Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lowen Thomas
6301 Caldwell Drive
New Orleans LA, 70122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew A. Heimberg
529 Livingston Dr.
Hurst, TX, 76053

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Garrison
16221 Poplar St
Brighton CO, 80602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Enedino Fernandez
1079 10th Street, Apartment C
Eureka CA, 95501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James E Gemborys
705 S 21st ST
Leavenworth KS, 66048

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Otto-Combs
1343 N. 79th st
Seattle WA, 98103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Sanchez
2250 Dorris Place
Los Angeles CA, 90031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Fish
4012 Grand Ave
Duluth MN, 55807

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diana Erchick
274 Barkley Pl E
Columbus OH, 43213

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tamara Cecil
13875 Gary Lane
Caldwell ID, 83607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Robechek
265 Camino De La Sierra
Santa Fe NM, 87501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sylvia Kimmel
67 Queen Ave
Pennsville NJ, 08070

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis E. Major
1481 S. Mountain Rd
Dillsburg PA, 17019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Renee Repkin
5299 Galitz #406
skokie IL, 60077

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Danielle Simental
1129 Capitol St
Vallejo CA, 94590

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Glenn Ingo
305 Stonebridge Dr.
Chico CA, 95973

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bonnie Nickel
243 Rio Terra
Venice FL, 34285

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

carolyn celler
7843 w. fostoria drive
dunnellon FL, 34433

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Rosano Walden
183 Cedar Avenue
Hackensack NJ, 07601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Wright
1984 Harding Ave.
Ypsilanti MI, 48197

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynda Dawson
3108 Concord Drive
Cinnaminson NJ, 08077

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christine Thomas
1317 15th Ave
Greeley CO, 80631

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Micheal Berg
433 Connecticut Ave
Norfolk VA, 23508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Russell Blalack
1081 Milky Way
Cupertino CA, 95014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Burns
11441 N IH-35 #19105
Austin TX, 78753

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Mace
527 College Road
lake forest IL, 60045

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Manuel
4631 Spruce St
Philadelphia PA, 19139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beverly Jahn
735 Vrain #210
Denver CO, 80204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Alan Best
1625 Henderson #C1
Eugene OR, 97403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rachel Hunt
400 E. Burwell Ave.
Knoxville TN, 37917

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jon Ciesla
1279 California
Aurora IL, 60506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kristin Dunkle
1401 Dancing Fox Rd
Decatur GA, 30032

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Dierig
610 Carrington Place
Loveland OH, 45140

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is only one Internet, and consumers should be allowed to access any legal website, service or application on any device of their choosing (whether they're accessing the Internet wirelessly or not) without interference from big telecom.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Watson
2305 Liberty Church Road
Hickory NC, 28601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Claire Fairchild
200 Sherman St.
Highland MI, 48357

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia null Zylius
114 Pennsylvania Ave.
Santa Cruz CA, 95062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

wendy walters
385 graham ave
brooklyn NY, 11211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nathan Whelan
500 Grace Street Apt 8
Tuscaloosa AL, 35401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Albert Henderson
655 West Ave
Milford CT, 06461

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Stewart
210 Washington St
Marietta OH, 45750

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Raffety
800 W Cornelia Ave Apt 301
Chicago IL, 60657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leila Merosands
3805 College St SE Unit 26
Lacey WA, 98503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leann Zurmuhlen
3836 San Clemente
Newbury Park CA, 91320

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Antonia Chianis
P.O. Box 836
Blue Jay CA, 92317

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

david dunkley
8813 218th St Sw
Edmonds WA, 98026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha Lentz
5365 Belmont Road
Hernando MS, 38632

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amy A. Berger
531 w palo verde st
Gilbert AZ, 85233

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Sutton
2349 Funston Ave.
San Francisco CA, 94116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mike steigerwald
4041 12th ave s
minneapolis MN, 55407

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jerry garcia
851 van ness #804b
fresno CA, 93721

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sally Janover
570 Grand
Bigfork MT, 59911

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

margie pryor 10324 beverly overland park KS, 66207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

simone de vries
3226 25th street
san francisco CA, 94110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kate luce
1108 LAVACA ST
aUSTIN TX, 78701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brant Kotch
12302 Cobblestone
Houston TX, 77024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Schniedewind
546 Albany Post Rd
New Paltz, NY, 12561

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Loewyn Young
2445 Delphi Rd SW
Olympia WA, 98512

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. Thank you in advance for battle before you.This is a very important issue that threatens our liberty and freedom.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kathleen foos
21120 haymeadow lane
phippsburg CO, 80469

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Boles
4693 W Trail Dust St.
Fayetteville AR, 72704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Colleen Crossey
22279 Brockshire Street
Novi MI, 48375

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Will A-K
52654 Hoag Terrace
Scappoose OR, 97056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donnie James
600 County Rd. 209
Collinsville AL, 35961

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Orth
20817 Bunker Hill Rd
Marengo IL, 60152

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

N. Martin
2612 Freestad Rd.
Arlington WA, 98223

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Bubb
7710 N Napa St
Spokane WA, 99217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vincent Cheap
4160 Jade St. #112
Capitola CA, 95010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mike sabbagh
11402 N 40th Pl
Phoenix AZ, 85028

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Chase
5 Starfire Drive
Centereach NY, 11720

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

A government for the People not giant corporations.

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Newton
11256 Quarry Rd.
Sonora CA, 95370

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rob Foran
124 Wheeler Ave
Staten Island NY, 10314

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald S Kraycik
6820 E 80th St.
Tulsa OK, 74133

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Absher
11626 S Papago Cir
Phoenix AZ, 85044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please do not allow the destruction of one of the U.S.'s top contributions to the world.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Irwin Rosen
3925 S Jones Blvd Apt 3117
Las Vegas NV, 89103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Russell La Claire
744 Armstrong Dr
Georgetown TX, 78633

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Kirschling
3339 N 84TH St
Milwaukee WI, 53222

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Samantha Schlim
17578 E Buchanan Place
Aurora CO, 80011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Clifford Laureno
4642 Hampton Falls Place
San Jose CA, 95136

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Sanders
1629 Rockland Dr
Austin TX, 78748

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

robin lindheimer
2141 oregon street
berkeley CA, 94705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please do not let the interests of corporate America take precident over the frredom the internet offers.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Flick
5 Lansbury Court
Lake in the Hills IL, 60156

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Darlene Walker
21436 Settlers Pond Drive
Frankfort IL, 60423

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan Vinegar
17 Willow Rd
Lawrenceville NJ, 08648

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

MIKE CLIPKA
1151 SHERRIE CT.
LATHROP CA, 95330

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

roger underhill
520 Shields st
san francisco CA, 94132

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon Lynch
77 Knollwood Road
Farmington CT, 06032

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roland Rutkowski
5567 Grandview Dr.
Greendale WI, 53129

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vicki Frederick
7A Polk Ct.
Streamwood IL, 60107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

connie gabriel
187 e. chesterfield st.
ferndale MI, 48220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maxim Voronov
1023B University ter.
Linden NJ, 07036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Erhard
8621 N. MacArthur Blvd. #1023
Irving TX, 75063

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Macy
729 Barclay Ave
Morrisville PA, 19067

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randy McLaughlin
733 Sanford St
Red Wing MN, 55066

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ty Richardson
3111 12th Ave So, #1
Minneapolis MN, 55407

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

I agree with this message and beg you to keep our internet free. It's absolutely vital to keeping this nation from sliding ever further into undemocratic oligarchy.

Sincerely,

israel Evans
1221 Taylor Ave N Apt 404
Seattle WA, 98109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sage Freechild
749 Wendell Rd.
Shutesbury MA, 01072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elijah Richardson
4354 Helaman Avenue
Las Vegas NV, 89120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roseanne Yerges
3125 Whispering Oaks
Woodridge IL, 60517

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shari Johnson
320 Sinkler Rd
Wyncote PA, 19095

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Angus Bowen
617 Eastlake Ct. SE
Rio Rancho NM, 87124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

K. Adam White
160 Sheridan Road
Winnetka IL, 60093

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anita Braddock
1420 Wood St.
DeLand FL, 32724

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michelle Viise
10 Magnolia St.
Arlington MA, 02474

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas Jaslow
6234 27th St. N.
Arlington VA, 22207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randal Jeter
4235 S. Dawson St.
Seattle WA, 98118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vincent Paviglianiti
930 N. 7th Street
Baton Rouge LA, 70802

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Do the right thing for citizens like me! Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Hill
211 Ruritan Drive
Fayetteville NC, 28314

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

peter wolf
708 gravenstein hwy N, #83
sebastopol CA, 95472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert B. Weiser
1 Fox Hill Drive
Parkersburg WV, 26104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mitchell Rabin
653 East 14th St.
New York NY, 10009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Reuter
3531 Madera Pl
Oxnard CA, 93033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

st DAVIS SHARP
2120 Wilcrest Unit 226
houston TX, 77042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Shimada
6434 N, Mozart
Chicago IL, 60645

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert M Baker
606 E DENNETT AVE
FRESNO CA, 93728

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul
4062 Shell Point Rd
Beaufort SC, 29906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Blair Hopkins
936 W Metaline Ave
Kennewick WA, 99336

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michael bottis
322 truman ave.
key west FL, 33040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Safer
3305 Hamilton Street
Philadelphia PA, 19104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Robertson
408 Pr 33717
Paris TX, 75460

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William McCroden
5051West 220th St
Fairview Park OH, 44126

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alvin L. Ring
837 Queen's Harbour Blvd.
Jacksonville FL, 32225

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Schaetzel
3905 10th ave s.
Minneapolis MN, 55407

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please... be a hero for the Internet and vote "no" on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

There is only one Internet, and consumers should be allowed to access any legal website, service or application on any device of their choosing (whether they're accessing the Internet wirelessly or not) without interference from big telecom.
No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you so very much for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Will you please do what's right one more time, and vote against Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21??

The world will be watching.

Sincerely,

James Wheelock
442 S. Bethlehem Pike
Fort Washington PA, 19034

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Moe
1770 Hudson St.
Denver CO, 80220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Chamness
6119 Lincoln Ave
Morton Grove IL, 60053

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aaron Karlgaard
2869 SE Rosefinch Dr
Gresham OR, 97080

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Kevin Tilley
61 Palm Beach Avenue
rossville GA, 30741

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

daniel dale 882 raymond av
st paul MN, 55114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Moore
16 Tannery Brook Road
Woodstock NY, 12498

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dean Jacobson
7270 Franklin Ave. #109
Los Angeles CA, 90046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Lieb
1208 Chidsey Street
Easton PA, 18042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Can you please help us? No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn Hall
PO BOX 977
Colorado City AZ, 86021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charlie & Marcia Berube
59 N. Shore Rd.
New Durham NH, 03855

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Schoening
13212 NE 227th Ave
Brush Prairie WA, 98606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

PAUL HOOVER
31 MOUNT OLIVER STREET
PITTSBURGH PA, 15210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terri Godfrey
PO Box 85
Black Mountain NC, 28711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Schabracq
PO Box 1414
Sebastopol CA, 95473

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Wolfe
10 Nottingham Rd.
Columbus OH, 43214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john meehan
20611 Acre St.
Winnetka CA, 91306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mauna Richardson
House 80, County Rd 341
La Madera NM, 87539

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Bousquet
1301 S Scott St Apt 816
Arlington VA, 22204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eve D
1710 W.M. Dr
Oakley CA, 94561

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
This is a clear-cut case of public interest versus corporate power. PLEASE STAND UP FOR US!!!

Sincerely,

Rob Shaw
743 Balsam
Ridgecrest CA, 93555

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ivan rarick
1818 suffolk way
carmichael CA, 95608

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joshua Bowers
5800 Hamner Ave
Mira Loma CA, 91752

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Theresa Bakko
3802 James Street #45
Bellingham WA, 98226

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Grindstaff
4115 N Meadow Ridge CIR
Twin Falls ID, 83301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nick Barcott
1913 Harbor Sands Lane
Freeland WA, 98249

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Albee
11406 Birchover Ln
Austin TX, 78754

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shane Sittig
1815 N. Whittier Dr.
Phoenix AZ, 85006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Trisha Burnap
1803 Second Ave
Walnut Creek CA, 94597

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Bonchi
193 Oak # 603
Newton MA, 02464

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Goldie Gold
123 Glen Ave
San Rafael CA, 94903

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rand Mitchell
7483 Deep Run #1022
Bloomfield Hills MI, 48301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fred Gibson
15318 West Jones Road
Tahlequah OK, 74464

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mike mcgillycuddy
31 wilson blvd
poughkeepsie NY, 12603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tym Stevens
1247 F Exposition Drive
San Francisco CA, 94130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Firshein
187 Forrest Ave.
Fairfax CA, 94930

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Wadsworth
115 Ridgewood Rd
Cobleskill NY, 12043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

rebecca lando
no mail please
new york NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nic K Enlow
1420 Wellesley Cir
Mt. Pleasant SC, 29466

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Brown
3218 NW Market St
Seattle WA, 98107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amy Steiner
1244 Broadway
San Francisco CA, 94109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Henderson
9815 Holland Streeet
Bakersfield CA, 93312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruby Dunagan
P.O. Box 82
Felt OK, 73937

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dr. Boris J Dirnbach
6350 Lancaster Ave
Philadelphia PA, 19151

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Victor J Ortega
8138 Willow St
Windsor CA, 95492

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Bohmfalk
1066 E. College St.
Seguin TX, 78155

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Russell Ingram
2334 w 116th pl
Chicago IL, 60643

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronald D. McVeigh
413 E Loula Apt 9
Olathe KS, 66061

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Gregg
901 Marie Ave.
Newberg OR, 97132

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara A McClain
12 Grump Blvd
Idaho City ID, 83631

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Holloway
25251 Carson Way
Stevenson Ranch CA, 91381

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Hunt
89 gallup st
north adams MA, 01247

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Samuel R Pinneau
17420 Prairie St.
Northridge CA, 91325

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donalds Springer
8321 N.E. 54th St.
Vancouver WA, 98662

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Jackson
8111 N Massachusetts Drive
Kingman AZ, 86409

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

form letter but I agree 100% bill wald

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bill wald
2005 McDougall Ave
Everett WA, 98201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

steve adler
2015 w berwyn
chicago IL, 60625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Stone
155 S 4th St
Santa Rosa Beach FL, 32459

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Elkins
5025 Pirotte Drive
San Diego CA, 92105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Hammond
751 Brookwood Way
Chico CA, 95926

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Stone
6308 Shoal Creek Blvd
Austin TX, 78757

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Morris
1080 Pomeroy Ave.
Santa Clara CA, 95051

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Orshan
120 E Mallard Dr #314
Boise ID, 83706

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Stidd
1570Neston Way
Los Altos CA, 94024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bari Winter
6467 Bertrand Ave
Reseda CA, 91335

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Decker
2922 Grizzly Dr.
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

fredrick Ames
334 Nome St
Aurora CO, 80010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

paul maxey maxey apache jct AZ, 85120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Betty W. Hall
209 Holyoke Place
Spring Creek NV, 89815

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Brockman
934 Indian Circle
Virginia Beach VA, 23451

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alison McGinty
1340 Toedtli Dr
Boulder CO, 80305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Benson
12253 Windsor East Dr.
Fishers IN, 46038

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Hopkins
12 Darco Dr
Randolph NJ, 07869

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

max bean
240 west 21st street
new york NY, 10011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Cloud
PO Box 386
East Haddam CT, 06423

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Swinnerton
PO Box 1221
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Robison
14470 Southern Ave
Guerneville CA, 95446

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps, Sir I have fought Long & Hard for Net neutrality. It's not Fair when giant corporations control the Internet so it works in there favor. I support strong regulations on Big Business. I strongly urge you to keep the Internet Neutral. Thank you.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jon Krecker
2995 55th St.
Boulder CO, 80301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn LeClaire
1025 Rutledge Drive
Pittsburgh PA, 15241

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Arthur Bailey
P. O. Box 123 / 2 Mill Pond Lane
Hancock ME, 04640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Weiss
12 Parkman St.
Brookline MA, 02446

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrea Cross
1515 W Highland Ave
Chicago IL, 60660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

B Doris Dubuc
300 Riverfront Dr. 8A
Detroit MI, 48226

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lois White
486 Tunnel Creek Road
Grants Pass OR, 97526

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Lovelady
6124 N. Winthrop, 205
Chicago IL, 60660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Craig L Noke
230 Locust St.
Pacific Grove CA, 93950

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daphne Yee
1029 Robertson Way
Sacramento CA, 95818

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel McDonald
3111 Radcliff Dr
Roswell NM, 88203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Sellers
PO Box 802
North Grosvenordale CT, 06255

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruth M. Finkelstein
4283 George Ave #2
San Mateo, CA, 94403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Mezzetta
675 Monte Rosa Dr. #813
Menlo Park CA, 94025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Cunningham
1413 Brackin Ct.
Hampton VA, 23663

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tilopa (Only)
224 N Monroe Ave, #106
Loveland CO, 80537

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Megan Williams
2601 W Bannock St
Boise ID, 83702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

GENUINE net neutrality is so important to consumers who should be allowed to access any legal website, service or application on any device they choose (whether they're accessing the Internet wirelessly or not) without interference from big telecom.

You have been a fine champion for real net neutrality, and your vote will be the deciding one, when the vote is taken on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Be a hero for the Internet and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Acceptable proposals can NOT permit paid prioritization, exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline, nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no to Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elsie Wattson Lamb
848 N Norris Ave
Tucson AZ, 85719

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Gau
10 Allison Circle
Worcester MA, 01606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

The American people are counting on you.

Sincerely,

James Hoehn, Jr.
159 Chestnut Street
Albany NY, 12210-1905

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barry Oselett
825 Second St.
Lakeport CA, 95453

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leon Anderson
2900 12th Avenue
Los Angeles CA, 90018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amy Carpenter
1280 Mill Street
Eugene OR, 97401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shira Mendes de Leon
11783 Dead Indian Mem. Rd1
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Stanley
1826 Mount Vernon Rd SW
Roanoke VA, 24015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

norm gove
1604 344th ave ne
carnation WA, 98014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Roach
5926 Goliad Ave
Dallas TX, 75206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Reba Stone
640 Oak Street
St. Simons Island GA, 31522

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Rose
6813 Silkberry Ln.
Goleta CA, 93117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Winn
1803 Butter Lane Apt 21
Reading PA, 19606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan
McLoughlin
Brewerton NY, 13029

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Henry Meek
6576 Devonwood Drive cincinnati OH, 45224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Clint Crabtree 9350 Highway T
richmond MO, 64085

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ernest Koh
964 Summerplace Drive
San Jose CA, 95122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Have not the big money corporate wall street elite been given enough the past 5-10 years. Time to stand up for the little people.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kirk Melhuish
4273 Glenlake DR NW
Kennesaw GA, 30144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Mac Nish
805 E Via Entrada
Tucson AZ, 85718

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Pinkley
PO Box 2323
Oregon OR, 97739

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
Please...

Sincerely,

Brandon Skolnick
13034 SE Meadehill Ave
Happy Valley OR, 97086

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pierre Brisson
911 Ford St
Ogdensburg NY, 13669

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aaron Price
9904 S Yates Ave
Chicago IL, 60617

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lari Evangelinos
18248 Challenge Cut-Off Rd.
Forbestown CA, 95941

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sandro o rossi
157 Ardith Dr
Orinda CA, 94563

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Russell Adams
3317 14TH Ave S
Minneapolis MN, 55407

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Hellert
24 Ormond Ave
Asheville NC, 28806

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ester L. Tyler-Aikens
7340 Skillman Street
Dallas TX, 75231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melanie Andrus
313 Midori Ln
Calimesa CA, 92320

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bart Jaworski
3074 California St.
Oakland CA, 94602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Roberts
9870 E. Golden Currant Dr
Tucson AZ, 85748

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rich Snowdon
421 Staten Ave. #304
Oakland CA, 94610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Hansen
2644 Donovan Ave
Bellingham WA, 98225

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Grant Foerster
7
Albany CA, 94706

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Horn
8901 W. 51st Street
University Place WA, 98467

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Prof. E Wootton
4700 College Oak Dr
Sacramento CA, 95841

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gloria Klatt
80C Seminary Avenue #263
Auburndale MA, 02466

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Walker
5
Arcata CA, 95521

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Max Campbell
Casitas Pass Rd
Carpinteria CA, 93013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

MacDonald Jackson
3986 SW West Hills Rd
Corvallis OR, 97333

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barry Maloney
3220 E 24th Street
Minneapolis MN, 55406

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn Susoeff
10624 S Eastern Ave, A841
Henderson NV, 89052

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Beunnwe
1601 S. Hixkoey
Ottawa KS, 66067

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Celine Bressler
622 204TH ST SE
Bothell WA, 98012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Zelter
7719 Willoughby Ave.
L.A. CA, 90046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Childs
723 E 16th #C
Eugene OR, 97401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

MariaElena Yepes
527 S. Pomelo Av. #E
Monterey Park CA, 91755

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen and Robin Newberg
146 Granville Rd
North Granby CT, 06060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Augustine
352 Bodle Rd
Wyoming PA, 18644

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rae Irwin
250 NE 175 Rd.
Osceola MO, 64776

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Walkowski
6214 Fredericksburg Lane
Madison WI, 53718

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Vallow
140 El Nido Avenue
Monrovia CA, 91016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Grossman
225 Shadow Creek Lane
Anderson SC, 29621

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alissa Sollitto
416 E Main St
Endicott NY, 13760

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Gottschalk
615 W. Kneeland Road
Mio MI, 48647

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bernardo alayza mujica
durand bernales 133 208
surquillo IA, 51101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Brennan
454-30th Street
Hermosa Beach CA, 90254

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Tumbelston
112 Wyckoff St
Brooklyn NY, 11201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kathy Bustamante
22 Oak rd.
Bolinas CA, 94924

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Charles Bullock
619 Apache Drive
Hopkinsville KY, 42240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Pettingill
Copper Street
Boulder CO, 80304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kaye Fulcher
5913 Sharon View Road
Charlotte NC, 28226

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dwight Rezny
104 Graeser Acres
Saint Louis MO, 63146

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Shrader
338 NW Ivy Ave
Dallas OR, 97338

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Theodora H Cole
402 Brashear Way
Goldendale WA, 98620

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cindy Frederick
3460 Skyway Dr
Sanford FL, 32773

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Natasha Tan
311 Delware Rd
Burbank CA, 91504

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Hruby
1223 Knossos Dr. Apt 1
Whitehall PA, 18052

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Theda Zaretsky
4922 Beverly Blvd. #4
LA CA, 90004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas Long
9141 Sea Oats Dr
Indianapolis IN, 46250

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry Percival
2745 SW Villa West Drive
Topeka KS, 66614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Davidoff
7406 N Pinnacle Pass Dr
Prescott Valley AZ, 86314

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Smith
2735 Ripplewood Dr.
Dallas TX, 75228

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elliot Nesterman
3092 33 St.
Astoria NY, 11102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keeley MacKenzie
11710 Williams St.
Denver CO, 80218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mavis B. Knight
6108 Red Bird Court
Dallas TX, 75232

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

My wife is a retired librarian. All aspects of the internet are part of the library domain, and it is crucial that it remain open and accessible to all.

Sincerely,

Vincent Sperrazza
20 Gridley Pl
Sauquoit NY, 13456

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Saunders-White
3 Seton Castle Tr.
Santa Fe NM, 87508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bryan wells
32 Gilman Falls Ave
Old Town ME, 04468

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john lynch
3009 w 27th Ct
lawrence KS, 66047

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Talmage
1217 Darrow Ave
Evanston IL, 60202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charley Wittman
276 Briarwood Ct.
Allentown PA, 18104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Seth Nathanson
315 Briarwood Ct
Marietta GA, 30068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roxanne Flornoy
1240 Park Avenue
New York NY, 10128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

SANDRA PETERSEN
4210 HUNTINGTON AVE., N.E.
GRAND RAPIDS MI, 49525

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Allen Rozelle
27 Oak Road
Santa Cruz CA, 95060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Stahl
249 Uilama St.
Kailua HI, 96734

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marta Diaz
14621 Winterfield Dr
Centreville VA, 20120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keith Carri
629 Clark Rd.
Gainesville TX, 76240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Please, Sir! I implore you!

Sincerely,

Dorena C. Chevalier
419 White Oak Llane
Natchitoches LA, 71457

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tony Keane
Dewitt Rd
Webster NY, 14580

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Yuka Persico
237 Goldenwood Circle
Simi Valley CA, 93065

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Teri Lynn Liberatore
8396 Galliano Ave
Las Vegas NV, 89117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eldon Grossman
2819 N Spaulding Ave
Chicago IL, 60618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bryndal Hill
3145 Henderson Path
Round Rock TX, 78665

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Trevor Lynn
6205 Beechwood Dr.
Eureka CA, 95503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Glen Wagner
2100 Commonwealth
Houston TX, 77006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pamila Payne
2017 Argyle Avenue Apt 409
Los Angeles CA, 90068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jeanne lese
64 el pavo real circle
san rafael CA, 94903

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charlene Henderson
2416 So 4th. St.
Springfield IL, 62703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please, please, please do the right thing here and keep the internet free and wild. It seems that you may be our only hope.
Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.
Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bryan Vandermore Gilbert
1377 Skye pkwy
West Linn OR, 97068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kurt Pyle
520 Grove Ln
Santa Barbara CA, 93105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Hoang
2390 Parker Street
Berkeley CA, 94704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stuart Goss
5 Sanibel Lane
Robbinsville NJ, 08691

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ed Landaveri
13271 Berkshire Way
Garden Grove CA, 92843

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

There's no doubt that you understand how integral the Internet is to our society so please demand that Chairman Genachowski reclassify broadband as a title two telecommunications service

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Devin McConnell
1319 Old Post Road
Valatie NY, 12184

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jay Parshall
3916 SW Multnomah Blvd
Portland OR, 97219

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lili-Marlene Rose
94-909 KAUOLU PL apt. 107
Waipahu HI, 96797

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sasha Krupnow
2029 Greenway Cross #12
Fitchburg WI, 53713

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cathleen Phelan
2624 W El Alba Way
Chandler AZ, 85224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Francisco Leos
5 north wilbur ave
walla walla WA, 99362

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. Please vote no.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joel Hoffman
10212 Cheyenne Drive
Bakersfield CA, 93312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ernestine Bonn
4452 Park Blvd., #104
San Diego CA, 92116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Luis Jacobo
17 NORWOOD AVE
Brooklyn NY, 11208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Leone
16 Catalpa Rd
Providence RI, 02906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cynthia & Herb Himmelfarb
615 19th St. NE
Salem OR, 97301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melba Battin
289 Bennetts Lane
Somerset NJ, 08873

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bernardo alayza mujica
pasaje durand bernales 133 208
Lima IA, 51101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Bradley
8009 Anderson Street
Philadelphia PA, 19118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fanny Diehl
1211 Harris Dr
Lompoc CA, 93436

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Jahn
4101 Mill Ave
Bellingham WA, 98229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gayl Edelstein
724 Radford dr.
Richmond Hts OH, 44143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Luis Jacobo
17 NORWOOD AVE
Brooklyn NY, 11208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy C. Mobley
566 S. Third St. Unit 2F
Coshocton OH, 43812

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Hills
1941 Larkspur Dr
FORT COLLINS CO, 80521

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

david Robinson
p.O. Box 151
curlew WA, 99118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Brass
312 Berkeley Ave.
Roseville CA, 95678

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Neal
65 Lonetree NW
Sparta MI, 49345

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

This is the first amendment! We MUST have full net neutrality!

Sincerely,

Martin Horwitz
1326 23rd Avenue
San Francisco CA, 94122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Hewitt
5002 Jeffries Ct.
Lawrence, KS, 66047

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Bundy
1146 Meadow Sweet Drive
Madison WI, 53719

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sherry Hoffman
100 Driftwood Lane
Independence VA, 24348

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diana Mercado
2043 E. Michelle Dr.
Phoenix AZ, 85022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robin Schmidt
871 W. Cornelia Ave. #1
Chicago IL, 60657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

phillip wiland
5435 Donner Drive
Clinton OH, 44216

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Gates
15362 US Hwy 77
Winfield KS, 67156

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Duebner
2847 Fairhauser Ct
Naperville IL, 60564

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christina Marcus
7 Emily Court
Medford NY, 11763

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doug Crompton
1269 2nd Street Pike
Richboro PA, 18954

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gladys Anderson
1702 Margate Blvd.
Lehigh Acres FL, 33936

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emilia Bland
1010 University Ave. #MB 580
San Diego CA, 92103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helen Sohne
284 River Rd
Shirley NY, 11967

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lois C. Sampson
9027D Westchester Circle
Tampa FL, 33604

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cindy Spring
6886 Pinehaven Rd
Oakland CA, 94611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. In this time of conglomeration and concentration of ownership, the American public can ill afford deception. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. The people have already already suffered greatly because of the Citizens United decision by the Supreme Court.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Teneralli
86 South Antelope Street
Terre Haute IN, 47802

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harry Schneider
Fruitdale Ave
San Jose CA, 95128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amanda Joyce
34073 Emily Way
Rancho Mirage CA, 92270

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jacob Phelps
2529 Pallister
Highland Twp, MI, 48357

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary D Shelton
34 Gibson St
Malden MA, 02148

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Wells
ddwells416@gmail.com
Buffalo NY, 14210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Kelleher
160 Serra Ct.
San Bruno CA, 94066

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gaynelle Predmore
434 S. Summit St.
Bowling Green OH, 43402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mitchell Cripe
7027 Oleatha Ave
Saint Louis MO, 63139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gilbert mueller
126 hazel st.
neenah WI, 54956

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Merle Foster
Roger Pl.
Durban ME, 04051

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Sorensen
424 South Valley Center Avenue
Glendora CA, 91741

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elham Izadi
257 Morton Avenue
Athens GA, 30605

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

R. Thornton
Box 463
Frazeysburg OH, 43822

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anthony Lord
9295 Jan Dra Court
Orangevale CA, 95662

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paula McCormick
401 Sanders Rd
Denton TX, 76210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vivian DesLauriers
1707 8th Ave
Belle Fourche SD, 57717

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John S. Whitford
2827 Glenn Lakes Lane
Missouri City TX, 77459

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Simmonds
PO Box 250
Black Mountain NC, 28711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Larson
779 Creston Road
Berkeley CA, 94708

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

charles fridge
2557 Foliage Dr
Marrero LA, 70072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Mounier
P.O. Box 1446
Morro Bay CA, 93443

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Navarra
4242 swan forest
san antonio TX, 78222

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sylvia Perry
35686 Mission Blvd
Fremont CA, 94536

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel C. Arendt
2650 Skyline Terrace NW
Albany OR, 97321

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Arlene Carnesi
358 West Fern Drive
Fullerton CA, 92832

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan Kiviniemi
30 Carney Rd
Newcastle ME, 04553

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Carsner
1627 College Court Place
Iowa City IA, 52245

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry Stella
1420 E Denny Way Apt C
Seattle WA, 98122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melissa Dunagan
406 E Valley
Dublin TX, 76446

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paula Stone
229 Natalen Ave. Apt 4
San Antonio TX, 78209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rachel Stegman
8083 E. Via del Desierto
Scottsdale AZ, 85258

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

rihana glavin
67 coolidge st
tewksbury MA, 01876

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please help SAVE DEMOCRACY by saving the neutrality of the Net!

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rob Hayes
244 Baker Road
Amherst MA, 01002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Diliberto
11 Stonewall Road`
Alton NH, 03809

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Cunliffe
861 Olele Point Road
Port Ludlow WA, 98365

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I am writing to you because no one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's sham net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please continue to support real net neutrality and vote NO on Genachoski's plan. No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Cabell
4271 E. Links Pky.
Centennial CO, 80122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Perry
3917 Overlook Drive
Bloomington MN, 55437

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carmi Alvarez-Smith
7508 A Chelsea Moor
Austin TX, 78759

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Vipond
204 S Fourth St, Apt 307
Milbank SD, 57252

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Shields
1407 Spring Hills Drive
Spring TX, 77386

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Judith Pavitt
P.O. Box 32
Chelsea MI, 48118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gail Van
9341 Bennett Avenue
Fontana CA, 92335

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

heather rhine
1645 Mar West St #2
Tiburon CA, 94920

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Mitchell
2625 N.E. 18th Avenue
Portland OR, 97212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Loren Levy
245-57 63 Ave.
Douglaston NY, 11362

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

margaret keyes 613 wisconsin
sf CA, 94107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Satsuko Maruki-Fox
3967 Almar Rd.
Grants Pass OR, 97527

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Dayton
1165 Lisa Lane
Santa Cruz CA, 95062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Cleveland
9011 SW 15th Ave
Portland OR, 97219

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keith Moslak
PO Box 306
SLC UT, 84110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rima Rosenthal
8 Bruce rd
Mam'K NY, 10543

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. Please be a hero to all of us regulare people out here who want the internet to stay free.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Rush
708 W Foxwood Drive
Raymore MO, 64083

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sean Quinlan
12205 269th Way NE
Duvall WA, 98019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marianne Bodine
26029 Route HH
Monroe City MO, 63456

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Palagi
11316 S. Langley
Chicago IL, 60628

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lake McManus
4711 Reforma Rd.
Woodland Hills CA, 91364

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Beth Byrne
W7839 Crestview Dr.
Whitewater WI, 53190

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

This is supposed to be the United States of America, not China.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathryne Bredbeck
5427 Kingfisher Dr.
Houston TX, 77096

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robin Anderson
1850 Dineen st
Martinez CA, 94553

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

SELWYN SHERMAN
8320 LAKE CYPRESS RD.
LAKE WORTH FL, 33467

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Virginia Gredell
616 Indian School Road NW
Albuquerque NM, 87102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

NO to paid prioritization
NO to exempting wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline

Reclassify broadband Clearly define efficient procedures and strong penalties for offenses

WE WANT REAL RULES THAT SUPPORT A TRULY OPEN INTERNET

Thank you Commissioner for your strong stand on true internet neutrality.

Sincerely,

Jan Lytjen
Ashland Oregon

Sincerely,

Janice Lytjen
1059 Park St
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gilbert picard
670 cabot rd
rochester, NY, 14626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kerry Campbell
3120 W Mohawk Ln
PHOENIX AZ, 85027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert & Elaine Gridley
9400 N Frontage Rd #311
Yuma AZ, 85365

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara and Jim Dale
909 Vernon St.
Decorah IA, 52101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Sala
14333 Fairway Drive
Eden Prairie MN, 55344

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

eliot brown
3218 dumaine st
new orleans LA, 70119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

azim rawji
1360,Response Rd,Unit 126
Sacramento CA, 95815

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

m. a. saylor
4200 chilberg av sw
seattle WA, 98116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Quarnstrom
8332 Loyola Blvd
Los Angeles CA, 90045

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sean Parrott
4826 Lambeth Dr.
San Antonio TX, 78228

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fred Varnal
1716B Boylston Ave. #3A
Seattle WA, 98122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gill Fahrenwald
P.O. Box 2323
Olympia WA, 98507

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John A. Broussard
59-148 Olomana Rd.
Kamuela HI, 96743

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Shaffer
1338 Wayne Ave.
NSB FL, 32168

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim & Diana Prola
2234 Belvedere
San Leandro CA, 94577

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Davis
10926 HOllow Ridge
Helotes TX, 78023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lionel Siongco
419 N. Platina Dr.
diamond bar CA, 91765

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alberto Fernandez
6322 Ellenview Ave
West Hill CA, 91307

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Preston
2338 Forest Ave.
Durango CO, 81301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debbie Axhorn
15 Sheridan Square 1F
New York NY, 10014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

fred skellenger jr.
242 Lakewood dr.
Asheville NC, 28803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Kopp
4062 Humphrey St
Saint Louis MO, 63116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mary rives
1244 manora estates drive
tuscaloosa AL, 35405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harmon Greenblatt
4537 S. Roman St.
New Orleans LA, 70125

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JP Cohen
"311 Anderson Rd, Suite A"
Alameda CA, 94502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

allan alvarado
18405 companario dr.
rowland heights CA, 91748

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aere Greenway
1326 Mandalay Road
Salt Lake City UT, 84116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat Machacek
203 E. Twin Willow Dr.
Boise ID, 83706

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Bayon
2022 Cirone Way
San Jose CA, 95124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Figueira
680 S. Auburn St.
Grass Valley CA, 95945

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Monte Meyer
14402 NE 79 St.
Vancouver WA, 98682

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

MR Gaskins
1516 w flynn lane
phoenix AZ, 85015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

MJ Albrecht
14541 Danvers
Waverly NE, 68462

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sue Umbarger
47 Moore Road
Summertown TN, 38483

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Logan Duplant
7117 wood hollow
Austin TX, 78731

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amanda Paveglio
518 Meadowlark Lane
Manheim PA, 17545

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Durnell
3087 Daisy Mine Rd.
Rice WA, 99167

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Kane
1024 Shari Lane
Libertyville IL, 60048

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's weak net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Duggan
646 Edna
San Mateo CA, 94402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Walter Wenzel
2079 stonewood Ct
San Pedro CA, 90732

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marshall Hyman
2019 Alpha St
S Pasadena CA, 91030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kerie Strine
P.O.BOX 214
Mount Wolf PA, 17347

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Vaidyanathan
3116 S. Mill Ave #214
Tempe AZ, 85282

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Wright
230 NE 2ND Ave
Hillsboro OR, 97124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Geoff Barnes
94 Lawton Rd
Needham MA, 02492

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rakibul Hoque
4 PAM CT
SOUTH SETAUKET NY, 11720

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Firstly, I would like to commend you for your duties as an FCC Commissioner. You have been a big champion for geniuine net neutrality. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will ultimately be the deciding one.

Please be a hero for the Internet. Vote "NO" on Chairman Genachowski's so-called 'net neutrality' plan. His choice of wording is cynical at best; at worst, completely disingenuous.

No acceptable proposal should permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

If you are not already aware, there is a powerful public outcry from organizations and everyday American people reflecting Our Great Nation's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections that allow the freedom of the Internet to remain in the hands of the public, and not be subjected to the monetary and political whims of corporations.

Please do what's right one more time, and vote "NO" on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

I would like to sincerely thank you for your time and efforts to helping keep the Internet free for all Americans, and throughout the world.

Sincerely,

David Alejandr Benitez
500 College Ave
Swarthmore, PA, 19081

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I fully support the position that is explained below. We need a free and open internet for our education, our democracy, our business growth, and to develop our creativity as a nation. Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Cline
13375 Atlantic Rd.
Strongsville OH, 44149

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Bourassa
4536 Chicago Ave
Fair Oaks CA, 95628

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon Burge
5030 Cumberland Ct. SE
Salem OR, 97306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

You've done the right thing before, and we hope you do so again with this critical issue.

Sincerely,

Robert Cohen
621 Adams St.
Albany CA, 94706

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Wonn
4367 Woodview Drive
Sarasota FL, 34232

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Ernest Jones, PhD
3863 S. Bushmill Drive
Bloomington IN, 47403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Weissman
5119 VENTURA DR
Delray Beach FL, 33484

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Sheppard
PO Box 20611
Seattle WA, 98102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Schadt
709 Widgeon Rd
Redmond OR, 97756

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James MacNair1
18 Wenatchi Trail
Browns Mills NJ, 08015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deborah Brekke
13A Hickory Lane
Winona MN, 55987

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
We're counting on you!!

Sincerely,

Sandra Marusin
517 State St
Sterling CO, 80751

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carl Norman
242 E Colorado Ave
Nampa ID, 83686

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Parker
1822 S.E. Morrison St.
Portland OR, 97214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Lahti
1760 Scottsdale Rd
Beaumont CA, 92223

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Clyde Watkins
529 Barrywood Dr
Nashville TN, 37211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frederick M Schmeisser
2725 Indian Creek Blvd
Oklahoma City OK, 73120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Zuefeldt
P.O. Box 7020
Austin TX, 78713

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Cheplick
80 Battleground RD
Perrineville NJ, 08535

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Roth
782 rozier
ste. genevieve MO, 63670

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Alexander
74 Marlick Avenue
Reedsville PA, 17084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kenda Kitchen
821 Upper Lynch
Plains MT, 59859

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Galminas
2
Natchitoches LA, 71457

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stan Hoobing
1811 North 14th Street
Boise ID, 83702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Serpico
4215 E Bay Dr 1507A
Clearwater FL, 33764

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Kirwan
50A Gail Dr
Nyack NY, 10960

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I very much Enjoy ed the talk you gave to Albuquerque NM last month.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Menning
2716 Lead ave se
Albuquerque NM, 87106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edith G. Montgomery
156 Blue Heron Lane
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Pfeffer
7 Harrison St
New York NY, 10013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Kirchner
1002 Cotage Ave.
Fort Wayne IN, 46807

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Stefani
1119 E. 4th St. #H
Long Beach CA, 90802

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Mailman
4701 43rd Ave. S.
Seattle WA, 98118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

nancy heinz sader 7215 lingfield
reno NV, 89502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william mittig
4279 Grist Rd
mariposa CA, 95338

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kay Washbourne
7645 Rt 9
Plattsburgh NY, 12901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Austin Driver
503 Strawberry Cv
Austin TX, 78745

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen O'Connell
4501 N. Bernard St
Chicago IL, 60625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Kane
PO Box 848
Monte Rio CA, 95462

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Kollmar
1101 Iris Lane
Santa Cruz CA, 95062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

janet davidson
2106 beckett dr
El Dorado Hills CA, 95762

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rain Fordyce
215 Clayton Place
Bainbridge Isl WA, 98110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom C. Sullivan
1596 Abbey Loop
Foley AL, 36535

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Sevenair
301 Highway Dr
Jefferson LA, 70121

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The internet should not be commoditized by a few players. Please pass real net neutrality.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edward Sarti
20 Oak Knoll Road
Kentfield CA, 94904

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alice Harrigan
44 Kittredge St
Roslindale MA, 02131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dr. Melvin L. Strand
133442 382nd Ave
Waseca MN, 56093

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wendy F
1200 Commonwealth Ave #20
Allston MA, 02134

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sanjay Kumar
13557 NE 54th Pl
Bellevue WA, 98005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

There is only one Internet, and consumers should be allowed to access any legal website, service or application on any device of their choosing (whether they're accessing the Internet wirelessly or not) without interference from big telecom.

Thanks again for being our hero

Sincerely,

John Cangelosi
2000 Robins Ln. SE-57
Salem OR, 97306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Byron Johnson
8334 Terra Grande Ave
springfield VA, 22153

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Terry
308 S. Flood
Norman OK, 73069

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Geiger
1071 White Deer Pike
White Deer PA, 17887

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Danny Dishon
490 Gordon Ct
Livermore CO, 80536

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Chambers
1517 179th Ave NE
Bellevue WA, 98008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Bowen
6012 Championship Circle
Mukilteo WA, 98275

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I appreciate that no one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. Please hold strong for what is right. Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no to Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Holt
615 Stafford Way
CarsonCity NV, 89701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terri Spurr
P.O. Box 85142
Tucson AZ, 85754

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

laura osborn
1904 sunray court
west linn OR, 97068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rob Short
1223 30th avenue
Greeley CO, 80634

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Hart
23 Collins Terrace
Central Square NY, 13036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tony Ippolito
4055-A Rickenbacker Dr, NE
Atlanta GA, 30342

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

tatiana marquez
2962 e 5th st
tucson AZ, 85716

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Feldstein
133 N. Augusta
Oxford IA, 52322

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Lampert
1405 S. Dayton Ct.
Denver CO, 80247

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Shook
14315 SW Reddings Beach Rd.
Vashon WA, 98070

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

J. B. Van Wely
2210 East Lombard Street
Baltimore MD, 21231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Spruit
313 W Morrell
Otsego MI, 49078

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Sprigg
3101 Walnut Ave SW
Seattle WA, 98116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dean Cutler
2130 Daylor Dr NE
Grand Rapids MI, 49525

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Chapman
432 Cypress Forest Dr.
Englewood FL, 34223

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Greenwood
1507 Ash St.
Highland IL, 62249

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Betzhold
85 Wildwood Lane
Selkirk NY, 12158

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Guy Foley
2333 Lorelei ln nw
Seabeck WA, 98380

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruth Bill
7069 Route 2A
St. George VT, 05495

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

chris steffes
5413 Woodley Ln
Madison WI, 53713

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James White
3762 Up River Road Apt #36
Corpus Christi TX, 78408

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jay Gassman
1919 Middle Country Road
Centereach NY, 11720

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

You'll get lots of the same letter begging you to vote against the industry-backed sell-out your TAXPAYER funded FCC is proposing. All I have to say is: What will your descendants think about this travesty? Please do what you can to insure true net neutrality. A system that doesn't pander to big business is essential. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Frank Wissler
111 S. Lakeside Dr.
McPherson KS, 67460

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mathew Grace
1788 E. Chia Rd.
Palm Springs CA, 92262

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karan Brown
515 S. Grevillea Ave. #2
Inglewood CA, 90301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adrienne J. Urizar
1086 Potrero Ave
San Francisco CA, 94110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ivan Trombley
10471 Agate Ave.
Mentone CA, 92359

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

You are attempting to take the rights of Americans to speak out. You want to decide who will shall have the right to speak and who should be gaged. You want those with money and power to speak as they please and the average american to be silenced. It is we the middle class that pay for the rest and we say no to you.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debra Istvanik-Strotman
604 McVicker Lane
Monongahela PA, 15063

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ben Foster
622 Cane Creek Road
Fletcher NC, 28732

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mark truett
box 201
vassar MI, 48768

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

K. T. Nordeen
309 Seabright Avenue
Santa Cruz CA, 95062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rich Porter
36432 Fruitland Mesa Rd
Crawford CO, 81415

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah L. Crowder
1922 McDuffie St Apt A201
Houston TX, 77019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith K. Kliban
P.O.Box 608
Corte Madera CA, 94976

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Nelson
100 Boyd Rd, Apt 304
Pleasant Hill CA, 94523

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stacey Anderson
818 Bramblebush St.
Fort Collins CO, 80524

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

malynda Eastman
2050 Lakemoor Dr Sw
olympia WA, 98512

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

james n peebles
1300 north shore drive n.e.
saint petersburg FL, 33701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aaron Amos
203 e 100 s
Burley ID, 83318

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kamala eichler
267 palos verdes drive west, apt # 12
palos verdes estates CA, 90274

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Elizondo
8639 Southwestern Blvd
Dallas TX, 75206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Angela Smith
13641 26th Pl S
SeaTac WA, 98168

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leslie Boschen
19 Essex Lane
Woodbury CT, 06798

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Edward Oaks
1711 13th Ave S Apt 203
Seattle WA, 98144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Moore
6227 Minerral Point Rd #D87
Madison WI, 53705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Natoli
326 E 11th Ave
Spokane WA, 99202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lillian Oglesby
104 Morton Lane
San Anselmo CA, 94960

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mel Wolters
4971 27th. Ave. NE
Rio Rancho NM, 87144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan with its weak, industry-friendly "regulations."

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gena Cherack
701 South Norris Ave
Pender NE, 68047

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Robertson
500 Canyon Lane
Irving TX, 75063

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Peterson
1 Washington Sq
Santa Clara CA, 95050

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janis Mcsharry
2331 42nd Ave SW,Apt 216
Seattle WA, 98116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Cook
1286 40th St.
Sarasota FL, 34234

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Francis Dean Sanders
3615 Zumwalt Station Rd
Ames IA, 50014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Citron
384 S. Denver Drive
Martinsburg PA, 16662

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Izral
7572 Cherryvale Blvd
Cherry Valley IL, 61016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Roland
2697 Gilberts mill Rd
Chipley FL, 32428

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Fine
534 Rankin Ave
Schenectady NY, 12308

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kenneth j. vermouth
2097 dalis dr.
concord CA, 94520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maria Jackson
1709 Corralitos. Ave.
San Luis Obispo CA, 93401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christine Meyers
4634 NE 31st Ave
Portland OR, 97211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Becky Bonnette
906 Rocking Spur Cove
Pflugerville TX, 78660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandra Moore
218 No. 1st Street Apt.4
Shelton WA, 98584

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Danziger
5814 Christie Lane
Garland TX, 75044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Dickerson
2218 Market st
wheeling WV, 26003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Arthur Gross
3015 Hobart Street, #6A
Woodside NY, 11377

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Michael Casko
148 East us hwy 12
Beverly Shores IN, 46301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Averkiou
7097 E Pinnacle Pass Loop
Prescott Valley AZ, 86314

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandra Bostian
4567 Tabor Rd
Comstock Park MI, 49321

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn O'Shea
2428 Ursulines Ave
New Orleans LA, 70119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ed Steiner
901 Sterling Dr.
Midland MI, 48640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

LaVera Langeman
819 14th st
Bellingham WA, 98225

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keith Hiebner
3003 Benham Ave.
Elkhart IN, 46517

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Dahl
36 Diane Dr
Kingston RI, 02881

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daryl Patton
32655 Boston Mill Dr
Shedd OR, 97377

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Moore
3 Thornwood
Irvine CA, 92604

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

This is NOT China. I value the openness of the internet. Where else can we access the information necessary to maintain this Republic, than a free press? And a free press includes the information provided on sites on the internet.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gerri Anne Koskinen
21015 Victor St Apt 17
Torrance CA, 90503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tigran Johnson
2946 De Anza Dr
El Sobrante CA, 94803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Lodder
471 Stafford Rd
Niles MI, 49120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Raj Seshadri
2183 Pruneridge Ave
Santa Clara CA, 95050

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

corey w. l. gordon
204 jackson ave
warren PA, 16365

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The free flow of information is everything in a democracy. Corporations currently have much too much control over everyone- from Experian- whom one cannot contact- to Anthem Health Insurance. Wealth and information are currently being dangerously consolidated. Do not allow this internet control to begin even in any small way. The backlash will be substantial to such inequity.

Kate Naples

Sincerely,

Kate Naples
PO Box 2072
Avalon CA, 90704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charlotte Flynn
7710 West Rim Dr.
Texas TX, 78731

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Maniscalco
52 Ava Court
Manorville NY, 11949

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I'm very unhappy to hear that it looks like the FCC could give in to Telecom companies when it comes to content on the internet.
It isn't right that profit-driven corporations should get to decide what I read or watch on the internet; they don't deserve to be the internet's gatekeepers. What's more frustrating, is that I feel helpless to do anything about it; I'm just an observer to this attack on net neutrality.
Mr. Copps, please do everything you can to fight for the people who don't have a voice in this matter such as myself. Please vote against the FCC Chairman's current plan and restart the debate. We deserve better than what the current proposal offers and I'm hoping you will be the vote that pushes for true net neutrality.

Thank you got your time and effort,

Matt Pinkerton

Sincerely,

Matthew Pinkerton
1533 164th Ave NE, Z10
Bellevue WA, 98008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary calkin
505 E Fresno Ave
Ponca City OK, 74601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Voghell
260 S Union St Unit 1B
Burlington VT, 05401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ed Einstein
11016 Whisper Hollow
San Antonio TX, 78230

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randy Jackson
22307 Hazy Hollow Dr
Spicewood TX, 78669

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please help protect the public, rather than the industry interest in the proposed internet regulations.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ned Gulbran
2833 Mt. St. Helens Pl. S.
Seattle,, WA 98144 WA, 98144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Swain
62 Margarete Dr
Pittsgrove NJ, 08318

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jill Scheinbaum
0608 Juniper Hill Rd
Aspen CO, 81611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Wood
72 Berry Street
Brooklyn, NY, 11211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alfred R Mascioli
27212 North 32nd Lane
Phoenix AZ, 85083

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Miller
6214 E. 93rd St.
Tulsa OK, 74137

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Please don't allow any ISP to filter information I am permitting. This is simply a restraint of trade while providing a " cash cow" to my ISP Comcast.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barney Gorter
2525 SE Ada Ln.
Milwaukie OR, 97267

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Further, this limitation that your colleague wishes to propose may have INTERNATIONAL ramifications as well! That is, other countries may follow suit, thus "corporatising" the net. thus squelching once and for all the last bastion of a truely free international medium by the general public to communicat with! I am certain you do not wish this to happen!

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

With my sincere gratitude for your good work,
sincerely,

Kouseiko Peterson

Sincerely,

Kouseiko Peterson
182 Howard St. 252
San Francisco CA, 94105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barrett Miller
2233 Divisadero, #404
San Francisco CA, 94115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Toni Miller
326 Talbot Circle
Saint Pauls NC, 28384

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tony Armstrong
175 Shadow Oak Dr
Somerset KY, 42503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Claire Goldner
2625 Salkan Indian Dr. #3
Walnut Creek CA, 94595

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kiera Hebert
10793 Aster Lane
Apple Valley CA, 92308

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please be a hero.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean E Glassman
89 Newport St.
Arlington MA, 02476

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jessica Suzio
1416 Cherokee
Royal Oak MI, 48067

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william ashley 5365 ne 1st ter
oakland park FL, 33334

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jeff olson
1571-6 warburton
santa clara CA, 95050

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aronoff Darwin
2954 E Del Mar Blvd Apt 108
Pasadena CA, 91107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Hansen
4380 Cedar Ridge Trail
Stone Mountain GA, 30083

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Hurner
9540 8TH Ave NW
Seattle WA, 98117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vaughn Baker
3695 Bay View
Penn Yan NY, 14527

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sheila Tatroe
Street
Lansing MI, 48823

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Nespor
4921 N 32nd Street, Apt 3B
Lincoln NE, 68504

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Graham Mott
9173 W. Cedar Dr. #E
Lakewood CO, 80226

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Prevot
3792 Santa Fe Trail
Ann Arbor MI, 48108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps.

Don't let industry dominate the internet the way it has other telecommunication.. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Ulrich
44874 Tamarack River Rd
Hinckley MN, 55037

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Maynor
2359 Huntington Green Court
Orlando FL, 32839

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Lou Francis
19332 133rd Place, S.E.
Renton WA, 98058

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I hope you are hearing us. Soon more people will be seeing you as a hero. Notice what is happening with Wiki leaks. There is a whole new world that wants to be uncensored and free to communicate unmolested by those who hate free speech,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joel House
325 Wooster Ave
San Jose CA, 95116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eleanor Fox
406 E. 80th St.
New York NY, 10075

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lonnie Graham
16636 S. 25th Pl.
Phoenix AZ, 85048

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

diana molinari
2304 aviation blvd
Redondo Beach CA, 90278

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Candace Stolley
24620 Morgan V. Rd
Lower Lake CA, 95457

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynda Walker
260 Old Sib Rd
Ridgefield CT, 06877

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

dean inada
130 knolliglen
irvine CA, 92614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Kondrot
702 1 Street, S.E.
Washington DC, 20003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hanifah Murfin
PO Box 622
Leverett MA, 01054

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gladys Chase
14118 81st Pl.. NE
Bothell WA, 98011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ivy George
P.O. Box 744
Richmond VT, 05477

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Casey Hill
28 Poplar Drive
Washington PA, 15301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ross LaBelle
19586 Franconia Trail
shafer MN, 55074

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chad Kahl
222 S Florence Ave
Bloomington IL, 61701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Clarence Sutton
4016 Murdock St
Temple Hills MD, 20748

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Castellani
156 Centre Court
Alameda CA, 94502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.
Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
Please! Help the citizens that use it day to day.

Sincerely,

Brad Schafish
53446 Hilltop Dr.
Middlebury IN, 46540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Russell
2023 Folsom #9
San Francisco CA, 94110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Clive Shephard
2101 shoreline dr
Alameda CA, 94501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maria L Magana
1290 Hillcrest Drive
Burlington WA, 98233

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please stand up for authentic net neutrality. Thank you.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Virgene Link
PO Box 543
Anacortes WA, 98221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan H Williams
3236 E Bailey Dr
Anderson CA, 96007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Croom
2502 Albata Avenue
Austin TX, 78757

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sonja Chan
944 W. Walnut St.
Kankakee IL, 60901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandra Smith
500 Fairway Drive
Camp Hill PA, 17011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gar Gatterer
21813 vallejo st.
Hayward CA, 94541

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JL Seville
10632 Chestnut Street
Los Alamitos CA, 90720

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alejandro Sanchez
7229 N Paulina St
Chicago IL, 60626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Willoughby
17000 53rd. Ave. S.
Tukwila WA, 98188

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Childress
1371 Byrneville Road
Century FL, 32535

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ALEX DRAGOS
2120 MISSION BLVD
SANTA ROSA CA, 95409

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sheila Blades
25522 Charro Drive
San Juan Capistrano CA, 92675

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Abigail Adelman
3206 University Blvd West
Kensington MD, 20895

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Ross
836-A Walnut
Boulder CO, 80302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

colin summers
1925-b west drive
vista CA, 92083

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Kersey
5107 Del Monte 2
Houston TX, 77056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

BRIAN NEARY
107 CAROUSEL CIRCLE
NEW BRITAIN PA, 18901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Heather Eyssi
Brook St
Andover MA, 01810

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Nichols
7519 N. Oakley
Chicago IL, 60645

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Tipton
55 St. Edward Lane
Florissant MO, 63033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janice Dlugosz
409 Compass Ave
Beachwood NJ, 08722

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara McCarthy
9 Commodore Dr. #A404
Emeryville CA, 94608

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Levy
131 church rd 3B
north wales PA, 19454

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cyndi Myers
4310 Shavano Peak
San Antonio TX, 78230

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Tosiello
4466 36th St S
Arlington VA, 22206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Niels Erickson
616 Beyer Dr
Bay Saint Louis MS, 39520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

barbara Kaplan 1324 Anacapa St.
santa Barbara CA, 93101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william hathaway
pob 877979
wasilla AK, 99687

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. Please, please vote no. Thank you.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

miriam ross
10202 W. Schlinger Ave.
West Allis WI, 53214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Liz Kinney
11 north elmhurst ave
albany NY, 12205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helen Cox
1014 W Applewood Lane
Peoria IL, 61614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Korbelik
4224 Brookhill Dr
Fair Oaks CA, 95628

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Garff
8300 S 745 E
Sandy UT, 84094

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phyllis Foster
1347 N. Vista St., #209
Los Angeles CA, 90046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wilfred Collins
303 Wilson St NE
Olympia WA, 98506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Bailey
25801 Marguerite Parkway, No. 103
Mission Viejo CA, 92692

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolie Booth
3069 Bewleytown Rd.
Fountain Run KY, 42133

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Willis-Brown
33421 Stagecoach Blvd
Evergreen CO, 80439

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

The Internet is the last defense against total corporate ownership of the media. Stop the Ministry of Truth/Propaganda from taking over!

Sincerely,

Denise Haugen
1730 Graham Ave
St. Paul MN, 55116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nelly Lopez
cra 11 N° 61-95
L.A. CA, 90001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kenneth Robertson
8315 NW Waukomis Dirve
Kansas City MO, 64151

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Schacher
3500 35th Ave #27
Oakland CA, 94619

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marian Baker Gierlach
8897 E Walnut Trl
Pearce AZ, 85625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Westover
11070 SW Chickadee Terrace
Beaverton OR, 97007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marc Cohen
3753 NE 188 St.
Lake Forest Park WA, 98155

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Buzzell
66759 Pierson Blvd
Desert Hot Springs CA, 92240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's so- called net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

rob dashnaw
4097 potter pl
Eugene OR, 97405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Travis Miller
PO Box 50834
Phoenix AZ, 85076

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ralph Peduto
1925 46th Avenue #95
Capitola CA, 95010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rollie Tussing
4912 se boise
Portland OR, 97206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Please listen to us. Without the internet, more people would have had a much harder time making ends meet. The number of moms making cash on Etsy, people selling their valuables on eBay to pay the bills, or writing articles for associated content speaks for the power of a fair and open internet. Don't screw this up for the people!!

Sincerely,

Erin Paul
200 Bloomfield Ave, Box 3724
West Hartford CT, 06117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Frey
85 N Holliston Ave #12
Pasadena CA, 91106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy Morgenweck
4885 Scurlock Road
Freeland,, WA, 98249

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lorraine Seiji
642 Albemarle Street
El Cerrito CA, 94530

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erica Scheet
23W007 Tamarack Dr
Glen Ellyn IL, 60137

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

T West
9515 59th ave s
seattle WA, 98118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Smithson
1104 Burntwood Ct
Sunnyvale CA, 94089

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Farnsworth
8547 S Cascade Springs Ln #812
West Jordan UT, 84088

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jaymes E. Pappas
27 Village Green - Apt. 27K
Budd Lake, NJ, 07828

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Commissioner Copps,
Please help the people of our country in the maintenance of Freedom in the digital age that we have just barely begun.

If someone as historically crass as Larry Flynt can convince the courts to maintain his freedom of expression even when it is considered unsavory by those in office, we can certainly maintain a currently existing freedom that has every reason to stick around.

The founders of the technology that the internet is based on, and in fact even most computer programming, was created with the intent of free expression across boundaries. It is because of this that CC (Creative Commons) was created, after major corporations in the 1980s attempted to sever any methods of freedom of sharing between applications and data.

It is obvious through these means and many others that the founders of our basis for society as it is today, and those who continue to use said technology, strongly desire and DEMAND the freedom to exchange information without fear of unlawful retribution from big corporations who happen to hold many purse strings.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

I hope you and your staff have a happy holiday season (and that the diluge of e-mails about this issue are not too dry!)

Thank you for reading this far!

Sincerely,

Melinda Stanley
2334 s olive st
denver CO, 80224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rita Smalling
4711 E. Brisa del Norte
Tucson AZ, 85718

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

tony vanoni
1095buena vista way
carlsbad CA, 92008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Glenda Kohlhafer-Regan
1420 Jury Rd
Chesapeake VA, 23322

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kay McPherson
2409 Arcadia Dr
Missoula MT, 59803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandra Lynn
100 Commons Road
Dripping Springs TX, 78620

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan gillotte
100 e Lisa dr
Austin TX, 78752

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Catherine Meguire
5724 Arnsby Pl
Cincinnati OH, 45227

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Locascio
276 Mass. Ave., Apt. 409
Arlington MA, 02474

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lori Hutchings
2101 W Warm Springs Rd #3421
Henderson NV, 89014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger & Heidi Crawford
2408 Route 737
Stony Run PA, 19529

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gerard L. McFarland
2529 Kevin Rd
San Pablo CA, 94806

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Allen
1034 Liberty Park Loop
Vestavia Hills AL, 35242

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Greg Wendlandt
42W598 Hawk Circle
Campton Hills IL, 60175

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Nicholson
1737 Us Rt 9W Lot 4
Selkirk NY, 12158

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary C. Johnson
1013 Maple Creek Dr
Loganville GA, 30052

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Hubbell
100 W Mill St
Selinsgrove PA, 17870

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Right now, I need a champion at the FCC; I expect net neutrality to be a basic tenant of operation, and I see it slipping away. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jud Knittel
851 W Lewiston Ave
Ferndale MI, 48220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Weissmann
2132 NE 13th Ave
Portland OR, 97212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Will Nist
1405 W Wagon Wheel Road
Cottonwood AZ, 86326

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one
Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helen Harts
4939 Oak Arbor Dr
Dallas TX, 75233

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane Chew
31904 Fox Hollow Rd
Eugene OR, 97405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Rohde
07770 Fox Run
Petoskey MI, 49770

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katherine Gales
110 Touchstone Place
West Sacramento CA, 95691

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Ellis
112 W. Third Street
Trinidad CO, 81082

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

james Rabalais
88 camelia dr
Rocky point NC, 28457

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff fagerholm
po box 579
Hood River OR, 97031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Jurado
1700 hawthorne #235
El paso TX, 79902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Ball
16021 W Prosperi Ave
Tucson AZ, 85736

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martie Wells
POBox 691715
Stockton CA, 95269

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

wayne elvington
6019 patrick place
charlotte NC, 28210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I am told that no one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Respectfully,
Gary William Crooks

Sincerely,

Gary Crooks
115-98 Park Lane South
Richmond Hill NY, 11418

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sunshine weismehl
864 Francisco Street
San Francisco CA, 94109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Finally, in my opinion Chairman Genachowski's proposal should get him a fine or even jail time for contempt of reality, blatant corporate shillmanship or just for being an obviously lying and manipulative asshat!! I'm just sayin'.

Thanks for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Kenneth Lee Cover
118 Jefferson St. N.E. Apt 7
Olympia WA, 98501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bert Goodrich
PO Box 80145
Albuquerque NM, 87198

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gemma Geluz
2929 Juniper St
Fairfield CA, 94533

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rick Simkin
4517 N. Mozart St.
Chicago IL, 60625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Bradley
248 E. 1st St.
Mesa AZ, 85201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Zak Ryersbach
PO Box 1281
Telluride CO, 81435

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Dawson
909 Heritage Road
Moorestown NJ, 08057

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lauren Taylor
170 Ridge Rd
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karren Holloway
44 Woodland Glen Park Forest IL, 60466

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Boatman
4432 Wellington Road
Boulder CO, 80301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rachel Sorensen
124 N University St
Vermillion SD, 57069

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Valerie Friedlander
2229 Mimosa Dr. #6
Houston TX, 77019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21. Your support is absolutely vital & appreciated.

Sincerely,

Cort Brumfield
9002 N. E. Webster Street
Portland OR, 97220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Williams
30513 Ruth Hill Road
Squaw Valley CA, 93675

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kay A.Johnson
4107 Nutt Rd
Jamestown NY, 14701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Fouse
1322 Ava Rd
Severn MD, 21144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mercedes baker
763 santa christina ct
sunnyvale CA, 94085

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Lutes
2301 S. E. Gillette Ave.
Port St. Lucie FL, 34952

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Burton
14750 Mitchell Creek Drive
Fort Bragg CA, 95437

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john Cox
10 Leland Rd
Natick MA, 01760

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Cosgriff
1180 Andrews Avenue
Lakewood OH, 44107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Caulk
193 Tenby Chase Dr., Apt. 154M
Delran NJ, 08075

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

james wayrynen
2331 albin dr. apt.12
entiat WA, 98822

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

If Bernie Sanders can stand on principles for the American people then so can you!

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christian J. Henry
25736 Pyramid Ln NW
Poulsbo WA, 98370

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Fray
304-C 17th Street
Huntington Beach CA, 92648

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carmen Mo
627 Roberts St.
Reno NV, 89502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Valancy Rasmussen
2100 Date Street #906
Honolulu HI, 96826

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shirley Muney
3479 N. Nandina Lane
Tucson AZ, 85712

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Lopez
Lafayette Ave.
Bronx NY, 10453

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Bohannan
1018 W. 19th St.
Santa Ana CA, 92706

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kevin campbell
1399 connemara circle
gulf breeze FL, 32563

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

This country was founded with freedom of expression written into its credo, into the bery skeleton of out nation by the Founding Fathers. We must maintain an open Internet. Wnything else is unamerican and utterly beneath us. It would be contemptible in the eyes of the world, I think.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

June B Cater
377 South Harrison St.
East Orange NJ, 07018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hugh Duey
8609 59th St. East
Parrish FL, 34219

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Darleen Cox
519 Alden Road
Sellersburg IN, 47172

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dona McClain
1610 Bowen St.
Longmont CO, 80501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan Dulberg
555 Pine Ridge Place
Raleigh NC, 27609

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerome M. Feinstein
3 Tenakill Park Drive East #211
Cresskill NJ, 07626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aaron Luk
1290 31st Ave
San Francisco CA, 94122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Kanaba
800 NW Summercrest Blvd Apt B
Burleson TX, 76028

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicolas Jenkins
530 Grand street
New York NY, 10002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Once Neutrality has been breached the net can never be restored. This amazingly historic decision can not go negative. Please protect the net as staunchly as you always have in the past. From a grateful we-the-people, thank you.

Sincerely,

Gary Robert
1695 18th St # 414
San Francisco CA, 94107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Torpey
1017 S.E. 30th Ave.
Portland OR, 97214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Angela Muñoz
268 Euclid Ave. #7
Oakland CA, 94610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

shirley talbot
64207 E. Meander
tucson AZ, 85739

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

MICHAEL FIORENTINO
PO BOX 51051
BOSTON MA, 02205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerry Peterson
1850 Fifth Ave
San Diego CA, 92101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Norgrove
610 Driver
Winter Park FL, 32789

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you.

When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ovina Maria Feldman
13021 127th DR NE
Kirkland WA, 98034

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Thornhill
317 S. Rutland St
Watertown NY, 13601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lauri Provencher
10440 Seabury Lane
Los Angeles CA, 90077

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nathaniel Hammond
8424 Excaliber Place
Richmond VA, 23237

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erica Johnsen
4250 N. Saguaro
Tucson AZ, 85747

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Hawley
Box 49
Ketchum ID, 83340

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James M. Hyland
125 Hawk Crest Way
Roseville CA, 95678

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jason palmer
1020 yqnacio valley rd # 4
Walnut Creek CA, 94598

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gretchen Berger
234 W. 74 St.
New York NY, 10023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Albert Boosman
135 Forest Ave
Pacific Grove CA, 93950

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Capehart
3338 E 6th St
Tulsa OK, 74112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry Nowotarski
1925 LaVeta #69
Orange CA, 92866

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beth Strachan
501 Wesley Ave #6
Oakland CA, 94606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please continue to champion real net neutrality. Please vote against Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan. Paid prioritization is not neutral, and wireless broadband is as important as wireline.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.

Sincerely,

Jerry Fowler
16205 Saint Helier St.
Jersey Village TX, 77040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Wylie
1036 E Main St
Lansing MI, 48912

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Zandra Saez
1805 E. 34th Ave
Spokane WA, 99203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matt Morrison
9017 Sunridge Circle #914
Fort Worth TX, 76120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dean Silver
1035 Timberline Ter
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maury Weiner
820 Stanford St.
Santa Monica CA, 90403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Tall-Takacs
1356 E. Boston St.
Seattle WA, 98102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gerald Kauffman
10483 County Road 8
Fort Lupton CO, 80621

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Johnson
PO Box 486
Madison Lake MN, 56063

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

charles chamberlain
377 south harrison street apt 11-b
East Orange NJ, 07018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Beauchamp
1211 25 Ave S
Moorhead MN, 56560

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shirley Nelson
2800 Neilson Way
Santa Monica CA, 90405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Sloan
508 E. Buffalo St.
Ithaca NY, 14850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Savolainen
3307 CR 215
Middleburg FL, 32068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

KEEP THE NET FREE AND CLEAR FROM INTERFERENCE!!!

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lisa henschel
2007 Hyperion Ave
LA CA, 90027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brady Faist
515 N McEachern Hall
Pullman WA, 99163

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

H.W. Hannam
1142-311 Savannah Road
Lewes DE, 19958

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jana Kalnins-Park
630 E. Eton Dr.
Tucson AZ, 85704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bertrand Kahn
16 Amherst Court
Glen Rock NJ, 07452

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Faia
105 Locust St.
Santa Cruz CA, 95060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Justin Murphy
4503 Adelphi Lane
Austin TX, 78727

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Myers
9075 Playhouse Rd
Petersburg PA, 16669

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Porter
2134 Hemlock Farms
Lords Valley PA, 18428

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chet Nettestad
513 2nd Ave S.E.
Pelican Rapids MN, 56572

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Precious
3549 Iowa Avenue #72
Riverside CA, 92507

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christof Demont-Heinrich
4000 S. Atchison Way
Aurora CO, 80014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Hartman
5112 E 23rd St
Tulsa OK, 74114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Moga
4507 Slater Road
Eagan MN, 55122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen McCurrie
115 Quartz Lane
Paterson NJ, 07501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan
3554 East Meadows Place
Eau Claire WI, 54701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Veronica Egan
605 E 7th Ave
Durango CO, 81301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carin Green
1268 Chamberlain Dr
Iowa City IA, 52240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Willis Hamilton
205 Meadowlark Ln
Southlake TX, 76092

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sean Gaskill
3524 klockner rd
hamilton NJ, 08691

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Callahan
4904 Woodside Rd
Baltimore MD, 21229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Richardson
2320 Manzano Loop N.E.
Rio Rancho NM, 87144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Davis
14811 Del Amo Ave
Tustin CA, 92780

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Smith
814 Demerius St., Apt. R2
Durham NC, 27701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

judith gilles
13315 nw 48th av
vancouver WA, 98685

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mirta spencer
250 ne vista drive
stevenson WA, 98648

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Abdullah
133 Parker St., #1
Cincinnati OH, 45219

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan Seides
7311 Bucknell Drive
Austin TX, 78723

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Verdugo
3 Univ. Ave
Hackensack NJ, 07601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jill Hoel
355 North Avenue
Hilton NY, 14468

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jamal H Khan
16 Wills Drive
S. Charleston WV, 25309

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dixon Power
15 Mantegani Way
Tiburon, CA, 94920

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary J. Cray
63 North Cowley Rd.
Riverside IL, 60546

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

AISHA FARHOUD
6161 REIMS RD
HOUSTON TX, 77036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Libbe Madsen
PO Box 1824
Laytonville CA, 95454

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill and Jan Tache
PO Box 1210
Penn Valley CA, 95946

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Connelly Stewart
244 Carroll Parkway
Frederick MD, 21701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charlene McLaughlin
1404 Kope Rd
Bellingham WA, 98226

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joyce C Crane
4012-2E Calle Sonora Oeste
Laguna Woods CA, 92637

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tyra Taylor
5412 S. Blackstone
Chicago IL, 60615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Sullivan
13327 Corliss Ave N
Seattle WA, 98133

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Trnka
2520 28th Avenue South
Minneapolis MN, 55406

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Johnson
4720 Pine Ridge Road
Winfield KS, 67156

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bonnie Hearthstone
8B Country Commons
Vergennes VT, 05491

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jacqueline Fuqua
1228 Rosemont Ave NW
Albuquerque NM, 87104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane & Tom James 137 W Zia Road
Santa Fe NM, 87505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kalahani Latihan
2610-1/4 Abbot Kinney Blvd.
Venice CA, 90291

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shawn Gustafson
7802 W 90th Ave.
Westminster CO, 80021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tricia Macke
2908 Charles Dr.
Chalmette, LA, 70043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ben Eby
782 S Chambers Rd #101
Aurora CO, 80017

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donna Pallo-Perez
1706 4TH Ave E
Olympia WA, 98506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Morella Camejo
1760 Barrhead Ct
Folsom CA, 95630

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

claire Beardsley 1022 Harvard
claremont CA, 91711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Clark
2019 Avenida Penasco
El Cajon CA, 92019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas J. Ferrito
9 Simons Way
Los Gatos CA, 95030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Joslin-Davis
836 Knoll Dr
San Carlos CA, 94070

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gail Marks
103 East 86th Street
new York NY, 10028

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

American consumers should know that no one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you.
Thank you for standing up for the common good and not the common greed of the intercom industry!

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan. No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Wylie
2409 S. Balsam St.
Lakewood CO, 80227

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James O'Halloran
16916 N Dartford Dr
Spokane WA, 99208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sandra Ellis
1101 Parkway Lane
Pilot Point TX, 76258

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Graves
2609 Montclair St.
San Diego CA, 92104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

joel Kurtz
906 Warfield Ave
oakland CA, 94610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marika Wilde
116 Province Road
Barrington NH, 03825

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Domhuaille MacMathghamhna
103 Pierrot Ouest
L'Assomption TX, 70597

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob DeKorte
5562 Kelekent SE
Kentwood MI, 49548

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Geri Jones
2440 Birn Hill Ln
Faribault MN, 55021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Greg Witt
1506 Lake Avenue
Wilmette IL, 60091

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Terranella
87 Saint Philip's Drive
Clifton NJ, 07013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ralph Mihelich
5301 Wilby St
Shelby Township MI, 48317

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Peterson
183 Timberview Drive
Troy MI, 48084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruth Gollobin-Basta
370 Washington Avenue
Cedarhurst NY, 11516

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jason rhodes
3934 N. albina
Portland OR, 97227

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Maass
5095 Laurel St.
Beaumont TX, 77707

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phyllis Stanbury
"11217 Woodbridge Dr.,"
Grand Blanc MI, 48439

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Walton Walker
25315 Mill Pond Ln.
Spring TX, 77373

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebecca L Carroll
2205 Constitution Drive
Raleigh NC, 27615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Betty L Smith
2319 Olympia Dr.
Santa Rosa CA, 95405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

frank onishuk
41 fieldstone rd
wolfeboro NH, 03894

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bernard Hope
7214 S SOUTH SHORE DR
CHICAGO IL, 60649

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Davis
10922 NE 48th Street
Kirkland WA, 98033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Bockman
4320 NW 25th Terrace
Gainesville FL, 32605

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Audrey Heller
8341 Mary Lee
Laurel MD, 20723

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Clay
HC 67 Box 629
Clayton ID, 83227

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

I have grown up with television, look what they have done to it. You really have to pay for TV now and then it is more ads than ever before and not great programming. Please don't let this happen to the internet.

Sincerely,

James H. Muszalski
1712 Steiner Street
San Francisco CA, 94115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please do NOT support Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality regulations.

Sincerely,

William Salter
101 Townes Rd.
COLUMBIA SC, 29210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elyse Coulson
5451 Brosche Rd
Orlando FL, 32807

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeremy Putnam
8358 Rams Horn Drive
West Jordan UT, 84088

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harry Anastopulos
112 6th Street SE
Washington DC, 20003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Connie Mellard
318 Fargo
Houston TX, 77006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brandon palmer
6850 SW 44th St Apt 110
Miami FL, 33155

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Sowa
315 N Hobart Rd
Hobart IN, 46342

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dr. M Scott
451 McFaul Way
Zephyr Cove NV, 89448

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

April Stearns
103 Newport St
Dewnver CO, 80220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

donna irwin
8747 Sunny Oaks
San Antonio TX, 78250

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Stainthorp
1247 W. Columbia
Chicago IL, 60626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

paul ievins
704 powderhouse rd
vestal NY, 13850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alison Westermann
6756 Dakota Ridge Dr
El Paso TX, 79912

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

just as the clean air act for for polluters, this is not "neutrality"

not fooling anyone

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Keenan
PO Box 27
Hotchkiss CO, 81419

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lessye DeMoss
1609 Wethersfield Road
Austin TX, 78703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Carlisle
203 Aliso Dr. NE
Albuquerque NM, 87108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Himmel
2 Grove Isle Drive #409
Miami FL, 33133

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Doka
32 Grand Miramar Dr.
Henderson NV, 89011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rosalie Felfle
1849 Overlook Terrace
Louisville KY, 40205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Lavine
209 Eden roc circle
Syracuse NY, 13214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debra Czech
14665 N 55Ave
Glendale AZ, 85306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ray Hill
810 Nevada Ave
San Jose CA, 95125

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerrall Hinds
P.O.Box 749
Fort Sumner NM, 88119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Stevens
30 Sherman
Coldwater MI, 49036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Miller
P.O. Box 2958
Oak Bluffs MA, 02557

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

I would like to add this issue is going to be scrutinized at every level and a lie will be exposed, most assuredly. Thank You.

Sincerely,

Mark Wickering
266 Aurora
Grand Rapids MI, 49507

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Robinson
25 Collinwood Road
Maplewood NJ, 07040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Cromeans
9931 Hyatt Resort Drive #1321
San Antonio TX, 78251

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nathan Tucker
75 Noe St
San Francisco CA, 94114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Balfour
930 S Kihei Rd Unit 204
Kihei HI, 96753

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

THANK YOU!

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dulcie Camp
855 Pennsylvania Street
Denver CO, 80203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pamela Hale
2310 Halleck AVE SW
Seattle WA, 98116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Pare
99 Sheridan St
Easton MA, 02356

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vickie Stimac
515 Walnut
Windsor CO, 80550

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

susan elsea
4059 clover ridge ct
toledo OH, 43623

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Prescott
5235 NE 36th AVE
Portland OR, 97211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel K West
358 E Gates St
Columbus OH, 43206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.

Sincerely,

Maralyn J. Devlin
3749 Quitman St.
Denver CO, 80212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Rairden
12735 Murphys Lane
Pearblossom CA, 93553

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wayne Kleem
2 Oak Knoll Ln
Bella Vista AR, 72715

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Clayton Yates
4161 vine grove rd
Vine grove KY, 40175

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pamela Parks
28631 NE 112th Way
Duvall WA, 98019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dale Lewis
4202 E 130th Dr
Thornton CO, 80241

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Rich
6470 Monitor St
Pittsburgh PA, 15217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

A. Salcius
327 West 21st Street
New York NY, 10011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Travis Tabbal
12762 S. 6000 W.
Herriman UT, 84096

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melissa Snell
3933 Callow rd
Lake Stevens WA, 98258

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry Rohrbach
P.O.Box 224
Bulverde TX, 78163

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

When I voted for Barack Obama, I never thought that he would put a pro-large-telecom-company person in charge of the FCC. I am saddened by Chairman Genachowski's covert support of AT&T and other mega-firms in the matter of Internet neutrality.

You have consistently supported true 'net neutrality.' When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Geoffrey Simon
7204
Raleigh NC, 27606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please say NO! to Chairman Genachowski's unsuitable plan.
Do not give the telecom industry even more power and money. They have plenty to make a wonderful profit for themselves.
The freedom and openness of the internet should not be controlled by a few greedy people with minds that can't see the problem in this.
Thank you

Sincerely,

kristen moore
5427 kirkwood place north
seattle WA, 98103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. The Internet is still new and more and more people are using it to find and share unbiased, unmediated information to make informed decisions about everything from Health, Politics and Money to Shopping, Entertainment and lifestyle. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jacob Bergman
9555 w 54th pl
Arvada CO, 80002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cliff Long
505 W. Hickpochee Ave., STE 200/125
LaBelle FL, 33935

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Stanley
31 Lamonte St
Manchester NH, 03104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Philip Jamtaas
3225 Malcolm Ave
Los Angeles CA, 90034

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

korry engvall 3714 oyster pl e
aberdeen WA, 98520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Gibson
10 Ellsworth Ave.
Cambridge MA, 02139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat McDonald
2348 Summerfield Road
Winter Park FL, 32792

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marcia Espeland
PO Box 628
Moore ID, 83255

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Irving Shapiro
5294 Vista del Sol
Cypress CA, 90630

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maria Cattell
5497 Gunbarrel Rd.
Longmont CO, 80503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Wood
7212 Westline Rd
Collinsville TX, 76233

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Justin Dick
4890 Forest Hill Rd
evergreen CO, 80439

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Geri deGruy
831 Good Hope Drive
Castle Rock CO, 80108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dave Lindblom
210 S 400 W
Mount Pleasant UT, 84647

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Ebersole
2898 Ridgewood Rd
Copley OH, 44333

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,
Please pay attention to all of us! I may not have enough time to write a whole letter but I have had enough time to read this and know that I agree. Thank you.
No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cathleen Gardner
9707 St. Andrews Dr.
fairfax VA, 22030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kenneth Fisher
9323 N. Government Way, PMB 237
Hayden ID, 83835

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Philip R. Shaner
1701 E. Brown St.
Santa Ana CA, 92701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gabriel I. Celidore
158 Farallones St.
San Francisco CA, 94112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Fendt
1600 Grand Ave
St. Paul MN, 55105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rick Patrick
PO Box 402
Nashville IN, 47448

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sally Springett
335 Wilmot Rd
Rochester NY, 14618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank and Janet Loudin
P. O. Box 1017
Eastsound WA, 98245

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Rutkowski
549 B Green Village Ct
El Paso TX, 79912

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Michael 12401 Railroad St.
Clio MI, 48420

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tammy Lynn Duill
2754 Berlin Station Road
Delaware OH, 43015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michelle Kenoyer
8511 Quarter Horse Dr.
Riverview FL, 33578

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia A Chelmecki
4N696 Council Ct
Elburn IL, 60119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Wheelock
785 King Road
Cambridge NY, 12816

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Graham
534 Piper Drive
Madison WI, 53711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stanley L. Swart
3315 Pickwick Dr. S.
Jacksonville FL, 32257

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Marinacci
2146 Orrington Ave
Evanston IL, 60201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Welch
138 Encino Blanco
San Antonio TX, 78232

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please come to our defense once more! You and no one else can stop this boondoggle for us. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ravenna Oakes
1530 Harper
Lawrence KS, 66044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kyle J Waller
12021 140th st ct e
Puyallup WA, 98374

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Moore
975 Logan Creek Rd
Boulder Creek CA, 95006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marj Conrad
8891 Hickory Dr
Kewaskum WI, 53040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

rodney
3322 Rowena Avenue Apt B
Los Angeles CA, 90027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane Starratt
2450 Emigrant Trail
Markleeville CA, 96120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deborah Hawkins
3869 SW Jerald Court
Portland OR, 97221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Bornstein
221 Hubbard St
Santa Cruz CA, 95060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Fleming
7718 S 167th street
Omaha NE, 68136

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jacqueline Craigo
1212 Gail Road
Pine River MN, 56474

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Werntz
648 Fig Tree Lane
Martinez CA, 94553

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Georgia Ruocco
3826 Sandgate Road
Sandgate VT, 05250

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Shelby
138 1/2 Dartmouth Place
Benicia CA, 94510

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Salazar
7846 Brompton Street
Springfield VA, 22152

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edwin Johnson
1992 Atkinson St
Detroit MI, 48206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Molly Liston
3101 Farmer Dr
Highland IN, 46322

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

deborah riverbend
507a camino sin nombre
santa fe NM, 87505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger Field
1811 Eastlake ave.
Seattle WA, 98101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Valerie Stevenson
POB 655
Sonoma CA, 95476

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ometh Layton
cra 5 N° 73-15
L.A. CA, 90001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cleo Pirtle
616 Van Wyck Rd
Bellingham WA, 98226

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hollie Slagle
17603 SE 22nd St
Vancouver WA, 98683

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edward DeFrancia
4348 Heather Ln
Moab UT, 84532

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beth Hoffman
7714 W. Wescott Dr.
Glendale AZ, 85308

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

johnny foam
1567 Silverwood Dr.
los Angeles CA, 90041

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Trimmer
27514 151st PL SE
Kent WA, 98042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

S T address
city CA, 95404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Celeste Winterberger
3901 Rim Court
Raleigh NC, 27616

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Gray
263 Hoke Ave.
Oceanside NY, 11572

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christina Valenti
3797 Brushy Ridge Way
Suwanee GA, 30024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Kacinel
5124 W Dahlia Dr.
Glendale AZ, 85304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Urdahl
13618 Laguna Vista
El Cajon CA, 92021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Valda Anderson
1918 Warton Ave. S. e.
Palm Bay. FL, 32909

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Watson-Graff
428 Grant Ave
Montewrey CA, 93940

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Smith
2385 Healdville Road
Belmont VT, 05730

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Meador
3525 Chuckwagon
Luling TX, 78648

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Auberon Harrison
40374 Waterman Rd
Homer AK, 99603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Wright
7305 Elmwood
Temperance MI, 48182

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Lawner
297 Sunnyside Lane
Kinderhook NY, 12106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edward Behan
8008 Bluebonnet Blvd.
Baton Rouge LA, 70810

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marie McDonough
5319 S Kimbark
Chicago IL, 60615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Drake Bleiweiss
15570 Canna Way
Westminster CA, 92683

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

trish nelson
917 wylde green rd.
iowa city IA, 52246

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janice Louise Levering
PO Box 1088
Pecos NM, 87552

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Krikourian
4100 Milano Ct
El Dorado Hills CA, 95762

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kurt Siegel
2109 Guilderland Ave
Schenectady NY, 12306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charlotte Zietlow
213 S, Bryan
Bloomington IN, 47408

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Glen Bevan
4256 Curtis Road
Bellingham WA, 98225

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Maxey
16762 NE 23rd Place
Bellevue WA, 98008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Towne
4534 Cherry St
Grand Forks ND, 58201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ben Dayton
215 E 11TH Ave Apt C9
Denver CO, 80203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Philip Burington
16005 Furnace St.
Organ NM, 80052

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael McMahon
2006 Wagon Gap Trail
Houston TX, 77090

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donna Tricarico
6 lancaster road
Island Park NY, 11558

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Elliott
3551 Gregory Ln
Lynchburg VA, 24503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James T Elder Jr
1018 Olympia Avenue
Olympia WA, 98506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Woods
109 Joost Avenue
San Francisco CA, 94131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Wuttken
685 Little Loop Dr.
Port Angeles WA, 98362

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patti Yeager
606 N. Tomahawk Island Drive
Portland OR, 97217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara J. Evarts
16-2139 Stardust Dr
Pahoa HI, 96778

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Betsy Pendergast
530 Roosevelt Street
Port Townsend WA, 98368

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lachelle Bowman
1632 e. everett
spokane WA, 99207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathy Jones
6531 S.E. Ivon St.
Portland OR, 97206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Chionis
939 Spruce Avenue
Marco Island FL, 34145

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Denise Miller
740 Unionville Road
Kennett Square PA, 19348

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Gottlieb
1004 Belmont Ave E-202
Seattle WA, 98102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Crawford
2200 Hamstrom Rd.
Portage IN, 46368

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Bybee
4327 N. Monticello Avenue
Chicago IL, 60618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nona Ross
822 Road 19
Sedan KS, 67361

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger Van Blair
3590 Front Street, apt e
San Diego CA, 92103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick S. Kelley
222 Jackson Avenue
Seward NE, 68434

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Grif Fariello
1700 North point #104
San Francisco CA, 94123

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sherrie Lynne
110 Ponderosa Circle
Golden CO, 80401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please stand by your principles--don't allow paid prioritization. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Jane Engh
PO Box 97
Garfield WA, 99130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marc Clark
22 1/2 Linwood
Eureka Springs AR, 72632

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's so-called net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. Please vote no on his proposal. The public wants meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stefan Seifried
4129 Co Hwy 35
Sidney Center NY, 13839

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mercedes Armillas
672 10th Street
Brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I'm joining CREDO's campaign.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deborah Gordon-Brown
10 Linden Lane
KINGSTON NY, 12401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

vickie Brodine
12245 9th Ave NW
Seattle WA, 98177

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edmund F. Piotrowski III
PO Box 10
Hopewell NJ, 08525

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Sails
39 Woodland Hills Rd
Moriarty NM, 87035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joel Bluming
PO Box 447
Jamaica VT, 05343

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doris Henderson
7601 Latham Avenue
Fort Washington MD, 20744

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joann Johnson
836 Orpington Ct
St Louis MO, 63131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert A. Morris
40 Groveland St.
Auburndale MA, 02466

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pandora Edmonston
4279 Grist Rd
Mariposa CA, 95338

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

C. John Hildebrand
1212 Powderhorn Ter. #304
Minneapolis MN, 55407

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

VANDUKER NANCY
2724 CLAREMONT DRIVE
BARTLESVILLE OK, 74006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Can you imagine an interstate highway system that relegated everyday travelers to two lane back roads, reserving the fast, efficient interstate highways for paying customers? Just like our free and open interstate system has helped drive our product driven economy of the past, the internet will drive our information economy of the now-and-future. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Pfister
9206 S. Ketcham Rd.
Bloomington IN, 47403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andy Pearson
1425 Angelo Dr
Golden Valley MN, 55422

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Pare
3070 Hoffman Hill Blvd.
DuPont WA, 98327

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jessica Craig
366 Camino de Estrella #201
san Clemente CA, 92672

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Hainey
Rt.4, Box 4695
Alton MO, 65606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jessica Hosler
1069 E Arabian Dr
Gilbert AZ, 85296

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

shante Powders
2469 nw 186 ave
pembroke pines FL, 33029

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sam Skinner, PhD
185 Starboard Point
Roswell GA, 30076

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Harris
1012 Clement St. #3
Green Bay WI, 54302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan Rogers
50 Foster Street
Arlington MA, 02474

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william wixon
200 St Elmo Rd
wallkill NY, 12589

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Pitino
4199-C Clares Street
Capitola CA, 95010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Larsen
18910 Bothell Everett Hwy J2
Bothell WA, 98012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ian Post
10685 W APISHAPA PASS
LITTLETON CO, 80127

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Phelon
42 Las Cascadas
Orinda CA, 94563

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anthony Backos
7413 Meldin Court
Naples FL, 34104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lori Del Negro
341 Washington Rd
Lake Forest IL, 60045

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael E Johnson
1792 SW Stringtown Rd none
Forest Grove OR, 97116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

As someone who has been involved in the computer industry his whole life, this issue is tremendously important to me, and to many others.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Horn
84 Elm Avenue
San Anselmo CA, 94960

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kelly Greene
2620 Park Road
Charlotte NC, 28209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no to Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

This issue is fundamentally about our right to communicate freely with each other across the globe. To cede that to commercial interests would have horrible consequences for mankind.

Sincerely,

Donal O'hare
638 Pickford Street
Madison WI, 53711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Meredith Armstrong
6534 30th Ave NE
Seattle WA, 98115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

I feel they need to worry more about jobs & less on internet. Also, this FAP (Fair Access Policy is for the birds when you are suppose to have unlimited access). Of course I don't live in California. I live on the East Coast in Virginia.

Sincerely,

Kimberly Mayer
2542 Pine Branch Rd
Mouth Of Wilson VA, 24363

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Mason
296 Bishop Dr
Weatherford TX, 76088

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Philips
1578 Oriole Ave
Sunnyvale CA, 94087

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amy Hoch
315 Broadway
NY NY, 10007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pennie Opal Plant
1412 Solano Ave
Albany CA, 94706

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kurt Forman
243 Faas Rd.
Palmyra NY, 14522

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Candelmo
2 Clover Ln
Vernon NJ, 07462

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Justin Robbins
7580 Stirling Rd Apt 120
Davie FL, 33024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

don barshay
705 S. 41st Street
Boulder CO, 80305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Theresa Kratzer
PO Box 84
Nederland CO, 80466

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marie Michael 1518 W 35th Street
Minneapolis MN, 55408

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tonya Southard
1023 Saint Helena
Santa Rosa CA, 95404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rev. Elder Marty Wright
23280 Republic Avenue
Detroit MI, 48237

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sybil diccion
214 east main st
morenci MI, 49256

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

T Moore
71 New York Ave. #3
Brooklyn NY, 11216

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for standing up for net neutrality. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

I would like to ask you to be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Obendorf
1340 Juanita Dr
Walnut Creek CA, 94595

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Celia Palomares
9131 corona st.
thornton CO, 80229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Earl Cryer
1445 Nolan Ct.
Chula Vista CA, 91911

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michaela Merlo
12792 Rattlesnake Rd
Grass Valley CA, 95945

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

luke d hauge
18442 bowman rd
cottonwood CA, 96022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

les williams
1060 oak grove rd #11
concord CA, 94518

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terrence Bennett
2525 Haddow Ave
Downers Grove IL, 60515

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I'm looking for someone to stand up for me and all the common people who want to use a public resource now threatened by corporate control.

Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No paid prioritization; no exemption for wireless broadband.

Yes for enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free and for voting no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phil Harrington
38701 SE River
Snoqualmie WA, 98065

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Salle Certo
4526 SW Concord St
Seattle WA, 98136

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barry Godusky
113 Gap Rd
Macungie PA, 18062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marian Baker Gierlach
8897 E Walnut Trl
Pearce AZ, 85625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Miller
1265 DOWNING ST APT 410
Denver CO, 80218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Natasha Noriega-Goodwin
2412 Lesparre Way
Costa Mesa CA, 92627

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William R. Gaither
372 John Newsome Rd
Littleton NC, 27850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Winship
1144 Wesley Ave.
Evanston IL, 60202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Kern
1823 W. Estes Ave.
Chicago IL, 60626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Davis
3145 Dean Court
Minneapolis MN, 55416

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erik A Dearly
1745 W 18th PL
Chicago IL, 60608

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William H. Pate
P.O. Box 1012
Gilmer TX, 75644

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Veasey
123 S Colonial Ave
Richmond VA, 23221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

leon laporte
8715 endless ocean way
columbia MD, 21045

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Brignac
2301 Commonwealth
Houston TX, 77006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The American people need a champion for real net neutrality at the FCC. To date, that has been you. So when the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, we're counting on you tol be the deciding factor in saying "NO."

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lois Gorrell
1505 Clearview Ln
Santa Ana CA, 92705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas Young
70 Hammond St. #1
Cambridge MA, 02138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Benton
4325 Via Vaquero Avenue
Las Vegas, NV, 89102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fred L. Mallery
1930 Graham Dr.
Eugene OR, 97405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Barry
801 East Monroe Ave.
Oakland MO, 63122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Burch
10204 San Giano Pl
Las Vegas NV, 89144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ella Hall
25 Soleil Ct
Sharpsburg GA, 30277

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andre J Mantha
657 Carlston Ave
Oakland CA, 94610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Bush
803 Cantrello
Waxahachie TX, 75165

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nick Hardy
1512 S Jefferson Avenue
Clearwater FL, 33756

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edward Craig
850 West Fifth Ave
Eugene OR, 97402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn Underberg
1727 Hayes Ave
Fort Dodge IA, 50501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

steve hanna
2401 milvia st
berkeley CA, 94704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Geraldine Spino
13115 S E 92nd Court Rd
Summerfield FL, 34491

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anatole Paine
340 E. Foothill Blvd.
Claremont CA, 91711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donna Holcomb
2370 W Hwy 89A Suite 11
Sedona AZ, 86336

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Anderson
640 Meadowbrook Road
Jackson MS, 39206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Serenity Scrivner
2114 S Mallul Dr #3
Anaheim CA, 92802

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roxanne Klein
175 Bulls Sawmill Rd
Honeoye Falls NY, 14472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

tom grasshoff
121 san marcos ave
san francisco CA, 94116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tanya Phillips
914 Cerrito St.
Albany CA, 94706

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I'm prefacing this fax with my own personal message so you know I am not some "bot" just pushing "send."

I have been following this issue closely and with much concern for several years. Now, more than ever, while the rest of Washington caves in to corporate control and unmitigated corruption, the internet is the last free and open source for those of us on low or fixed incomes to read the media sources WE prefer that aren't corporate owned. The FCC needs to protect us and the independent media sources; not hand us over to the telecom behemoths who will make it impossible for us to get the truth and make informed decisions in matters affecting us for generations to come.

Please don't let Chairman Genachowski sell out the rights of our free speech and free press to the Neocoms and telecoms.

We need heroes now more than ever. Today Bernie Sanders was a hero to the American people. I hope you will be one on the 21st, and save internet neutrality and protect us against the telecom conglomerates.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely, Brenda Bailey

Sincerely,

brenda bailey
po box 656
Eastsound WA, 98245

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randy Morrow
1309 S. Pershing
Wichita KS, 67218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elaine Bielefeld
P.O. Box 351
Lowell IN, 46356

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sherry Lomax
18807 Powahatan Ct W
Independence MO, 64056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peggy R. Rogers
700 Port St. #4111
Easton MD, 21601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Rittenhouse
1404 Johnson Avenue
Point Pleasant NJ, 08742

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please do what's right one and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Please include this message as part of a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people, like me, reflecting America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.

Sincerely,

Rita Pihra-Majurinen
218 Wakeman Place
Brooklyn NY, 11220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ramon Sender
3922 23 Street
San Francisco CA, 94114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amber Knight
87 Kawailani Circle
Kihei HI, 96753

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael von Sacher-Masoch
PO Box 5273
Everett WA, 98206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mannfried Funk
6706 Sycamore
Seattle WA, 98117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deborah Rogers
PO Box2
El Prado NM, 87529

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Meghan MacKenzie
133 Peterborough St Apt 29A
Boston MA, 02215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no to Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy Turner
3610 Hall Rd.
Corning CA, 96021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Celeste Hotaling-Lyons
220 Grove Street
Melrose MA, 02176

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Stamps
12
New Paltz NY, 12561

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Walker
531 N Laurel St
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Martz
12517 Jeffries Rd.
Milan OH, 44846

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stu Hackel
38 Maplewood Ave.
Dobbs Ferry NY, 10522

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. Please allow the average citizen to win a battle against corporate interests once in a while. If history is any indicator, there will be numerous opportunities for corporate America to take advantage of us "little people". Please vote for our interest just this once.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harold McClendon
5117 Marburn Ave
Los Angeles CA, 90043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara W. Baker
1030 SW Jefferson, #543
Portland OR, 97201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Hinds
842 Marilyn Dr
Philomath OR, 97370

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Liz Cohen
3300 So. Sepulveda Blvd.
Los Angeles CA, 90034

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Reed
390 Taylor St.
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ryan Ketley
316 Himrod St
Brooklyn NY, 11237

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
Voting no will prevent deterioration of surfing ability on the net.

Sincerely,

Robert Howland
176 Mountain Bluff Trl
Hendersonville NC, 28792

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David W. Linegang
1042 Wedgecreek Pl
centerville OH, 45458

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patsy Bares
P. O. Box 249 (US Postal Service)
Saluda NC, 28773

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Holford
18855 SW Alderwood drive
Aloha OR, 97006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john forrest
4117 seton circle
palm harbor FL, 34683

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cathryn Baldner
110 Park St.
Spillville IA, 52168

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Mckinney
640 Connecticut St
San Francisco CA, 94107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Bullock
2023 Date St. Apt. 205
Honolulu HI, 96826

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Annika Ladewig
1146 Ash St. Unit F
Arroyo Grande CA, 93420

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane Schreiber
9610 Hwy 64
Blanco NM, 87412

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Smith
8014 Glen Loch Drive
Houstyon TX, 77061

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frieda Marcus
57 Perkins Rd.
Bethany CT, 06524

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Melby
7685 Carnelian Lane
Eden Prairie MN, 55346

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandra Luss
5802 Lincoln Road
Newark NY, 14513

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ross Patterson
12525 Highway 9
Boulder Creek CA, 95006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Stay strong and only accept real net neutrality.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joshua Adkison
740 E Walnut St
Springfield MO, 65806

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elinor Poll Ramos
P.O. Box 3089
Kodiak AK, 99615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melinda Burgess
10156 Wisner Ave.
Mission Hills CA, 91345

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

carla cowgill
5460 jennings rd
haines city FL, 33844

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronald Nagata
PO Box 635
Sanger CA, 93657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mr. Leslie Juan Rivera
17616 S.E. 22nd Way
Vancouver WA, 98683

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Barrington
1517 Fiesta Lane
San Jose CA, 95126

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sue Hanlin
P O Box 358
Amherst OH, 44001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane Levy
545 Pierce St #3205
Albany CA, 94706

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kim meglen downs drive
minden NV, 89423

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

margaret scripp
3100 syler rd
varysburg NY, 14167

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Archer
8408 Island Ct
Fort Worth TX, 76137

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roland Vollmann
1533 Princeton Street, Unit 2
Santa Monica CA, 90404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James G Baron
20822 79th Drive NE
Arlington WA, 98223

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eldon Wedlock
4525 Cove Circle, Apt. 308
St. Petersburg FL, 33708

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrea Holmes
9463 n st louis ave
portland OR, 97203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Kindland
PO Box 654
Cannon Beach OR, 97110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Danny Clark
1063 monfredo drive
Pittsburg CA, 94565

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Robbins
16231 Jarvis St NW
Elk River MN, 55330

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger Ruth
3200 Inglewood Ave S; #423
Minneapolis MN, 55416

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lafe Bagley
6450 N. Bell Ave. #1
Chicago IL, 60645

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patti Sheaffer
2607 Rockefeller Lane
Redondo Beach CA, 90278

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerry Banks
1108 Ashbury Dr
Decatur GA, 30030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alice Jean Burnette
282 Columbus Avenue, #34
Boston MA, 02116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Penland
P.O. Box 990043
Redding CA, 96099

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Crosby
5206 Lundy Dr APT 101
Raleigh NC, 27606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Tice
515 West 21 Street
Vancouver WA, 98660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Flewelling
po box 744
redmond OR, 97756

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JANICE FREY
319 west 27th street
Northampton PA, 18067

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

susanne kepford
1092 Simmons Ln
Novato CA, 94945

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

anthony casazza
818 north street
Jackson NJ, 08527

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Shields
800 Dolan Rd Spc 2
Moss Landing CA, 95039

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Ratzlaff
645 Carr Ave
Santa Rosa CA, 95404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lara Wright, MD
palen@speakeasy.net
Berkeley CA, 94706

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Lonstein
9861 Deerbrook Dr
Chanhassen MN, 55317

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

katie fite
1006 n 5th
Boise ID, 83702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeanne
6791 Bonnie Drive
Huntington Beach CA, 92647

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Bragg
14 Intervale Avenue
Burlington VT, 05401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David H. Williams
558 Joost Avenue
SanFrancisco CA, 94127

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mykel Bohannon
429 E 14th Ave. #216
Denver CO, 80203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Malina
196 Little Rest Road
Kingston RI, 02881

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John DuBois
PO Box 1187
Renton WA, 98057

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard A. Houghton
4127 Mallard Dr.
Safety Harbor FL, 34695

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gwen Sarandrea
PO Box 5725
Bellingham WA, 98227

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Toni Moore
400 N. Oakland Ave. #210
Pasadena CA, 91101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harriet Shalat
102-42 62 Dr.
Forest Hills NY, 11375

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Lay
34151 Hood Canal Dr NE
Kingston WA, 98346

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Allen Eickstaedt
120 Spartan Drive
Columbia SC, 29212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Georgia Lynn
Torrey Pine
Bakersfield CA, 93308

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Josh Kirn
30 School St
Tilton NH, 03276

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kate Rubbelke
1194 Glenmeade Drive, Apt E
St Louis MO, 63043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leigh Ann Atwood
927 S 12th St
Chickasha OK, 73018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janice Ninomiya
31 Park Lane
Woodbridge CT, 06525

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, I implore you.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no to Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ian Laughlin
568 State Route 214
Chichester NY, 12416

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Epstein
1931 4th St
Bremerton WA, 98337

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leila Dethlefsen
1618 So. Blair St.
SLC UT, 84115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

maria gavriel
190th street
fresh meadows NY, 11365

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Sirois
870 N. Main Street
Brewer ME, 04412

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beverly Doty
720 NW 96th St.
Vancouver WA, 98665

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eddie Havoc
18 Ronan Rd.
Glen Cove NY, 11542

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Victoria Jensen
2310 6th St. #3
Santa Monica CA, 90405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jolynn Doerr
Hamilton
Chicago IL, 60645

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan Thorne 2328 W Pacific Ave
spokane WA, 99201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

dorothy kotansky
1611 spruce st.
bloomsburg PA, 17815

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Peden
12272 Jerri Drive
Glen Ellen CA, 95442

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Larson
49 Mariner St
Buffalo NY, 14201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

phil mcgrath
1012 ventura blvd
camarillo CA, 93010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Loren Stolley
24620 Morgan V. Rd
Lower Lake CA, 95457

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bonnie Burkart
145 Town Center #354
Corte Madera CA, 94925

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ryan Bodanyi
5026 21st St NE
Seattle WA, 98105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Sergeant
1055 Summerwood Court
San Jose CA, 95132

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Owen Thompson
2412 1/2 10th St.
Berkeley CA, 94710

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

DOROTHEA LAVINE
609 YATES PL
ZEBULON NC, 27597

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

V Lee fuqua
PO Box 6069
Ocean View HI, 96737

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amel Yarid
333 Church Street
Lewisburg WV, 24901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robin Green
PO Box 283
Port Gamble WA, 98364

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Todd Sargent
4035 SE Reedway St
Portland OR, 97202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julianne Ramaker
1375 NE Elk Court
Bend OR, 97701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vernon Brechin
255 S Rengstorff Ave
Mountain View CA, 94040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Craig
Erie Rd
Derby NY, 14047

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Slawomir Kozlowski
22 Prescott Street
Edison NJ, 08817

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aggie Varady
230 Hillside Ave
Kentfield CA, 94904

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrea Speed
1618 154th St. E.
Tacoma WA, 98445

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michele Freemon
3707 Manchaca Rd
Austin TX, 78704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

frank dimino
20 prince st
rochester NY, 14607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Raul Lovett
1 Winsor Dr.
Barrington RI, 02806

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jacqueline beeson
1900 w. silverlake rd.
blue hill NE, 68930

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Allen Royer
1165 Garfield Av
San Jose CA, 95125

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerome Roth
1912 S. River Dr.
Tempe AZ, 85281

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Curtiss
4705 Spine Road, #A
Boulder CO, 80301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

joseph k humphrey
po box 5
sun valley ID, 83353

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Polly Tarpley
224585 Waghorn Rd NW
Poulsbo WA, 98370

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john martinez
323 n. soto st.
los angeles CA, 90033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jarita Konwinski
455 W. Elmira Apt A
Elmira NY, 14901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charlotte Forney
901 sw king avenue
Portland OR, 97205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nadia Woodcock
1291 Deer Creek Drive
Ferndale WA, 98248

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. Thank you for all you have done.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Callard
5167 bloss dr
swartz Creek8473 MI, 48473

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Toth
5027 U.S. Highway 50
Salem IL, 62881

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Hammel
1149 Grand Teton Dr.
Pacifica CA, 94044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dr. Barnett C. Levin
527-A Moraga Street
San Francisco CA, 94122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nick Nick
1030 SW Jefferson Street Apt #520
Portland OR, 97201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Russ Hopfenberg
105 Autumn Drive
Chapel Hill NC, 27516

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Cobb
712 62nd st
Oakland CA, 94609

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Artineh Havan
125 Greenpoint Avenue, C-7
Brooklyn NY, 11222

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Fleisher
406 N. Harvey
Oak park IL, 60302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marilyn E Harvey
117 Fancher Ct. #15
Los Gatos CA, 95030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ralph Williams
4215 Upham Road
Kettering OH, 45429

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

BENNIE WOODARD
208 E LAKE HOWARD DR
WINTER HAVEN FL, 33881

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Norris
510 W Belmont Ave
Chicago IL, 60657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mr.roberto Cartano
31077 calle san diego
san juan capistrano CA, 92675

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pamela Sheridan
112 West Grant Street
Woodstown NJ, 08098

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please stand up for those of us who use the internet every day, for research, for teaching, for furthering my students knowledge. Please, please, please continue standing up for us.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Hirsch
369 Calle Del Monte
Sonoma CA, 95476

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please stand up to corporate America and keep the Internet neutral. Don't allow the big carriers to control access and content. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no to Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Please help to protect the average American's rights and reduce the control of the big carriers as they continue to line their pockets. Take a firm stand on real net neutrality.

Sincerely,

Randy Orwin
10830 Hampton Ave NW
Silverdale WA, 98383

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Heidt
PO Box 3863
Sedona AZ, 86340

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Hicks
630 Greenglen Ln
Palm Harbor FL, 34684

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Where there's money to be made, there will be those out to get it...any way they can.
Say no now. The first breach in internet freedom, will be the opening in the dike.
What a shame that would be. Be a hero, Commissioner Copps. Your kids will thank you!

Sincerely,

Shirley Johnson
2666 Birch Tree Ln.
Santa Clara CA, 95051

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara A. Moser
3 High Wood Road
Staatsburg NY, 12580

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Crotty Guthrie
40 Camino Alto Hcc 9B
Mill Valley CA, 94941

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I'm counting on you to CHAMPION TRUE NET NEUTRALITY. Our country needs a neutral net just like it needed the interstate highway system, and it stands to benefit from keeping the net neutral, level and open for all American businesses and citizens.
No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. VOTE NO ON CHAIRMAN GENACHOWSKI'S FAKE NET NEUTRALITY PLAN.

NO acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; nor exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wired line; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote AGAINST Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Poulakos
1183 Willivee Drive
Decatur GA, 30033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy Ward
3231 W. Boone Ave., #23
Spokane WA, 99201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vicki Giella
847 Coppermine Road
Monroe NH, 03771

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeannette Welling
2450 Pleasant Way Unit G
Thousand Oaks CA, 91362

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero—Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan. Protect something which is very precious to billions of people.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peggy Kaplan
625 Walden Cir Apt 101
Boulder CO, 80305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Bostrom
7 Ashland Ct.
Madison WI, 53705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ernest Cheely
P.O. Box 544
Sonora TX, 76950

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dana Walker
1310 8th Ave SE
Olympia WA, 98501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeanne A. Wingate
820 Morning Glory Lane
Bedford TX, 76021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Tack
304 Noyes Street
Fairbanks AK, 99701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James W. Davis
5115 NW Coyner Avenue
Redmond OR, 97756

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Jones
8252 W. Sapphire Moon Way
Tucson AZ, 85743

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

chandler sobel-sorenson
2761 w. anklam rd.
tucson AZ, 85745

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brad Harris
1000 Union St Apt 312
Seattle WA, 98101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vladimir Khait
1038 Cole Street
San Francisco CA, 94117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william dotson
po box 241106
anchorage AK, 99524

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lorna Hovland
3981 Bellwood Dr
Camino CA, 95709

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan Leonard
526 Glencoe ST NE
Fridley MN, 55432

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lois White
1299 Williams Dr
Shrub Oak NY, 10588

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Beckman
15006 Komedal Rd. NE
Bainbridge Island WA, 98110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

linda van der Merwe
1521 2nd Ave,
Seattle WA, 98101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Walker
PO Box 2479
Nevada City CA, 95959

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Saundra Crowell
44 Nowick Lane
Smithtown NY, 11787

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charlea Baker
343 River Street
Chester VT, 05143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Olson
6472 Holstein Way
Sacramento CA, 95831

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Crystal Griffin
5302 Springview Ct
Burlington NC, 27215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Will Stephens
6611 Woodman Ave
Van Nuys CA, 91401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Libby Stortz
Box 6198
Sitka AK, 99835

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fredric Myers
637 West 5th Avenue
Apache Junction Ar, 85120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa "Taj" McCellon
4512 3rd St NW
Albuquerque NM, 87107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gerald Bertholl
17363 Hwy 105
Melville LA, 71353

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul McCarthy
6217 S. Hill St.
Littleton CO, 80120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Naomi Garvey
2L Phillip Rd
Derry NH, 03038

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

henry hearns
2500 36th Avenue N
Birmingham AL, 35207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne La Lopa
PO Box 91604
Albuquerque NM, 87199

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Yarnell
5722 Hideaway Dr
Chapel Hill NC, 27516

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jacqueline Gambino
98 Huntley Road
Westford VT, 05494

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

maureen R mcguire
326 4th st
ruidoso NM, 88345

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bridgid Persephone Newman-Henson
6321 Corgiat Dr. S. Suite B
Seattle WA, 98108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Newton
901 E Van Buren St. Apt. 2039
Phoenix AZ, 85006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Israel Valdez
P O Box 59386
San Jose CA, 95159

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frederica Helmiere
5028 45th Ave. S
Seattle WA, 98118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Fertig
3718 Timberline Drive
Canandaigua NY, 14424

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathy Radford
29790 Marine View Dr SW
Federal Way WA, 98023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Conway
6441 N Camino Libby
Tucson AZ, 85718

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen C. Burnett
19 Carriage Road
Clifton Park NY, 12065

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Dorman
31 W. North St., Rear
Bethlehem PA, 18018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Schor
10320 Westlake Dr., Apt. 305
Bethesda MD, 20817

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Col. Richard A. Halapin, USAF, Ret.
1738 Guyton Rd
Allison Park PA, 15101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Colleen McDonald
12819-1/2 Bloomfield St
Studio City CA, 91604

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan L D Shamblin
1230 Kinglet Drive
Morganton NC, 28655

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Corey Valenzuela
1523 S 42nd St.
San Diego CA, 92113

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Reed Baessler
2197 Weston Pl SW
Rochester MN, 55902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

RP Foster
13068 Sparta Dr
Fishers IN, 46038

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Hayes
1529 9th ave
San Francisco CA, 94122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Brazil
3178 Fowler Road
San Jose CA, 95135

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Samuel Gray
4868 Fallon Pl
Dallas TX, 75227

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Least we loose everything!

Sincerely,

Stephen F. Kislock III
1800-5th Ave.
Beaver Falls PA, 15010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Wanninger
1714 Melrose St
Rockford IL, 61103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beth Wallace
2126 Clinch Valley Rd
Treadway TN, 37881

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger Corpolongo
7819 Braile St.
Detroit MI, 48228

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marcy Downing 830 Quince Ave., #45
Santa Clara CA, 95051

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jordan Lipka
63-33 98th Place, #6C
Rego Park NY, 11374

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Cox
230 Castro St. #6
San Francisco CA, 94114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Iris Chynoweth
4954 Ponderosa Way
Midpines CA, 95345

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adrian Smith
110 Jones St
Moncure NC, 27559

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Abraham
5995 Springhill Drive
Greenbelt MD, 20770

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Coulter
1159 Pine Grove Rd.
Stanley VA, 22851

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Amick
23360 South Viola Welch Road
Beavercreek OR, 97004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Chatman
7048 US Hwy 441 N
Broxton GA, 31519

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dipal Gandhi
2005 Continental Ave
Hayward CA, 94545

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerome Sobieraj
12 Kenilworth Street
Newton MA, 02458

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christina J. Gallo
95 Carolina Shores Drive
Carolina Shores NC, 28467

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jim ridlon Jr
2771 co rd 16
georgetown NY, 13072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Allan Newlands
5 Buckeye
Portola alley CA, 94028

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patt Doyle
185983 Highway 101
Forks WA, 98331

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kelley Scanlon
281 Norwood Avenue
Syracuse NY, 13206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Allen Moore
9990 Hambelton Rd.
Livonia MI, 48150

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Foor
1202 Washington St.
keithsburg IL, 61442

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kai Petersen
300 Enterprise Drive
Rohnert Park CA, 94928

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Ames
PO Box 987
Castroville CA, 95012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Mahon
209 Armentieres Rd
Forestville CA, 95436

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

andrew spathis
11806 avon way #401
Los Angeles CA, 90066

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Morgan Stevens
811 S. Blaine St.
Moscow ID, 83843

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Welch
2195 County Line Rd.
Crystal Springs MS, 39059

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I am just an Internet user and I don't want to lose the open access users now have. I don't want corporate America deciding who I can buy things from, or who can provide entertainment, or anything else like that. I want the ability to choose and we need REAL net neutrality for that. We do not need faux neutrality.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Reich
1916 Deere Ln
GLENDALE HTS IL, 60139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gina Wahl
7603 Winkler Rd.
Richmond VA, 23294

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joel Katz
20 Lincoln Street
Stoneham MA, 02180

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nell Green Nylen
2708 Webster St., Apt. 4
Berkeley CA, 94705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jill Blaisdell
5152 Earl Dr.
La Canada CA, 91011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shaun Matthies
241 Angus Ave East
San Bruno CA, 94066

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jill Blaisdell
5152 Earl Dr.
La Canada Flintridge, CA, 91011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary E.Carian
2010 N 53 ST
MILWAUKEE WI, 53208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Internet neutrality is our last best hope for democracy. The major media already censor the news and occasionally engage in disinformation campaigns. It's only on the Internet that citizens are free to seek, and express, a diversity of opinions. Real free speech! I ask you to keep this free channel of communication open to ALL voices. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Alexis McKenna
P.O. Box 811
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kelly Jacobs
300 Caldecott Lane
Oakland CA, 94618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Warren Hageman
7944 Pebble Beach Dr. #107
Citrus Heights CA, 95610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chuck Stout
2500 S. Holly St.
Denver CO, 80222

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger Easson
1373 Snow Hill Lane
St George UT, 84770

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Grashoff
52755 Garfield Road
Wakeman OH, 44889

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Warren
P.O. box 1784
Brentwood CA, 94513

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I hear that no one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you ... and that when the time comes to vote on Chairman Genachowski's FAKE net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please be a hero for a free and open Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor should move forward without reclassifying broadband to providie the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful and enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Vicki Olds
534 6th Avenue
San Francisco CA, 94118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

True net neutrality is the ONLY net neutrality. I fervently hope you will stand up for what is right and not for what favours powerful corporate interests.

Sincerely,

Gabrielle Leider
7022 Belhaven Dr
Boise ID, 83714

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

As a firm supporter of internet neutrality I urge you to oppose Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan. Comcast, AT&T and other giant companies already have too much communication control. Please speak for us consumers and users of the net. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Matthews
2450 Central Ave
Alameda CA, 94501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Yonker
103 S. Main St.
Wayland MI, 49348

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daveretta Heintz
7030 Lewis Ave
Tahoma CA, 96142

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Onsgard
P.O. Box 287
Northfield MN, 55057

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Manny Martinez
PO Box 562
Bisbee AZ, 85603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Denis Nosbisch
4751 Raffon Drive SE
Salem OR, 97317

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Zafis
2911 Cheshire Rd
Wilmington DE, 19810

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alex Brown
432 Johnson Road
East Montpelier VT, 05651

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Buchmeier
625 Windemere Drive
Plymouth MN, 55441

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john martinez
323 n. soto st.
los angeles CA, 90033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Theresa Shiels
178 El Granada Blvd.
El Granada CA, 94018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ruth valdez
po box 2142
aptos CA, 95001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andy Newell
301 Mossy Oak Dr
Cranberry PA, 16066

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

F. Carlene Reuscher
226 Poinsettia Ave.
Corona del Mar CA, 92625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bridgette Marshall
454 Monroe Ave NE #104
Renton WA, 98056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Day-Lasiewski, RN
1548 Keoncrest Drive
Berkeley CA, 94702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry Stick
PO Box 60453
St. Petersburg FL, 33784

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phyllis L. Allison
3673 North Mio Road
Rose City MI, 48654

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Wolfe
28701 6th Pl S #201
Des Moines WA, 98198

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Jean Maurer
1835 Indiana Street
Gridley CA, 95948

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat Washington
6855 Pentland Way
Fort Myers FL, 33966

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Spring
3808 4th St NW
Washington DC, 20011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michele van riper
78889 Friend Rd
Dufur OR, 97021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Buffington
164 Mosier Dr
Chesterton IN, 46304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,
Please vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's plan.

Do not allow permit paid prioritization; do not exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; insist on reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate for meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Balsarene
421 10th St
West Palm Beach FL, 33401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Van Buskirk
17283 Kingfisher Dr.
Bend OR, 97707

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Montalbano
1252 Haskell St
Berkeley CA, 94702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Russell Pierce
18430 97th Ave E
Puyallup WA, 98375

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

daniel graham
1111 willis st
brownwood TX, 76801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lorene france
7602 kershaw st.
pensacola FL, 32534

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rajesh Nair
111 Washington Street, Unit 3011
Orlando FL, 32801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Bender
38755 Reed Rd.
Nehalem OR, 97131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Ehrisman
PO Box 116
Gasquet CA, 95543

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Astra Coyle
180 Chimney Ridge
Burnsville NC, 28714

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melissa Arnett
PO Box 643
Opp AL, 36467

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marc Laverdiere
28 Wethersfield Rd.
Bellingham MA, 02019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eddie L Stowe
424 W. Galena.
Freeport` IL, 61032

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matt Alban
1155 Wilmington Ct
Newark OH, 43055

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

G. Marx
11426 Segrell Way
Culver City CA, 90230

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jana Niernberger Muhar
672 Piezzi Rd.
Santa Rosa CA, 95401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Peter
2184 Pellam Blvd
Port Charlotte FL, 33948

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mina ingersoll
5522 W. Bald Eagle Blvd.
white bear lake MN, 55110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

susan ahlschwede
3726 Wesley Loop NW
Olympia WA, 98502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Greenburg
645 N Broadway Apt 16
Hastings-on-Hudson, NY, 10706

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sean Cook
1911 Truman St. NE
Albuquerque NM, 87110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Bonvini
1687 Cross Highway
Fairfield CT, 06824

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

claudia ciucci
Box 163
salisbury mills NY, 12577

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard S. Riggs
143 Cedar Grove Rd
Somerville NJ, 08876

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dale Newfield
4131 N Stratford Rd. NE
Atlanta GA, 30342

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Williams
1955 Commonwealth Ave. #5
Boston MA, 02135

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hai Phi 973 Connie Dr.
Campbell CA, 95008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin O'Toole
6109 Estuary Court
Fort Collins CO, 80528

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

richel khoury
2505 Congress st
san diego CA, 92110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ike Waller
7119 Dillon Drive
Magnolia TX, 77354

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Scott Lyons
9227 S. Heather Dr.
Tempe AZ, 85284

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please continue to be the biggest champion for real net neutrality at the FCC. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Virginia Williams
719 Pierino Ave.
Sunnyvale CA, 94086

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Thompson
210 Old Harbor Rd
Vinalhaven ME, 04863

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles McCarthy
441 Greenacres Dr.
Crawfordsville IN, 47933

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Warner
1605 Arrowhead Dr
Oakland CA, 94611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeanne Kolbuss
4392 Matich Dr
Reno NV, 89502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David G Plummer
1718 W Colter St #125
Phoenix AZ, 85015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kenneth P. Howard
1007 W. Main St
Centralia WA, 98531

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Stephens
1830 23rd St NE
Salem OR, 97301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kelli Baker
511 Malden Ave E
Seattle WA, 98112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Whitney
14701 Dayton Ave N #114
Shoreline WA, 98133

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sophia Vassilakidis
407 Avondale
Houston TX, 77006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Ryan
5622 Irongate Dr
Madison WI, 53716

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Caroline Metzler
242 Holland Thompson Dr
Carbondale CO, 81623

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat Dietch
21161 Lahore Rd
Orange VA, 22960

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stewart Ogilvie
1210 Commercial Street
Sycamore IL, 60178

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wallace Bray
261 Hibiscus Drive
Miami Springs FL, 33166

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Samy El-Sawah
3100 Chino Hills Pkwy Unit 1425
Chino Hills CA, 91709

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harlan Hill
416 Sth 6th St
Sterling KS, 67579

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Plyler
3 Spring Cove Terrace
Asheville NC, 28804

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Renee Harper
577 Kenilworth Ave
San Leandro CA, 94577

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

R Dehner
165 Leslie Drive
San Carlos CA, 94070

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Curtis
1762 E. 3rd street, #15
Long Beach CA, 90802

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Gentile
10 Simonson Ln
Hillsborough NJ, 08844

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

I'm adding my voice to implore you to please vote no. Please do not cave to the "big interests" like so many of Obama's appoitmenst have. (I wholeheartedly voted for Obama but am very disappointed with some of his appoitments.) You clearly are on the right track - please don't get derailed. All of the progressive advances we had hoped to make under Obama have fallen horribly short. Please don't let another issue bite the dust.

Sincerely,

Kathy Ann Kron
220 Cardenas NE
ALbuquerque NM, 87108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kat White
469 Chamberlain ln
Salem VA, 24153

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donna Hanson
1555 NW Leland St
Pullman WA, 99163

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha White
3950 N Lake Shore Dr Apt 1203
Chicago IL, 60613

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eva K. Millette Coombs
1392 Country Club Drive
Camano Island WA, 98282

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lindsay Oakes
3149 Broadway #9
New York NY, 10027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Renee Blostein
1127 N. Austin St.
Denton TX, 76201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Walls
1111 Kodi Cir
Fairfield IA, 52556

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cindi Peery
6904 N 16th ST #108
Omaha NE, 68112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Billy Kolbuss
4392 Matich Dr
Reno NV, 89502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Valle Tiberti
2315 2nd Ave
Sacramento CA, 95818

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Escamilla
575 Monaco
Denver CO, 80220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phillip Notz
1303 Vinson St
Fort Collins CO, 80526

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melanie Lowe
423 S PITT ST
CARLISLE PA, 17013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Kelly
1413 E Franzen Ave
Santa Ana CA, 92705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Protect consumers and citizens with REAL a net neutrality proposal. Please vote no on Genachowski's proposal!

And I stand behind Credo's statement that:
"No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you; and that "your vote will be the deciding one" on Genachowski's plan.

Specifically, "No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21."

Sincerely,

Jennifer Hydrick
1808 14th Ave S
Seattle WA, 98144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lisa heffernan thames newport RI, 02840

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Hidinger
110 Union St. Apt. 13
Schenectady NY, 12305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kay Fullmer
331 Ponce de Leon Place
Decatur GA, 30030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sally Strickland
P.O. Box 37 (no mail delivery at street)
pAULDEN AZ, 86334

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sheldon Krevit
6 Dovela Road
Santa Fe NM, 87508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

george mills
112 south st
hbg PA, 17101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Lehman
43 Coyote Mountain Rd.
Santa Fe NM, 87505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

As an advocate of net neutrality you know how important it is.

But just labeling something "net neutrality" does not make it so.

That's why, when the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, I hope that you'll vote no.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

I believe the public real net neutrality, not just something with the label.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Nunes
2719 184th Street
Redondo Beach CA, 90278

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chuck Ambrus
3608 View st
Fort Worth TX, 76103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Bonawitz
5884 North Maximus Way
Meridian ID, 83646

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Max White
9275 SW Westhaven Dr.
Portland OR, 97225

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

We are counting on you.

Sincerely,

Harry Corsover
3545 Golden Spur Loop
Castle Rock CO, 80108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Hayes
208 Cottonpatch way
El Cajon CA, 92020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mona Yoes
2500 Johnson Ave.
Riverdale NY, 10463

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cindy lang
12335 Lacey Drive
New Port Richey FL, 34654

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margo Morado
5121 San Luis Place NW
Albuquerque NM, 87107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janette Matthews
2623 Brighton Ave.
Kansas City MO, 64127

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Burton Weinstein
2131 Saint Clair Avenue
Simi Valley CA, 93063

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debra Todd
8220 Villaview Dr.
Citrus Heights CA, 95621

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leslie Kooy
7466 Corliss Ave N
Seattle WA, 98103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

S Byrum
128 Twin Oaks Circle
Chula Vista CA, 91910

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Michael Kolego
2457 freetown Drive
Reston VA, 20191

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Burian
6171 Caminito Baeza
San Diego CA, 92122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Ringler
1747 Washington Street
Denver CO, 80203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Catherine Pringle
6628 Loch Hill Rd.
Baltimore MD, 21239

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michel Mennesson
175 Arch Bridge Road
Bethlehem CT, 06751

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Al Arntson
2041 Wickshire Ave.
Hacienda Heights CA, 91745

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bart Tennant
1207W. Braddock St.
Tampa FL, 33603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melissa Epple
20 Village Lane
Santa Fe NM, 87505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Kolesar
2735 Skyline Drive
Westminster CO, 80030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

moses goldstein
411 lower grassy branch road
asheville NC, 28805

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mark caso
1410 ashley drive
round rock TX, 78665

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Stogdill
404 S. Hazel
Glenwood IA, 51534

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Wittke
PO Box 373742
Decatur GA, 30037

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katya Lobanova
1631 Belmont Ave #306
Seattle WA, 98122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Browder
22 Irving Ave
Providence RI, 02906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marylin R Haley
16300 NE Leander Dr
Sherwood OR, 97140

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Wendlowsky-Lloyd
8437 Eaton Street
Arvada CO, 80003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marianna Sokol
1317 Elk Grove Road
Benton PA, 17814

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Batchelder
6650 E. Sopris Creek Rd
Snowmass CO, 81654

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jackie McNeill
2595 Taylor Ranch Rd
Durango CO, 81301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Carter
394 high Ridge Drive
Grand Junction CO, 81503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Dumont
26437 S. Lakemont Dr.
Sun Lakes AZ, 85248

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Wendland
1908 W. Newport Ave.
Chicago IL, 60657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

janet maker
925 malcolm av
los angeles CA, 90024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

THOMAS ADAMS
PO BOX 681
SUN PRAIRIE WI, 53590

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

This is an opportunity to take a stand for the people who use the internet. Don't let Big Business discriminate against us just to earn even more money.

Please, be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan!

Thank you!

Sincerely,

Amanda Ray
1303 March Drive
Austin TX, 78753

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carl Saalfeld
PO Box 504
Koloa HI, 96756

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terrell Kennet
2050 S. Oneida St., #118
Denver CO, 80224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy Chun
3616 Cranbrook Way
Concord CA, 94520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kerry Amburgy-Dickson
501 North Locke Street
Nappanee IN, 46550

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Trent
103 Moya Road
Santa Fe NM, 87508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Smith
427 Mautucket Rd
Wakefield RI, 02879

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Jones
33937 NE Owl Pl
Corvallis OR, 97333

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Stevenson
1134 Shepard Lane
Farmington UT, 84025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eli Patsis
70 EDELWEISS
MT AIRY GA, 30563

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Heydenburg
654 Grand V iew Drive
Grand Junction CO, 81506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ricardo U.
Berg
Los Angeles CA, 90029

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shaugn Kalnaraups
7815 Forest
Dexter MI, 48130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Roos
1550 Puritan Street
Deltona FL, 32725

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karl Hunt
2425 Royal Fern Trl
Chattanooga TN, 37421

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jackie hafey
6731 delco ave
Winnetka CA, 91306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Wask
XXXX
Aurora IL, 60505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Pierce
4528 Xerxes Ave S
Minneapolis MN, 55410

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laine Sanderson
65 Verde Vly Schl Rd Apt D12
Sedona AZ, 86351

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Crosetto
4349 130th Place SE
Bellevue WA, 98006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Chritopher Hutchison
1760 High St. SE
Salem OR, 97302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melanie Dunn
14362 N Frank lloyd Wright Blvd
Scottsdale AZ, 85260

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

R DEAN JAMES
6 belair rd
conway AR, 72034

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lois Ray
P. O. Box 478
Fitzwilliam NH, 03447

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chuanpu Hu
1 Dillon Court
Exton PA, 19341

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Conley Peyton
29 Winslow Circle
New London NH, 03257

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vonnie Gurgin
1099 Sterling Avenue
Berkeley CA, 94708

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Thomas
931 los lovatos
santa fe NM, 87501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Kuchera
729 Fallsgrove Dr Apt 6141
Rockville MD, 20850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Ritter
201 Orange Grove Dr Unit 8
Ormond Beach FL, 32174

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marv Kwit
225 Cedar St.
Ventura CA, 93001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

H Gray
29033 Dixon St. #35
Hayward CA, 94544

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Glenn H. Martin
3035 23rd Street
San Francisco CA, 94110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pamela Hussey
34 Allen Rd.
Belchertown MA, 01007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Keep your backbone strong! No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Van Damme
11905 Lansdowne
Detroit MI, 48224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Miranda Perry
143 W. 11th St.
Claremont CA, 91711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Allred
1900 E Spruce St
Seattle WA, 98122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elisabeth Webber
PO Box 4593
Durango CO, 81302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tyler
303 Webb St. Apt. D
Blacksburg VA, 24060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gail Heylmun
2816 N 26th St
Boise ID, 83702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

leo lucido
9100 wilshire blvd. east tower 900
beverly hills CA, 90212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ivona Boroje
70 Warren Ave. # 3-4
Chelsea MA, 02150

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

nahead choudhry
105 chambers street
new york NY, 10007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

adam cote 1709 Loma Street Apt.4
santa Barbara CA, 93103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Hand
1714 Shady Lane
Columbus IN, 47201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Evan Boris
155 Summit Dr
Corte Madera CA, 94925

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anna Lubliner
1135 Masonic Ave Apt 3
San Francisco CA, 94117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Ghormley
4619 N Michigan Ave. # 209
Portland OR, 97217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

d m Sullivan
227 Rack St
Norwood MA, 02062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger deRoos
1062 Shoreline Lane
Friday Harbor WA, 98250

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Mayo
2316 Winepol Loop
San Jose CA, 95125

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Wassili
34 Apache Drive
Walsenburg CO, 81089

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Al Zucker
920 Co Op City Blvd Apt 8C
Bronx NY, 10475

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Fawley
3309 Lost Valley Rd
Fort Wayne IN, 46818

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy O'Dell
42234 W. Arvada Ct
Maricopa AZ, 85238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michele mcvicar
632 East 14th st apt 19
New York NY, 10009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peg Millett
6290 Mayer Bolada Rd
Mayer AZ, 86333

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Wiley
1105 High Meadow Dr
Tallahassee FL, 32311

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

dAVID DAUM
17762 OAK WAT
GRASS VALLEY CA, 95945

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Denise Jindrich
9 Heuters Lane
Mill Valley CA, 94941

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Renee Schwartz
4448 N Richmond St
Chicago IL, 60625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Zech
16182 Bell Ave
Eastpointe MI, 48021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Graves
4306 Winchester Road
Louisville KY, 40207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Neil Walker
54 Oak Street
Champlain NY, 12919

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

T Blackburn
704 Emmet Street
Petoskey MI, 49770

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dustin Shane Collings
4111-11th Avenue NE
Seattle WA, 98105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Glenn
609 Addison
Chicago IL, 60613

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alexis L Soto
806 Coronado Terrace, apt.12
Los Angeles CA, 90026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Yockey
640 Pharris Ln
Zephyr Cove NV, 89448

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William & Selma Tucker
5 Wycham Place
Great Neck NY, 11021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laurie Fisher
10414 SW Bonanza Way
Tigard OR, 97224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet O'Hare
37-60 85th Street
Jackson Heights NY, 11372

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James D Haedike
2208 W Ainslie
Chicago IL, 60625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Domingo Hermosillo
23240 88th Ave S Apt KK103
Kent WA, 98031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Commissioner Copps,

Please continue to stand up for net neutrality and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's plan at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maureen Murphy
212 W 79th St
NEW YORK NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rich Heiman
2 O'neil rd
Haydenville MA, 01039

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James DOyle
1608 NE 73 St
Seattle WA, 98115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Nelson
1422 E. Dayton St 21
Madison WI, 53703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cliff Wilkinson
942 W. Emerald Cir
Mesa AZ, 85210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Bechard
1802 S. 12 St. W.
Missoula MT, 59801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adam Edge
PO Box 401
Livingston Manor NY, 12758

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Schwartz
PO Box 219
Seal Rock OR, 97376

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Block
612 SW SHERMAN ST APT A
PORTLAND OR, 97201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,
You're the FCC hero on net neutrality!

Yours will be the deciding vote when Chairman Genachowski's FAKE net neutrality plan comes up.

Please vote NO!

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.

Sincerely,

Pat Marriott
1530 Oakhurst Ave.
Los Altos CA, 94024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

J R
M. Trinajstica 1
Buzet AL, 00000

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

julie Evans
3700 S. Peggy Lane
tucson AZ, 85730

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Breanna Buswell
44907 W Sage Brush Dr
Maricopa AZ, 85239

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shirley Moore
2510 Moore Rd.
Mill Spring NC, 28756

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Horn
4329 S.W. 1st Place
Cape Coral FL, 33914

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maja Ramirez
328 W Willow St
Chicago IL, 60614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

marilyn mcewan
9822 hawley rd.
El Cajon CA, 92021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

les braden 809 acacia
madison WI, 53716

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

phil vanasse
16 colonial court
high bridge NJ, 08829

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Rain
12 Pineridge Place
Delmar NY, 12054

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Annette Long
P.O. Box 8717
Apache Junction AZ, 85278

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven J Heid
1090 W Betz Rd Apt 2837
Cheney WA, 99004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Bohart
7451 4th Ave NE
Seattle WA, 98115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jean garvey
3367hamilton way
Los Angeles CA, 90026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kay Hill
P.O. Box 17566
San Diego CA, 92177

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Forrest Bruner
643 Washington Street
Hope IN, 47246

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas Farage
5801-17th Avenue NW
Seattle WA, 98107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

i've heard that no one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. So be a champion and oppose it.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Virginia Newlin
299 Devon Lane
West Chester PA, 19380

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katya Surrence
330 W. 47th St, #1
NEW YORK NY, 10036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sally McCurry
5453 N 445 CR
Spav inaw OK, 74369

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

susan rios
4112 cr 203
san saba TX, 76877

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Betty and Gillett Bechtel
150 Masthead Reach
The Sea Ranch CA, 95497

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gosia Mitros
3112 Creekbend Ct
Sachse TX, 75048

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Penina Finger
533 1/2 N. Windsor Blvd.
Los Angeles CA, 90004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Hunter
56 Route 54 East Lake Road
Penn Yan NY, 14527

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adam Reid
PO Box 354
Alfred ME, 04002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Strahan
8496 SW Jessica St Unit 1208
Wilsonville OR, 97070

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Commissioner Copps,

At stake with the upcoming "net neutrality" plan is nothing less then free speech itself. Preventing control of content by large or moneyed institutions or individuals is what the constitution protects. Diversity of communication source and information content should remain constitutionally protected.

I urge you to vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Vincent
13026 Sunnyside Ave N
Seattle WA, 98133

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robin Jordan
PO Box 329
Lee Vining CA, 93541

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan Novotny
401 15th Ave. North
Jacksonville Beach FL, 32250

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Theresa Kelly
280 West 86th St., #4R
New York NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Drummond
630 Lake Washington Blvd. E.
Seattle WA, 98112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul DeAngelis
5674 Stevens Forest Rd Apt 80
Columbia MD, 21045

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mary anderson
1219 12th st
spfld OR, 97477

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Larsen
7950 SW 135th Ave.
Beavrton OR, 97008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randall and Sarah Hart
502 N. 7th Street
Oskaloosa IA, 52577

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

To be honest, I don't understand all the details but place my trust in those that I feel do understand the proposal.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laurence Burdick
1124 A St
Arcata CA, 95521

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Morrison
14804 NE 20th Circle
Vancouver WA, 98684

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane O'Bannon
4121 Marcasel Ave
Los Angeles CA, 90066

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Over the years no one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. Now when the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

I urge you to be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

It is clear that no acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Clearly there is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beryl Schwartz
7545 NDCBU
Taos NM, 87571

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Pastorkovich
348 N Craig St
Pittsburgh PA, 15213

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Prentice 351 heath rd
potsdam NY, 13676

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Blaine Jensen
PO Box 21415
Billings MT, 59104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bryan owings
po box 68318
nashville TN, 37206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Griswold
9629vance ct
south jordan UT, 84095

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Kostrobala
36700 Pickfair St Apt 39
Cathedral City CA, 92234

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Dassey
1919 n. Hoover st.
Los Angeles CA, 90027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roberta Shifflet
1515 LINWOOD DR.
BUCYRUS OH, 44820

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bette Davis
395 Broadway, L5D
Cambridge MA, 02139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kathy benedetto
138 pier ave
brick, nj NJ, 08723

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anthony DiSano
47563 Sugarbush Road
Chesterfield MI, 48047

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Thornburg
234 Hearst Avenue
San Francisco CA, 94131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Olander
5305 N Via La Doncella
Tucson AZ, 85750

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeanne Mackay
2500 River Rd Apt 50
Marysville MI, 48040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Payne
3047 Arundel Dr
Charlotte, NC, 28209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Risemberg
648 1/2 S Burnside Ave
Los Angeles CA, 90036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bruce sims
211 N. Citrus, #104
Escondido CA, 92027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Burkhart
Sunnyside Road
Salem OR, 97306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

hanan miklasz
1626 john ross lane
Crownsville MD, 21032

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

CARLY DUPUIS
70 COBB HILL RD.
WEST SAND LAKE NY, 12196

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gus Schairer
117 E Louisa St #178
Seattle WA, 98102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

robert arbuckle
3812 liberty dr
iowa city IA, 52244

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martin Wolff
5321 Indianhead Ave
Rockford IL, 61108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adele Wallace
729 N 4th St
Reading PA, 19601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

When it comes to the Internet, wireless vs wired is a distinction without a difference. And paid prioritization is just a way to squash the little guy and create giant monopolies. True Net Neutrality (as opposed to NNINO -- Net Neutrality In Name Only) is a must for healthy competition, free speech and to protect We The People from a complete corporate takeover of every activity.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Thank You.

Sincerely,

Andrea Witte
POB 42132
Tucson AZ, 85733

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nathan Long
121 1/2 S Avenue 63
Los Angeles CA, 90042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Slais
444 Curtis Ave.
Stratford CT, 06615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roberta Best
2242 So Hobart Bl
L.A. CA, 90018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Best
2205 N. Twisted Liimb Way
Flagstaff AZ, 86004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Laxon
1778 SW 85th Ave
Miramar FL, 33025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Caroline Eastman
4165 E. Buchanan Dr.
Columbia SC, 29206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ryan Walker
255 W. 2025 S.
Saint George UT, 84770

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Johnston
3 Fiske Pond Road
Holliston MA, 01746

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

April McCauley
626 Wedgewood Circle
Bowling Green KY, 42103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John J Moura, Esq.
430 South Clark Drive
Beverly Hills CA, 90211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Hubert
812 W. Breckenridge
Ferndale MI, 48220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lew Welge
2899 NW 4th Ln
Gainesville FL, 32607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Pushies
11447 Saddle Dr
Fowlerville MI, 48836

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Clay
151 First Ave., #84
New York NY, 10003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Kane
PO Box 522
Arroyo Hondo NM, 87513

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jacana Dean
74 Six Flags Circle
Buellton CA, 93427

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Connesly
5390 River Ave.
Dunsmuir CA, 96025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nick Rudman
2308 Mayfield Ave
Joliet IL, 60435

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Virginia Hammel
4069 26th Street
San Francisco CA, 94131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Barrs
517 Hickory St
San Francisco CA, 94102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gerard garland
po box 1253
haines AK, 99827

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andra Dillard
932 N.Patterson Ave.
Santa Barbara CA, 93111

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger Macklin
225 Outer Drive
Oak Ridge TN, 37830

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ole christensen
138 Calvin Place
Santa Cruz CA, 95060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

george taibi
4 view drive
miller place NY, 11764

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dominick Mastroserio
12 Bart Drive
Selden NY, 11784

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

richard walter 1010 S. Oak #1006
kettle falls WA, 99141

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brice Beckham
8261 Norton Ave #2
West Hollywood CA, 90046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Sansonia
141 E 3 St
New York NY, 10009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anita Davidson
4624 Julian Drive
Columbus OH, 43227

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Ortega
10515 Steward NW chamber
Albuquerque NM, 87114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Commissioner Copps,

For the love of all that is good, please do not give in to big telecom. REAL net neutrality serves all people equally.

Sincerely,
Jason Griffith

Sincerely,

Jason Griffith
4240 Schneidman Rd.
Paducah KY, 42003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Creighton
434 Palmer Rd
E Greenbush NY, 12061

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
The internet really is the last bastion of free speech.

Sincerely,

Gavriel Goldstein
239 Gravy Hill
Burnsville NC, 28714

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stuart Butterfield
24617 Rockford
Dearborn MI, 48124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Ponisciak
30 Nottingham Drive
Willingboro NJ, 08046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat Johnson
864 Lakefield Drive
Galloway OH, 43119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandy Sanders
2200 adeline St., #250A
Oakland CA, 94607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I know that No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you have been. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

I am writing to ask that you Be a hero for the Internet. Please Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

As I am sure you know, there is a powerful public mandate and deep desire from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections. Americans, especially now, need this.

I also write to sincerely Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Thank you for your work and for your consideration of my comments.

Sincerely,

Dr. John D. Stickle, D.C.
PO Box 2772
Santa Cruz CA, 95063

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Nelson
2052 Norma St
Oxnard CA, 93036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Syrowik
497 Jackson St.
Denver CO, 80206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jessica Ramirez
6621 W. 86th Place, #108
Westchester CA, 90045

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Battis
P. O. Box 221
Middleboro MA, 02346

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Tate
6823 Sawyer Rd
Signal Mountain TN, 37377

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melinda Tossani
P.O. Box 6790
Santa Fe NM, 87502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Rider-Longmaid
Box 7079
Northampton MA, 01063

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Woolf
701 East Tuckey Lane
Phoenix AZ, 85014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harlan P. Wallingford
2065 Linnwood Way
Greenbrier TN, 37073

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

C Becker
100 Andover Park W Ste 150-188
Tukwila WA, 98188

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marnie Gaede
772 Caldera Curve
south Fork CO, 81154

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mahrukh Mavalvala
701 17th Avenue, Apt 401
Seattle WA, 98122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erica Franklin
11604 N. Franklin Rd.
Stoughton WI, 53589

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Darmour-Paul
1648 W 38th St
Davenport IA, 52806

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janna Rapaport, AIA
PO Box 613
Santa Fe NM, 87504

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eugene Bergeron
25 Saint Matthews Drive
Barrington NH, 03825

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debbie Conley
4229 Wadsworth Rd
Norton OH, 44203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stacy Mergenthal
1440 Tree Top Court
Wentzville MO, 63385

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Merrick
3012 NE Lansing Ct
Bend OR, 97701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Giansiracusa
3057 Harbour Dr
Palmyra NJ, 08065

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Danielle McKenzie
755 NW 70th St.
Seattle WA, 98117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

You are our only hope for honesty and sanity in this matter. Please do not let us and future generations down.

Sincerely,

Mike Simmons
Pamela Dr
Silver Spring MD, 20905

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Minnerly
4508 N. Williams Ave
Portland OR, 97217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Glenn Frantz
27 E. Central Paoli PA, 19301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Birr
6508 Fairfax Ct
Carpentersvle IL, 60110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christine LeBeau
416 East 73rd Street, Apt. 4C
New York NY, 10021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roy Ghim
9 Gould St
Portland ME, 04101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maureen Walsh
300 Calle Miramar Apt D
Redondo Beach CA, 90277

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marc Levinthal
1959 N Raymond Ave
Pasadena CA, 91103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Shank
5114 S 3rd Ave Apt A
Everett WA, 98203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Greg Logan
2000 River Oaks Ln.
Wylie TX, 75098

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Bolton
PO Box 348
Hope ID, 83836

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Geneva Robertson-Dworet
1242 Devon Ave
Los Angeles CA, 90024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Schuler
56 Montfern Ave Apt 1
Brighton MA, 02135

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolyn J. Lewis-Stone
2311 E. Stadium Blvd.; Ste. B-3
Ann Arbor MI, 48104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry Haire
215 Hillside Dr.
Wylie TX, 75098

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

G. Rose Montgomery
28650 N Hwy 101
Lilliwaup WA, 98555

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lauren Schwartz
18078 Clear Brook Circle
Boca Raton FL, 33498

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Johnson
899 Westwood Dr
Monroe MI, 48161

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ilene Sternberg
1116 Dorset Drive
West Chester PA, 19382

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

heidi fair
159 Baker Road
Roxbury CT, 06783

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Calhoun
2459 Post St.
San Francisco CA, 94115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Arpha Slinkard
907 High St.
Fredericktown MO, 63645

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

April Plumeri
129 Cramer St. Apt. 1
North Tonawanda NY, 14120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Crick
206 Pineview Drive
Greenville NC, 27834

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Victor Flake
3522 Felton St.
San Diego CA, 92104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kirk dudley
16 orchard st
los gatos CA, 95030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Ankelman
456 Oak St.
St. Louis MO, 63119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Teddy A Noon
2024 W Mallon Ave
Spokane WA, 99201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Goodrich
389 Voghell Rd.
Randolph VT, 05060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Mertig
3490 Esquire Drive
Murfreesboro TN, 37130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lolita Mikami
94-781 Meahale Street
Waipahu HI, 96797

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

You have been the greatest champion at the FCC for real net neutrality.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No paid prioritization; no exemption of wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; no moving forward without reclassifying broadband, and providing legal footing for the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ralph Niebuhr
3437 Claymore Dr
Plano TX, 75075

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Martin
108 Via Ensueno
San Clemente CA, 92672

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charity B Gourley
2525 State, #21
Santa Barbara CA, 93105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Net neutrality is vital to the public interest, and must not be sacrificed to corporate and lobbyist pressures.

When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Wellman
PO Box 1139
Santa Barbara CA, 93102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Craig Schulthess
2928 Curry Pky #12
Madison, WI, 53713

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

frederick sall
1510 west 25th street
miami beach FL, 33140

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Makie Sanchez
2001 23rd St
Astoria NY, 11105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lucy English
5701 Angelina Ave
Carmichael CA, 95608

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karl Frederick
7804 Stefenoni Ct
Sebastopol CA, 95472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Heath Elliott
2749 Stoner Ave.
Los Angeles CA, 90064

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniela Barrios
332 Park Ridge Lane Unit E
Aurora IL, 60504

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Rice
49 Symonds Road
Hillsboro NH, 03244

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Burch
1520 South Highland Avenue
Bloomington IN, 47401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Sutton
4422 Canoga Ave
Woodland Hills CA, 91364

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Johnson
6800 28th Avenue NW
Seattle WA, 98117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ezequiel Diaz
2061 Riverview Lane
Oakford PA, 19053

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Butler
2498 Roll Drive #728
San Diego CA, 92154

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Chapman
2183 Sandcastle Way
Sacramento CA, 95833

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Stevens
46 a ridge rd
Greenbelt MD, 20770-7727

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Fiser
14366 109th Ave NE
Kirkland WA, 98034

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gerald larey
720 alomar st
ojai CA, 93023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Boyd Hickox
1549 NW 37th St
Oklahoma City OK, 73118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laurie Fahrner
PO Box 623
Big Horn WY, 82833

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

fred mundy 21 morelos
forest knolls CA, 94933

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rob Hastings
2575 E Water St
Tucson AZ, 85716

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

LIsa Richard 3508 Aspen NE
Albuquerque NM, 87106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

We have all had enough and more of the lies and sellouts of Obama's appointees. Please vote to defeat this latest backstabbing proposal. Thank you!

Sincerely,

Richard Martin Shorter
13539 30th Ave NE
Seattle WA, 98125

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank C Andrews
277 N Elm St
Tallmadge OH, 44278

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JOE MCDONALD
800 MCINTIRE ST
BOULDER CO, 80303

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan Nelson
6040 Blvd East, #19G
West New York NJ, 07093

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Larsen
595 Genoa Ave, Apt E
Reno NV, 89503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dawn L Rubbert
7866 1/2 Big Bend Blvd Apt 2
St. Louis MO, 63119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debbie Clyatt
10453 S. Santa Fe Lane
Goodyear AZ, 85338

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Thompson
10523 Highway 125
Rand CO, 80473

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas M. Pase
1605 Pineview Drive
Raleigh NC, 27606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerry greenfield
2779 South Road
Williston VT, 05495

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David I Mellinger
5643 Maynard Avenue
Woodland Hills CA, 91367

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruth Crump
12601 Montclair Drive
Silver Spring MD, 20904

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Philip Oakes
1702 B Garden Street
Austin TX, 78702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dorothy L Davies
327 Caselli AVE
San Francisco CA, 94114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deborah Harbour
1500 Odette Lane
Las Vegas NV, 89117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Faye Bartlett
3382 Southbend Pl #102
Bellingham WA, 98226

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Abby Bline
605 Belmont Street, Apt. 9
Manchester NH, 03104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Curtin
4245 N. Spaulding Ave.
Chicago IL, 60618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Nelson
1532 Manitou Road
Santa Barbara CA, 93105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adriana Robledo
3205 Beneva Rd. #202
Sarasota FL, 34232

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Hitchens
2016 14th Avenue, SW
Olympia WA, 98502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Philip A. Gonzales
4213 Valley View Rd
Edina MN, 55424

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

susan newman
5851 cascabel rd
benson AZ, 85602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lori Bowlin
9823 Connemara Bend
San Antonio TX, 78254

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Hill
3725 Lime Ave
Long Beach CA, 90807

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gabriel santerno
501 e. garden ave #9
coeur d'alene ID, 83814

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kari Dyrdahl
2670 County Road I
Mounds View MN, 55112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Read
5264 Rybolt Rd
Cincinnati OH, 45248

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Patch
39042 Cannonball Cir
Homer AK, 99603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

J L T Williams
P O Box 89
Huntington Beach CA, 92648

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandra Kawa
343 Joel Blvd #112D
Lehigh Acres FL, 33936

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peggy Taylor
13691 E. Marina Dr. #204
Aurora CO, 80014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lori Gilio
348 149TH St
Whitestone NY, 11357

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Golam Choudhury
3321 St. Paul Street
Baltimore MD, 21218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aarlene Campion
2056 Columbus Circle
Leesville LA, 71446

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anita Morrison
12150 SW 9th
Beaverton OR, 97005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wayne Leonardi
471 Miller Rd
Barrington IL, 60010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Fouts
318 East 70th Street, 3FE
New York NY, 10021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Oakley
433 Sunset Dr.
DeForest WI, 53532

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dee Anne Brandeau
1674 Bradford Street NE
Grand Rapids MI, 49503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Corwin
817 12th st #8
Santa Monica CA, 90403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wallace & Cathleen Lambie
5556 Woodlawn Ave
Lowville NY, 13367

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dr. Jane Tucker
107 West 86th Street
New York NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Thies
251 channing way #3
san rafael CA, 94903

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pamela D. Tate
1816 Stewart Avenue
Cambridge OH, 43725

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Belch
3441 Shadeland Avenue
Pittsburgh PA, 15212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please sir do what you can to keep the internet open to us all equally
Thank you.

Sincerely,

Larry Faulkner
1110 N. Hudson Ave.
Pasadena CA, 91104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

julia rubiner
2062 panamint drive
los angeles CA, 90065

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda J.
Hoff
Gig Harbor WA, 98335

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jo witt
1910 foothill
Redwood Valley CA, 95470

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debra Patsel
84 Lakeside Ave
Stockholm NJ, 07460

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michael mahovetz
4388 SE NIMROD LANE
Stuart FL, 34997

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sandra cannon
6371 Canton Ct
Magalia CA, 95954

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruth Lorenz
7918 236th st #311
edmonds WA, 98026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Schoen
5006 Taney Ave
Alexandria VA, 22304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Homan
1035 Summit Ave.
St. Paul MN, 55105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michael mnorthuis
306 e. lake dr.
greensboro NC, 27401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amy Vernon-Jones
33 Gorham St
Somerville MA, 02144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Oliver H. Osborne
102 18th Ave E.
Seattle WA, 98112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Allison Sidel
20 Skyview Dr.
New Milford CT, 06776

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pam Warren
10344 Stonehurst Dr
Escondido CA, 92026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Gallardo
P.O. Box 11418
Burbank CA, 91510

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Zabik
21 Bridge Street
Topsham ME, 04086

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

V Alexander
4232 Eubank Blvd NE
Albuquerque NM, 87111

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jo Barcelona
1743 Coachway Ln
Hazelwood MO, 63042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

linda gregg
2725 Lotus Hill dr
las vegas NV, 89134

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lori Fortier
30252 Peggy Ln.
Evergreen CO, 80439

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Penelope McKibben
2803 Applewood Lane
Eugene OR, 97408

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brenda Reese
130 Shelley Ave
Campbell CA, 95008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ian Turner
6221 Riverside Blvd 4
Sacramento CA, 95831

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Evelyn Fraser
2724 28th St NE
Washington DC, 20018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please don't let consumers down; we want genuine/true Net Neutrality!

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rabbi Stanley Howard Schwartz, DD
109 Powderhorn Court
Daytona Beach FL, 32119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Kaast
PO Box 105
Slaterville Springs NY, 14881

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Boyd
7356 West Point Ave
La Mesa CA, 91941

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Carrington-Smith
11421 CREEDMOOR RD
RALEIGH NC, 27614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary W Gerfen
414 Beechworth Ave
Monrovia CA, 91016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shane Tyler Burkholder
2435 Allyson Drive
Warren OH, 44484

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please keep the internet open and stop paid prioritization.

Sincerely,

Dr. Gail Gonzales
6630 N Pidgeon Spring Place
Tucson AZ, 85718

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kim Medin
2206 E. 34th St.
Minneapolis MN, 55407

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sonya Berg
HC 69 Box 50A
Rociada NM, 87742

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

chris barakat
5401 oak springs dr
arlington TX, 76016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Burg
600 SW Kenyon Street, F101
Seattle WA, 98106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Foster
11103 applewood dr
Austin TX, 78758

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tatiana Hrynyszyn
743 Sanford Ave
Newark NJ, 07106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

arlene larkin
14511 sabal dr
miami lakes FL, 33014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Husted
11337 Alton Avenue NE
Seattle WA, 98125

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

barbara tada
32688 Taylor Butte Rd.
Cottage Grove OR, 97424

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michelle North
6595 Sahchu Ln
Cochiti Lake NM, 87083

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sandeep raichur
16560 5th ave ne
shoreline WA, 98155

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sam rodriguez
1770 el cerrito pl. #206
los angeles CA, 90028

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan W Doeff MD
1595 S.Ocean Lane,Apt.282
Fort Lauderdale FL, 33316

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara colton
59 w. 10th st.. ny NY, 10011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dvaid Wiley
301 W. 22nd St.
Minneapolis MN, 55404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

eric boyer
2823 clinton st
portland OR, 97202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Geraldine Zaha
446 Moore Avenue
Saint Charles IL, 60174

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cyrille Phipps
P.O. Box 330-251
Brooklyn NY, 11233

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jennifer sevilla
1812 North Avenue 55
Los Angeles CA, 90042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eileen Evans
1433 Collins
St. Louis MO, 63117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy C. Tate
825 Church Rd.
Riegelsville PA, 18077

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deborah Crane
5 Baron Way
Littleton MA, 01460

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

julie burns
4604 los feliz blvd
los angeles CA, 90027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Silverstein
4860 Tujunga Ave.
North Hollywood CA, 91601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

D Wontor
1437 Hemlock Farms
Lords Valley PA, 18428

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Greg Goodman
4049 Chestnut Avenue
Concord CA, 94519

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The Internet is the greatest tool for promoting real democracy there is and no one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robin Justice
31631 Crystal Sands Drive
Laguna Niguel CA, 92677

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

elliot helman
383 park st., SF, CA 94110
SF CA, 94110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Willard Tennyson
1935 Summer Street
Falcon Heights MN, 55113

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Decker
PO Box 64355
Sunnyvale CA, 94088

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bryce E. Smith
3 Hurd Pt. Rd.
Dedham ME, 04429

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lama Lane
3941 S Bristol St #D221
Santa Ana CA, 92704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cindy Yokem
P.O. Box 1498
Heber Springs AR, 72543

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lillian Meissler
6800 SW 40th Street
Miami FL, 33155

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21. Thanks for your help so far, and please keep supporting the rights of the people over the interests of corporations.

Sincerely,

Rick Hartley
655 Parkman Rd., N.W.
Warren OH, 44485

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brent Rusert
188 S. Harold St.
Fort Bragg CA, 95437

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Patterson
653 Glenmont Drive
Solana Beach CA, 92075

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Hubbell
2437 6th Street
Santa Monica CA, 90405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott McLeish
25 Live Oak Ave
Ormond Beach FL, 32174

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randolph Roye Reynolds
235 Creekside Lane
Santa Cruz CA, 95060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Earl Staelin
7982 S. Cedar St.
Littleton CO, 80120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mike feisthammel
5418 N. Glenwood Ave., 2nd Fl.
chicago IL, 60640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Zsanine Alexander
1339 Norton Ave.
Glendale CA, 91202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rosemary Vieira
2632 Rolling Oaks Drive
Palm Harbor FL, 34683

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Manes
251 Climbing Way
Wimberley TX, 78676

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Ronan
520 East 14th St
New York NY, 10009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Wood
5015 E Mercer Way
Mercer Island WA, 98040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeni Wood
1008 Green Valley Cove
Round Rock TX, 78664

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roseanne Sittler
P O Box 24
Falls City NE, 68355

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

greg goodwin
1230 NE 69th St.
Seattle WA, 98115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beatrix Maurer
6104 217th Street
Oakland Gardens NY, 11364

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Nation
4787 Parma Drive
Oak Park CA, 91377

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Athena Batsios
25 Lake Ave
Nassau NY, 12123

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joel Kastin
187 Paterson Ave. #224
Midland Park NJ, 07432

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Curtis Ray
1978 Court Way
Montrose CO, 81401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shaka Abubakar
8323 Founders Woods Way
Ft Washington MD, 20744

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Caspers-Curl
P.O. Box 1
Naselle WA, 98638

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rhonda L. Lawrence
14030 Drexel Dr.
Magalia CA, 95954

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Crippes
4915 Fox Creek, Apt. 276
Clarkston MI, 48346

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Teodorescu
14302 19th ave ne
Seattle WA, 98125

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Hill
4585 Beverly Glen
Oceanside CA, 92056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Darren Hall
2950 Broadway St. #8
Boulder CO, 80304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kim mollenhauer
2400 shady willow lane apt19f
Brentwood CA, 94513

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wade B Holland
51 Callendar Way
Inverness CA, 94937

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Marquart
2003 Blackiston Mill Road
Clarksville IN, 47129

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Van Alyne
26 Cantwell Drive
Middletown DE, 19709

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martin Wallen
2807 South Fox Ledge Drive
Stillwater OK, 74074

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Brooks
28474 Nicholas Cir
Santa Clarita CA, 91350

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cindy Tenaglia
Tenaglia
Langhorne PA, 19047

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Hervey
5254 Rahlves Drive
Castro Valley CA, 94546

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carla Skidmore
175 Doreen St
Pittsfield MA, 01201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margo Plicatus
252 Green Road
Woodland PA, 16881

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Avila
2027 Mission Street #411
San Francisco CA, 94110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James M. Wallrabenstein
16630 E Foothills Rd
Spokane WA, 99217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fred Rible
11657 La Grange Ave
Los Angeles CA, 90025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katherine Darlington
P. O. Box 232
Freedom NH, 03836

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lester R Kyle
1640 E Mount Hope Hwy.
Grand Ledge MI, 48837

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Prioritization should be based on # of hits, or popularity, not paying to get out in front of the line. Does money trump everything? Even you?

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

L. Kelly
6971 via quito
pleasanton CA, 94566

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Hall
5252 Balboa Arms Dr, Unit 291
San Diego CA, 92117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

boris cardenas
541 40th street
sacramento CA, 95819

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Coursen
1507 Rutledge St
Madison WI, 53703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Max LaRock
9514 NE 104th Street
Vancouver WA, 98662

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dr. Gracie J. Amos
8309 LA Highway 418
Batchelor LA, 70715

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leslie Crockett
401 D Street
San Rafael CA, 94901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marc Petrequin
510 24th Street
Golden CO, 80401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Wells
311 Bass
Wilmington IL, 60481

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jenika Mayer
270 Skyland
Tijeras NM, 87059

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Chavez
2105 Wendy Way
Manhattan Beach CA, 90266

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Bartholet
19827 10th Place,N.W.
Shoreline WA, 98177

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote "NO" on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

L. M. Wilson
5903 Pebble Springs Dr.
Houston TX, 77066

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Volling
41618 North Route 59
Antioch IL, 60002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randy Chapman
17081 Starfish Lane West
Sugarloaf key FL, 33042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

james ray
6661 topaz drive
pollock pines CA, 95726

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Please do this. There have been too many industry-friendly regulations.

Sincerely,

Corinne Mahaffey
2140 Catie Lane
Platte City MO, 64079

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry Sandbek
3 Bixby Court
Sacramento CA, 95835

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

joe and mary peach
po box 606
clarksburg CA, 95612

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Jimenez
Box 2112
Santa Fe NM, 87504

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Van Bergen
1330 NW 39th Street
Gainesville FL, 32605

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jim willis
3033 coney island ave #4C
brooklyn NY, 11235

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Prato
3861 Kathryns Way
Livonia NY, 14487

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Bertuglia
90 Cedar Dr.
Durham CT, 06422

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Allen
980 Memorial Drive
Cambridge MA, 02138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennie Tanzi
409 SW 12th Ave #403
Portland OR, 97205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I understand that the FCC will vote on proposed regulations for the Internet on December 21. As I read the proposed rules, I find it clear that they are weak and slanted toward industry interests. I urge you to vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal and work for real net neutrality. Specifically, the FCC must assert its control over the Internet as communications; anything else is disingenuous. Also, wireless access must be covered by FCC rules; this is the direction of the future, and if wireless net communications are excluded from regulation, it will guarantee that the industry will shift all of its resources in that direction.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Ellen Maher
737 Cherry Tree Lane
South Bend IN, 46617

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

matt Macdonald
402 Scenic Rd.
Fairfax CA, 94930

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nazanin S. Fard
1644 Novato Blvd.
Novato CA, 94947

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Forbes
417 Heathcliff Dr.
Pacifica CA, 94044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JJ Hitt
2851 Wallingford #1106
Houston TX, 77042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aaron Kendrick
238 Conant St
Manchester NH, 03102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Kloberdanz
2751 Kilconway Lane
South San Francisco CA, 94080

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Henry Brodkin
3050 E Carr Canyon RD
Hereford AZ, 85615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Belinda Fender
1901 Ridgemont
Columbia MO, 65203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Nicholl
3454 Cullowhee Mtn Rd
Cullowhee NC, 28723

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Preston Wheaton
PO Box 1403
Olympia WA, 98507

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Renee Littlepage
5220 Medford Circle
Mobile AL, 36693

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mary izett
12 cerro encantado
lafayette CA, 94549

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

rod boyd
6733 Old Mill Ct
North Richland Hills TX, 76180

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

b reid
500 n monroe st
fulton IN, 46931

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

MaryGrace Brown
107 Mount Sinai Ave
Mount Sinai NY, 11766

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amanda Niles
3503 NE Grand Ave
Portland OR, 97212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Zavattero
1001 Walker Ave. #2
Oakland CA, 94610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gwendolyn Davis
269 Broadmeadows Blvd.
Columbus OH, 43214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Federico Daza
3807 Vineyard Dr.
Houston TX, 77082

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George C Sievers
4832 Skyline Drive
Roeland Park KS, 66205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

June Yashiki
422 s orange ave #B
monterey park CA, 91755

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

You're aware of the implications of the current proposal, its loopholes and strengths, and importantly it's overall effect if enacted.

Please vote no on the proposed "net neutrality" regulations in favor of never allowing paid prioritization of packet routing.

Thank you for your consideration and choice.

Sincerely,

Tom Mallard
631 E 6TH St
Reno NV, 89512

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

steve warman
3 oakham rd.
North Brookfield MA, 01535

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

MARK MCDONALD
2209 CRANES LANDING
GREENBANK WA, 98253

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger Delmar
293 Boardwalk Ave.
Port Townsend WA, 98368

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Laing
10613 Sierra Oaks
Austin TX, 78759

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Annie McMahon
Box 1205
Clarkdale AZ, 86324

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vesna Vukov
4711 Brighton Ave
San Diego CA, 92107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,
It's time to step up and settle this issue and do it right.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cathy Rooks
2701 Parkwood Dr
Langley WA, 98260

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ashley Ralston
426 Buck Avnue Apt A
Vacaville CA, 95688

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sidney Axinn
3300 Darby Road
Haverford PA, 19041

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lloyd Fjare
1037 Fairmount Ave
Saint Paul MN, 55105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Dombrow
345 West 30th Street
New York NY, 10001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kyria Joyner
1619 Wagonwheel rd
wimauma FL, 33598

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ray Krippner
28th Street
Cedar Rapids IA, 52403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Clapp
17 7th St
Harwich MA, 02645

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Tiedeman
12065 SW Fairfield St
Beaverton OR, 97005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Greg Flotho
806 Westmount Drive #2
West Hollywood CA, 90069

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leslee Doner
2500 Millway
Boise ID, 83709

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fran Hardy
31 Old Road
Lamy NM, 87540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gwendolyn Forrest
11834 Magnolia Blvd # 2
N Hollywood CA, 91607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathy Glaser
2330 Driftwood Place
Saint Louis MO, 63146

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ernie Wasson
600 Valencia Road
Aptos CA, 95003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

stephen pitt
21123 Baptisia Ct
Moreno Valley CA, 92557

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger McQuown
4635 Kings Point Court
Lakeland FL, 33813

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Twomey
2744 Santa Claus Dr.
South Lake Tahoe CA, 96150

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jon Heiken
1357 Sproul Ave.
Napa CA, 94559

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Suzette Santori- Martinez
PO Box 211374
Chula Vista CA, 91921

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Leslie
501 Waterside Dr
Carrboro NC, 27510

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lara Miletta
27 Chapman Place
Leominster MA, 01453

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

joshua gray
1718 lake
cardiff CA, 92007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gloria tefft
12213 cedar grove rd
rolla MO, 65401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tomas Morales
9845 SW 16 street
Miami FL, 33165

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kristi Dietz
3547 Buchanan St NE
Minneapolis MN, 55418

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Grove
1719 Whitney Way
Austin TX, 78741

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tracey Stammer
829 Garnet Street
West Sacramento CA, 95691

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

As a staunch supporter at FCC for real net neutrality, you are virtually certain to cast the decisive vote on Chairman Genachowski's spurious net neutrality plan.

I urge you to vote "no" on the plan as currently formulated.

It is patently unacceptable to permit paid prioritization, exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline, or fail to reclassify broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations as well as individual citizens reflecting every race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

I appreciate the stand you've taken to keep the Internet open and free. Please maintain your stance by voting against Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Vinnedge Lawrence
299 Saddleback Road
West Baldwin ME, 04091

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbie Scott
7298 SW Capitol Hill Rd.
Portland OR, 97219

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick Jmaes
hwy 321
townsend TN, 37882

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dorian Hanzich
19056 Willow Brook Lane
Trabuco Canyon CA, 92679

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marja Adriance
1310 Wellesley Ave. #114
Los Angeles CA, 90025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ricahrd Murphy
45 Mission St.
Jemez Springs NM, 87025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Skrentny
Monticello Manor
Chicago IL, 60618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Lowe
4632 Cuming St
Omaha NE, 68132

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
Thank you,
Terry Riney
Sutter, CA 95982

Sincerely,

Terry Riney
7285 Lyon St.
Sutter CA, 95982

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christine Taylor
3103 W. Wren
Visalia CA, 93291

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

christa spillane
337 south 5 th street
hot springs SD, 57747

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harriet Gleaton
3600 East Mountain Road
Bartlesville OK, 74003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Long
2323 30th
San Diego CA, 92104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael J. Landers
1275 Silverwood Rd.
Woodbury MN, 55125

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bart Woolery
1805 Robbins
Santa Barbara CA, 93101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Merner
103 Leland Street
Santa Rosa CA, 95404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Jane Goss
605 W Main St
Ewing IL, 62836

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary D. Ratliff
1012 S.W. 1st St.
Lee's Summit MO, 64063

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Chambers
1948 Green Street
San Francisco CA, 94123

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jill Crane
6715 Beth Ct.
Garland TX, 75044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Paid prioritization is unfair. Your continued support for true net neutrality is important. My experience teaching in a low income area, has made me realize the uneven nature of the opportunity "playing field." We don't need more favors for the powerful.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Stewart
1000 Figueroa St. #42
Wilmington CA, 90744

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gayle kerns
27 greenwich place
conroe TX, 77384

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Button
2694 Big Horn Circle
Lafayette CO, 80026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Wiesner
2005 N. Commerce St
Milwaukee WI, 53212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alexis Hmielak
4013 Sunstone
Fort Collins CO, 80525

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Woolley
121 Greenbrook Dr
Stoughton MA, 02072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Brashears
119 Hawkins Circle
Wheaton IL, 60187

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Angela Desmond
12041 Belvedere Road
Hagerstown MD, 21742

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Wilson
35 Liberty Lane
Petaluma CA, 94952

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan D Hudson
2062 Aldo Ct
Eureka CA, 95503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Blanche Hartman
300 Page Street
San Francisco CA, 94102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

joseph stultz
12102 westmere
houston TX, 77077

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

katherine peters
325 Jackson street
denver CO, 80206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Cannon
1821 W. 9th Ave # 5
Spokane WA, 99204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

karen ambrose
217 arbolado drive
la selva beach CA, 95076

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Sirguy
2227 240TH Pl SE
Bothell WA, 98021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Bradfield
648 Waller St, Apt 1
San Francisco CA, 94117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gerald Grundstein
3344 N. Olsen Ave.
Tucson AZ, 85719

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Feltz
721 Maucker Road
Cedar Falls IA, 50613

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Maxwell
886 Crocus Drive
Radcliff KY, 40160

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Luis Sanmiguel
19601 Franjo Road
Cutler Bay FL, 33157

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

patrick m redmond
441 first crown point rd
strafford NH, 03884

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randy Harper
P.O. BOX 7592
Saipan CO, 80829

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Koehrer
30 Wyndham Dr
Montgomery IL, 60538

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marcia Sterling
7823 ALBIN LANE
HOUSTON TX, 77071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adina Chandler
827 Fayette st
Santa Fe NM, 87505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Hedman
7712 Devonshire Ct
Boulder CO, 80301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Safr
9000 W. Falls Ave
Kennewich WA, 99336

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Asby
171 Forest Ave. - Apt. 214
Franklin NC, 28734

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon Ward
159 Private Rd. 917
Fairfield TX, 75840

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elisa Katz
74 William Street
Wallingford CT, 06492

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Alia Denny
3071 S Dexter Way
Denver CO, 80222

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Horn
4916 Trail Ridge Rd.
Blair NE, 68008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Trytten
207 Ohio St., #6
Decorah IA, 52101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harris Kornstein
2303 Bryant St
San Francisco CA, 94110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Simmons
5408 NE Everett St
Portland OR, 97213

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

carol adams
2902 village road
langhorne PA, 19047

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you so much for your championship of net neutrality!!. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Handley
2660 Ingalls St.
Edgewater CO, 80214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Maryott-Walsh
11 Pinehurst Circle
Madison WI, 53717

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ambee Honeybaker
4201 Spring St. #45
La Mesa CA, 91941

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Gutleber
13055 118th St
S OZONE PK NY, 11420

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Potts
377 CR 2025
Clarksville TX, 75426

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin C. Kuharich
12006 Bustleton Ave 2nd floor
Philadelphia PA, 19116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Woods
1024 Central Ave. N Apt C13
Kent WA, 98032

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brendan Mangan
3056 Overhill Dr
Vista CA, 92084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Travis Hodges
1819 Jefferson Park Ave
Charlottesville VA, 22903

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

june tomastick
215 E. 2nd St. bloomington IN, 47401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Rinker
27952 Emerson Ave
Hayward CA, 94545

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joanne Bruggemann
3 Lido Circle
Redwood City CA, 94065

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Miller
926 W 13th St
Tempe AZ, 85281

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Marshall
5201 Blossomwood Ct.
Fair Oaks CA, 95628

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,
We would like to remind you that you work for the tax payers, not the corporations.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Neil Kraus
7 Acacia Road
Fairfax CA, 94930

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vanessa Cardona
9385 Kempster Ave
Fontana CA, 92335

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas Coyle
1228 Alpine Trl
Topanga CA, 90290

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amber Joy
1005 Terrace St # 1105
Seattle WA, 98104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Reid
3351 Campbell Road
Mountain City TN, 37683

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sally Williams
PO Box 105
Hiram ME, 04041

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Donis
45660 Waterloo Station Square
Sterling VA, 20166

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Virginia Doran
PO Box 537
Kent CT, 06757

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Powell
5216 Raintree Cir
Culver City CA, 90230

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Kersey
220 Mar Vista Dr. #88
Aptos CA, 95003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Justin Orr
8875 Costa Verde Blvd Apt 1417
San Diego CA, 92122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Henry J Powsner
4 Queenston Place
Princeton NJ, 08540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Genevieve MacKinnon
826 Boulder Creek Lane
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia McLoughlin
6925 Catamaran Drive
Carlsbad CA, 92011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Stetten
Stetten
Weston FL, 33023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

* Bird
6230 Greenhaven Drive
Sacramento CA, 95831

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I beseech you, please do not allow corporate America to further wrest control and suppress the citizen freedoms for which our forefathers so valiantly fought.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janice Nelson
826 Sunset Blvd
Arcadia CA, 91007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janice Keiserman
1887 Fairfield Terrace
Henderson NV, 89074

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Celeste Elmore
"2150 E. Broadway Rd., Bldg. 5, Apt. 2022"
Phoenix AZ, 85040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Giller
1166 Alabama
San Francisco CA, 94110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michelle Jones
923 Brookrun Drive
Hixson TN, 37343

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Cunningham
762 South Huckleberry Way
Webster NY, 14580

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Denise Di Biase
405 61 st Street
WILLOWBROOK IL, 60527

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Rose
2749 Lafayette St.
Denver CO, 80205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Smelko
1048 south 925 east
Akron IN, 46910

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Caroline MacDougall
1720 Las Canoas Rd
Santa Barbara CA, 93105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marlene Kauffman
44 N. Sugan Rd., Apt. 225
New Hope PA, 18938

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Levin
1800 S. East Camano Drive
Camano Island WA, 98282

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Alexander
17435 N. 19th Place
Phoenix AZ, 85022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Lewin
540 Cole Street Apt. 2
San Francisco CA, 94117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marie Weis
248 Shorewood Court
Fox Island WA, 98333

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brenda Luebke
400 Ortega Avenue #A311
Mountain View CA, 94040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tony McClain
4422 Cherry Tree Lane
Eldersburg MD, 21784

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sally roach
15705 up 193rd st east
hastings MN, 55033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

patricia baltz
35330 downing av
north ridgeville OH, 44039

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alexandra Graziano
1408 Calle Morera
Thousand Oaks CA, 91360

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Madeline Shaw
696 Ridgebury Rd
Slate Hill NY, 10973

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Reuter
6845 Landings Dr
Lauderhill FL, 33319

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Albert Theriault
8 Holly St
Mattapoisett MA, 02739

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ronald brown 658a 25th ave
san francisco CA, 94121

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Curzon
4910 Saint Andrews Cir
Buena Park CA, 90621

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bernard Garner
1336 Paris Ct
Lakewood NJ, 08701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Brodscholl
3 Danielle Ct
Lawrenceville NJ, 08648

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Demetriade
1695 Moorhouse
Ferndale MI, 48220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tony Fuller
Adobe Rd
Petaluma CA, 94954

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

megan Robbins
24 Mathews Place
Alamo CA, 94507

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ryan goebel
358 plateau avenue
santa cruz CA, 95060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John O'Neil
171 Continental Rd
Napanoch NY, 12458

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Allen Brummer
914 Tulane Ave.
Salina KS, 67401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Justin Newton
12 Richdale Ave
Somerville MA, 02145

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph DeAlmo
445 Beaver St. Apt. C46
Ansonia CT, 06401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Abigail Peterson
117 Laurel St.
Muscatine IA, 52761

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Mosman
1334 W Emery St
Tucson AZ, 85745

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

L. E. McClintock
1335 N. Frederic St.
Burbank CA, 91505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donna Childs
0228 SW Lane St
Portland OR, 97239

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michael panos
2004 west race ave.
chicago IL, 60612

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Lippert
210 Donegal Way
Martinez CA, 94553

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Amdahl
27 Brookdale Drive
Redlands CA, 92373

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Shockey
7945 N Dwight Ave
Portland OR, 97203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tony Padilla
1801 Coal Place SE Apt. 2
Albuquerque NM, 87106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carl A. Grandberry
104 Opal Circle
St. Robert MO, 65584

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carl Pribanic
7013 Caldwell Lane
Plano TX, 75025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

LaVern Tooley
150 E. Fairfield Court
Shelton WA, 98584

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Richey
549 San Antonio Way
Sacramento CA, 95819

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ed Schmookler
907 Key Route Blvd
Albany CA, 94706

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Graham
4478 S.R. 43 Apt4
Kent OH, 44240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Seth Horwitz
7224 Hazel Avenue
Upper Darby PA, 19082

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Scholes
2964 S 200 E Apt 12
Salt Lake City UT, 84115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Minervini
50 E 2 St
Howell NJ, 07731

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Fraser
2654 Best Ave.
Oakland CA, 94619

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellie Cohen
860 Weidner Rd.
Buffalo Grove IL, 60089

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maurice DeShazer
9239 Bighorn Dr.
Littleton CO, 80127

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a more determined champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please continue your advocacy of genuine net neutrality by voting no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and ordinary individual citizens, representing all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion, who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wendy Zukas
3233 Edison Street
Graton CA, 95444

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Megan F. Coffey
8369 Lombard Way
Rohnert Park CA, 94928

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Mullins
11863 Railroad Hill Drive
Pound VA, 24279

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gloria Aukland
1808 S. Brighton Circle
Mesa AZ, 85209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alissa Fields
4017 N Maplewood Ave
Chicago IL, 60618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gregory Jacobs
4337 Pearl St.
kansas City KS, 66103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gerald v mckenna,lmhc
18 Clubhouse Drive
Pocasset MA, 02559

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Jochums
4118 Centennial Trail
Duluth GA, 30096

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

allison collins
268 w como ave
columbus OH, 43202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jesse Dubinsky
162 Rolling Way
Peekskill NY, 10566

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adam Rauf
5547 Saddlebrook Drive
Bethel Park PA, 15102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john simon
5827 garden pk dr
sylvania OH, 43560

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jake Wilson
1303 N. Maplewood Ave
Chicago IL, 60622

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Larkin
1071 Celestial Street #2004
Cincinnati OH, 45202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Greg Snyder
411 Walnut ST, #4231
Green Cove Springs FL, 32043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael E Ross
P.O. Box 295
El Portal CA, 95318

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Rocco
3217 Cheviot Vista Pl., #108
Los Angeles CA, 90034

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Patterson
3508 Tothill Drive
Troy MI, 48084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Ott
160 Skyline Boulevard
Satellite Beach FL, 32937

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

heidi gleber
56 state street
bloomfield NY, 14469

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dixie Fisher
1313 Appalachian Blvd.
Arden NC, 28704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vivian Taube
17 Skylark Drive, Apt. 35
Larkspur CA, 94939

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom pozen
1442 w. carmen
Chicago IL, 60640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Wippern
235 W. Santa Ana Ave
Fresno CA, 93705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jordan Shuford
PO Box 8985
Denver CO, 80201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Morgan
131 E MAPLE ST
Walla Walla WA, 99362

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul S Andrade
440 Frio lane
Wimberley TX, 78676

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rosanna Horton
207 Amherst Aisle
Irvine CA, 92612

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

janet diamond
195 w.10 st.
NY NY, 10014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Abel
4183 Wellman Road
McLouth KS, 66054

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Flinner
1911 Eastside Ave
Nashville TN, 37206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Perry
1700 Octavia St. #301
San Francisco CA, 94109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Allan Spring
353 S Marengo Ave #11
Pasadena CA, 91101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rick Shreve
501 9th St
Arcata CA, 95521

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Matthiesen
717 Stonefield Way
Mt Horeb WI, 53572

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruth Roa-Navarrete
4205 Whitetail Circle
Niceville FL, 32578

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Touse
4771 State Route 5
Vernon NY, 13476

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

cheryl burtz-wilson 165 mountain springs drive
clarkesville GA, 30523

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phil Dixon
13 Gilbert St.
Mechanicville NY, 12118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

vincent f. mc millian
706 booker st.
sanford NC, 27330

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Clark
47 Wetland Way
Bar Harbor ME, 04609

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please do not turn your back on preserving a free and open internet policy - stand up for freedom of speech in the twenty first century. The concept of paid prioritization will interfere with a free and open flow of information. Do not exempt wireless broadband from equal protection.

The everyday people of the world recognize and salute you for your continuing support of net neutrality. Please continue to protect free speech and freedom of the press and vote no the upcoming vote at the end of December. You have done a lot for defending authentic net neutrality and you will play a pivotal role in the upcoming vote.

Sincerely,

Timothy W Coursen
1507 Rutledge Steet
Madison WI, 53703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruth Judkins
2310 Winrock Ave
Altadena CA, 91001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lorna Paisley
664 N. Hickory St
Joliet IL, 60435

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Wesley Humphries
2454 Glenmary Ave., #12
Louisville KY, 40204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nejat Duzgunes
508 Pixie Trail
Mill Valley CA, 94941

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bonita Hickman-Kamarad
46281 Comstock Rd
Comstock NE, 68828

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Chaney
18 Brookebury Drive
Reisterstown MD, 21136

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Todd Bloom
4905 62ND St
Sacramento CA, 95820

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Muchowski
2333 Guntly Rd
Philo CA, 95466

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Lehr
555 5th Ave
San Bruno CA, 94066

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please sir, we are counting on you!

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

charles bowsher
508 southband drive
Lexington KY, 40503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Taxpayers paid for the development of the Internet. Corporate America would not spend research money to get us to where we are today. Now they want to lock us out and make us pay again. This shows their power of money, influence and the need for more heroes in this modern age.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on totally privatizing the Internet at your next meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Givens
205 6th Av So
Moorhead MN, 56560

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kristen Zehner
118 Blue Spruce Ln
Marshall WI, 53559

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rosa De Santiago
2645A Garfield St
San Mateo CA, 94403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mary rojeski
2603 3rd st.
santa monica CA, 90405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robin Mercer
P.O. Box 1469
Mccleary WA, 98557

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for everything you've done in the past to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Be a hero for the Internet and the American people. Vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Sincerely,

Sue Harrington
9216 Randall Drive N.W.
Gig Harbor WA, 98332

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Morsberger
1530 Berea Court
Claremont CA, 91711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Kirkpatrick
6231 Plaited Reed
Columbia MD, 21044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Caroline Barker
8 North St., Apt. #12
Scarborough ME, 04074

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frederick Cliver
2306 San Anselino Ave.
Long Beach CA, 90815

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert C. Lappo
10237 Fernglen Ave., Apt. #203
Tujunga CA, 91042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katherine f
623 W Guadalupe #144
Mesa AZ, 85210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sheila wyse
14925 jadestone drive
sherman oaks CA, 91403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marlena Lange
23 Royce Ave
Middletown NY, 10940

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michelle Meinhardt
8680 Hidden Lake Court
Elmira MI, 49730

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bernie Schenk
8615 B Nebraska
oscoda MI, 48750

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kay Trevarthen
1256 Tinkerway
Glenview IL, 60025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laurine A. Fabrick
1819 Broadway Ave. E.
Seattle WA, 98102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pierce Delahunt
One East University Parkway
Baltimore MD, 21218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Fogle
2320 Farley St.
Castro Valley CA, 94546

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Fischer
6344 KIngsley Drive
Indianapolis IN, 46220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Fish
13883 Beech Street
Victorville CA, 92392

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Young
206 W 5th St
Cle Elum WA, 98922

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Trenam
120 A Suncrest Hill Drive
Petaluma CA, 94952

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane McCullam
9880 Fairmount Road
Newbury OH, 44065

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ross Spiegel
122 Popes Island Rd
Milford CT, 06461

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Schwartz
310 Piliwale Rd.
Kula HI, 96790

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karin Stork-Whitson
450 W. Main
Mountville PA, 17554

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a Bigger Champion for REAL net neutrality than YOU, COMMISSIONER COPPS !!! When the time comes for a VOTE on Chairman Genachowski's"fake net neutrality plan"--which is as FAKE as he is---,YOUR VOTE will be THE DECIDING ONE IN THIS AWFUL CONFLICT !!! STAND TALL AGAINST this small minded fellow ! ! !

Be OUR HERO for
REAL INTERNET NEUTRALITY !!! Vote no - no- no- no- on Chairman Genachowski's fake plan for net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline;

nor can it move forward without re-classifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful Public Mandate from organizations *and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity * of race, class, and political opinion who want Meaningful, ENforceable *net neutrality protections !!!!

Thank you, for everything you've done, to keep the Internet Open and Free.
*Please, AGAIN, STAND TALL *STAND FIRM for what is RIGHT !!!! At the FCC Meeting on December 21 !!!!! LET Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting SHOW what a FAKE it is--following the course of the LEAST RESISTENCE will get MR, Chairman NO-WHERE !!!
Keep OUR Internet FREE & OPEN
FOR The Good of ALL who use IT.
Thank You for BEING a MAN of INTEGRITY ---there are so few !!!!VOTE NO on Chairman's fake plan!

Sincerely,

Sr. M. Amelia Hawxhurst, RSM
1300 Strozier Lane
Barling AR, 72923

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Croci
41184 Julie Dr.
Clinton Township MI, 48038

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doris Ziefle
317 Centerton Rd
Bridgeton NJ, 08302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Strohmeyer
128 South Main St
Franklin NH, 03235

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Ambruso
1077 Bridgewater Drive
Prescott AZ, 86301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Moran
4510 Niwot rd.
Longmont CO, 80503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Clark
422 1/2 Prospectors Point
Grand Junction CO, 81503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Arthur House
HC72 Box 29G
Franklin WV, 26807

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ross "Lockridge, III"
12 Waldo
Cerrillos NM, 87010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Mazzetti
171 Bellevue Rd
Highland NY, 12528

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tricia McAvoy
570 N. Temperance
Clovis CA, 93611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vila Schwindt
20019 Road A
Cortez CO, 81321

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Seveland
P.O. Box 4103
Laguna Beach CA, 92652

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bruce christie
4472 cardinal cushing
claremont CA, 91711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john striley
2088 RTE 26 16/b
ENDICOTT NY, 13760

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rhonda D Wright, MD
3363 Narrow Land Road
Montgomery AL, 36111

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Javorka
1275 E. Elep Ave.
Colville WA, 99114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alexis Mohr
197 Cedar Lane
Ossining NY, 10562

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Webster
2815 Charlie Lane
Statesboro GA, 30461

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Rockrich II
1402 East Mesquite St
Gilbert AZ, 85296

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

* Zentura
PO Box 4111
Casper WY, 82604

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephenie Haehnel
601 Woodchuck Trail
Oswego IL, 60543

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jessica Cole
4369 Cleveland Ave
San Diego CA, 92103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kathleen quirk
1635 E. Silverwood Dr.
Phoenix AZ, 85048

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Marie Keller
924 Timberman Rd
Columbus OH, 43212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Blacik
124 N Park Ave
Waukegan IL, 60085

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Greetis Scalf
315 Village Creek Road
Aptos CA, 95003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marge Schwartz
PO Box 21955
Santa Barbara CA, 93121

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger Davis
11410 Grovedale Dr.
Whittier CA, 90604

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Bartels
38716 S. Starwood Dr.
Tucson AZ, 85739

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Harland
PO Box 2080
Candler NC, 28715

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mike litt
92 Wheatherstone Place
Lake Oswego OR, 97035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ryan Smith
6130 Monterey Rd. #192
San Jose CA, 95138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane E. Martin
314 Deerfield Drive
Anchorage AK, 99515

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keshav Kini
undisclosed location
Portland OR, 97229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dr. Alison Whitaker
305 Cambridge Court
Saint Augustine FL, 32086

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jak brewer
1114 rich mt. rd.
zionville NC, 28698

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Podboy
1027 Deer Creek Rd
Carpentersville IL, 60110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Darleen Bernal 295 W Clarendon St
Gladstone, OR, 97027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronald Ford
12603 Dawnridge Ct.
Midlothian VA, 23114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Dodel
6 Hickory Valley Rd
Stroudsburg PA, 18360

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Esther Brewer
1597 ea Isle Rd
Memphis TN, 38117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gregory Armstrong-Mazur
947 Ordway Street
Albany CA, 94706

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Duke
942 12th Ave, Apt 1
Huntington WV, 25701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Ward Mitchell
3040 Horseshoe bend road
Somerset CA, 95684

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carrie Skinner
PO Box 56
Denali National Park AK, 99755

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Zac Harmon
225 West 3rd Street, Apt. 407
Long Beach CA, 90802

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Mullen
212 Columbus St.
Black River Falls WI, 54615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lindsay Myers
8002 Lena Lane
Concrete WA, 98237

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vivian Nieuwsma
1089 N and South Road
University City MO, 63130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amy Nelson
510 Cedar st. Apt#111
Chelan WA, 98816

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

donald canaparo
p. o. box 1151
monterey CA, 93942

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gordon Osse
460 E Date St Apt 3
Cottonwood AZ, 86326

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,
I believe you are doing your best to keep the internet open. In fact no one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Luepke
227 Shawnee Ln
Polson MT, 59860

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Porter
1870 Newport Ave
Pasadena CA, 91103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Butler
660 County Road 823
Higdon AL, 35979

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Chittenden
2930 Sacramento St.
San Francisco CA, 94115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger Keller
231 SW Royal Ct.
Gresham OR, 97030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

I live on my Social Security income and use the Internet for many things...I am already paying way too much for these services...if they can further restrict and section out or censor these services it will become impossible for folks like me.

Many thanks for your consideration!

Sincerely,

Jeanne M. Shelton
1720 Beechwood AV
Nashville TN, 37212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Russell Doble
PO BOX 6492
SANTA MARIA CA, 93456

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gail Outlaw
2107 Bedford St
Santa Rosa CA, 95404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tracy Stone
960 N Townsend Lp
Post Falls ID, 83854

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phuoc Dinh
13427 NE 132nd St.
Kirkland WA, 98034

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

zachary klein
5 oakview terrace
boston MA, 02130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paula Gabriel
2130 Miramar Drive
Newport Beach CA, 92661

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

SCOTT PACE
2524 58 ave.
Greeley CO, 80634

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Les S Borean
22620 Nadine Circle
Torrance CA, 90505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Parvin
53-10 254 street
Little Neck NY, 11362

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

yahya Merchant
791 margo dr
Simi Valley CA, 93065

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dwain Jones
4530 Merrill Ave.
Riverside CA, 92506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gregory m. benecke
3504 1/2 Marine Avenue
Gardena CA, 90249

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Black
825 Snapdragon Circle
Palm Springs CA, 92264

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Raysses
28128 Pacific Coast Highway, #24
Malibu CA, 90265

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick Weisbarth
441Kauhane st
Honolulu HI, 96813

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Rodriguez
314 E 71ST
Los Angeles CA, 90003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger Leisner
P.O. Box 2705
Augusta ME, 04338

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gene Lawson
4615 191 St. S.W.
Lynnwood WA, 98036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

maja silberberg
12749 McCormick
Valley Village CA, 91607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rhonda Ragab
18538 Bentley Lane
Huntington Beach CA, 92648

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susanne Hesse & Doug Dyer
29003 nw 182nd Terrace
Alachua FL, 32615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

joe Davis
4816 Stonehill Drive
Raleigh NC, 27609

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Juliei Rideout
PO Box 5444
Kalua Kona HI, 96745

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James & Rita Grauer
P.O. Box 187
Williams OR, 97544

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laurel Wetzork
PO Box 80207
Goleta CA, 93118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lee Greenawalt
3122 141st Street Court NW
Gig Harbor WA, 98332

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Young
26200 Redlands Blvd. #51
Redlands CA, 92373

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

don somsky
714 golf club dr.
castle rock CO, 80108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Patch
3122 141st StreetCourt NW
Gig Harbor WA, 98332

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Castle
6709 SW Windwood Ln
Topeka KS, 66619

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sammy Cranmer
368 Lick Creek Road
Boston KY, 40107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

margaret EBERBACH
13 LENAPE AVE
nEWTON NJ, 07860

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Joiner
419A Atkinson Drive #804
Honolulu HI, 96814

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Quinn
11222 N. 16th Ave., 108
Phoenix AZ, 85029

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gilbert Myers
4620 SW Alaska St
Seattle WA, 98116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lane Childress
2060 Amanda Way APT 54
Chico CA, 95928

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Myriam Alaux
1921 NW Hoyt St
Portland OR, 97209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

maura mcbratney
912 I Ave
Coronado CA, 92118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill McElrath
2724 41st Place
Des Moines IA, 50310

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Connie Trump
2646 E. Cypress Way
Salt Lake City UT, 84121

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bailey Spencer-Jackson
1468 E. Woodbury Road
Pasadena CA, 91104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Love
3100 Smith Lane
La Grange KY, 40031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Bennett
P.O. Box 364
DeKalb IL, 60115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matt Bachelder
8880 Brown Ave
Kenwood CA, 95452

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Craig Federhen
50 Little River Road
Kingston NH, 03848

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Caroline Herzenberg
1700 E. 56th Street #2707
Chicago IL, 60637

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Townsend
115 Maple Street
Sherborn MA, 01770

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gabriel Lehner
450 W. 162nd St. #25E
New York NY, 10032

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lorelei Monet
1851 Don Ave.
Los Osos CA, 93402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Roberts
3298 Wilderness Dr
Powder Springs GA, 30127

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matt Birk
123 Street
Boulder CO, 80305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william reardon
206 saunders ave
san anselmo CA, 94960

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phillip Kerbs
8382 Archer Road
Willow Springs IL, 60480

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Fox-Kump
10701 Gurley Lane
Mendocino CA, 95460

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joel Parkes
1343 Maltman Ave Apt 10
Los Angeles CA, 90026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy McKeon
13768 W. Amherst Way
Lakewood CO, 80228

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Colin Manasse
321 THORN LN APT 1
Newark DE, 19711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lauriel Schuman
3531 SE Salmon St
Portland OR, 97214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Luis Gonzalez
2501 W. Zia Rd #9203
Santa Fe NM, 87505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Beswick
2242 Avy Ave
Menlo Park CA, 94025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Internet new is what keeps me going and hoping for the future of this country.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Delores Hardin
130 Herndon Rd
Carrabelle FL, 32322

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Dix
575 - 57th Street
Oakland CA, 94609

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marty Torok
21215 Del Oro Rd.
Apple Valley CA, 92308

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Gutierrez
2404 Eggleston Court
Rockford IL, 61108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Bailey
P. O. Box 992480
Redding CA, 96099

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gaynol Fales
Court St
Standish MI, 48658

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

NOTICE: THIS ONE IS DIFFERENT!
You have undoubtedly received a goodly number of these email letters, from people who took a moment to click on a form. Well, here is one where your correspondent is doing something few might take the time to do: I'm writing you a personalized message.

One of the things that makes this country great, despite our frequent bad behavior in the world, is its still-present commitment to the principles of free speech and democracy on which it was founded. The reason I'm taking time to write is because this very cornerstone of our democracy is at stake with the issue of net neutrality.

Mr. Copps, as FCC Commissioner, you have a unique and historic opportunity to stand up for democratic (notice, small d) principles, to show your true patriotism, to defend civil society via civil communication, to be an all-round good guy and my personal hero, in addition to being a hero for the Internet.

Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Don't just vote 'NO' -- vote HECK NO!! or substitute your own presumably family-friendly expletive before the "NO!" but please, do say NO to this inappropriate and undemocratic proposal. It serves none us us individual Americans and only weakens our great nation. That may sound hyperbolic, but it's true. A country, like any living system, is only as strong as it is diverse. True net neutrality encourages and celebrates diversity. Now that's patriotic!

Thanks for reading this, I hope you really did.

Sincerely,

Denise P. Radow
4246 90th Ave SE
Mercer Island WA, 98040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Bliss
1 West Edith Ave.
Los Altos CA, 94022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Enoch Smith
7277 S. Executive Drive
West Jordan UT, 84084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Levin
335 Lincoln Ave
Glencoe IL, 60022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Sullivan
2229 N. Brighton Pl.
Arlington Heights IL, 60004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Justin Kidd
2627 S. Lamb Blvd #342
Las Vegas NV, 89121

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kenneth murray
851 Litchfield Tpke.
Bethany CT, 06524

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sherry Kelly
12 Lombard St.
PLYMOUTH MA, 02360

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Troy Volin
2437 Tilghman Cir
Chapel Hill NC, 27514

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
Thank you.

Elizabeth Barrett

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Barrett
15 Chestnut Street
Boonton NJ, 07005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Alan Stratemeyer
2107 Oxford St.
Rockford IL, 61103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Billy McLean
15230 W Fish Lake Rd
Maple Grove MN, 55311

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alison Bravenec
503 Lockhart Dr.
Austin TX, 78704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

scott zippel
email only please union springs NY, 13160

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Manesh Shah
1788 Frobisher Way
San Jose CA, 95124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Krumm
1313 23rd Rd.
Kanopolis KS, 67454

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jessica Lederman
54 Village Green
Budd Lake NJ, 07828

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maxim Fetissenko
108 Bromfield St
Quincy MA, 02170

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

A. Theresa Lourde
603 NW 90th ST
Seattle WA, 98117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I appreciate your continued stand for real net neutrality. Therefore,please vote against Chairman Genachowski's proposed net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Mills
Fort Collins CO, 80526

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Czerny Auyang
1507 8th Ave
Brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Gale
1521 Carmela court
Fort Collins CO, 80526

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Peterson-Volz
PO Box 101
Twentynine Palms CA, 92277

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tes Welborn
2001 Oak St
San Francisco CA, 94117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Bey Greene II
913 York Ave NW
Elk River MN, 55330

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard kelly
12 Lombard St
Plymouth MA, 02360

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janice Whitaker
2711 Latonia Blvd.
Toledo OH, 43606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jon Rose
679 Cresley Branch
Ulysses KY, 41264

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dale Janssen
17101 Parker Rd.
Homer Glen IL, 60491

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Cotner
P.O. Box 933
Grover Beach CA, 93483

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Pritchard
183 B Stonebridge Rd
Woodstock CT, 06281

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Stone
909 Bennett Dr
Yreka CA, 96097

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Cauterucci
6128 Cashio St apt 5
Los Angeles CA, 90035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

We already HAVE net neutrality, why on earth would we need to pass new regulations to create what we already have?!? Please vote against such an obvious scam.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Dean Swift
1715 Monarch Lane
Davis CA, 95618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrie Nova 14125 Nancy Lee Dr
Westminster CA, 92683

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Ivan Rummel
1340 N Poinsettia Place
Los Angeles CA, 90046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Anderson
86 Amherst Street
Granby MA, 01033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cathy Caldie
6580 S. 650 W.
Columbus IN, 47201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris bauman
419 wildcat way
lebanon TN, 37090

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Masood A. Sheikh
135 French Farm Road
North Andover MA, 01845

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Suford Lewis
24 Wheeler Lane
Natick MA, 01760

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Bell
8311 SW Charlotte Dr.
Beaverton OR, 97007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nathan B. Hunter
213 E. Mapfel St Apt #B
Pinedale WY, 82941

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Pauley
242 32nd Ave.
Seattle WA, 98122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Allen Aastrom
213 Granite Chief Rd
Olympic Valley CA, 96146

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick Burns
RR#3 Box 247
Shelbyville IL, 62565

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Hicks
114 E. Mohave Rd.
Tucson AZ, 85705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Louis Joseph Simpatico
15 Golden Eagle Landing
Rochester NY, 14612

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Mohr
3773 Greggory Way 1
Santa Barbara CA, 93105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Skip Niemeyer
11704 Drury
Kansas City MO, 64137

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

allison carr
1916 Port Provence Place
Newport Beach CA, 92660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rachel Reed
6558 Medinah Lane
Alexandria VA, 22312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Ashkettle
125 Marose Drive
Pittsburgh PA, 15235

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rosalind Hurwitz
4346 N Winchester Ave, #1E
CHICAGO IL, 60613

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bertram Levinstone
15 Riggs Court
Basking Ridge NJ, 07920

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brett Mayer
958 Patrick Ave
Pomona CA, 91767

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Kilpatrick
277 21st St.
Brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. Unfortunately, there is a wolf looming on the threshold, and we need your support more than ever.

When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, I urge you to vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Young 1730 White Ave
Salt Lake Cty UT, 84106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Richard Kurhajetz
32337 Countryside Loop
Willow River MN, 55795

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Pawasarat
1412A S. 9th St.
Sheboygan WI, 53081

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Already Comcast is trying to squirm around today's policy and if not stopped, the venal will take over what should be free and impartial.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cecily Wood
10141 Century Drive
Ellicott City MD, 21042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Hutchinson
113 Neptunr Pl.
Escondido CA, 92026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Russell
1419 N Fairfax Ave Apt 1
West Hollywood CA, 90046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Walkingstick
100 Moffet blvd.
Mountain View CA, 94041

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Pierce
4955 Narragansett Ave Apt 13
San Diego CA, 92107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Given the hideous decisions your agency has previously made allowing media megalopolies to form, I do not think it hyperbole when I say that the very future of our nation depends on a free internet.

Sincerely,

Little Sun S. Heard
506 Cordova Ave NW
Albuquerque NM, 87107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Harmon
815 W. Denver St.
Greenwood AR, 72936

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Goodwin
1717 Olympia Way, Suite 104
Longview WA, 98632

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Medoff
303 North Meramec Ave
St Louis MO, 63105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gale Simplicio
1275 Tartan Lane
Morgantown WV, 26505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ian venable
1601 Palm
Fort Collins CO, 80526

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mara Shamaya
211 Gault St. #203
Santa Cruz CA, 95062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joshua Valencia
4163 Devonport Ct.
Hemet CA, 92545

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Come on! No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

K Lamb
1470 S. Sherbourne Dr.
Los Angeles CA, 90035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kat Malstead
35712 SE Surface Rd
Estacada OR, 97023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

melissa footlick
360 west pershing road #10
kansas city MO, 64108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat Allgood
401 B North Church
Lockhart TX, 78644

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Goulas
P.O.Box 738
Walker LA, 70785

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Moorer
2646 E Geddes Ave
Centennial CO, 80122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JJ England
1760 S Bentley Ave
Los Angeles CA, 90025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stanley Miller
609 DuBois
Elsberry MO, 63343

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Franz Amador
4033 NE 57th St
Seattle WA, 98105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

S Champion
1030 E. El Camino Real
Sunnyvale CA, 94087

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

d klocek
307 east 76 st
nyc NY, 10021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Denton
10221 Kamuela
Huntington Beach CA, 92646

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Juliana
pob 3441
santa barbara CA, 93130