tolliver
90996 Angels Flight Rd
Leaburg OR, 97489

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kyle Schmierer
220 W. Behrend Drive
Phoenix AZ, 85027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

I also appreciate all the work being done to implement a public values test. This is equally important.

Sincerely,

Ken Laughlin
2321 Grove St
River Grove IL, 60171

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

E.L. Rodriguez
4430 Walker
Houston TX, 77023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Hassler
1230 South Judd Street
Tempe AZ, 85281

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Earle Shugerman
4181 Piedra Place
Boulder CO, 80301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Howard Kingston
444 N. Main St.
Allegan MI, 49010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Christopher
175 Woodlark Rd
Versailles KY, 40383

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please do what you can to stop ISP's from playing favorites and allow open access.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Kelly
W8051 Country Ave.
Holmen WI, 54636

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ben Bethel
805 n 4th ave ph3
phoenix, AZ, 85003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

P.E. Muetz
14 Aspen Dr
Bailey CO, 80421

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dea-r C-ommi

Sincerely,

Shawn Stevens
30 Sherman
Coldwater MI, 49036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

At the FCC, you have been achampion for real net neutrality. Your vote will be the deciding one, when the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan. Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Thank you for all that you havag done to keep the Internet free and open. Please one more time: vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Sowder
5606 Hoganhill Terrace
Rockville MD, 20853

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Martin
1350 Elser Dr. SE
Salem OR, 97302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Daniels-Lee
PO Box 1027
Ocean Shores WA, 98569

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Anderson
151 Dakota Meadows Dr
Carbondale CO, 81623

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Wigginton
4166 SW 55th Dr.
Portland OR, 97221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Niko Theris
270 Cliff Drive, Apt. 7
Laguna Beach CA, 92651

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Abrams
909 Mercer Blvd.
OMaha NE, 68131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bruce boyce
65 Jane Street 3A
New York City NY, 10014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amanda Segur
8228 Oak Park Blvd
Oak Park MI, 48237

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kristin Smith
901 E Orchid Ln
Phoenix AZ, 85020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick runions
1405 allison
loveland CO, 80538

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick Faltico
3921 Wyoming St
Kansas City MO, 64111

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Williams
P.O. Box 683097
Park City UT, 84068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathrin Dodds
3311 40th St
Lubbock TX, 79413

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lindsey Sanders
2359 Preston Ln
West Dundee IL, 60118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ellen gold
6676 windsor lane
Miami Beach FL, 33141

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dianne Douglas
2723 E Valencia Drive
Phoenix AZ, 85042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Schricker
35 Tower Hill Rd
Pawling NY, 12564

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

paul horsley
3009 Fontana Drive
Austin TX, 78704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

tracey gagne
1825 enterprise ave
saint augustine FL, 32092

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Kepple
outsdr@gmail.com
Lander WY, 82520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Arlena Hui
2118 - 62nd Street
Brooklyn NY, 11204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gloria and Cliff Nichols
4856 West 65th So.
Idaho Falls ID, 83402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Josh Rumble
PO 429
Avon CO, 81620

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Lomax
78 Silver Leaf Way
Marlborough MA, 01752

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shawna Sprowls
3223 Iron Forge Place
Boulder CO, 80301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I fear if we do not do the right thing NOW and protect the internet from ownership by big corporations, big corporations will more and more control our lives. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shelley Sechrist
3729 Hamilton Rd
Belgrade MT, 59714

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol L. Atkins
3514 Sally Mae Terrace
Lansing MI, 48917

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Tucker
41 Solebury Mt. Rd.
New Hope PA, 18938

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Pandolfi
165 Hollywood St
Oberlin OH, 44074

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kim Strathearn
po box 1161
Riggins ID, 83549

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fran Grabenhofer
853 Heritage Drive
Addison IL, 60101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Ruiz
1115 Lauderdale Dr
Chesapeake VA, 23322

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick J. De La Garza Und Senkel
1930 Blueridge Drive
Duncanville TX, 75137

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Brown
Bayshore
Miami FL, 33132

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Fryer
4865 Sheridan
Denver CO, 80212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Sadlowski
Tolland Tpke
Willington CT, 06279

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

barbara anne welch
708 camino real
el paso TX, 79922

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Bancroft
300 Hosner Mountain Rd.
Stormville NY, 12582

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

You will be a hero to a lot of people if you stop Genachowski's so-called "net neutrality" plan, which is no such thing. You will be my hero, too. Vote no. I'm 73 and this may be one of my last chances to make a difference.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Jean A. Coram, St. Paul, Mn

Sincerely,

Jean A. Coram
2033 Iowa Av. E
St. Paul MN, 55119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Lenell
64 Springdale Rd.
Montgomery IL, 60538

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Schipper
58 Adams Street
Waltham MA, 02453

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Ferrin
2030 North Pacific Ave. Apt. 434
Santa Cruz CA, 95060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Zumhagen-Krause
2630 Hoard St
Madison WI, 53704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Thompson
9704 Kensington PKWY
Kensington, MD MD, 20895

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Bruce
1051 Eagle Ridge Trail
Stillwater MN, 55082

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fredda Wood
6055 Loma Vista Rd
Ventura CA, 93003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Eustice
725 Francis Street
Faribault MN, 55021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ivan Womboldt
2700 Golf Club Drive
Palm Springs CA, 92264

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Roehl
PO Box 365
Graton CA, 95444

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mohammad Borujerdi
26 Meleny Road
Locust Valley NY, 11560

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

daniel sullivan
4530 n dover st
chicago IL, 60640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Borden
830 N. River St.
Ypsilanti MI, 48198

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Richards
2451 Palesta Dr.
Trinity FL, 34655

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

We need fair, neutral access to the internet!

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alice J Stevenson
1101 E 5250 S
Victor ID, 83455

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Powell
7529 Tudor Road
Colorado Springs CO, 80919

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Wolf
1828 W. Ellen St #3
Chicago IL, 60622

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Hui
2118 - 62nd Street
Brooklyn NY, 11204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elaine Walters
1405 N Eldorado St Apt 101
Boise ID, 83704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Holcomb
807 S. Jackson
Jacksonville TX, 75766

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Justice
4715 Perry St
Denver CO, 80212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right yet again, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's outrageous "neutrality" proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James (Doug) Everitt
11529 W. 59th PL.
Arvada CO, 80004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Hedberg
7 Heather Way
Golden CO, 80401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Wood
2162 Roop Rd.
Cocolalla ID, 83813

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Shimasaki
615 Long Rd.
Glenview IL, 60025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Collins
5909 Hathaway Lane
Chapel Hill NC, 27514

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization, exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline, or fail to reclassify broadband, thereby providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting America's diverse races, classes, and political opinions who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Carnahan
550 E 12TH Ave Apt 1704
Denver CO, 80203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

LINDA HERNANDEZ
111111111111111
PHOENIX AZ, 85016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rachel Berger
437 clermont avenue
Brooklyn NY, 11238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stan Raines
4816 La Entrada Dr.
Brownsville TX, 78526

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Cox
7625 North Richland Blvd.
North Richland Hills TX, 76180

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please fight to preserve a level playing field on the Internet.by voting no
at the December 21 meeting on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.

Sincerely,

Laurie "Ryan" Norton
157 E 6th Ave
Durango CO, 81301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lee Pearson
2338 timber lane
Houston TX, 77027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Mathews
2065 26th St Apt 1A
Astoria NY, 11105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Graham
PO Box 382
Brookside NJ, 07926

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Theresa B Pratt
15328 W Kidneywood Ln
Surprise AZ, 85374

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Boyd-Brent
2233 Scudder Street
Saint Paul MN, 55108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Will Bradley
920 S Wilson St
Tempe AZ, 85281

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

derek goldman
1759 S 7th
Missoula MT, 59801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jason welder
817 16th st
west des moines IA, 50265

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jitka mencik
box 81
Springerville AZ, 85938

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carole A Biederer
9300 Treaure Hill Rd #205
Little Rock AR, 72227

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kimberley Erwin
9623 W Preece St.
Boise ID, 83704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Hill
284 Pacific St
Brooklyn NY, 11201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Bradshaw
1318 W Montrose Ave # 1
Chicago IL, 60613

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

patricia Frederick 5018 romans way
colgate WI, 53017

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Jo Minor
205 Carriage Court
Coppell TX, 75019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christine Slaughter
809 State Street #1
New Haven CT, 06511

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Skorupski
21101 E 32nd pkwy
Aurora CO, 80011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bonnie Derrick
2173 S Windom Place
St George UT, 84790

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

I am growing tired of the political and corporate entities need to control and have so much power over the people. These two entities cannot exist without we people-much like schools do not exist without students. I know both of these entities are afraid that we will get the facts for ourselves and create our own truth. And that truth will somehow call for your change or even worse not include you.
Let the internet flow.

Sincerely,
Paul Eckert

Sincerely,

Paul Eckert
401 S.W. 5th Street
Richmond IN, 47374

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Teresa Cavaliere
3890 South Geen Court
Englewood CO, 80110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dave Gibson
901 coulter street
Fort Collins CO, 80524

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael ODonnell
220 W 26 St.
New York NY, 10001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Gorman loomis
Malden MA, 02148

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shari Stowell
1740 Marne Ave
Toledo OH, 43613

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Montgomery
124 Lindley Ln
Pottstown PA, 19465

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fredrick Belcher
716 Sable Lane
Mt. laurel NJ, 08054

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Stapinski
1015 Church St
Decatur GA, 30030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martin Thomas
1002 Hot Springs
Allen TX, 75013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pamela Lynch
32 Gentle Breeze Ln
Charles Town WV, 25414

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charlea Quin
406 Park Ave.
Prospect OH, 43342

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deanna Stropes
10920 W Meade Drive
Sun City AZ, 85351

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john friend
44655-1 lee st.
fort riley KS, 66442

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Wilczynski
5515 W Market St
Greensboro NC, 27409

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vic Stone
1700 Summer St. Apt. C-98
Manchester TN, 37355

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

james weber
2230 sheffield dr.
Ft. Collins CO, 80526

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

joseph stroman
3008 Thrushwood dr
austin TX, 78757

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randi Ruzicka
2607 Teresa Dr SW
Cedar Rapids IA, 52404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nick Tausek
2105 Tanalee Ct
Bowling Green KY, 42104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carl Cordell
12080 W. Ranch Road 337
Camp Wood TX, 78833

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ty Markham
150 N. Center Street
Torrey UT, 84775

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lizzi schippert
po box
island heights NJ, 08732

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Gennardo
440 N. Wabash Ave.
Chicago IL, 60611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Peterson
817 Webster St.
Iowa City IA, 52240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

You are my hero!!!

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

B B Black
1400 Big Cedar Lane
Sebastopol CA, 95472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Dominian
3113 Florence Dr.
Latham NY, 12110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
Thank you for your time and effort on behalf of the American people. It is truly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Linda Bennett
2510 Rambling Rd.
Kalamazoo MI, 49008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Poxon
2708 Matheson Way
SACRAMENTO CA, 95864

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Carlson
821 a Chestnut Ridge Road
Chestnut Ridge NY, 10977

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Booth
3520 W 62ND St
Indianapolis IN, 46268

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Winna Althiser
836 Little Norway Ave. SE
Bemidji MN, 56601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

A.B. Kovats
214 Garnet Dr
Stevensville MT, 59870

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary M. Tarallo
P.O. BOX 56
Garden prairie IL, 61038

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

don Chapman
5151 east S ave
Vicksburg MI, 49097

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jean jarvis oidtman
3902 walker avenue
greensboro NC, 27403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frances Porgal
3151 NE 56th Ave H2
Silver Springs FL, 34488

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alberto Patino Douce
120 McKey Court
Athens GA, 30605

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Mitchell
28-4 Wister Way
Reading PA, 19606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Floyd
925 Columbia Rd #833
Ft Collins CO, 80525

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Kratzke
9632 Cook
Oak Lawn IL, 60453

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bradley Clopton
2711 Nebraska St.
Amarillo TX, 79106