Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Quick
431 Sacheen Terrace Dr
Newport WA, 99156

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cullen Athey
1000 State Street
Newburgh IN, 47630

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Ranieri
1612 3rd. Avenue #71
Oakland CA, 94606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary L. Cleveland
897 Culp Ave.
Fort Walton Beach FL, 32547

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

chris adams
3237 kittery ct
ft collins CO, 80526

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Palmer
402 North Olive St.
Media PA, 19063

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tawd Beckman
5112 Montague Lane
Pasco WA, 99301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

rhod zimmerman
4206 Box
West Hills CA, 91307

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jeff ross
3223 n ravenswood ave #2s
chicago IL, 60657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

james salvaggio
34 forest ave
hershey PA, 17033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leslie Osborne
1012 W 32 St
Chicago IL, 60608

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helen Martin
504 Liberty St
Houma LA, 70360

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Lang
547 Masonic Ave. #4
San Francisco CA, 94117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cory York
2201 Rockbrook Dr APT 711
Lewisville TX, 75067

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Valerie Standifer
512 Harvest Glen Richardson TX, 75081

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wanona Scott
2162 Ferney Creek Rd NW
Willis VA, 24380

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barrett Eynon
242 Curtner #E
Palo Alto CA, 94306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat Rasmussen
PO Box 13273
Olympia WA, 98508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha Holland
3515 N.W.17th
Oklahoma City OK, 73107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

We beleive that no one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please be a real hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christian Paul Schneider
3 Toiga Street
Elysburg PA, 17824

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Molthen
4455 N 146TH ST
Brookfield WI, 53005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph B. Iglehart
10101 S. 1st #7114
Austin TX, 78748

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lorin Holzbauer
516 S. Commonwealth Ave.
Elgin IL, 60123

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mike soto
176 la canada
la jolla CA, 92037

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kiwibob Glanzman
1220 NE 90th
Seattle WA, 98115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Mitchell
7 Bishop Dr.
Framingham MA, 01702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ming Ho
1448 Lucia Ct.
San Leandro CA, 94577

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kristi Kraling
28681 Co. 16
Preston MN, 55965

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Claire Hooper
Box 2867
Beaumont TX, 77704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ROBERT BEBBER
33 STUART TOWNE COURT
BEAUFORT SC, 29902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alison Rich
5443 Palisade Ave
Bronx NY, 10471

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kat Seis
1329 W Heatherbrae Av
Phoenix AZ, 85013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marcia L. Mason
288 Flynn Ave. #1
Burlington VT, 05401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Willoughby
157 Howell Chase
Duluth GA, 30096

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Gregerson
328 Hyde St. #7
San Francisco CA, 94109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Green
11850 Hartsook St.
Valley Village CA, 91607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lynn K Rimell
360 John Rucker Dr
Ruckersville VA, 22968

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adrienne Fabrizio
2293 Haymaker Dr
Yorktown HTs NY, 10598

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

S Knudsen
730 Milwaukee
Denver CO, 80206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Blevins
5207 Meadow creek Dr
Austin TX, 78745

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

karen Munro
19 Corral Ln
East Northport NY, 11731

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James H. Phillips
1615 E. Kirby St.
Tampa FL, 33604

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Miller
1390 Hartford Dr.
Boulder CO, 80305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Razinah Prociuk
333 Main Street
Parkesburg PA, 19365

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David McPhaden
5897 W. Rushford Ct.
West Valley City UT, 84128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Capizzi
Far Rider Farm 387 Oak Hill Rd.
Afton NY, 13730

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Habteab Gabriel
6173 Deer Ridge Terr
Sprinfield VA, 22304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

davian rawls
17 nevens St
portland ME, 04103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

MICHAEL LAMPI
2667 170th Ave SE
Bellevue WA, 98008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Payzant
3 Rollins St. C101
Boston MA, 02118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wade Biery
PO Box 4386
Chatsworth CA, 91313

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Claudia Rosenthal
3700 Bennett Creek Rd.
Cottage Grove OR, 97424

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brad Kloth
951 Homewood Ct
Decatur GA, 30033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

stephen Coffin
Po Box 4252
Stateline NV, 89449

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Griggs
814 West B Street
Kannapolis NC, 28081

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fran Hormel
4229 24th Av S
Minneapolis MN, 55406

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles McClement
308 ne 135 st
vancouver WA, 98685

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Cooper
309 N Birch
Glasco KS, 67445

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Hofsess
1580 Dallas
aurora CO, 80010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

diego rossi via falessi 11
albano laz. DC, 00041

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathy Spera
9393 C.R. 4136
Tyler TX, 75706

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynne Williamson
3625 10th ST N #605
Arlington VA, 22201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Paul Clark
39 Full Moon Trail
Black Mountain NC, 28711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Puntenney
909 Marina Village Pkwy #297
Alameda CA, 94501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Antonia Guerra
1264 View Street
Camano Island WA, 98282

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sue Langley
428 Clay St
Algona WA, 98001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eileen Mizelle
1100 Happy Valley Road
Santa Cruz CA, 95065

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Johnny Wilson
1503 NW 4th Street
Gainesville FL, 32601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tony Benavides
2587 Hill Park Dr.
San Jose CA, 95124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

neil giarrusso
1 riverview blvd. #5103
methuen MA, 01844

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

david trimmell
1775 w 14th ave
eugene OR, 97402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please continue to support Title 2 regulation of Internet Service carriage. Net Neutrality is a hugely important issue as more and more contents moves to video. Poor quality of service is also becoming a critical issue. Internet service carriage has degraded markedly over the last fews years for all but the lucky few with Verizon FIOS.

Everyone I know complains about poor Internet service quality - rampant oversubscription, frequent outages, high cost - and the problems are increasing across the board.

Please continue to fight the good fight to protect consumers and their right of choice of content. Internet content is one of the few sources of fair and balanced reporting left these days after intense media consolidation, but it won't help us if our service is so poor that we can't download or stream video.

Scheduling and prioritization of content is just another name for expanson of profit margin.

Satellite Broadband is too poor to be useful for anything except text browsing and email. Please continue to find ways to help rural Amercian access true Broadband.

Please help!

Thank you for all you have done and continue to do to protect consumers and their rights.

Sincerely,

Sherry McCuller
2317 S. Toe River Road
Burnsville NC, 28714

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Sawyer
1909A Springbrook North
Waukesha WI, 53186

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kristin Burch
2203 Rt 5 South
Windsor VT, 05089

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Dzubak
69 Elton Avenue
Yardville NJ, 08620

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Flavin
75 Terry Circle
Novato CA, 94947

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Heckmann
9656 S. Moss Rose Cir
Highlands Ranch CO, 80129

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Rosenman
8260 Avalon Drive
Mercer Island WA, 98040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
Sincerely,
Billy Smart

Sincerely,

William O Smart Jr.
536 Montford Ave.
Mill Valley CA, 94941

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stanley Pannaman
7301 NW 75 Court
Tamarac FL, 33321

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edward Bloomer
529 Route 49
Coxsackie NY, 12051

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Kinney
1118 Delaware St. Apt. B
Berkeley CA, 94702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tabbert Fiiller
1056 Pagoda pl
Los Angeles CA, 90031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Kochneff
1503 New Hampshire St
Muscatine IA, 52761

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Glenn R. Stewart, Ph.D.
4524 Briney Point Road
La Verne CA, 91750

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake "net neutrality" plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do the right thing once more by voting no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Rockwood
2448 N 73rd St
Wauwatosa WI, 53213

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sally Oshiro
2652 Golden Sands Dr
Las Vegas NV, 89128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eugene Strobeck
336
Lake Oswego OR, 97034

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger Cadwallader
1354 4th Ave.
Corning CA, 96021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

It's time someone in this administration stood up for the interests of average, everyday Americans. Will that one individual be you?

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tammy Alonso
524 Webster Hollow Road
Belle Vernon PA, 15012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Smith
3228 Guido St
Oakland CA, 94602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Valenzuela
700 Taylor Street apt 602
San Francisco CA, 94108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beth Braun
4457 N. Malden Street
Chicago IL, 60640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael McDonald
525 13th Avenue
Salt Lake City UT, 84103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Angeline Heisler
233 East Erie #1302
Chicago IL, 60611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jarrett Gilmore
6875 E. Iliff Ave. #326
Denver CO, 80224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James & Lynn Heindl
2053 S 86th St
West Allis WI, 53227

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Kramer
913 E Chain of Rocks Road
Granite City IL, 62040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Ralff
160-2 W. Chestnut St
Kingston NY, 12401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Catherine Miranda
1413 83 St.
brooklyn NY, 11228

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Theron Wentworth
4 Wells Ct
Kennebunk ME, 04043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21. It is the right thing to do.

Ivan

Sincerely,

Ivan Kreipe
6220 fairdale #68
Houston TX, 77057

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Lopez
4124 Marwick Av.
Lakewood CA, 90713

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jordan Johnson
103 Shelter Lagoon Dr
Santa Cruz CA, 95060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carlene Keller
907 W L St
McCook NE, 69001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Craig
3228 92nd Dr NE
Lake Stevens WA, 98258

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Claudia Barton
1247 Carmel Dr.
Simi Valley CA, 93065

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jaemy Mazuelos
4390 Pecan Valley Rd
Nashville TN, 37218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bethany Feret
6599 S. Versailles Ct.
Aurora CO, 80016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Mullins
110 Mountain Avenue
Bloomfield NJ, 07003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Shanley
1815 W14th Street
Houston TX, 77008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jodi Kastel
161 Sunrise Ter
Washington NJ, 07882

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat O'Brien
Main Rd
Huntington VT, 05462

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debra Webb
582 Traverse Dr.
Costa Mesa CA, 92626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Colleen E Brown
8865 Cherrywood Cov e
Cordova TN, 38018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sabrina Lee
2033 W Porter Ave
Fullerton CA, 92833

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Howard Stone
5524 Corteen Pl Apt 12
Valley Vlg CA, 91607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alicia Swaringen
1073 Jackson St
Eugene OR, 97402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sukey Barnhart
43 Eucalyptus Path
Berkeley CA, 94705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alicia Woods
1425 E. Orange Grove Blvd.
Pasadena CA, 91104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Fenner
202 Alder St
Silverton OR, 97381

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Howard Masin
813 Bordeaux Ct
Manchester MO, 63011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Malody
327 East Apache Way
Cochise AZ, 85606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

chad stemm
4505 NW Washington St.
Vancouver WA, 98663

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Morgan
8485 Crystal Ave
Riverside CA, 92504

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gerardo Cornejo
1836 Broadland Ave
Duarte CA, 91010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rosemarie Ruhl
14015 s. Laramie ave.
Crestwood IL, 60445

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dr. William 'Skip' Dykoski
890 9th Ave NW
New Brighton MN, 55112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rick Leaman
4901 stone gate trail
McKinney TX, 75070

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely, Philip Parratt

Sincerely,

Philip Parratt
342 Wells Ave
Oakhurst NJ, 07755

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kenneth Walsh
1235 Main Street
Dickson City PA, 18519

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Whitehouse
16362 W 138th Ter
Olathe KS, 66062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Addison McMechan
1917 Ogden Street #4
Denver CO, 80218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Kenneth Nicklay
2609 Brookdale RD, #5
Moorhead MN, 56560

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

L. Floy Gates
8865 Cherrywood Cove
Cordova TN, 38018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vesela Simic
94 Convent Ct.
San Rafael CA, 94901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Sweeney
229 1/2 Race St
Sunbury PA, 17801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erin Ballantine
3654 35th St
New York NY, 11106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Pederson, Sr.
789 Sutro Avenue
Novato CA, 94947

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maryah Converse
474 S Bridgton Rd
Bridgton ME, 04009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Michael Hughes
6408 East Marilyn Road
Scottsdale AZ, 85254

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Massa
20 Oxford Lane
Horsham PA, 19044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

One of the key elements in establishing a totalitarian state is to make communications between citizens difficult. That is what this is about.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jesse Barr
22758 Barr Road
winslow AR, 72959

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Leitch
20713 Moorepark rd
Three Rivers MI, 49093

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Meagan Ricks
726 North Main Street
Fort Bragg CA, 95437

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Francis Frellick
1705 Curdes Ave
Fort Wayne IN, 46805

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Sawyer
22327 98th Ave W.
Edmonds WA, 98020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman on Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Somers
25144 SW 17th Ave.
Newberry FL, 32669

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for your past support for honest and true "'Net Neutrality"!

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real 'Net Neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake 'Net Neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake 'Net Neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit:
* paid prioritization;
* exemption of wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline;

* not reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable 'Net Neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat Fletcher
3809 N 22ND St
Tacoma WA, 98406

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Miller
965 Magnolia Ave.#7
Larkspur CA, 94939

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Bailey
114 Craig Road
Sequim WA, 98382

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chestine Anderson
95 Old Somerville Creek Rd
Garberville CA, 95542

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gregory Fletcher
8235 Twin Oaks Ave.
Citrus Heights CA, 95610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul
MacDonald
Emeryville CA, 94608

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

thollem mcdonas
406 aragon
san mateo CA, 94402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jenna Matheny
1020 Josephine Street #A
New Orleans LA, 70130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The Internet has been -- and is -- one of the greatest inventions ever. It can connect people all over the world and is a great forum for many viewpoints. It is open to anyone and everyone and can be a great tool as we move forward in the 21st century.

This cannot be changed by allowing corporate entities to filter information. I for one love visiting many sites and I don't want my Iternet access filtered. How many people really do? What this comes down to is that the free flow of information must be protected.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan. Please fight for the free flow of information and protection for the rights of the everyday people who value the Internet.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

I know myself and many others really are hoping the Internet stays as free as it currently is.

Thank you for your time and happy holidays ...

Sincerely,

Patrick McEvoy
307 E. 70th St., Apt. 4E
New York NY, 10021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Duane Polzien
7639 Maplewood Ct.
Lincoln NE, 68510

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Catherine M. Tierney
4440 Lindell Blvd
Saint Louis MO, 63108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Danielle Pedersen
303 emmons dr. Apt. 7 b
Princeton NJ, 08540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Macdermott
11 Woodlot Lane
Middletown CT, 06457

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,
Howard Feingold

Sincerely,

Howard Feingold
P.O. Box 940
North Chatham NY, 12132

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Candida Montalvo
6735 Rix St. SE
Ada MI, 49301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gerald Polk
2250 Matthews St.
Atlanta GA, 30319

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jamie Tomek
215 S Cuivre St
Bowling Green MO, 63334

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I write to you concerning the pending on net neutrality in the FCC. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's "net neutrality" plan, your vote can be the deciding one.

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Please vote not to accept any proposal that permits paid prioritization; that can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely, Robert Wintsch

Sincerely,

Robert Wintsch
1005 e hunter ave
Bloomington IN, 47401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jonathon Williams
30 Clairmont Ave., Apt. B1
Asheville NC, 28804

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Molinkiewicz
14007 N 57th Street
Scottsdale AZ, 85254

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Rolnick
259 Taunton Lake Road
Marlton NJ, 08053

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

morgan paulus
1142 W. Columbia Ave.
Chicago IL, 60626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rhiannon MacLaren
411 N 3rd street
Patterson CA, 95363

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John H Anderson
4042 Albatross, Apt 38
San Diego CA, 92103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

stephen brklycica@msn.com
5406 108th st sw
lakewood WA, 98499

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

betty tuchman
5821 Bridleway circle
boca raton FL, 33496

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Frederick
347 Hudson Cir Bldg 800
Anderson SC, 29625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Abaray
2056 E Walnut St
Evansville IN, 47714

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Skylar Arend
16300 Sandpiper Dr.
Anchorge AK, 99516

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Deery
5824 University
Des Moines IA, 50311

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jevan Sinnock
11181 NE Weidler St #203
Portland OR, 97220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kerry Ridgway
508 Coleman Bridge Rd
Aiken SC, 29805

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william mc Guire
50 Phelan Ave.
san Francisco CA, 94112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Farwell
745 Lariat Lane
San Jose CA, 95132

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Fellbaum
10429 SW Cove Road
Vashon WA, 98070

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

randall reynolds
1100 hull st.
richmond VA, 23224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Barta
245D Memory Lane
Westmont IL, 60559

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lavonne Moss
5320 Shephard Rd
Miamisburg OH, 45342

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

david a woolsey
36 brimmer point way
ellsworth ME, 04605

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eleanor Brownfield
416 Glenwood Avenue SE
Atlanta GA, 30312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Hill
77 Schhultz Avenue
Phillipsburg NJ, 08865

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Downey
118 Nash Hill Road
Haydenville MA, 01039

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Isaac Motola
975 E. Union St. #104
Pasadena CA, 91106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sweet Harris
PSC 517, Box R.C.
San Francisco AP, 96517

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Castelluzzo
155A Sherman Ave Apt 2
Jersey City NJ, 07307

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Desmond
653 S. Canton Rd.
Potsdam NY, 13676

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen H. Juhlin
135 Candy Mtn. Hgts.
Murphy NC, 28906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Miriam Cooperman
7 Hemlock Drive
Clifton Park NY, 12065

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gerrit Sinclair
9 Norbloom Ave
Bloomington IL, 61701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rita Paulin-Alexander
1269 W Kimra
Meridian ID, 83642

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Spellerberg
820
Beverly Hills CA, 90211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

D McCaig
1903 Shay Road
Naples NY, 14512

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Walsh
933 W. 16th. St
Tempe AZ, 85281

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael H Zeanah
2205 Willow Ave NE
Atlanta GA, 30305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pamela Lau
1097 Smith Ave
Campbell CA, 95008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beth Hoke
153 Emerson drive
Wells ME, 04090

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Stevens
2655 Kathleen Lane NE
Rochester MN, 55906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peggy Franciosa
1 martins lane
Downingtown PA, 19335

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Graston
11333 Granite
Adelanto CA, 92301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

dwight fellman
7909 victoria curve
st. louis park MN, 55426

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Williams
5244 Fifth Street N
Arlington VA, 22203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Mix
106 Pheasant Way
Downingtown PA, 19335

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Trish Dobereiner
19940 Estero Verde Dr
Fort Myers FL, 33908

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Nordstrom
122 Howard Street
Jamestown NY, 14701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rhona Baum
Oak Street
Saratoga CA, 95070

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Ludke
27 Mary Street
Pemberton NJ, 08068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elaine Brown
11445 Skyland Rd
Sunland CA, 91040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

C. J. Maddison
239 Oakwood
Jackson MI, 49203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kim McCoy
2 Estabrook Rd
Worcester MA, 01606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patti Ford
PO Box 55
Brookdale CA, 95007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Spencer Selander
PO Box 363, 341 Pioneer AVE NE
Castle Rock WA, 98611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry D. Miller
4724 Halbrent Ave.
Sherman Oaks, CA CA, 91403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hal Nixon
1804 Lakesview
Oxford MI, 48371

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William O'Connor
834 Lehigh Road
Newark DE, 19711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Craig Dunlop
60 Lasalette Dr
Brooklyn CT, 06234

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mark Mahrenholz 6346 bobby jones court
palmetto FL, 34221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Henley
2903 Wesdell Lane, NW
Cleveland TN, 37312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Martellaro
8210 Caenen Lake Rd.
Lenexa KS, 66215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Carter
22 Eagles Nest Dr.
Scarborough ME, 04074

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Ouazzani
14525 SW Millikan Way #22015
Beaverton OR, 97005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Russ Reynolds
340 East 2nd South Street
Carlinville IL, 62626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Earl Bley
1880A Carnation Ct
Aurora IL, 60506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mitchell Riggs
11 Lakeside Drive
Middle Island NY, 11953

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mr. Lawrence J. Spencer III
Kissimmee Division
West Palm Beach FL, 33406

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Adit
1257 Avatar Drive
Powhatan VA, 23139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marcene schwarz
34435 Old Walnut Circle, Apt. 301
gurnee IL, 60031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bryan Unger
2635 Girard Ave South
Minneapolis MN, 55408

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Welter
4401 sw 56th av
Davie FL, 33314

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Moreira
83 Yale Avenue
Warwick RI, 02888

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger supporter for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's sham net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Norman Talley
2610 Urbana Dr
Silver Spring MD, 20906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gerry george
112 Rogers Rd
Orange CT, 06477

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Curran
8126 Cicero Mills Rd
Cicero, NY, 13039

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Rumpf
5005 Bosun's Way
Ypsilanti MI, 48197

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James M Gulbranson
1575F West Wayzata Blvd.
Long Lake MN, 55356

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandra Sweeney
15934 Granada Avenue
Apple Valley MN, 55124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert C McClasky
201 Park Ave
Grayslake IL, 60030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gordon Parker III
2609 Acequia Dr SW
Albuquerque NM, 87105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel E. Chase
503 W. High St.
Portland IN, 47371

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan Finney
2119 Utopia Pkwy
Whitestone NY, 11357

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The Internet was created at taxpayers' expense, so it rightfully belongs to the public. Moreover, in the world today, the Internet our only hope in preserving democracy in a world administered by corporate interests.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no to Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Weinstein, PhD
SUNY - FIT, 7th Ave @ 27th St
New York NY, 10001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

terry briggs 665 rustic rd
durango CO, 81301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kira feldman
4503 17th st NW
Washington DC, 20011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mays Swicord
1033 NE 17th Way Unit 1101
Ft. Lauderdale FL, 33304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

shirley jenkins
123 W WOODRIDGE DR
DURHAM NC, 27707

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Woodry
6219 N Traymore Ave
Azusa CA, 91702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joanna Bates
147 Ekonk Hill road
Moosup CT, 06354

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jacque Clayton-Durham
3859 W. 36 St
Cleveland OH, 44109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Juliana Gondek
6240 Whitsett Ave. #101
North Hollywood CA, 91606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michelle Edgar 31 N Gaston Avenue
Somerville NJ, 08876

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Priest
11054 Botsford Lane
Petoskey MI, 49770

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

I'm a consistent user of the web but haven't been involved in the "politics". However, I begin to see a bad thing coming down, and hope you will vote for "the average Joe" and not for the guys who plan to gain.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Downer
59 Pleasant St.
Cambridge MA, 02139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keith Wilkinson
8400 Sheridan Blvd #311
Arvada CO, 80003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James C. Saunders
417 Bryn Mawr Ave
Bala Cynwyd PA, 19004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kenneth Belanger
1711 Monte Vista
Pocatello ID, 83201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lillie Potts
2502 Babcock Road, #505
San Antonio TX, 78229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Heidi Shuler
4708 NW Harney St
Vancouver WA, 98663

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

We are depending on you to keep the Internet a democratic institution that serves all of us.

Sincerely,

Bekki Shining Bearheart
6560 State Route 356
New Marshfield OH, 45766

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha Herrero
153 The Masters Circle
Costa Mesa CA, 92627

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

andrew rogahn
1723 n. 58th st
Milwaukee WI, 53208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Deats
16 Forbes Rd
New City NY, 10956

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wally Rubin
340 West 28th Street
New York NY, 10001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

denis Morel
Box 754
Pie Town NM, 87827

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Casey L Anderson
2901 Indiana Blvd. #309
Dallas TX, 75226

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sherri block
2912 w. pickard rd.
mt. pleasant MI, 48858

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jon Kennedy
320 Lincoln Ave.
Erie PA, 16505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Luis and Lori Rodriguez
1257 E. Montecito Dr.
Globe AZ, 85501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marjorie Windus
1825 S. Stevens St
Tacoma WA, 98405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

K. MARIE OUSLEY
174 NORTH 64TH ST
MILWAUKEE WI, 53213

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha Logue
9161 Heatherdale St
Santee CA, 92071

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha Webb
12417 Cedar Rd
Cleveland Hts, OH, 44106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gray Anderson
9 Walnut Street
White Plains NY, 10607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Wilson
1161 Quantril Way
Baltimore City MD, 21205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jane Seward
619 Beverly Dr.
alexandria VA, 22305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sylvia dawkins
40 Cochise Row
Bisbee AZ, 85603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Sizoo
230 China Circle
West Grove PA, 19390

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Swear
P.O.Box 6093
Wauconda IL, 60084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lois Lequyea
8739 Seasons
Streetsboro OH, 44241

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

virginia aradio
1301 pinetta Circle
wellington FL, 33414

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ROBERT SMITH
112 S. KEESEY ST.
YORK PA, 17402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Scherer
7805 Bixler Drive
Austin TX, 78744

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert DeLay
183 Bromleigh Rd
Stewart Manor NY, 11530

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Stone
26 Birch Tree Lane
Charleston WV, 25314

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wade Davis
2709 Towner Blvd
Ann Arbor MI, 48104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeremy Gildrien
340 Halladay Rd
Middlebury VT, 05753

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

venetia bell
25 rue Salneuve
Paris TX, 75017

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Jasper
1198 Royal Glen Drive
Glen Ellyn IL, 60137

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marq Thompson
411 Jefferson St Apt 1
Warrensburg MO, 64093

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marty Howe
21 Julie Ave.
Missoula MT, 59808

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Ciancia
115 Valley St.
New Haven CT, 06515

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emilio Volmut
805 West 30th Street #11
Hialeah FL, 33012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Smith
P.O. Box 86566
Madeira Beach FL, 33738

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

MORE TO THE POINT - Chairman Genachowski, as President "Cave-In" Obama's hand-picked stooge, is gong to do the "Obama Dance" on this matter ... True "net neutrality" being the farthest thing from his simple mind !!! AS WE ALL HAVE LEARNED THE HARD WAY - HIS JOB IS TO DO THE BIDDING OF HIS HANDLERS !!! Please do everything within your power to save the Internet for the People !!!

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wayne Mayo
1599 Acadia Hwy.
Orland ME, 04472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

When my son set up my computer and I gained internet access my thought was that I could communicate with my family and friends a thousand plus miles away.

I didn't realize the great gift he had given me right away. I was with a carrier that was free for up to 500 hours a month and I was happy with my new found communication tool.
Then when I signed on to a plan that gave me more access. That was about six years ago.

I realized he had given me the world and "Oh the wonders I have seen"!

We were too poor to travel. and now basicly on a fixed income. My husband and I won't be buying a travel-trailer and touring our country. Nor will we be jetting or sailing around in our retirement, but with the internet we can still see the world with our own eyes.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Please do not pave the way for limiting my access to some of the greatest places and peoples that I have ever seen.
Every morning during football season I can go to the Pittsburgh area newspapers and get the latest news about my husband's favorite team, the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Also in our 36 years of marrage we talk more than we ever have. It is a joy to share our views on such a wide range of topics that we have access to today because of the internet.

Our son gave us the world. Please do not let this first step of regulations take it away from us.

Sincerely,

Veronica Petrus
5654 Papaya Road
West Palm Beach FL, 33413

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john batovsky
13200 south chester road
chester VA, 23831

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marcia Levine
2678 Rochester Road
Cleveland OH, 44122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shonie Buenvenida
56461 180TH Ave
West Concord MN, 55985

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Tribble
8035 w 149 terr
Overland Park KS, 66223

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Hyman
518 Cross Road
Putney VT, 05346

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mike butche
2660 carriage court
aurora IL, 60504

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Harness
Post Office Box 985
Upper Lake CA, 95485

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sammantha Lyle
502 West 6th St # 5
Bloomington IN, 47404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Austria
11318 Menodora Dr
Austin TX, 78748

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Hiltner
2303 Old Millstone Dr
East Windsor NJ, 08520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martin Springer
36982 N Wildberry Ct
lake Villa IL, 60046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David W. Pollay
24 Arthur Ave
Cortland NY, 13045

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Aufiero
4801 Lindle Rd.
Harrisburg PA, 17111

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Danny Wheeler
1833 Woodland Pointe Drive
Nashville TN, 37214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Beeby
22150 Gordon Rd
Finlayson MN, 55735

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nolan Foss
12325 Maplewood Ave.
Edmonds WA, 98026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Megan Blackard
16511 Avaranche way
Round Rock TX, 78681

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Louise Pisano Simone
2700 Upton Street, NW
Washington DC, 20008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Olga Abella
12129 N 675th St
Robinson IL, 62454

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kimberley Windbiel
65 Park Ter E Apt C77
New York NY, 10034

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathryn MacDonald
690 5th St. 107
San Francisco CA, 94107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gabriela Dombrowski
3824 Cold Creek Dr
Valrico FL, 33596

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Craig C King
369 Brady Loop Rd E
Montesano WA, 98563

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Schnapp
193 Brown St
Providence RI, 02906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leo Gorenstein
1533 W. Oakdale Ave
Chicago IL, 60657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolyn H Williams
3387 South Walden Road
Macon GA, 31216

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

linda f brown
13 inspiration drive
los lunas NM, 87031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Raul Cintra-Leite
49 Finnigan Ave.
Saddle Brook NJ, 07663

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Allan J Krueger
17186 Sioux
Detroit MI, 48224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phyllis & Chuck HUGINS
PObox 1210/711 Belford St
FRISCO CO, 80443

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Morales
205 Comeragh SE
Smyrna GA, 30080

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha Nilsson Edelheit
21 E. 90th St c/o Dalmau
New York NY, 10128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Scherger
41490 Chattman
Novi MI, 48375

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Welsh
14170 S 64th Avenue E
Lynnville IA, 50153

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kim Taylor
2471 Grandin Rd.
Cincinnati OH, 45208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Gray
10 cascade way
Mill valley CA, 94941

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dianne Yonan
2464 Plywood Rd.
Gaylord MI, 49735

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Ritchie
204 W Front St
Roanoke IL, 61561

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Valerie L Smith
#121 57E Quillytown Rd
Carneys Point NJ, 08069

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruthann Ovenshire
201 Bedford St. SE
Minneapolis MN, 55414

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

harold salkin
46 southlake drive
palm coast FL, 32137

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon Boxley
PO Box 1301
Marlton NJ, 08053

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elena Kaye-Schiess
482 Back Road
Shapleigh ME, 04076

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

amber healy
2220 north columbus st #3
arlington VA, 22207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

J Linden
Lantern Ln
Milford MA, 01757

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Francine Tyler
419 W. 48th Street Apt. 1E
New York NY, 10036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carrie Lynne Phyliky Rimes
111 N. Summit Dr.
Cabot AR, 72023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Chong
260 Elizabeth Street
NY NY, 10012

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michael johnson
1507 Oakridge Drive
Round Rock TX, 78681

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Abell
379 Beaverdam Road
Asheville NC, 28804

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Luxem
6402 Brandywine Dr N
Margate FL, 33063

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Sandler
1306 Peralta Ave.
Berkeley CA, 94702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry Grandy
2188 Gulf Drive
Mount Pleasant SC, 29466

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Denise Reeb
14172 Road 43
Antwerp OH, 45813

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Zarchin
5215 S. 44th Pl
Phoenix AZ, 85040

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martin Mills
2142 Persimmon Drive
Cibolo TX, 78108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Nighbert
2426 Clover Dr
Mechanicsburg PA, 17055

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kelly Moore Brands
638 Q St. NW
Washington DC, 20001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

anthony proto
17815 nw 60th place
alachua FL, 32615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please please please be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Sugg
1502 Newning Avenue
Austin TX, 78704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karl Hildenbrand
636 Co. Rt. 54
Pennellville NY, 13132

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Loring
11537 Austin St
Osceola IN, 46561

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard A Horton
1550 Novicky Court
South Euclid OH, 44121

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Fee
220 43rd street
Sea Isle City NJ, 08243

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matt Bell
1332 Kenny St
Reading PA, 19602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stanley andrews
380 Charlotte Rd
Charlotte ME, 04666

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

frank kerker
2841 NE 32nd st
fort lauderdale FL, 33306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sheila floyd
12865 sw highway 17
arcadia FL, 34269

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Koch
5323 Garden District DR.
Simpsonville SC, 29681

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dalles Wielenga
1620 Pine Needle Lane
Ferndale WA, 98248

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Charas
53 Carlton Ave
Jersey City NJ, 07306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Gioannini
205 Hoagland Road
Las Cruces NM, 88005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cindy Belle 12345
Crestwood IL IL, 60445

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rikardo Jahnke
43188 Guthrie Rd.
Gays Mills WI, 54631

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edward Matheson
2162 Centerview LN
Mound MN, 55364

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Arnold
PO Box 763
Penngrove CA, 94951

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

allen crutchfield
506 north loudoun winchester VA, 22601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Angela Villa
406 Aragon Blvd
San Mateo CA, 94402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

andrew pond
13 Country Club Dr
Bolton VT, 05465

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Schille, LICSW
124 Sherman St.
Cambridge MA, 02140

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sherrie Allyn
139 Berry Branch
San Antonio TX, 78233

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

steven STEVENS
1026 MILL ST,
LINCOLN PARK MI, 48146

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eddie Taylor
227 Old Owens Lane
Tryon NC, 28782

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sania Shifferd
7010 Twin Crest Drive
Austin TX, 78752

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rocio Lopez
1100 SW 8th Ave, APT 103
Gainesville FL, 32601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lois Wright
4503 Birch St
Bellaire TX, 77401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keith Gapinski
203 Hanging Moss Road
Davenport FL, 33837

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Autrey Porter III
6220 lemona ave
van nuys CA, 91411

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

E Peakins
box 178
Talmage CA, 95481

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Rodriguez
940 Market St #609
Wheeling WV, 26003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Brooks
717 Norfolk Avenue
Staunton VA, 24401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David
Aitken
Melbourne Bbeach FL, 32951

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gerald Radus
100 Green Street
Coal Center PA, 15423

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gerald fitzgerald
1054 meadowlark drive
fillmore CA, 93015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan McGrane
4025 Taylor Avenue
Drexel Hill PA, 19026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Hupfer
206 Samaritan Ave
Ashland OH, 44805

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Audrey Lima 1073 Conover St.
Port Charlotte FL, 33952

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Mack, Esq.
25 Clearview Ave.
Worcester MA, 01605

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jef Schultz
P.O. Box 151
Gualala CA, 95445

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eleanor Clinton Issa
1901 Arville St.
Las Vegas NV, 89102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brenda Badiuzzi
93 Weakley Lane Apt S205
Smyrna TN, 37167

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Riley Canada II
741 Dover St
Marietta GA, 30066

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy L Cowger
1538 Heather Ct
Wheeling, IL, 60090

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anna M. Doyle
965 S. Jersey St.
Denver CO, 80224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

annemarie Helm
29 W Lincoln St
Oberlin OH, 44074

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maryrose Cimino
4304 Cobblers Ln
Dallas TX, 75287

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

brady rifkin
16830 killion st
encino CA, 91436

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David
Jennings
Columbus OH, 43204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frances Marquart
31508 20th Ave S
Roy WA, 98580

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Hudiburg
P.O. Box 61
South Plymouth NY, 13844

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brenda Rice
1202 Liggett St
Lexington KY, 40508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ashley Mearns
1808 7th St. SW
Puyallup WA, 98371

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please preserve real net neutrality. It's vital for our national security that innovation stay alive.

Please vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Nelson
793 Delaware Ave
Saint Paul MN, 55107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Angie Grubb
1909 Andover Dr.
Dover PA, 17315

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Sood
138 Oaklands Avenue
watford NY, 12345

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Beatty
7361 N 600 W
Fairland IN, 46126

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Roman
59 Main St #4
Binghamton NY, 13905

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helmut Zitzwitz
2728 Henry Hudson Pkwy
Bronx NY, 10463

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Shomoh
rt3 bx494
Broken Bow OK, 74728

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James C Cleland
26308 Audrey
Warren MI, 48091

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pam Pruess
16815 E. Shea Blvd., Ste.110, #193
Fountain Hills AZ, 85268

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Robelia
423 Skillman Ave E
Maplewood MN, 55117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Murray Schwartz
2229 Calle Cacique
Santa Fe NM, 87505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kim
8356 Ora Belle Ln.
El Cajon CA, 92021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Elliston
984 Saint Charles Ave NE
Atlanta GA, 30306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robbie Billings
POB 597
Speedwell TN, 37870

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tony Menechella
725 Green Wilson Rd
Frankfort KY, 40601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald O'Kelley
615 Woodland Drive
Benton AR, 72019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

stephen warren
33413 walnut hill rd
waverly VA, 23890

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Rauh
1230 NW 133rd Ave
Sunrise FL, 33323

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keith Renkewitz
307 Nassau Rd
Huntington NY, 11743

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael D'Isa
45 Terrace Place
Kearny NJ, 07032

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martin Horowitz
0086 Sagewood Court
Basalt CO, 81621

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Sink
2724 Old Sugar Road
Durham NC, 27707

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jess Alford
34 Easy St
Tijeras NM, 87059

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

nancy e. heller
1601 third avenue
new york NY, 10128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Sanchez
2516 Hoagland Ave
Fort Wayne IN, 46807

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

matthew sexton
324 dover st
manheim PA, 17545

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susanna Hinant
8414 LaSalle
Morgantown IN, 46160

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cassie A. Murphy
1625 Sandalwood Lane
Templeton CA, 93465

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Valerie Ormond
63 Tanglewood Road
Brewster MA, 02631

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Clinton Scott
512 ACR 3144
Show Low AZ, 85901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Cronin
2210 Miguel Chavez Rd Apt 714
Santa Fe NM, 87505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Morgan
1407 Nadeau Drive
Los Angeles CA, 90019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

renae willard
2519 ne 5th pl
renton WA, 98056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry French
3667 Summerhill dr
Carson City NV, 89705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeanette Bayer 1143 W. Cedar Appleton WI, 54914

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gregg Hansen
4617 Granada Way
Union City CA, 94587

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carl Harig
32510 Pasco Rd.
SAN ANTONIO FL, 33576

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Nigro
758 10 Ave.
New York NY, 10019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brenda Tirado
280 Courtlyn Way
McDonough GA, 30252

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Negowski
43277 Cooper Foster Park
Lorain OH, 44053

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Annette Grohman
1835 Muliner Avenue
Bronx NY, 10462

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Klossner
1913 Red Rock Rd
Brentwood CA, 94513

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Cruger
6105 Shelter Creek Ln.
San Bruno CA, 94066

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Schrode
1984 East Loma Vista Drive
Tempe AZ, 85282

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Suhail Shafi
37 A Woodview Drive
Ozark AL, 36360

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Callie Jordan
207 W 7th St
The Dalles OR, 97058

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Patton
401 Woodbine St.
Teaneck NJ, 07666

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Orville M. Giddings
22 East St.
Ipswich MA, 01938

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Darling
648 South 15th St.
Richmond CA, 94804

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Liz Gaspar
161 E Heron Cv
Shelton WA, 98584

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Danny Wheeler
1833 Woodland Pointe Drive
Nashville TN, 37214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

wm noblin
Box 335
Vineburg, CA, 95487

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

L Melone
Brattle St.
S. Berwick ME, 03908

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alison Monroe
1907 Myrtle St
Oakland CA, 94607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Beachy
2212 Wakefield Road
Goshen IN, 46528

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ed Payette
4322 N. Kenmore Ave #4J
Chicago IL, 60613

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon McGuire
1247 E. Siena Heights Dr.
Adrian MI, 49221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Howard
427 kenilworth Ave
San Leandro CA, 94577

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

BC Macdonald
POB69
Albion CA, 95410

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Werme
25 Sage Road
Woodbury CT, 06798

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John N Chambless
2470 El Molino Ave
Altadena CA, 91001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Diaferio
PO Box 533
Manchester Center VT, 05255

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Dempsey
4809 N. Waterfront Way
Boise ID, 83703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Aron
3620 NW Fillmore Avenue
Corvallis OR, 97330

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

james files rt 1 box 142
Poca WV, 25159

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Evan Miller
321 Greenview Dr
Lancaster PA, 17601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chilton Gregory
1104 Marquette PL NE
Albuquerque NM, 87106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elihu Cohen
6 Bevell La.
North Syracuse NY, 13212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Desiree Warwick
329 E. 12th
Newton KS, 67114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Harris
56 Zion Hill Rd
Salem NH, 03079

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

You've seen the boilerplate, left in below.

At one time in America toll roads ruled the day. It was an impediment to commerce and free movement. Without net neutrality the flow of information will have a similar enervating influence.

The cable companies and telcos are a small fraction of the US economy. They should not be given an economic chokehold over the rest of the economy.

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

I now return you to the regular boilerplate.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Rasmussen
4005 SE Boise St.
Portland OR, 97202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

stephanie llinas
10111 86 Ave
richmond hill NY, 11418

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

myphon hunt
668 Sutter St space 86
yuba city CA, 95991

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Smith
69 Wildwood Ave
Braintree MA, 02184

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard & Maryjo McKendry
148 Baldwin St.
Lyons MI, 48851

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Craig D. Weed
189 Walnut Circle
Rohnert Park CA, 94928

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Frey
74 Old County Road
Cape Neddick ME, 03902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Greenberg
11045 Phinney Avenue North
Seattle WA, 98133

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Please listen to the people, not the big telecom corporations, when it comes to real net neutrality. These huge companies are already making record profits simply by providing access to the net. That is fine. But, they should not have the right or ability to deny access to legal websites anywhere in order to force net users onto sites that generate more profits.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Serxner
2412 Kilgore Ave
Raleigh NC, 27607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet and for those who use it. Please stand for us and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan De Yoreo
191 Bay Road
Newmarket NH, 03857

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joyce Leslie
105 Maplewood Road
Ithaca NY, 14850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Sherk
PO Box 111
Vandiver AL, 35176

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

This country was founded as a nation governed by the people for the people. The hijacking of democracy by big corporations has been going on at an accelerated pace over the past decade and we are a poorer nation for it. DO not give in to Big Telecom companies lobbying to get yet another free ride to gouge the public and decide who gets access to information based on their ability to pay. Its no different than a chemical company lobbying Congress for the ability to charge people for breathing clean air.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phil Allsopp
PO Box 5686
Scottsdale AZ, 85261

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ted McKnight
P.O. Box 272
Pleasant Hill TN, 38578

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matt Petrone
2912 Talladega Dr
Orlando FL, 32826

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dave Wiig
141 Benton Rd
Morris CT, 06763

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Zielinski
385 McCormick Lane
Crossville TN, 38571

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Thank you for considering my comments.

Sincerely,

Tim Glover
9446 Fleming Grant Rd
Micco FL, 32976

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann K Brady
1238 Thomas Ave
St Paul MN, 55104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Edlich
432 Downing St
Buffalo NY, 14220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Stolz
5097macedoniachurchroad
Fayetteville NC, 28312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Burgin
135 Lousiana Ave
Asheville NC, 28806

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
We need to keep this web open!! do not change for big brother!

Sincerely,

michael mason
20714 slidell rd
boyds MD, 20841

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Parker
28920 Oak Creek Ln Apt 1908
Agoura Hills CA, 91301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JAMES E CORRIGAN
1096 BEECHWOOD RD.
BUFFALO GROVE IL, 60089

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Russ McFarland
3350 Lebanon Road
Bagdad KY, 40003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kay O'Laughlin
23 Trenel Cove Rd.
Gloucester MA, 01930

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Arrabaca
197 Rombout Ave.
Beacon NY, 12508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christie Robbins
23
Brooklyn NY, 11238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ronald Wilson MD
55540 Howland St., POB 3233
Idyllwild CA, 92549

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

thomas keller
38 Myrtle Ave.
South Portland ME, 04106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Oscar Ogg
346 Beaverkill Rd
Kingston NY, 12401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gene Eatinger
1333 Hwy 50
Lakin KS, 67860

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

merle hooley
310 142 ave ne
bellevue WA, 98007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hannah Kaplan
16 sunset
scituate MA, 02066

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Walker
524 Inverness St.
Maple Park IL, 60151

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Louise Henderson
4998 North Dakota Avenue
Ames IA, 50014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Wilkins
611 Ruby St.
Durham NC, 27704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ellen Hickey
1702 Cass Drive
Bel Air MD, 21015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tod McCoy
1122 E Pike St. #1451
Seattle WA, 98122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deanna McNallen
861 Hummingbird Rd.
Cave Junction OR, 97523

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debbie de
1020 32nd Street North
St. Petersburg FL, 33713

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Hayden
5317 Fruitville Rd Ste 57
Sarasota FL, 34232

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Ranz
224 Happy Hollow Ct
Lafayette CA, 94549

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jim mazurek
15408 Chelsea
Redford MI, 48239

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terryann Gerber
5860 Klondike Circle
Brewerton NY, 13029

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Yemm
1417 Madison 308
Marquand MO, 63655

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maryann LeComb
3815 Boulder Drive
Troy MI, 48084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gretchen Heyer
5528 B Via La Mesa
Laguna Woods CA, 92637

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please continue your heroic stance for a free internet. I have problems right now recieving email from one of my friends and my some of my emails disappear into space. Interestingly the emails are all political specifically regarding the investigation of the Bush administration. I am appalled that my ISP (and I have several accounts and they all do the same) can tell me that they do not censure my emails when only email regarding one thing ever get cyberlost. None of my emails have ever suggested any violence, my great political interest is the investigation and publication of the actions of our elected representatives. Unless private citizens can know what they are actually doing we cannot be informed voters. And only informed voters can elect respnsible representation.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you! When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

MELINDA COYLE
8 KEEP AVE
PAXTON MA, 01612

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

You have been a real champion for true net neutrality. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done in the past to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat Foley
DurginTown Rd
Hiram ME, 04041

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lorraine of the family Kay
36 Ross Close
Warrington WA, 98125

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patti Roth
16507 Crossfield Dr.
Houston TX, 77095

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Snow
PO Box 2113
Fairview NC, 28730

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Juan Moreno
1938 Camelot Rd
ann arbor MI, 48104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gregory DeClue
16443 Winburn Place
Sarasota FL, 34240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

andrea steinke
1 feltham road
london AL, 85432

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Victoria Friedman
11034 St Anthonys Ct
Jacksonville FL, 32223

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melanie Wood Moody
1529 Orleans Court E
Gallatin TN, 37066

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gary betzold
8833 cherrylawn
sterling heights MI, 48313

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy M. Kosem
10761 Blueberry Hill Dr.
Kirtland OH, 44094

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

chris thomas 111111 severn MD, 21144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Potter
572 Clayroot Rd
dallas GA, 30132

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Bolanos
PO BOX 2791
Friday Harbor WA, 98250

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Walter Graue
830 W. 11th Street
Panama City FL, 32401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for defending net neutrality to date. I appreciate you championing this issue.

I've recently read about Chairman Genachowski's "fake" net naturality plan, and have deep concerns about this plan. I'm also aware that your vote will be the deciding one.

That's why I'm asking you to PLEASE vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposed plan.

I'm sure you are aware of the need and desire Amaricans have to have a meaningful and enforceable net neutrality protection and not false protection that has been praised by the telecom industry for its weak industry-friendly regulations.

Already I appreciate all that you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Now I am trusting you to vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deb Grant
60 Brentwood St
Portland ME, 04103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Jablon
2373 Ballatd Way
Ellicott City MD, 21042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Duane Stolldorf
N 2964 S. Parker Rd.
Ladysmith WI, 54848

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michael denny
3021 McConaughy
etna CA, 96027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn Flynn
2 CRYSTAL BEACH CIRCLE
Bluffton SC, 29910

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bob collier
2300 byberry rd
bensalem PA, 19020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

se venier
675 s vine st
chandler AZ, 85225

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I am very dependent on the Internet for my work with a couple of not-for-profit organizations. I maintain websites, and sometimes use heavy bandwith in doing so. So this issue is important to me.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frederick Goddard
499 Fort Washington Ave Apt 3D
New York NY, 10033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon Cunningham
23 Libby Pines Road
Standish ME, 04084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Bolden
8075 Laborie Ln.
Wellington FL, 33414

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat Pollastrini
331 Livorna Heights Road
Alamo, CA, 94507

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Hutcheson
1517 Bellevue Ave Apt J
Seattle WA, 98122

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vuk Vujnovic
Studentska
Belgrade AL, 11000

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laurie Schwisow
3251 SE Bloomfield RD
Shelton WA, 98584

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 10, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Hamill
1424 Porter St.
Conway PA, 15027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Moore
137 Arcadia Road
Hedgesville WV, 25427

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cornelius Coughlin
22 Grasmere Rd
NEEDHAM HEIGHTS MA, 02494

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sally Starobin
940300 S. 3370 Rd.
Wellston OK, 74881

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

daniela andrade
diez de julio 1133
santiago, chile CA, 90210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry` Winn
209 Buncombe St
Hendersonville NC, 28739

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dr. Steven F. and Mary C. Jennings
11340 Rivercrest Dr.
Little Rock AR, 72212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dana A Ginn
31463 Britton Circle
Temecula CA, 92591

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Commissioner Copps,

I truly appreciate all you have done to protect free speech on the net. When Chairman Genachowski's net neutrality plan, Please let your vote be the one that stops it!

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,
William Moffitt

Sincerely,

William Moffitt
874 Rays Road
Stone Mountain GA, 30083

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Huckleberry Rahr
1218 Painted Post Dr
Madison WI, 53716

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wendy Gauthier
8812 glider ave.
los angeles CA, 90045

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Viktoria Whittaker
3312 Rte 23A
Palenville NY, 12463

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gerald Morris
40 N Kingshighway Blvd Apt 15L
Saint Louis MO, 63108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
Sincerely,

Susan Cutaiar

Sincerely,

Susan Cutaiar
321 North Park Drive
Levittown PA, 19054

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

TERRY W TROTTER
APARTADO 24
CLADES DE MALAVELLA, GE SPAIN PA, 16804

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Denise Vaters
2209 Barry Drive
Fort Myers FL, 33907

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doris S. Wilk
207 Village Drive
East Patchogue NY, 11772

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dorothy LaBon-Jackson
14644 Ingleside Ave
Dolton IL, 60419

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Camp
6303 Indian School Rd. NE #202
Albuquerque NM, 87110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

C. Allan Dinsmore
4313 Cypress St
Pittsburgh PA, 15224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher White
48 Madison Road
Windham ME, 04062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ted LaFleur
437 Drury Ln.
Banning CA, 92220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john muskopf
128 hardy circle
pleasant hill CA, 94523

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please continue your heroic stance for a free internet. I have problems right now recieving email from one of my friends and my some of my emails disappear into space. Interestingly the emails are all political specifically regarding the investigation of the Bush administration. I am appalled that my ISP (and I have several accounts and they all do the same) can tell me that they do not censure my emails when only email regarding one thing ever get cyberlost. None of my emails have ever suggested any violence, my great political interest is the investigation and publication of the actions of our elected representatives. Unless private citizens can know what they are actually doing we cannot be informed voters. And only informed voters can elect respnsible representation.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you! When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

MELINDA COYLE
8 KEEP AVE
PAXTON MA, 01612

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Painter
141 West Haven Rd
Ithaca NY, 14850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn Goldberg
5924 Founders Hill Drive
Alexandria VA, 22310

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Irvine
5406 33rd St
Kenosha WI, 53144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Scrima Sr
727 Cassandra Lane
Lakeland FL, 33809

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Williams
2916 Klusner Ave
Parma OH, 44134

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Croissant
120 Perkins Avenue
Vallejo CA, 94590

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charolette Price-Jensen
4905 Opal Hill Dr
West Jordan UT, 84084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melvin Alexander
738 W. 2nd Street
San Pedro CA, 90731

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Tellez
PO Box 13942
Reno NV, 89507

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

eva marin 24 hutton ave
west orange NJ, 07052

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kathryn Viren
7001 Olson Road
two Harbors MN, 55616

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Taurog
7451 Herschel Ave
La Jolla CA, 92037

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shelly Glenn
614 Deerbrush Loop SE
Olympia WA, 98513

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Gonzales
860 S Knox Dr
Pueblo West CO, 81007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Derek Clark
1711 Weston St.
La Crosse WI, 54601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doug Taylor
94 Summit Ridge Circle
Columbia SC, 29229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

roger weingarten
184 Main Street
montpelier VT, 05602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please, be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization. No acceptable proposal can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dirk Kuyk
4270 Celt Road
Stanardsville VA, 22973

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ira B. Godfrey Sr.
437 County Road 4796
Atlanta TX, 75551

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Whitney Allen
316 Burkhardt Ct.
Oak Park IL, 60130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Mahoney
26 Jonathan Lane
Storrs CT, 06268

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
Please hold on to your convictions and actions so the people, of whom this wonderful country is made, will have access to their needs without big business control. Big business takeover is the downfall of everything America stands for, Please stay firm in your convictions and be the voice to speak for and protect us.

Sincerely,

Sr. Isabel Clark
3020 N.Ballas Rd
St Louis MO, 63131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donna Mote
1296 Fork Creek Trail
Decatur GA, 30033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Craig A. Becker
1415 Ft. Lloyd Pl
Round Rock TX, 78664

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Yasolsky
2227 N 12th Street
Phoenix AZ, 85006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hillair Bell
3020 Bridgeway #403
Sausalito CA, 94965

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Reynolds
P. O. Box 5161
Chicago IL, 60680

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Ford
16222 Monterey Lane #223
Huntington Beach CA, 92649

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

If I had the time right now, I would write you my own letter regarding my thoughts about net neutrality. Unfortunately, I am swamped with work and time is of the essence. So I am simply faxing you this pre-written letter from Credo, which in any case captures the gist of my opinion:

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter S. Groff
219 South 2nd
Lewisburg PA, 17837

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Mulhall
2211 Steeplechase Drive
Louisville KY, 40299

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pamela Cosgrove
1913 Kynwyd Rd
Wilmington DE, 19810

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Marcus
12 Amory Lane
Bar Harbor ME, 04609

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richrad
Sommer
Yorktown NY, 10598

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Never in this country has there been a greater opportunity for Freedom of Speech to be fully exercized than through the internet. Yet at the same time, our freedoms are threatened by those who want to control it. I think that you know the difference between real net neutrality and a corporate controlled net. Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan..

Be a hero for the Internet. The following details have been provided to me by Credo Working Assets, and I agree with them:

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vicky Turner
PO Box 10
Bennington NH, 03442

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melody Miller-Lopez
755 S Sherman St
Denver CO, 80209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

thomas and clarice freeman 6220 nottaway dr
shreveport LA, 71119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan Perreault
26 Wilson Ave
Northampton MA, 01060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Howard Friel
11163 Wheeler
Kelseyville CA, 95451

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aaron Stinson
824 NE 79th Place
Oklahoma City OK, 73114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lynn neujahr
n134
waverly NE, 68462

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hans Heaney
1005 Rayney Lane
Jerusalem AR, 72080

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please vote no on Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Voting yes would be another step away from our founding principles of the free flow of ideas.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane Hendley
288 Flynn Ave Apt 11
Burlington VT, 05401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Shafchuk
10510 Penelope Pl Unit 207
New Prt Rchy FL, 34654

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

stanley urban 349 cotton bay court
gulf shores AL, 36542

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I am an everyday person who uses the internet moderately and I am really concerned.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Please stand up for us and for freedom.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

The internet is a crucial resource for all of us. It is not for major corporations to get their paws on. We the taxpayers helped to develop it and run it so far. We should not give it away, in any format.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leona Stucky-Abbott
140 Mesa Vista
Santa Fe NM, 87501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gayle Sullivan
8408 Rockwell Ave.
North Port FL, 34291

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Folie
109 8th St. NW Apt#304
Waseca MN, 56093

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry Kelly
1118 N. Cahuenga Blvd., #110
Los Angeles CA, 90038

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Loraghne Henry
8807Citrus village Dr.,
Tampa FL, 33626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

J. Stewart
1316 Oregon St
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randall Lowe
3216 Young Forest Drive
Augusta GA, 30906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Leps
5312 Fadling Rd SW
Olympia WA, 98512

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

It's so good to have someone like you standing up for net neutrality. Please fight on at the FCC meeting.

Sincerely,

Alice Wallerstein
3505 Thornapple St.
Chevy Chase MD, 20815

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha Durham
5128 State Route 79
Port Crane NY, 13833

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Floris Gillyard-Lymore
12655 Parktrails Lane
Florissant MO, 63033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Zak Tessier
410 Karen Ct.
Marina CA, 93933

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon K. Raum
518 Carriage Lane
Gibson City IL, 60936

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jay Schieber
1302 W. Carmen Ave.
Chicago IL, 60640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jamie Metzler
1435 Boyle St
Baltimore MD, 21230

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Darley Adare
2625 Bucknell Ave.
Charlotte NC, 28207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Michael Brennan
4205 Sexton Lane
Dallas TX, 75229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Toby Pomeroy
4070 SW Fairhaven Dr
Corvallis OR, 97333

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leah Taylor
210 W Crystal Lake Ave
Haddonfield NJ, 08033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katherine Connell
5353 Columbia Pike #508
Arlington VA, 22204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

A free and open Internet is vital for freedom in the United States. If we allow corporate control it will have a chilling effect not only on innovation but also on free speech.

When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Wortham
638 Langford Drive
Bolingbrook IL, 60440

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Hurley-Bolinder
10640 S. W. 111 St.
Miami FL, 33176

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

louis ambrose
1709 cambridge dr.
Laplace LA, 70068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Jimenez
1723 Hunt ave.
Bronx NY, 10462

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James E Straka
9499 S Springtail Dr
Hereford AZ, 85615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Sofranko
468 Dorothy Drive
King of Prussia PA, 19406

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Samuel Stark
392 gleason falls rd
Hillsborough NH, 03244

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kim Wood
1560 Parkway Dr
Rohnert Park CA, 94928

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Perkins-Parrott
8425 Falls Creek Main
Durango CO, 81301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

todd pierce
1000 4mi 3b
grand rapids MI, 49544

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donnie Hudson
2408 Whittier
Springfield IL, 62704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Cumming
824 Sutton Hill Rd.
Nashville TN, 37204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phillip Eisenbeiss
6127 Fairwood Ave.
Baltimore MD, 21206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote NO Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lee Fellenberg
6220 N 50th St
Tacoma WA, 98407

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathy Pelton
219 Curry Hill Road
Sloansville NY, 12160

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ross van emburg
1250 O St.
gering NE, 69341

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Phillippe
1532 Silverada Blvd.
Reno NV, 89512

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Potash
71 Parkman Street
Brookline MA, 02446

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

margaret vanhull
3844 Lakewood Dr.
Waterford MI, 48329

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Stephenson
112 Orchard Crest Cr.
Clinton TN, 37716

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

daniel johnson
1804 broadway st.
lamar MO, 64759

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peggy LeMahieu
360 W. Washington Ave.
Madison WI, 53703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ole Klammer
Vestre Paradisvej 48
Denmark NC, 28401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Shaw
7048 N Wabash Ave
Portland OR, 97217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Mc Isaac
8 Woodvale Ave.
Plymouth, MA, MA, 02360

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely, deanna pouttu

Sincerely,

deanna pouttu
940 Emerson St #206
Denver CO, 80218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tegland Ormand
401 W Rainbow Blvd
Big Bear City CA, 92314

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Heather McCrillis
5045 Oliver Avenue North
Minneapolis MN, 55430

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Ribbens
W2445 Main St
Bonduel WI, 54107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Neil Redlien
534 Valley View Rd
Towson MD, 21286

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lamoine Hauser
18702 Spruce Dr E
Fort Myers FL, 33967

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Carrel
3041 Sprucewood Lane
Escondido CA, 92027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Liza Elliott
3N 238 Town Hall Rd.
Elburn IL, 60119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katherine Wojciechowski
86 E 8th St.
Oneida NY, 13421

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon L Boughner
601 N Main St
Fithian IL, 61844

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Lamb
550 Marshall Dr
Westminster MD, 21157

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Ulichny
135 E. Jackson St.
McAdoo PA, 18237

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dave Hermeyer
1124 Page Stret
San Francisco CA, 94117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Draper
13887 Hanover Rd.
Hanover MI, 49241

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jacquelyn Ann Judd
4113 Stonehart Dr., #3
St. Ann MO, 63074

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julia Briggs
6528 60th St SE
Snohomish WA, 98290

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stacy Hortaridis
396 Nantasket Ave
Hull MA, 02045

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeremy Scheidt
4329 Ashland Ave
Norwood OH, 45212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marjorie Freeman
107 Thunder Lane
Marshall AR, 72650

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Johnston
3603 N Hughes ave
Fresno CA, 93705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rudy Avizius
424 W Pine St
Audubon NJ, 08106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marna Foss
Main Street
Apex NC, 27539

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rob Cullen
4815 Kincaid St.
Pittsburgh PA, 15224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Swartzendruber
397 S Joanne Ave
Ventura CA, 93003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis P. Jones
2635 W. Wayward Wind Way
Tucson AZ, 85745

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

margaret gleason
500 nw division 372
Gresham OR, 97030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen M. Heidman
3659 Lindenwood St.
Sioux City IA, 51104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Bik
10 Pinewood
Carbondale IL, 62901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laurie Tenzer
PO Box 1988
Venice FL, 34284

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Jenks
250 Hillside Avenue
Sedona AZ, 86336

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Heller
421 E 8th St
Duluth MN, 55805

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bernice keiner
82 south welles street
wilkes barre PA, 18702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Vidt
849 Sleepy Hollow Road, Apartment K
Pittsburgh PA, 15234

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Arnold
PO Box 1672
Manchester NH, 03105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

E J Dow
2392 E Broadview Ct.
Sandy UT, 84092

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amy Burgess
1010 Goodnight Road
Salisbury NC, 28147

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Callanan
24 N Dee Rd
Park Ridge IL, 60068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Donahue
1745 W. Montecito Way
San Diego CA, 92103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Kedzie
1609 S Surrey Lane
Arlington Heights IL, 60005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Best
1426 Van Buren Ave
San Diego CA, 92103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Henry Wasielewski
1925 E. Hayden Lane, Apt. 106
Tempe AZ, 85281

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Hanson
10319 Leawood Blvd
Houston TX, 77099

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Cleaveland
655 E Debra Dr.
Fayetteville AR, 72703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Laczi
283 Tremaine Avenue
Kenmore NY, 14217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

christine sajecki
510 E. 33rd St
Savannah GA, 31401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

.Frank A. Hall
PO Box 777
Elko NV, 89803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dylan Ewing
98 Eagle St Apt 1R
Brooklyn NY, 11222

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erin Howard
50 Ontario St.
Corning NY, 14830

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Carey
5538 Bunch Rd
Summerfield NC, 27358

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Bachmann II
1302 Greenacre Dr
Cambridge OH, 43725

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I have seen you on television watching the Bill Moyers show on the FCC and net neutrality and admire you greatly. I believe you would do this country a great service by standing up for the interests of the average person and protecting REAL net neutrality rather than the prosed regulations that will be voted on Dec 21st. Please vote NO.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Heather Keating
2427 Fox Ave
Madison WI, 53711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sayed islam
9080 wild apple ct
columbia MD, 21045

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joann Marie Ronzio
4044 NW Cherokee Lane
Newport OR, 97365

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alex Tjeerdema
310 Country Club Lane
Napa CA, 94558

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vicki Grunwald
7140 Sunnyside Drive
Brooksville FL, 34601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Heidi Lawson
PO Box 3070
Arnold CA, 95223

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Rush
514 1/2 Pearl St.
Neosho MO, 64850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Angela Gipple
2607 Forest Drive
Des Moines IA, 50312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Carlson
19501 N 89th Dr
Peoria AZ, 85382

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Schaible
105 Greenway Drive
Darlington SC, 29532

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Howard Christofersen, MD
300 N Mineral Springs Rd
PORTER IN, 46304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Mastrogiovanni
675 Crescent Dr.
Bound Brook NJ, 08805

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rochelle Tudor
6181 Colfax Lane South
Minneapolis MN, 55419

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ROBYN M RUGGLES
9143 clear sky ave
LAS VEGAS NV, 89178

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Turk
33 Arlington Drive
Pittsford NY, 14534

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dana Shearn
74-13 46 Ave.
Elmhurst NY, 11373

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rickie White
245 E. Sherman
Macon IL, 62544

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john egan 55 may st
new rochelle NY, 10801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Monroe
828 Ten Point Drive
Rochester Hills MI, 48309

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Ott
450 Key Deer Blvd.
Big Pine Key FL, 33043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alejandro Salinas
2329 W Belden
Chicago IL, 60647

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bryan Cool
215 Saint Ferdinand
Florissant MO, 63031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sewall Whittemore
Brae Loch Rd E
Colchester VT, 05446

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Dennis
4015 N. Ridgeway #2
Chicago IL, 60618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tavis Curry
3199 Holloway Church Road
Lexington NC, 27292

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cara Mackiewicz
251 Johnstons Way
Dallas GA, 30132

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one. This is one of those things that seem kinda small but have far reaching implications. This can't happen.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Forrest Shaw
1365 Hawksbill Dr.
Salt Lake City UT, 84123

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jennifer kalled
33 north main st
wolfeboro NH, 03894

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Astrid Keup
Lxc3xb6hrbachsgraben 5
Allendorf AL, 35469

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Raymond Harrelson
11107 Fallon Dr
Sonora CA, 95370

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leo Bray
53 Alban St
Dorchester Center MA, 02124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Huffman
4882-145A Lancaster Dr NE
Salem OR, 97305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fernando Uribe
4839 Wesleyan St
San Antonio TX, 78249

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Theresa Granito
17 Over Creek Drive
Rutherfordton NC, 28139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

geraldine theobald
1844 evergree
alton IL, 62002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

June Pulcini
2230 The Strand
Hermosa Beach CA, 90254

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kay Crichton
600 NW Pleasant View Dr.
LaCenter WA, 98629

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jessica Lobl
437 29th St Apt 2
San Francisco CA, 94131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I really appreciate all you've done so far, for net neutrality. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lara burke
1828 n. gregg ave #1
fayetteville AR, 72703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21. Americans of every race, class, and political opinion want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Sincerely,

Lisa Bentz
PO Box 803
Colorado Springs CO, 80901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shirley Warren
12 Millbrook Ter
New Paltz NY, 12561

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul E Flynn
107 Robyn Ave
East Peoria IL, 61611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann C. McGill
1947 Rocklyn Drive
Brunswick OH, 44212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jenny Miriam
box 833
Nort MA, 01061

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Vogt
RR 1 Box 1722
Saylorsburg PA, 18353

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free!

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote may be the deciding one.

Be a hero for free information, our hope to find solutions to a crumbling democracy. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paula Manor
1176 Millersburg Blvd W
Dundas MN, 55019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

b,a, hop 1612 elmhurst
austin TX, 78741

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Denise Dean
3s564 Lorraine Avenue
Warrenville IL, 60555

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Caprioli
341 NW 19TH AVE
Pompano Beach FL, 33069

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joel Clasemann
2235 W Diamond Ave
Duluth MN, 55806

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

WE NEED GENUINE NET-NEUTRALITY, NOT THE TELECOM'S FAKE.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. VOTE NO on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Merle Janes
1414 N. Vercler #3
Spokane WA, 99216

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

You have been the biggest champion for real net neutrality at teh FCC. Your vote will be the deciding one when Chairman Genachowski's brings up his fake net neutrality plan.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable plan can permit paid prioritization or exempt wireless broadband; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband.

There is a powerful public mandate from everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Adams
9614 Summerhill Lane
Dallas TX, 75238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer O'Hara
1225 West Chase Ave.
Chicago IL, 60626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vicky Fox
255 Bancroft St.
Imlay city MI, 48444

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Walker
580 Herrington Haven
Lancaster KY, 40444

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Griffith
902 Park Ridge Rd. #A4
Durham NC, 27713

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

FAYE CHRISTIAN 68 VERANO LP
SANTA FE NM, 87508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Gonzales
805 Madeira Dr SE
Albuquerque NM, 87108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wm. & Jenna Labadie
POB 134
Sullivan NH, 03445

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Lewis
7978 Highway 100
Nashville TN, 37221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eugenia Michell Bainter
12591 Firenze Heights
Colorado Springs CO, 80921

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kalin Yancy
3262 Randel Ct SE
Salem OR, 97302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jaime Rivera
14228 Gaelyn Ct.
Poway CA, 92064

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anza Armstrong
PO Box 113
Ripton VT, 05766

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Dorsey
4964 Kingsley Dr
Indianapolis IN, 46205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cyndi Hunt
960 Towhee Road
Tallahassee FL, 32305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Ater
532 Appeldoorn Circle
Asheville NC, 28803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel M. Hunt
4011 18th ave so
Minneapolis MN, 55407

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helena Schaareman
932 OBannonville Road
Loveland OH, 45140

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eddie Rifkind
312 E. 26th Street
Baltimore MD, 21218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rael Nidess, M.D.
100 StoneCreek Dr., Apt. 239
Marshall TX, 75672

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please do the right thing. Net Neutrality is absolutely essential. Vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Hermanson
21 South Lane
Huntington NY, 11743

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mary Pelton Cooper
21 Longyear dr
Negaunee MI, 49866

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Hazen
3725 Enaign Rd NE
Olympia WA, 98506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helen Appell
9 Middlemarch Rd.
Douglassville PA, 19518

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Burger
612 S. Laurel St.
Richmond VA, 23220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Brown
2862Losantiridge Ave
Cincinnati OH, 45213

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lori Thoms
1810 Cole Avenue, #3
Walnut Creek CA, 94596

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Campbell
1033 Emory Place
Virginia Beach VA, 23464

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Russell Foren
450 Poleline Rd #86
Twin Falls ID, 83301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tammy Lettieri
2500 SW 15 ST
Deerfield Beach FL, 33442

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Byers
404 S. Olympia St.
Clewiston FL, 33440

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sidney E. Wechsler, M.D.
5650 Una Del Drive
Rapid City SD, 57702

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Pike
372 Browncroft Blvd, Apt 3
Rochester NY, 14609

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Files
16225 N. Cave Creek Rd.
Phoenix AZ, 85032

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Perl
2424 22nd Avenue
Greeley CO, 80631

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john bacon
34 Francis Street
East Hartford CT, 06108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Debbie Reichow
7664 East Clinton St.
Scottsdale AZ, 85260

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Jackson
1300 S. Beatrice
Detroit MI, 48217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Warren
P.O. Box 503
Halifax MA, 02338

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Hartley
1675 Saginaw St S
salem OR, 97302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

debra dougherty
4596 olde charted trail
poland OH, 44514

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Mansmann
301 Bigham Street
Pittsburgh PA, 15211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Bansfield
16 Common St
Brookfield MA, 01506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Niehaus
8001 Osborne Dr
Louisville KY, 40222

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roseann DiVicino
7528 High Pines Court
Port Richey FL, 34668

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Crossley
3072 Gayle Ln
Coplay PA, 18037

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marlene Adams-Phillips
131 Beckleywood Blvd
Dallas TX, 75224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bill roberts
1557 hudson #2
redwood city CA, 94061

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Norris
8 Sutton Pl Apt 14
Agawam MA, 01001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

they tell me no one has been a stronger supporter of true net neutrality than you. I didn't know that before, but I will be watching this vote. Please do not allow the speed at which messages are delivered and web pages load be determined by who pays the most.

Most of the news I read on the net, the articles and analysis I depend on, messages like the Credo appeal that alerted me to this vote, will be given such a low priority that I would never have seen it. Shopping will become the opiate of the people, and activist communications will become impossible. When MoveOn! tried to buy an ad at the Superbowl, their money was rejected. They were not ALLOWED to show their ad. This is what happens when corporate money controls access to the media.

In conjunction with the Citizens United decision, this will guarantee that only well-healed and powerful interests will be seen and heard. They won't even have to justify their decisions, because there will be no transparency. No one will know why billions of messages and web pages are given higher priority, or be able to police whether this is done "fairly" or according to the rules.

This is not a matter of private business profits. Use of the net has become a basic tool for political organizing. Without net neutrality -- every message treated like every other, always, regardless of origin or content (yes, even the ones I oppose and abhor), there will be no democracy in America.

Please do the right thing! Vote for true net neutrality, and nothing less!

Sincerely,

Sandra Brow
2269 Calkins Avenue
Idaho Falls ID, 83402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Becky Daiss
1276 N Wayne St Apt 1128
Arlington VA, 22201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Juan Soto
170 Bergen Street
New York NY, 11217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Olson
711 Colby Ave.
Takoma Park MD, 20912

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy Brock
510 Silver Sage Circle
Burkburnett TX, 76354

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diana Kaye
11580 Rabbit Hash Road
Elizabeth IN, 47117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lee Carrick
618 Homestead Court
Fort Collins CO, 80526

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

alexander daniel goetz
314 Washington Ave. #2
Brooklyn NY, 11205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gordon L. Grow
1618 Bayard St.
Bethlehem PA, 18017

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The American people deserve to have access to any legal information available on the internet without censorship of any kind. Please make sure we keep this freedom.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janis Wilkey
915 Mt. Vernon Ave.
Chattanooga TN, 37405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dianna Kane
1138 W. Exchange St
Akron OH, 44313

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bernard keough
921 s.e. reynolds
portland OR, 97202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dustin Ogdin
1105 N. 14th. St.
Nashville TN, 37206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry Walton
888 Vermont Apt 2G
North Bend OR, 97459

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary E. Ober
29475 Edgedale Rd
Pepper Pike OH, 44124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elaine J Bevilacqua
110 D St SE Apt 212
Washington DC, 20003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Boiler Plate address, below, but in my own words: "I already pay for my service, and they wish to tell me what and where to look or you can stand by and wait for what I paid for! My choices for ISP's is limited by city agreements with the land line providers and I don't want a cell phone. If they wish to quash net neutrality, then quash their natural monoplies; they did it with MA BELL."

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Dean
233 58th St. S.E.
Kentwood MI, 49548

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jai parekh
1705 2nd ave
new york NY, 10128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

cheryl canfield
343 circle oaks
napa CA, 94558

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gale J. Grow
1618 Bayard St.
Bethlehem PA, 18017

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.
Don't let Corporate America negate our rights.
Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cecelia Byrnes
1005 Calhoun Ave
Bronx NY, 10465

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

vicki williamson
6213 richmond dr
huntington WV, 25705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Slimmer
7709 Kolmar Av
Skokie IL, 60076

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Dallin
17041 Robinson Road
Gulfport MS, 39503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Haddad
29 Baxter Street
Medford MA, 02155

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Sham reform which cedes the interests of the commons to private profit is worse than no reform. Skepticism and disillusion with government agencies controlled by private interests has been quiescent as the public stood in inactive disbelief at the brazen corruption and manipulation of public goods. But this stunned acceptance of insulting regulations to prerserve the profits and status of a few will no longer be tolerated. Net neutrality is a central component of modern communications and will not be passively surrendered, whatever regulatory veil is attempted to be thrown over its orchestrated demise.
No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Cassidy
6151 green Knoll
Fairfield OH, 45011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

james white
3515 Fillmore St. 106
San Francisco CA, 94123

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Carlson
3519 Westmoor Blvd
Moorhead MN, 56560

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger Bedell
PO Box 2478
Taos NM, 87571

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

paul schoonover
5050 west 13th street
speedway IN, 46224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Heather M Boyko
529 N. Somerset Ter
Olathe KS, 66062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Darrell Stall
1645 Company Field Rd
Schulenburg TX, 78956

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mariana Lennon
11856 Balboa Blvd.
Granada Hills CA, 91344

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Twalla Haley
500 Green St
Vidalia GA, 30474

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Bolster
3754 Stewart Road
Monroe MI, 48162

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Wolniewicz
4736 North Long
Chicago IL, 60630

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Day
1171 Crestmoor Dr
Boulder CO, 80303

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Catherine Kappel
57 Winter Street
Leominster MA, 01453

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sue Pascual
7925 Prairieview Dr
Columbus OH, 43235

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Fleming
7024 Atoll Ave
N Hollywood CA, 91605

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rachel Pogue
2131 W Republic Rd
Springfield MO, 65807

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vivian Kavanaugh
6 Cambridge Woods Lane
Cambridge NY, 12816

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shawn Conahan
1115 Meadow Dr
Blue Bell PA, 19422

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janey M. Roth
10725 Hunters Chase Lane
Damascus MD, 20872

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Lundy
933 Ashland Avenue
Evanston IL, 60202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terri Moore
1279 Avondale Ave
Columbus OH, 43212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry Stone
POB 1458
Magdalena NM, 87825

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Greg Brown
502 Arbor Ridge Drive
Delavan WI, 53115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JOHN MORRILL
46 HAWTHORNE ST
PORTLAND ME, 04103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lourdes Underwood
1044Mary Street
Louisville KY, 40204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Gordon
133 Bergen St.
Brooklyn NY, 11217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Soldani
1595 Hill Rd.
Pascoag RI, 02859

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Ryan
7506 sunnyside ave n
seattle, wa WA, 98103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alison Abrams
1 Stuyvesant Oval
New York NY, 10009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sheryl North
5878 Bowcroft Street #1
Los Angeles CA, 90016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Kipling
203 Ridgeview Drive
Venetia PA, 15367

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marleina Michels
1099 Tremont St
Bourbonnais IL, 60914

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn Hillman
23642 Via Potes
Mission Viejo CA, 92691

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Schaut
3720 27th Ave S
Minneapolis MI, 48059

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,
Nancy Swearengen

Sincerely,

Nancy Swearengen
86 Linda Ave #111
Oakland CA, 94611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

P.S. I fear freedom of speech engines are under dangerous threat from many quarters. Please do not allow the internet to lose its neutral access.

Sincerely,

Kevin Ward
9B Avenida de Melodia
Santa Fe NM, 87506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

j eisenhauer
8 Lake Christine Ct
Belleville IL, 62221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maureen Carroll
404 Kendrick Ave
Atlanta GA, 30315

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Hosmer
1345 W. Cochran Ave.
Flagstaff AZ, 86001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shauna Sparlin
2034 N Pintail St
Wichita KS, 67235

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

It is also disturbing that Big Telecom and Media wants to extend their control of the Web before they have done all possible and necessary to provide true high speed on line to many more citizens. Many parts of this nation are backwaters for the information and commerce the Web can provide. This is why the U.S. is well down the list of nations that have widely accessible and fast Internet connections. This is unacceptable, particularly in light of the high fees most subscribers fork out every month, and given the government's own dire need to stimulate commerce and revenue!

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark McKennon
438 Sixth Ave.
Brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sam Elsom
211 Earnest Ln
Newport WA, 99156

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Taylor
214 Overton Ave
Greenville SC, 29617

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erin Pownall
4951 Sunnyside Rd
Middlesex NY, 14507

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Laguarta
2830 Jarrard
Houston TX, 77005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Mazurek
2751 9 1/2 Street
Barronett WI, 54813

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Otte
3466 Woodview Dr
Newburgh IN, 47630

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joel Berger
3 Pilcher Street
Staten Island NY, 10314

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Thank you please vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Correll
2721 Clinton Way
Denver CO, 80238

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matt LaPlante
18000 Armitage Ct
Homewood IL, 60430

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kendal Dazey
1409 Parkinson Ave
Palo Alto CA, 94301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Gonzalez
1085 Tasman Drive #683
Sunnyvale CA, 94089

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ralph sileo
93 orchard heights drive
hamden CT, 06514

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James K Gordon
229 College Ave NE
Grand Rapids MI, 49503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynne McNamara
1705 2nd Ave
new york NY, 10128

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bonnie troxler
8210 pine creek dr
evansville IN, 47710

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Frost
13 Battery Street
Plattsburgh NY, 12901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Junior McCann
20509 Lawrence 2207
Aurora MO, 65605

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jo Polk-Matthews
930 US Highway 31
Elk Rapids KY, 42629

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara A. Campbell
485 S. Tannahill St.
Vidor TX, 77662

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tais Howard
74 Garland St
Everett MA, 02149

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marta Sanchez
P.O. Box 19761
Seattle WA, 98109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I'm very concerned about big business's efforts to command administrative authority and psecial advantages on the internet.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Benson
PO Box 1257
Blue Hill ME, 04614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ditra Walsh
PO Box 158
New York NY, 10014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Walt Marchel
POB 1451
Newport OR, 97365

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandy Beck
2230 Russell Dr
Iowa City IA, 52240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

D Kessler
Newcomb St
Arlington MA, 02474

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gunther S. Fonken
1914 Hillsdale Ave.
Kalamazoo MI, 49006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Johnny M. Mims
1430 154th Ave N.E. #4507
Bellevue WA, 98007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jo Carbone
1062 Delta Dr. #D
Lafayette CO, 80026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christian Camphire
1421 70th St Ct E
Bradenton FL, 34208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rev. Fredrica K. Meitzen
335 Ridge Ave
Gettysburg PA, 17325

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

More and more, money is determining how and what the internet will mean. Refuse to go along with the urge to give those able to spend more opportunities than the average citizen.

True net neutrality is just that. No one gets a leg up on anyone else.

Please do not pass a regulatory package that heavily favors the Telecom industry to the exclusion of all us "average" Joes.

Sincerely, Joe DesBarres

Sincerely,

Joe DesBarres
3507 Newton Street
Torrance CA, 90505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerry Cayford
6 First Avenue
Brunswick MD, 21716

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Greene
1113 Cedars Ct.
Lebanon IN, 46052

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sonni Williams
P.O. Box 17739
Wichita KS, 67217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

r mattacola
3095 hedaro ct
lafayette CA, 94549

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brent Hepner
720 Pennsylvania Ave
Norfolk VA, 23508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Sweeney
4213 N. Farwell Ave.
Shorewood WI, 53211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Murray
1170 Thomas Rd
Decatur GA, 30030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Murrie Gene Kinney Jr
38 County Road 4531
Dayton TX, 77535

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

hyman brett
2331 ocean avenue
brooklyn,ny NY, 11229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

clare weaver
7425 witter road
sebastopol CA, 95472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Burns
7809 14th Ave
Brooklyn NY, 11228

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vera Brown
6 Barcelona Circle
Redwood City CA, 94065

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jessica Godfrey
606 West Randall
Beeville TX, 78102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Hunter
1125 W. Willetta St.
Phoenix AZ, 85007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John spence
4616 Whitestone Drive
Richmond VA, 23234

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Terry Davis
3501 Hannett Ave NE
Albuquerque NM, 87106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Carroll
212 Esty St.
Ithaca NY, 14850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Forister
1513 spencer
Rolla MO, 65401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Orr
6700 forest dr
Sugar land TX, 77477

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Net neutrality is what's made the internet the powerful tool it has become. Please vote to maintain it by voting against Genachowski's proposal. The last thing we need is for internet access to become like cable tv, and for the broadband companies to put a stranglehold over it.

Please do the right thing. Thanks.

Sincerely,

V.P. Gagnon Jr
504 Utica St
Ithaca NY, 14850

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john barkley
1705 Meander Dr
austin TX, 78721

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Mundt
P.O. Box 313
Newark Valley NY, 13811

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Weaver
3066 Terramar Drive
Chamblee GA, 30341

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keith Hiestand
877 N 264 W
Valparaiso IN, 46385

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Solomon
271 Marietta Ln
Shipman VA, 22971

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Tallmadge
1655 Pomeroy Ave.
Santa Clara CA, 95051

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

deborah hoff
1170 Milo Circle
Lafayette CO, 80026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mercedes McCarter
2551 E. Boise Avenue
Boise ID, 83706

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sascha Arbouet
227 Crawford Ave
Syracuse NY, 13224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Trent Block
P.O. Box 5823
Incline Village NV, 89450

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Gibbings
14684 Riverside ST
Livonia MI, 48154

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Mitchell
667 Cloverdale
Ann Arbor MI, 48105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I am just learning about Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan. I am a seminary student who operates a small business support service using the internet. With the Chairman's plan in place I and others like me will be put at great disadvantage. There is no way we can compete with the big boys. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gail L. Smith

Sincerely,

Gaill L. Smith
12 Ravenwood Circle
O'Fallon IL, 62269

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please don't allow big internet companies to dictate what I can and cannot access under Genachowski's fake "net neutrality" proposal. I understand that you have always been supportive of true net neutrality and I hope you will continue in that position. There are too many voices in DC on the side of big business and not enough on the side of the consumer. Help us by voting no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa DeFrancesco
5127 Timbercreek Ct.
Richmond VA, 23237

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

DON RAHM
15301 122ND AVE CT E
PUYALLUP WA, 98374

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Saundra Gayhart
420 San Lanta Cir
Sanford FL, 32771

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kurt Olsen
910 S Milton AVe
Prescott AZ, 86303

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan. We salute you and beg for your help.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David M Eggleston
1605 W Tennessee
Midland TX, 79701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cris Combs
830 New York Street
Lawrence KS, 66044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia McDevitt
356 Nahant Road
Nahant MA, 1908

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

david butcher
281 dutton dr.
Pagosa Springs CO, 81147

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

stack kenny
4 detroit pl
Asheville NC, 28806

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rick Grey
1135A Canterbury Ct
Indianapolis IN, 46260

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Brown
517 Westward Drive
Royse City TX, 75189

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jodie hunt
1065 second ave
salt lake city UT, 84103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Letizia
2061 Talon Way
San Diego CA, 92123

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

katherine sullivan
115 main st
jericho VT, 05465

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Cuccaro
2302 Maytime Dr
Gambrills MD, 21054

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Fish
19980 Meadowlark Drive
Castro Valley CA, 94546

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jose Luis Aguilar Carbajal
3549 South Wallace Street Apt. 2
Chicago IL, 60609

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Nelson
17 Schoolhouse Ln
Poughkeepsie NY, 12603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Hewett
23 Amherst Ct.
Conroe TX, 77304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Lindberg
1616 38th Street
Des Moines IA, 50310

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keith Norris
4211 Owl Creek Dr
Madison WI, 53718

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The rest of this is a form letter but please let me say personally that it's very scary to think of big telecom censoring our Internet, deciding what content is acceptable to be accessed. Please stand up against this.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daryl Odefey
35 S. Logan St. #502
Denver CO, 80209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

janet wagner
p.o.box 81
sunbury PA, 17801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Glenn Teschendorf
501 N Owen Dr
Madison WI, 53705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

My rights are under attack. Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stuart Tanquist
13712 James Avenue South
Burnsville MN, 55337

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chelo Ludden
PO Box 277
Trinidad CO, 81082

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

joshua rooker
424 se 31st ave apt2
portland OR, 97214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beverly Foltz
1527 13TH Avenue Fi
Fox Island WA, 98333

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ida Wye
1 Andover st
Georgetown MA, 01833

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Grover McCoury
368 Evergreen Lane
Boone NC, 28607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gena Kennedy
PO Box 5202
Victoria TX, 77903

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jimmie R Tryon
4241 Biltmore Drive
Corpus Christi TX, 78413

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

G Allen Daily
4119 N 110th St
Wauwatosa WI, 53222

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Hargrove
8508 Adirondack Cove
Austin TX, 78759

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Danny Cherry
1666 Joffre Road
Forked River NJ, 08731

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carole Eggum
450 Bench Blvd
Billings MT, 59105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert E Whitley
1313 NW 15th
Moore OK, 73170

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Greiner
2607 Rip Van Winkle
Pearland TX, 77581

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

TANYA LOOSA
4807 n. fairfield ave
chicago IL, 60625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Loren Anderson
2118 Seaton Court
Champaign IL, 61821

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Red Taylor
100 Southern Cross Ct.
Roseville CA, 95747

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

john mathias
805 limestone circle
Russellville AR, 72802

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

larry rowlson
2921 mullet ave.
sebring FL, 33870

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard W. Inglis
411 Pierre Dr.
Kennett Square PA, 19348

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marlow Johnson
2313 Laurel Ave
Janesville WI, 53548

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dianna North
800 High St. Unit 202
Erie CO, 80516

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julio Munoz
2147 Tomlinson Avenue
Bronx NY, 10461

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vern Rutter
3681 NE Tahuya River Rd
Tahuya WA, 98588

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rick Whitman
730 Moccasin Trl
Billings MT, 59105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Turner
1030 orgot rd.
Mesilla Park NM, 88047

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Finch
432 Highland Blvd
Bremen, OH, 43107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lorne Beatty
573 N. Maxfield Road
Brighton MI, 48114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andi Corey
8425 Seward St
omaha NE, 68114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Phillip Alward
10480 Fenton Rd.
Fenton MI, 48430

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Antonio Cutolo-Ring
503 Franklin Avenue
Weston MO, 64098

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Manuel Aguirre
4700 E. Thomas Road 103
Phoenix AZ, 85018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerome Kloberdanz
820 Cedar Street
Webster City IA, 50595

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Philip Skau
PO Box 25
Scottsdale AZ, 85252

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. Your vote will make or break the Genachowski fake net neutrality plan.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote "no" on Chairman Genachowski's plan: no acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michelle Bourg
1082 Boardwalk Pl
Lawrenceville GA, 30044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aileen Satushek
693 E. Axton Road
Bellingham WA, 98226

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Philip Skau
PO Box 25
Scottsdale AZ, 85252

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aileen Satushek
693 E. Axton Road
Bellingham WA, 98226

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jazmin Idakaar
4404 Walnut St BSMT
Philadelphia PA, 19104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Raphael Pristoop
40 W 116th st
New York NY, 10026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martin Chislom, jR
1211 Reynolds #A
Kansas City KS, 66102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary C. Carras
11 MacArthur Blvd.
Westmont NJ, 08108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ramona MENISH
316 Sudden Valley
Bellingham WA, 98229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Connelly
1115 Hunt Dr.
Hartsville SC, 29550

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tracie Hitter
121 W Chestnut #A
Las Cruces NM, 88005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vera Ross
2973 Fourth st.
Norristown PA, 19403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicole Burns
109 Jump street
chicago IL, 60622

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hal S. Pope
4342 Castlewood Ct
Columbus GA, 31907

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Rosenthal
220 N Zapata Hwy #11
Laredo TX, 78043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Carey
7523 N. Berkeley Ave.
Portland OR, 97203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Virginia Evinger
6081 Golden Center Ct # 216-3B
Placerville CA, 95667

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Myra Bieri
511 W. Grove St.
Wautoma WI, 54982

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

martyn bassett
1 feltham road
london IL, 60004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Labby
1259 Electric
Lincoln Park MI, 48146

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rita Jefferson
4671 N Kasson Ave
Chicago IL, 60630

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

We need you to continue your efforts to protect the net by supporting real net neutrality. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan A. Wallace
532 CR 4760
Winnsboro TX, 75494

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry Halpern
2121 Kenton Street
Springfield OH, 45505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Brewer
6673 N. Hwy 51
Perryville, MO, 63775

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Connie J. Crew
407 South Hayford Ave
Lansing MI, 48912

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynn Ferguson
205 S crystal St
Butte MT, 59701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Tagliarina
465 Buckland Hills Dr., Apt. 33221
Manchester CT, 06042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Brancati
P.O.Box 492
Loxahatchee FL, 33470

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Bejarano
32831 Magdaleno Court
Lake Elsinore CA, 92530

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Poss
1280 W. Blosser Ranch Rd.
Pahrump NV, 89060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vladimir Enlow
111 Acklen Park Drive, Apt. D-108
Nashville TN, 37203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Pittman
740 Lockwood St. NE
Grand Rapids MI, 49503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michele Hampton
30 Oberon Rd
Tularosa NM, 88352

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ted Kozlowski
5409 SW Scholls Fry Rd Apt 25
Portland OR, 97225

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Munch
140 Valparaiso Ave.
Atherton CA, 94027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Bishop
245 Ridge Rd
Highland Park IL, 60035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lydia Johns
435 Winona Street
Philadelphia PA, 19144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Goddard
1245 robin
Muskegon MI, 49445

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Winnie Hiller
13816 Califa St.
Van Nuys CA, 91401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Please do not let big business win again. What is their goal but to enhance their bottom line? Who will stand for the regular folks?

Thank you!

Sincerely,

Teena Wells
387 W. Elm St.
Louisville, CO, 80027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lance Michel
60 Wayne St
Jersey City NJ, 07302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Sir,

The mission of the FCC is to manage electromagnetic communications media For the People. I therefore ask you to vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

There is only one Internet, and consumers should be allowed to access any website, service or application on any device of their choosing for free (whether they're accessing the Internet wirelessly or not) without interference, tracking or monitoring by big business.

There is a powerful mandate from everyday people reflecting a vast cross section of America's diversity in race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thanking you in advance for everything you've done and will do to keep the Internet open and free, please vote no to Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,
//SIGNED//
John P. Wohlwend

Sincerely,

JOHN P. WOHLWEND
218 Graham St.
EASLEY SC, 29640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marti S. King
6219 Lochlevin Cove
Memphis TN, 38119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joanna Morgan
1843 El Camino de la Luz
Santa Barbara CA, 93109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Vosburgh
6 Third Avenue, #5
Atlantic Highlands NJ, 07716

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha Izzo
6490 Kinney Creek
Evergreen CO, 80439

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dee Schauer
498 C. R. 4699
Boyd TX, 76023

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eugene W. McKamey
9001 N.E 83rd Court
Vancouver WA, 98662

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry McParland
6840 Stockard Rd Lot 5
Graham NC, 27253

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

V Bostock
17 Cliveden Green
Altadena CA, 91001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Quinby
5824 Kent Pl
San Diego CA, 92120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Spradlin
307 Wilson Dr. SW
Jacksonville AL, 36265

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Arnest
1445 Greenwich Street
San Francisco CA, 94109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lynn beagle
38500 n lakeside pl
antioch IL, 60002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Thomas
11271 SW 175 Street
Miami FL, 33157

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daphne Beardman
66 Franklin Blvd.
Pontiac MI, 48341

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Jacques
2009 Benjamin St
Nashville TN, 37206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Valerie Hawkes-Howat
7269 Crock Ave
North Port FL, 34291

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jary Stavely
205 North Harold Street
Fort Bragg CA, 95437

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ian Green
xxx
West Hartford CT, 06117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Obiora Embry
928 Idlewild Court
Lexington KY, 40505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edward T.Dunaj
13350 Denver Dr.
Hartland MI, 48353

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Hoover
12591 Scandia St
Garden Grove CA, 92845

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Callis
2506 Callis Rd.
Lebanon TN, 37090

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sean Forner
1401 Jerome St
Lansing MI, 48912

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cosette J Rowland
610 Lakes Edge Dr
Oxford MI, 48371

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gert Breur
904 Rose Lane
West Lafayette IN, 47906

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brent Baeslack
20 Montvale Street
Bradford MA, 01835

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Barker
209 E Eckman St
South Bend IN, 46614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

stefanie smith
111 grandview dr
Toms River NJ, 08753

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anthony Jackson
2146 Browns Mill Rd
Atlanta GA, 30315

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Allen-Stewart
676 W. Cheyenne Round Lake Heights IL, 60073

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matt van Rhyn
36 Terrace Ave.
Riverside CT, 06878

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Reid
132 S. 200 W.
Kanab UT, 84741

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Kroll
11311 A Douglas Ave.
Huntley IL, 60142

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gina Norman
3436 NE 73rd Avenue
Portland OR, 97213

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Campbell
8 Daffodil Lane
Yellville AR, 72687

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Koebrick
1726 Clark Street
Charles City IA, 50616

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ian Forbes
28350 Moray Drive
Bonita Springs FL, 34135

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Emily Greenspan
42 Montgomery Place
Brooklyn NY, 11215

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Gallatin
3366 Harmony Drive
Troy MI, 48083

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Delora Donovan
1559 Ferrell Dr.
Wichita KS, 67203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joy Yourcenar
2630 Church St NE #21
Salem OR, 97301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Penny Warren
3008 Jefferson St
Stevens Point WI, 54481

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John J. Peloquin
7608 Hampshire Dr. NE
Cedar Rapids IA, 52402

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lani Adams
4 Crestview Rd
Littleton MA, 01460

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gale Denning-Mailloux
P.O. Box 665
Bonsall CA, 92003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carlos Milan
5401 Orange Blossom Rd
Pinellas Park FL, 33782

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Flanary
1385 Calamus Ln
Grayslake IL, 60030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan Volz-Kelly
2731 Webster St
Berkeley CA, 94705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carlos Morillo
3301 London Court
Middletown NJ, 07748

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Helen Cu
45 8th Avenue
Brooklyn, NY, 11217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free.
Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
You need to represent the people, not the industry.

Sincerely,

Delmar A. Thomas
2913 N. Rockwell St.
Chicago IL, 60618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Liz Hourican
1821 w citrus wsay
phoenix AZ, 85015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

In proof that I am taking the time to personally comment on REAL Net Neutrality let me add to the following comments that everyone understands that this will only exist if every PUBLIC internet purchase guarantees unrestricted flow of information from the public network to the consumer. Thanks...

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eugene Viens
3905 Bute St.
Houston TX, 77006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Hoffmann
37 Granville
Cambridge MA, 02138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

james gilmore
2850 Pontiac St.
Columbus OH, 43211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chukwuma Agubokwu
12802 pemberton court
Upper Marlboro MD, 20774

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ferdi Bozyigit
2415 Valley Way
Cheverly MD, 20785

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jill Whitt
P.O. Box 388
WHITTIER NC, 28789

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Gumienny
1199 County Highway 126
Amsterdam NY, 12010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Christiansen
5984 Mechanicsville Rd
Mechanicsville PA, 18934

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mernie Graham
12102 4th Ave W 6-301
Everett WA, 98204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Betsy Blondin
P.O. Box 7775
San Francisco CA, 94120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Sweimler
1013A North 11th Street
Reading PA, 19604

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elaine Stone
5315 Cato
Cleveland OH, 44137

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shannon Sudderth
114 Emerald Cir.
Durham NC, 27713

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Corinna Hasbach
589 Smithridge Park
Reno NV, 89502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Berry
320 Viewcrest Rd
Bellingham WA, 98229

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please don't allow the Internet to start down this slippery slope that will become increasingly more difficult to undo in the future. Industry and governments will be persistent in gaining control over our access and you have the ability to stop them. Do the right thing while you are at the controls.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Broadley
1666 W. Meseto Circle
Mesa AZ, 85202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George E King, Jr
4020 Overland Dr
Lawrence KS, 66049

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Aitken
103 nw 10th st
gainesville FL, 32601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mark david makkonen
853 hemlock drive
verona WI, 53593

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Burcher
1460 Stoneham Street
Superior CO, 80027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Max
20738 Brown Lane
Summerdale AL, 36580

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Rodgers
1083 La Quinta St.
Las Cruces NM, 88007

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan Bejar
9 White St.
Brooklyn NY, 11206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Baji Milici
1170 6th Ave., #32B
Vero Beach FL, 32960

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Thomas
2526 Wismer Ave
St Louis MO, 63114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

rho andrae-lawford
855 pine bluff rd morris IL, 60450

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Gallegos
840 Waller Street #16
San Francisco CA, 94117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Regusis
35-48 80th St, Apt. 1
Jackson Heights NY, 11372

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kristina Snyder
2699 s flower ct
Lakewood CO, 80227

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick Bosold
202 N. 5th St.
Fairfield IA, 52556

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rachel Jordan
285 E. 36th ave.
Eugene OR, 97405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Mosbarger
111 E. Burrows Ln
Shelton WA, 98584

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amy Hammer
21 Pauline Lane
Rolla MO, 65401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrick Malone
P.O. Box 1314
Santa Fe NM, 87504

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,
Larry Weisgerber
Tigard, Oregon

Sincerely,

Larry Weisgerber
10414 SW Keri Ct
Tigard OR, 97224

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

raima chalmers
49 w. kennedy st
tucson AZ, 85701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dan(iel) Metzger
XXX parkway south
Allentown PA, 18105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michele Langston
955 South German Lane, Apt H12
Conway AR, 72034

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Tortorella
5611 Rocky Run Drive
Centreville VA, 20120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

susan Martin
7220 East Main Street
Scottsdale AZ, 85251

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Samuel
929 W. Ainslie
Chicago IL, 60640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Brausieck
5123 Bellwether Ln
Bellingham WA, 98226

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Wiktorski
PO Box 37
McKenna WA, 98558

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Gaub
1211 S. Quebec Way #13-205
Denver CO, 80231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Stetser
1700 NW N River Dr
Miami FL, 33125

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want and deserve meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

HILARIE HARTUNG
POBOX 54053
ATLANTA GA, 30308

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bekka Hanson
00 north 00 west
Rexburg ID, 83440

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mitchell moore
1502 Crescent Dr
Sweetwater TX, 79556

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Giancarlo Blandon
2722 NW 52nd Place
Gainesville FL, 32605

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marc Marchioli
2617 Grandview Ave
Pittsburgh PA, 15235

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Foss
75 Prattling Pond Road
Farminton CT, 06032

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Keep the American consumers in mind when you vote!

Sincerely,

James Johnson
2665 Husk Pl Apt 202
Waldorf MD, 20602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Miki Lang
640 Butte
Sausalito CA, 94965

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Facette
121 Sawmill Rd
Dayton OH, 45409

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anita Boehm
18284 W. 58th Pl. #24
Golden CO, 80403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gordon Long
272 NE 100th Ave
Portland OR, 97220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stacey Smith
3008 Shipway
Long Beach CA, 90808

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

June Swartz
PO Box 1509
Depoe Bay OR, 97341

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Arthur Schmidt
424 Russell Street
Portsmouth VA, 23707

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Cowan
1346 Indian Shadows Dr.
Ten Mile TN, 37880

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real 'Net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake 'Net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote "No" on Chairman Genachowski's fake plan.

No acceptable proposal can (1) permit paid prioritization; (2) exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor (3) move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation. (This last point I consider perhaps the most crucial, though treating wireless and wired equally may be even wind up being at least as important).

There is a powerful public mandate from everyday citizens and organizations that represent them, reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable 'Net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21. Free speech might just be riding on it.

Sincerely,

Sally Jane Gellert
210 Broadway
Woodcliff Lake NJ, 07677

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

nancy anderson
355 Montana #134
las cruces NM, 88005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

It is unacceptable that a carrier, wired or otherwise should have the power to prioritize or control content delivery on the internet. They talk about bandwidth, well every source pays based on its bandwidth usage now. We don't need discrimination by the broadband providers.

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nick Spence
595 E 7th Avenue
Durango CO, 81301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please, Vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.Your vote will be the deciding one.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. Everyday people like me are counting on you.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anoel Rinaldi
2115 NW Beechwood Pl
Corvallis OR, 97330

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Regards Jim Dugan

Sincerely,

Jim Dugan
181 Pleasant View Ave
Braintree MA, 02184

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Keith Porter
2501 Bellaire St
Denver CO, 80207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fran Levine
13 Cross Street
Montpelier VT, 05602

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Garfinkel
26895 Aliso Creek Rd. #B115
Aliso Viejo CA, 92656

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharon Zigman
21528 Woodchuck Way
boca raton FL, 33428

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Smith
7015 St Charles LN NE
Bremerton WA, 98311

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roberto Fuentes
32 Belmont St.
Quincy MA, 02171

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

The free and unfettered flow of information is crucial for a real democracy.

Now is the time to do the right thing instead of the easy thing and keep the internet free and neutral.

Sincerely,

Dan Freeman
4395 Rollinghill Road
Clinton WA, 98236

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Volpe
42 Flamingo Dr.
Palm Coast FL, 32137

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

viola scott
14 Barrington Lane
Willingboro NJ, 08046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
THANKs

Sincerely,

Don Langston
315 S. Locust St. box 334
Crescent OK, 73028

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alice Kundl
15 Wright Place
South Hadley MA, 01075

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lee Blackburn
2261 Valley Chapel Road
Jackson OH, 45640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tersa Kasza
233 Rogue River Hwy
Grants Pass OR, 97527

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Don Zimmerman
104 Weeping Willow Circle
Waite Park MN, 56387

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beverly Miller
5725 Ridegeway Dr.
Haslett MI, 48840

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Reese
5098 Lima Rd
Geneseo NY, 14454

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Curtis Konkel
P.O. Box 122
Ouray CO, 81427

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerry Losos
11599 31st Stret
Oak Brook IL, 60523

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Scott
2910 Sopris Ave
Glenwood Springs CO, 81601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adel Matar
50 Gordonhurst Ave
Montclair NJ, 07043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dominic Bruno
PO Box 31064
Spokane WA, 99223

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sally Apfelbaum
615 East 14th Street
NYC NY, 10009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary dejong
2705 alana circle
sioux falls SD, 57103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

tom neilson
37 Solar Way
Greenfield MA, 01301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kimberly Smith
4519 E Juarez St
Tucson AZ, 85711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Olivia Samerdyke
120 Wood Ave E
Big Stone Gap VA, 24219

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carmen n'ha Lydia
PO Box 294
Idanha OR, 97350

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

This is an already scripted plea to defeat this move to pass so-called Net Neutrality. I sent a letter to the FCC a few years back to stop another move made by the FCC while under the Bush administration but my request to stop that action was denied. I beg you to stop this action. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

I also have another issue that I hope you will rule on. Please stop these advertisers from increasing the volume at twice or higher the volume of the regular programming that these commercials sponsor. It absolutely enrages me and I can guarantee that the products advertised at this outrageous volume increase will NOT be purchased by me.

Sincerely,
Darla Straka

Sincerely,

Darla Straka
9499 S. Springtail Dr.
Hereford AZ, 85615

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Loy Dunkel
11030 Evergreen Way #D422
Everett WA, 98204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas Kratschmann
8600 Coppertowne Lane # 1603
Dallas TX, 75243

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JUDITH BOND
98 WILLIAMSBURG RD
EVANSTON IL, 60203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rachel imholte
5825 Park Ave S
minneapolis MN, 55417

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph W. Grenier
251 Fair St
Warwick RI, 02888

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Garcia
1437 W. Carmen Ave, #1N
Chicago IL, 60640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cori Blum
829 W. Lawrence Apt 2
Chicago IL, 60640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Bell
1624 Glyndon Ave
Venice CA, 90291

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dana Luebke
389 Hanover Center Road
Etna NH, 03750

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Hall
4062 Oak Crest Drive
Tucker GA, 30084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Gronhovd
1742 S Nugent Rd
Lummi Island WA, 98262

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

M A
PO Box 294
Idanha OR, 97350

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

DONNA PEDROZA
1801 SHORELINE DR #303
ALAMEDA CA, 94501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jim reginato
670 olive ave
carpinteria CA, 93013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Silva
330 E 33RD St Apt 5N
New York NY, 10016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Louisa Judith Bardach
189 Breezewood Common
East Amherst NY, 14051

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

robbie sheikh
51-25 van kleeck st
elmhurst NY, 11373

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy Flock
2275 Division Rd
East gREENWICH RI, 02818

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

You stood strong against Michael Powell; now we need you to do it again.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lois nelson
5913 brown rd
oxford OH, 45056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gerald Stapleton
3Elliott Place
Hilton Head Island SC, 29928

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stan Krome
1843 El Camino de la Luz
Santa Barbara CA, 93109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jean Banbury
2028 E Karen Drive
Phoenix AZ, 85022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roman Gavenko
192 RutgersLane
Parsippany NJ, 07054

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerry O'Malley
3937 Baja Vista Dr.
Oceanside CA, 92058

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Feldman
555 S. Selby Blvd.
Worthington OH, 43085

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

J McP
-
- PA, 19312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

E Morgenthaler
41 Bretton Rd
Middletown CT, 06457

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephyn Butcher
2308 Cheverly Ave
Cheverly MD, 20785

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Walsh
255 West Neck Rd.
Huntington NY, 11743

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Bellers
79 N 4TH St Apt 15
Easton PA, 18042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JAN MCNERNEY
1029 CLUB CIRCLE
PAWLEYS ISLAND SC, 29585

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vicki Word
600 General Goodwin Rd
Cerrillos NM, 87010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Otto Jay Lehrbach
282 Treichler Rd.
Alburtis PA, 18011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Iapalucci
147 Allen Avenue
Green Bay WI, 54302

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Paul
5050 Pear Ridge
Dallas TX, 75287

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
Many people are aware of all that you do to ensure true net neutrality. Thank you so much for your efforts.

Sincerely,

Laurie Walker
305 S. Market Street
Selinsgrove PA, 17870

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Allen R Schreiber
1701 Westland Circle
Lincoln NE, 68522

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Myra Bieri
511 W. Grove St.
Wautoma WI, 54982

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sharie Chickering
11757 W. Ken Caryl Ave. F #212
Littleton CO, 80127

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melody Kay Sheldon
309 Eldon st.
Talmage NE, 68448

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deborah Mulron
14706 Grace Ct KPN
Gig Harbor WA, 98329

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eva Williams
1245 Hayes Street, Apt. #5
San Francisco CA, 94117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Lytle
1342 Breckenridge Street
San Leandro CA, 94579

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Wade
3712 Evans St., #7
Los Angeles CA, 90027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote "no" to Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Todd Plofker
237 Franklin St.
Cambridge MA, 02139

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Bergman
9550 Meyer Forest Dr #524
Houston TX, 77096

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Thank you for your consideration, we're counting on you!

Sincerely,

Angelika Roll
84 Paxton Way
Glastonbury CT, 06033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deb Kav
Neptune Ln.
Levittown PA, 19054

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

fonda butler
500 breckinridge av
frankfort KY, 40601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robin Brewer
6501 Cypress Pt. Way N.E.
Albuquerque NM, 87111

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Valerie Ralston
P.O. Box 1143
Mi Wuk Village CA, 95346

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dale F Johnson
10555 SE Cisco Rd
Port Orchard WA, 98367

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Rice
150 Calle Vadito NW
Albuquerque NM, 87120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anne Salas
145 Mockingbird Lane
Marstons Mills MA, 02648

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roberta Cade
1735 Wallace Rd NW
Salem OR, 97304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I am writing to urge you to vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposed regulations.

In order to have a well informed, truly free society, we must have free flow of information. Therefore, real net neutrality is crucial.

Please stand up for the American people and vote no on this proposal.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Janice Bauman
2652 W Pickard Rd
Mt Pleasant MI, 48858

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marty Gromulat
14454 S. 42nd Place
Phoenix AZ, 85044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandra Mackie
335 Ridge Ave
Gettysburg PA, 17325

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Martha Saywell
1925 W. Western Drive, Apt. 1
Edinburg TX, 78539

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Megan Mcmahon
1543 Rt. 206
Tabernacle NJ, 08088

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sparo Arika Vigil
2788 Calle de Oriente Norte
Santa Fe NM, 87507

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Glenn Martzall
316 S. Railroad Ave.
New Holland PA, 17557

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eugene Goldman
2593 Fairford Lane
Northbrook IL, 60062

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ralph Spaulding
112 Oxford Lane
Cambridge WI, 53523

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Clifford
24060 Middlebelt Road #28
Farmington Hills MI, 48336

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Miller
P.O. Box 5032
York PA, 17405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mac Crosswell
24 Austin Ave
Asheville NC, 28801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Muhammad Thompson
1520 Marine Drive NE
Tulalip WA, 98271

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sara Gomes
Qta das Laranjeiras Bl.A r/c Esq
Aveiro ot, 3810-279

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Craig Warren
2159 Trower Ave.
Napa CA, 94558

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Dee
801 Smoke Signal Pass
Pflugerville TX, 78660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

al Dannenbrink
P. O Box 1586
Evergreen CO, 80437

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katherine Nolan
10540 N Blaney Ave
Cupertino CA, 95014

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Brewer
6501 Cypress Pt. Way N.E.
Albuquerque NM, 87111

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Hammond
P.O. Box 585
Monterey CA, 93942

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Madere
1903 Stamford Lane
Austin TX, 78703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cathren Rodriguez
4370 Via Del Villetti Dr
Venice FL, 34293

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joshua Kielas
966 Lorane Hwy
Eugene OR, 97405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Pusateri
36 Berkeley Road
Avondale Estates GA, 30002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kristopher Lindquist
4349 E Bellevue St
Tucson AZ, 85712

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Burgess
2615 6th Street
Boulder CO, 80304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Henry Smoke
130 Hague Drive
Columbus NC, 28722

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

I feel that the FCC must remain neutral when it comes to the internet. Large service providers should not influence what the FCC does. The FCC should be there to be a strong regulator to protect consumers as well as service providers; providing a level playing field.

Sincerely,

Christopher L Hadsell
1041 Candeleras St.
Las Cruces NM, 88011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

elizabeth eisenhauer
128 woodland st
windsor CT, 06095

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Gross
5215 Union Ridge Road
Burlington NC, 27217

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Dahl
1216 N Oakleaf Dr
Phoenix AZ, 85008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

walter schultz
7358 north damen ave.
chicago IL, 60645

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Azzi
3545 Golden Spur Loop
Castle Rock CO, 80108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

D N
-
- CA, 95502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tony Parr
154 Belles Hill Rd.
Benton PA, 17814

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Ginsburg
12210 Densmore Ave. N.
Seattle WA, 98133

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Burns
2 Oakwood Road
Lake Hopatcong NJ, 07849

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jon Wells
1190 Richmond Ct
Mobile AL, 36695

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Amann
930 NW 73rd Terrace
Ocala FL, 34482

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kelly Sennhauser
8342 Sorrel Dr
Houston TX, 77064

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steven Genereux
4836 S Xenophon Way
Morrison CO, 80465

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet and for all American citizens. Do not let the corporations kidnap yet another piece of the American dream Vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dave Lewis
259 Hearthstone Dr
Delaware OH, 43015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Schenk
3542 Amberacres Dr.
CINCINNATI OH, 45237

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Heidi Filipowic
120 Ocean Hibiscus Drive #101
St Augustine FL, 32080

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Hill Cook
416 Parrish Ext.
Martin TN, 38237

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anthony Erwin
403 North Russell Street
Champaign IL, 61821

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Rose
POB 41
Metuchen NJ, 08840

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gisela Tillier
7 Lantern Lane
Falmouth MA, 02540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Br Stoddard
1717 32nd
Rio Rancho NM, 87124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erin Johnson
6271 Lonetree Blvd.
Rocklin CA, 95765

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher L SNively
3809 N. Beltline Rd Apt 603
Irving TX, 75038

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Byron Bangert
2201 Wimbleton Lane
Bloomington IN, 47401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy Judd
1140 Cortina Place
Ukiah CA, 95482

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Scott Blum
574 April Ct
Miamisburg OH, 45342

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

TRUTH must be freely shared without corporate control. Please use your authority to keep TRUE NET NEUTRALITY.

Starshine in Montana

Sincerely,

Dorothy Starshine
1200 32nd St. S. #50
Great Falls MT, 59405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ursula Finkel
25 1st St.
Asheville NC, 28803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Kolenbrander
1203 N. Country Club Drive
Cullowhee NC, 28723

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lorraine malone
907 turtle cove
mesquite NV, 89027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Gleason
4133 Washburn Ave S
Minneapolis MN, 55410

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marc Johnston
1683 South bank Rd
Oakville WA, 98568

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Hulbert
1427 Harvard St #G
Santa Monica CA, 90404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

thomas shimkus
712 dempster
mount prospect IL, 60056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Kennon Pike
7515 Bavarian Dr.
Germantown TN, 38138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheri Fannin
20738 Brown Lane
Summerdale AL, 36580

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Meiks-Fraley
11487 W Amber Stone Dr
Marana AZ, 85653

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stacey DeGooyer
579 Louis Drive
Novato CA, 94945

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Walker
4338 Temecula St
San Diego CA, 92107

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Bush
121 33rd Avenue NE
Hickory NC, 28601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet and for the people of this country. Vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Cergizan
15300 88th Ave.
Dyer IN, 46311

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peggy Jordan
PO Box 5525
Boise ID, 83705

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane W Hyde
5 Abbott Ct
Orinda CA, 94563

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Fura
6171 Calvin Potts Rd
Primm SPrings TN, 38476

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jenifer Getz
43 Monticello Dr NE
Albuquerque NM, 87123

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Mottl
PO Box 242
Orcas WA, 98280

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Iverson
1701 Bedford Ln Apt 15
Newport Beach CA, 92660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charles Graessle
217 N. Sycamore
Marshall MI, 49068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Teresa Geimer
2210 La Mesa Court
Davis CA, 95618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Scheid
1405 W. Wagon Wheel Road
COTTONWOOD AZ, 86326

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Yvonne Neal
8707 Falmouth Avenue Unit 118
Playa del Rey CA, 90293

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Rowden
5841 100TH Ave
Pinellas Park FL, 33782

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

dorothy peters
281 Adelphi St.
brooklyn NY, 11205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kay Kirkpatrick
27W741 Washington Ave.
Winfield IL, 60190

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Shannon
977 Crystal Oak Place
Newcatle CA, 95658

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sue Merris
748 Meadow Branch Rd
Pittsboro NC, 27312

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Murray
1439 W. Summerdale Ave.
Chicago IL, 60640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

paul lucchini
po box 3154
sedona AZ, 86340

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leith Eaton
6455-119 Zuma View Drive
Malibu CA, 90265

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ed Green
1255 Mountain Rose Dr.
Fernley NV, 89408

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Chan
23311 La Crescenta
Mission Viejo CA, 92691

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Kalmanson
6604 McCahill Terrace
Laurel MD, 20707

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Narveson
1729 C Street
Lincoln NE, 68502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Chastain
208 Arlo Todd Rd
Toccoa GA, 30577

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis Kelley
161 State Road H
Elkland MO, 65644

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Time to call the spade black and dirty for what it is: digging into more of our personal freedoms.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Sea
4442 NE 85th Avenue
Portland OR, 97220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Thank you in advance for your continued support of net neutrality.

Sincerely,

William Cowart
341 Shellbank Drive
Longs SC, 29568

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sally Weidemann
1514 Rutledge St.
Madison WI, 53703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Emerson
442 Islington Street
Portsmouth NH, 03801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thanks for standing up for substantial regulations that give each seeker and source the connections they deserve. That anyone could dribble paid prioritization into the internet is unconscionable.

Thanks for being a hero for the net, and opposing Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan. We must have protections for wireless broadband same as for wireline, and reclassification to provide the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gregor von Huene
320 EL PORTAL WAY
SAN JOSE CA, 95119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Willow Feigum
1030 E. Minnesota Ave.
Glenwood MN, 56334

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

H. S. Doc Holliday
8124 O'Fallon Lakes Drive
O'Fallon MO, 63366

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christine Kellogg
7810 Ewald Terrace
Golden Valley MN, 55426

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laurie Matthews
149 Gifford Ave Apt B
San Jose CA, 95110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Ross
1770 S. Center Blvd.
Springfield OH, 45506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

donnell johnson
2056 Highway 425
Rayville LA, 71269

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dean Ruscoe
1717 Primrose Ct
Port St Lucie FL, 34952

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Harrell
PO Box 131
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joel Savoie
453 Mananai Pl Apt U
Honolulu HI, 96818

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amy Marble
4138 E. 1st Sr
Tucson AZ, 85711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat Schumacher
5225 Camino De La Tierra
Brownsville TX, 78526

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Larry D'Addario
2115 Paloma St
Pasadena CA, 91104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David L. Davis
P.O. Box 19
Wheeler, IN, 46393

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Koritko
2313 Evergreen Ave.
Fox River Grove IL, 60021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Maceira
7620 Portland Rd NE
Salem OR, 97305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real Internet neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proprosed net neutrality plan.

No proposal on the table thus far adequately protects rank and file consumers usage of the net. Paid prioritization segregates users from service, reclassifies broadband; and obfuscates the legal footing required by the courts for implementation of net neutrality.

A powerful public mandate exists from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please continue your support of net neutrality and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Jerabek
19 Anasazi Rd
Placitas NM, 87043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Douglas Engle
64 Wehrli Rd
Long Valley NJ, 07853

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dr. Eddie Self
Denison, Texas

Sincerely,

Dr. Eddie Self
2108 Bluebonnet Ave
Denison TX, 75020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Gillgannon
5141 Main st.
Kansas City MO, 64112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kimberly Schleder
1013 Wyoming St.
Allentown PA, 18103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roy Leon
103 Taurus Ln
Cave Junction OR, 97523

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Stevens
2812 Don Pancho Rd NW
Albuquerque NM, 87104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Bermudes
96 Far Fields Rd.
Brewster MA, 02631

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william montes
2842 q st.
lincoln NE, 68503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jordon Hahn
73305 ROYAL PALM DR. Suite B
PALM DESERT CA, 92260

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Moorman
2857 Strauss Terrace
Silver Spring MD, 20904

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roupen Merjanian
1710 Grant Ave Unit 17
Redondo Beach CA, 90278

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael McLane
821 Villa Ln. #2
Moraga ME, 04556

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lauri Dean
9500 Grizzly Flat Rd.
Grizzly Flat CA, 95636

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mary l larsen
506 South 65th Ave West
Duluth MN, 55807

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joanne Zipay
37 Creamery Drive
New Windsor NY, 12553

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adrienne Hochberg
717 S US H'way 1 Unit 1002
Jupiter, FL, 33477

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Joseph Taylor
916 Union St.
Reading PA, 19604

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

barry sochat
po box 1011
Rockville UT, 84763

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan. Be a hero, not just for the internet, but for all people who should constitutionally be given their free speech and free press rights--rights that do not allow others to prioritize what they say and read.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Hoyer
55 McDaniel Ave.
Jamestown NY, 14701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marie Quinn
304 Stewart Ave
Waukegan IL, 60085

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Beverly 7344 127 Ave SE
Newcastle WA, 98056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Glenn Hinchey
117 Gertrude St.
Syracuse NY, 13203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael L Bowler
160 North A Street
Buckley WA, 98321

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pamela Daly
178 Pinewood Rd., Apt. 47
Hartsdale NY, 10530

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beverly Lambert
90 Marina Vista Ave.
Larkspur CA, 94939

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin McKaig
129 N Higbee
Reed City MI, 49677

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jenny Nowlen
132 Westwood Circle
Charlottesville VA, 22903

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ryan Rickels
1707 Maple View Way
Knoxville TN, 37918

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ted Richie
12710 Rivulet Circle
Anchorage AK, 99516

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kelly Minehan
650 W FIREHAWK DR
GREEN VALLEY AZ, 85614

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevyn Holloway
4023 E Hiddenview Dr
Phoenix AZ, 85048

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Virginia Atkinson
3158 Brenford Rd
Smyrna DE, 19977

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William O'Dea
8 S Commonwealth Ave
Aurora IL, 60506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

larry lacterman
909 tombstone canyon road
bisbee AZ, 85603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sheri Ambrose
po box 30
Lincoln City OR, 97367

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ELKE STINNETT
1005 W RIM VIEW RD
PAYSON AZ, 85541

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Commissioner Copps, as an American citizen who deeply values an open internet and the First Amendment rights it bolsters, I beg you to use your vote to stope the fake net neutrality farce.

Sincerely,

Warren Brown
6012 South Pittsburg Ave.
Tulsa OK, 74135

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathie Tremmel
531 Shaw Road
Hollidaysburg PA, 16648

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Brosh
216 VILLAGE CIRCLE
Novato CA, 94947

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jan Sams
5053 Granberry Way Lane
St. Louis MO, 63115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Kethler
6469 NDCBU
Taos NM, 87557

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
Come on,I'm 66 on fixed income and really don't want to see anything imposed on my wireless devices stand up to this bully! Sincere Martha Thomas

Sincerely,

Martha Thomas
7949 Fantail Drive
N Las Vegas NV, 89084

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

david huff
4615 s. leclaire
chicago IL, 60638

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pete Heitzman
POB 335
Oneida NY, 13421

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Cassidy
93674 Drummond
Tinley Park IL, 60487

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sheila Lobel
8105 NW 61 Street
Tamarac FL, 33321

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Turpin
625 Wickes Ave
Craig CO, 81625

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brandon Snider
109 Foxrun cove
Jacksonville AR, 72076

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Juanita Shoemaker
1389 Twin Branches Cir SE
Marietta GA, 30067

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynne Van Ness
3639 Matador West
Traverse City MI, 49684

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adolfo Miralles
740 Knollwood Lane
San Dimas CA, 91773

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matt Sharak
Sapphire Lane
Franklin Park NJ, 08823

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joann Kersten
27 Paseo Grande
San Lorenzo CA, 94580

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Iris Ciabattari
1540 Cedar St
Fayetteville AR, 72703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Cotton
1321 Sycamore Dr
Garner NC, 27529

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John W Senseney
4278 StemiltCr. RD
Wenatchee WA, 98801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

arnold johnson
1200 wilshire boulevard, suite 508
Los Angeles CA, 90017

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Bethel
810A E 3RD ST
Tulsa OK, 74120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Catherine Lowrey
43150 Country Club Drive
Oakhurst CA, 93644

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary S. Hogle
21509 Lofton Ave N
Scandia MN, 55073

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Hund
96 N. Drexel Ave.
La Grange IL, 60525

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Cullen
2987 Bridgeport Ave.
Miami FL, 33133

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Folit
11 Jay St.
New York NY, 10013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Amdur
1926 Lincoln Ave
St. Paul MN, 55105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

karen krulevitch
1303 taranto circle
carpinteria CA, 93013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jim Buchanan
5303 Algonquin Trail
Kokomo IN, 46902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lee Blackburn
726 N 5th St
Kansas City KS, 66101

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

sheila cole
619 Gregory Circle
Sonoma CA, 95476

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Garritson
1917 E. Market St.
New Albany IN, 47150

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Irma Reinumagi
232 E. 10th St.
Indianapolis IN, 46202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Anick
92 Rogers Av
Somerville MA, 02144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Glenn
9529 Craigwood Terrace
Saint Louis MO, 63126

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

roger Harmon
5498 W Danube Rd Ne
Fridley MN, 55432

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Trisha Connolly
1001 Dodge Ave
Evanston IL, 60202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Pellett
5293 Guemes Island Road
Anacortes WA, 98221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Todd Klee
897 Tom Hampton Rd
Lufkin TX, 75904

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

charles raiteri
693 e. parkway s.,#4
memphis TN, 38104

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andre Pessis
PO Box 7072
Corte Madera CA, 94976

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gil Richey
1551 Covington Cr E
Fort Myers FL, 33919

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Albert Schoellkopf
6535 Kury Lane
Housston TX, 77008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alessandra Colfi
1397 Temple Heights Dr.
Oceanside CA, 92056

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kay Otani
151 Belhaven Place
Claremont CA, 91711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laurie Stephan
6217 25th Ave NE
Seattle WA, 98115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The Internet has changed the world more than any other advancement of our lives. Please sir, do not go along with this farce of regulations--if you do, you will be part of a small group that negatively affects the advancement of America and it's citizens forever. I am a regular citizen out here and am so tired of seeing how all the rules are written to help out "the big boys" instead of doing what's right for the people. Republicans and Democrats alike seem only to answer to the calls of those with wealth and power. Please sir, stand up for the rest of us. The internet is our future and seems to be the only thing left where "everyday people" still have a chance to compete, please don't be a part of killing this opportunity for us.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

douglas carothers
po box 622
rowe NM, 87562

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Theresa Ziegler
13255 H 58th Avenue North
Plymouth MN, 55442

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel O'Brien
534 Rockland St.
Abington MA, 02351

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Skalitzky
801 skyline drive
Liberty MO, 64068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Bucell
12607 Forrest Drive
Edinboro PA, 16412

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Benson Hausman
15631 Dove Meadow
San Antonio TX, 78248

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anita Samaniego
7059 E Ridgeview Ln
Carefree AZ, 85377

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Babs Angel
4945 St, James Ave
Titusville FL, 32780

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Todd Bake
9058 Butternut Rd
Whitmore Lake MI, 48189

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

G Douglas Ray
2634 18th Street, #1R
Astoria NY, 11102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Rossen
2911 W Estes Ave
Chicago IL, 60645

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Norman Husser
7543 39th Ave. N.E. #3
Seattle WA, 98115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Terry
2602 Ion Ave
Sullivans Is SC, 29482

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frances Meyer
10 Ross Lane
Middletown NY, 10941

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dave Duncan
51 Valley Brook Dr
Fairport NY, 14450

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas Grill
37 Cherokee Dr.
Oxford CT, 06478

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Flick
6903 Barby Lane
Orlando FL, 32812

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all the U.S.'s diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. So that I can continue to access the news and information I need without the censorship and bias of the telecom companies and other corporations, I ask that you please do what's right one more time. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erin D. Chapman
410 S. Maple Ave.
Falls Church VA, 22046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

It is very important that public officials, both appointed and elected, vote in ways that clearly protect the interests of the American people. Otherwise, The U.S. is functioning, not as a democracy, but as an oligarchy in which public officials are nothing more than puppets of the rich and powerful few. If there is to be a true paradigm shift, from oligarchy back to democracy, it must begin now and with votes such as this one. I am counting on you to do the right thing.

Sincerely,

Mary Jo Kusiak
3907 Peppervine Dr.
Orlando FL, 32828

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sybil Schlesinger
22 Rockland Street
Natick MA, 01760

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephanie O'Connell
shggj
jfbyewi CA, 95462

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lawrence E. Fraley
5754 Kingwopod Pike
Reedsville WV, 26547

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

As an online educator, I know that the Internet is the future of information sharing. More and more people access information from cell phones and wireless devices for education, news, and social contact. My public university students need to be able to use the sites that matter to them at a reasonable price.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan. Your vote will be the deciding one and the public needs your help now more than ever.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marjorie Robison
101 Putnam Ave
Hamden CT, 06517

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lorana Tremper
1659 Merrick
Detroit MI, 48208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please stand up for and protect the rights of American citizens rather than big corporations. Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy DeBliek
5119 Meadowlark Lane
Portage MI, 49024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Gurvitch
18 Norwottuck Dr
Hadley MA, 01035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Beckenhaupt
631 N Cedar St
Colorado Spgs CO, 80903

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deanna Young
3145 Fremont St.
Boulder CO, 80304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Mann
1864 Jancey Street
Pittsburgh PA, 15206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kallyn Krash
72 Park Ter W Apt E38
New York NY, 10034

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Tunison
10770 Blaine Rd
Brighton MI, 48114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

BOB DAVIS
1302 E Virginia Ave.
Phoenix AZ, 85006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pamela Maly
24619 Nobottom Rd.
Olmsted Falls OH, 44138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Nolan
Nolan
Albuquerque NM, 87110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

joy cutler
3000 Poplar St
philadelphia PA, 19130

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Francisco R Gonzalez Bonilla
1590 Unionport Rd
Bronx NY, 10462

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Laib
1628 Satinwood cir
Springfield OH, 45504

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

The Internet has changed the world more than any other advancement of our lives. Please sir, do not go along with this farce of regulations--if you do, you will be part of a small group that negatively affects the advancement of America and it's citizens forever. I am a regular citizen out here and am so tired of seeing how all the rules are written to help out "the big boys" instead of doing what's right for the people. Republicans and Democrats alike seem only to answer to the calls of those with wealth and power. Please sir, stand up for the rest of us. The internet is our future and seems to be the only thing left where "everyday people" still have a chance to compete, please don't be a part of killing this opportunity for us.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Please Mr. Copps, we are counting on you to do what is right for the people, not the corporations.

Sincerely,

Sharon E. Schieber
1235 Cienaga Lane
Grants Pass OR, 97526

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Silver
29 Warcam Way
Portsmouth RI, 02871

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please, please keep the protection of a free and open Internet as your organizing principle going into the vote on Dec21st.

Meaningful net neutrality, not industry-friendly sham regulations, are what the American public are expecting from your commission.

No "presents" to the never-satisfied, always-must-have-it-all corporations.

Deep gratitude,
Elizabeth Donohoe

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Donohoe
220 Overdale
Pittsburgh PA, 15221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Reid
8104 Grey Friars Ter # 8
Chalfont PA, 18914

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Matthew Roberts
19 Melissa Ln.
Tijeras NM, 87059

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathy Kleczek
PO Box 602
Cannon Beach OR, 97110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dawn Baron
1490 Calle Esperanza
Sierra Vista NV, 89118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Levin
1011 Pomeroy Ave
Santa Clara CA, 95051

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

donald baughn
286 6th ave
ridgedale MO, 65739

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wes Foard
18 Ingate Terrace
Halethorpe MD, 21227

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Claire Kugelman-Kropp
15985 41st Ave.
Clearlake CA, 95422

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Stop letting big business trample on the citizen's rights. Keep the internet a level playing field, open to innovation and communication.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Olson
4145 Shadow Lane #323
Santa Rosa CA, 95405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Russell Miller
3223 Glengyle Ave.
Cincinnati OH, 45208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sarah Pgoell
CCC 434, English Dept., UWSP
Stevens Point WI, 54481

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Becky Cleland
2142 Coxe Rd.
Tryon NC, 28782

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Connie Hansen
81298 Road 436
Anselmo NE, 68813

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bob leichner
P.O. Box 886
Old Town FL, 32680

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tessa Daniels
33 Garfield Ave
Springfield VT, 05156

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kay Rogers
1000 Bliss Lane
Garberville CA, 95542

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peggy Gorman
11150 Trinity River Dr #24
Rancho Cordova CA, 95670

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dennis E. East
1084 Perch RD.
Pinnacle NC, 27043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

The Telecom industry does not need a champion in this matter. The average citizen and internet user does.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21. Please remain our champion.

Sincerely,

Gail Rae Hudson
1922 Thumb Butte Road
Prescott AZ, 86305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marcia Ciro
13 Bay St
Watertown MA, 02472

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cindy Rybovich
729 Palmetto Street
West Palm Beach FL, 33405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Merle Miel
P.O.Box 1114
Hollister CA, 95024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Evie Hayhurst
2124 Sisters Ave.
Naperville IL, 60564

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shannon Faye
162 S Sage Ave
Mobile AL, 36606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patrice Matthews
9723 Mendoza Raod
Randallstown MD, 21133

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Christlieb
2529 Tamarisk Drive Santa Rosa
Santa Rosa CA, 95405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roberta Erlichman
1701 E Avenida De Las Flores
Thousand Oaks CA, 91362

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia A. Borri
3341 Vivian Court
Wheat Ridge CO, 80033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JOHN TAYLOR
7216 ARROYO BLVD
BROWNSVILLE TX, 78526

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stelios Valavanis
1823 Grant
Evanston IL, 60201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbra Apfelbaum
200 Division St. #4G
Cliffside Park NJ, 07010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shraddah Reyna
4605 Calle Del Palo
Oceanside CA, 92057

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diana Vengsarkar
15 Manitou Way
Scotch Plains NJ, 07076

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Anna Hill
3436 Londonderry Court
roanoke VA, 24018

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janis Maclean
361 BRIDGER CREEK RD
Reed Point MT, 59069

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

D. M. McLaughlin
7879 Laurelridge Rd.
San Diego CA, 92120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Mertens
2713 Iowa Ave
Mt. Pleasant IA, 52641

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gregory chandler jr
2506 guenevere ave se huntsville AL, 35803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

judy chaparro
3121 isle way
oxnard CA, 93035

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeanette Sherbondy
116 School Road
Chestertown MD, 21620

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rod Maclean
361 Bridger Creek Road
Reed Point MT, 59069

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Baun
7654 Alta View Blvd
Worthington OH, 43085

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charlotte Stiefel
36 Hunters Brook Rd
Sagamore Beach MA, 02562

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Norma Sapp
800 180th ave se
Norman OK, 73026

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Fowler
8857 W Keim Dr
Glendale AZ, 85305

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margery Eriksson
55 Poppy Lane
Berkeley CA, 94708

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

D and E
Widman
Coolin ID, 83821

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William F. O'Brien
5858 Francis Street
Kalamazoo MI, 49048

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I have read that your current public service has been marked by integrity, and that you are mindful that the nature of the www is essentially democratic. I urge you to vote "no" on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

The Genachowski proposal to permit paid prioritization is like proposing that wealthy web users should be able to buy a right to free speech that is more valuable than the free speech right that all citizens have. The Bill of Rights does not include a caste system. In practical terms, this proposal would sift the First Amendment through a monetary value system, one that favors the political views of large commercial interests. That is not supposed to be the way we do things here in the U.S.A. I hope and trust that you will vote down Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21st.
I am, Sincerely, Anthony Bernini

Sincerely,

Anthony Bernini
168 North Lake Avenue
Troy, NY, 12180

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerry M Keller
6152 Verde TR. N. B-223
Boca Raton FL, 33433

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ivis nasir
604 oak crest dr.
chapel hill NC, 27516

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Blen
14665 NW Oakridge Rd
Yamhill OR, 97148

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Reid
602 SE 94th Ave
Vancouver WA, 98664

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kevin Duncan
7 Crow Trail
Oak Ridge NJ, 07438

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kathi gay
13733 palatine ave n
seattle WA, 98133

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lauren Verruni
866 Beaver Road
Mount Pleasant Mills PA, 17853

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Rickett
9 Edgewood Court
Orinda CA, 94563

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ramya Chellappa
1190 Main St
River Edge NJ, 07661

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sue Singer
6060 e sunset blvd
Flagstaff AZ, 86004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lianne Lindeke
7312 26TH Ave NW
Seattle WA, 98117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

celia louderback
13805 NE 71st Way
Vancouver WA, 98682

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Consider the way the internet is used in emerging markets, everyone in the US must have equal access to the internet. In order to maintain some sort of global position access to the same information is critical in a democracy, little d.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Morris
91 La Mirada Ave
Oroville CA, 95966

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nathan Witemberg
245 Van Ness Ave
Ashland OR, 97520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Priscilla Rocco
3309 California St.
Costa Mesa CA, 92626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

E Jean
470 Waupelani Drive
State College PA, 16801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Khadijah Muhammad
3984 Wildwood Lake Dr SW
Atlanta GA, 30331

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Day
11915 Charing Cross Rd # B
Austin TX, 78759

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jackie Wise
617 Starlite Way
Fremont CA, 94539

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pete Couse
276 summers rd
kalispell MT, 59901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paula Myles
163 Main Street
Harwich MA, 02645

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Ehrlicher
595 College Drive
Baton Rouge LA, 70806

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jane A johnson
2727 NW Pettygrove #1
Portland, OR, 97210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John W Wheeler
915 Lauren Court
Westmont IL, 60559

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Tanner
17585 Pioneer Rd.
Greenville CA, 95947

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edward Borowski
21298 Boquet Dr.
Macomb MI, 48044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ivy Brumfield
10807 Wickersham Ln.
Houston TX, 77042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Devorah Wolf
714 5th Street
Ann Arbor ND, 58103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wallace Close
1059 Casitas Pass Road
Carpinteria CA, 93013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melany Telleen
418 5th Street
Wilmette IL, 60091

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

gregory helentjaris
7300 zimmerman rd
st paris OH, 43072

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Fain
P.O. Box 22169
Houston TX, 77227

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Titus
110 West Loomis St.
Thomasville GA, 31792

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Lewis
39 Rockland Ave
Malden MA, 02148

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Clark
73 Martin Way
Vadnais Heights MN, 55127

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melanie Ivanoff
5242 Edmondson Pike
Nashville TN, 37211

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Holden
1470 E 310th Rd
Pittsburg MO, 65724

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chad R
James st
Boise ID, 83703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Whiteford
3860 S.Higuera
San Luis Obispo CA, 93401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eda Daniel
103 Newman Rd.
Malden MA, 02148

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Davis
179C rue des Chateaux
Bethalto IL, 62010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Fouke
2429 Schnebly Rd.
Spring Valley OH, 45370

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Francis
221 Leslie St
Lansing MI, 48912

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy Lee
407 E. Rapp Rd., Apt. C
Talent OR, 97540

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandy Woiak
900 N. Stuart St.
Arlington VA, 22203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Shelton
7910 146th PL NW
Stanwood WA, 98292

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Brown
867 N Lamb #22
Las Vegas NV, 89110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Alden
15500 Waterloo Cir.
Truckee CA, 96161

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Danette R. Templin
15406 minnetonka blvd
Minnetonka MN, 55345

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Natasha Westphal
6951 Farm to Market Rd
Whitefish MT, 59937

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Katalin Grifffith
27280 Lakeway Ct
Bonita Springs FL, 34134

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sean Ruster
2217 E Lombard St Fl 2
Baltimore MD, 21231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

NORDA GROMOLL
1717 WATERSMEET LAKE RD
EAGLE RIVER WI, 54521

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Wells
676 Channing Ave
Palo Alto, CA CA, 94301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aaron Lipstadt
1968 Canyon Dr
Hollywood CA, 90068

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lou Pharo
905 a maacama lane
Healdsburg CA, 95448

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cherie Blackfeather
3005 NE Hoyt Street
Portland OR, 97232

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Please don't allow another big Corporation to make laws for the rest of America.

Thanks

Sincerely,

Bill Edwards
48 W. 100 N.
Coalville UT, 84017

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No ACCEPTABLE PROPOSAL can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion WHO WANT & DEMAND meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and VOTE NO on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Feldman
137 Winchester Dr
Santa Rosa CA, 95401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Schwartzman
2931 Normandy Drive
Ellicott City MD, 21043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Luccia Rogers
PO Box 3063
Apache Junction AZ, 85117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Morgan
10424 Taylor Street
Blaine MN, 55434

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Claudia Christensen
2743 Scott Street
Franklin Park IL, 60131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elliot Miller
1180 Deer Run Court
Southampton PA, 18966

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Angel Cabrales
7713 Settlement
Denton TX, 76210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael T. DeBosier
38502 Camp Dr.
Prairieville LA, 70769

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Hinman
6333 W 52nd Street
Mission KS, 66202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sheilagh Creighton
285 Scenic Rd
Fairfax CA, 94930

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alberto Ortega
7453 newcastle golf club road # F205
Newcastle WA, 98059

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Glenda Rubin
153 Kearney Street
El Cerrito CA, 94530

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

LEON Berman
85 KENNEDY AVENUE
ROCKVILLE CENTRE NY, 11570

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nick K. Kiger
4528 Poinsetta Dr.
Fort Worth TX, 76114

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Hanks
949 Den Hertog St. SW
Wyoming MI, 49509

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Merlyn Heyman
1200 Galloway Dr
El Paso TX, 79902

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I really appreciate all your efforts to keep the public airwaves public. I have seen you several times on Bill Moyers's and other PBS shows, and admire your integrity and steadfastness.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implamentation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Mahalo and aloha from Hawaii.

Sincerely,

Mark Nokes
3805 Kanaina Ave APT 304
Honolulu HI, 96815

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harold Wilson
533 W Guadalupe Rd #1038
Mesa AZ, 85210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Bent
908 NE 44th Ave. Apt 3
Portland OR, 97213

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

kent bodily 2014 sidney st
arlington TX, 76010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Trix Niernberger
518 Potterhill Rd
Petersburgh NY, 12138

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

April Wood
1110 Emerald St.
Madison WI, 53715

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joline Stone
1319 Dulcinea Ln
Belen NM, 87002

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jessica
517 North 75th
Seattle WA, 98103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Bailey
2614 Benjamin St. NE
Minneapolis MN, 55418

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Caro Urquhart
6528 Wilson Mills Rd.
Mayfield Village OH, 44143

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Thacker
43 Conant Valley Road
Pound Ridge NY, 10576

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda L. Ritchie
325 S Davis Road
Tygh Valley OR, 97063

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Phyle
12605 bronson ave
lindstrom MN, 55045

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brigid Clarke
916 Convent Rd., NE
Cullman AL, 35055

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken
De La Rosa
Anaheim CA, 92804

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janice Bergstrom
17147 40th St NW
South Haven MN, 55382

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laurie Gold
9443 Hilldale Dr
Dallas TX, 75231

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Based on Moores Law bandwidth limitations are a temporary thing. We should not set precedents that hobble the Internet for all future generations based on short term problems. Net Neutrality is enormously important for our future economy.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Plummer
206 Ravine Street,
Hancock MI, 49930

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Faith Battels
9360 Walsburg Rd
Leonardville KS, 66449

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alicia Key
4032 E. Walatowa St.
Phoenix AZ, 85044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charlotte Marrow
1906 Danielle Dr.
Kerrville TX, 78028

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Shanahan
2045 Wyda Way Apt 1
SACRAMENTO CA, 95825

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura McGrath
1013 Camino de Chelly
Santa Fe NM, 87505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jerry Button
5910 Morningstar Cir. #203
Delray Beach FL, 33484

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stanley & Janet Lattin
586 E. Bos'n Rd.
Shelton WA, 98584

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Haley-Miller
6104 Bluespruce Drive
Bellvue CO, 80512

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Hal W Case
7525 Marchand Ln #521
Charlotte NC, 28262

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edward Anderson
1301 Jacks Rd
Monterey CA, 93940

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christine Osmer
77-343 Emalia Place
Kailua-Kona HI, 96740

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gabriel Grilli
994 Florida St
San Francisco CA, 94110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrea Haresign
12 Windflower Court
Mount Laurel NJ, 08054

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Summer Mitchell
611 13th Ave. N.
Jacksonville Beach FL, 32250

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lori Proos
58 Old Post Rd.
York ME, 03909

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beth Peary
24 franklin terrace
South Portland ME, 04106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lorraine Moore
138 Crofton Ave.
San Antonio TX, 78210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

The free and equal exchange of information and ideas is crucial to a democracy. Please don't allow the internet to become commercialized (as other forms of communication have), but keep it open to all citizens.

Sincerely,

Helen Crisp
1335 Quebec St.
Denver CO, 80220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rani A. Kokatnur
216 South J Street
Lompoc CA, 93436

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Timothy Miller
2239 E. Lincoln Circle
Phoenix AZ, 85016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sally Merchant
PO Box 145
Spruce Head ME, 04859

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Fergeson
185 N. 1850 W.
West Point UT, 84015

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Steve Powell
1820 n pendleton dr
Tumacacori AZ, 85640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Becky Young
1135 Tennessee Avenue,
Pittsburgh PA, 15216

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Carr
3400 Avenue of the Arts
Costa Mesa CA, 92626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elaine Genasci
462 Chorro
SLO CA, 93405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Townsend
2
Willits CA, 95490

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carole I Binswanger
195 JUniper Drive
Sedona AZ, 86336

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

mimi abrams
248 valley view drive
wilmette IL, 60091

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diana Bohn
618 San Luis
Berkeley CA, 94707

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maida and Barry Zamoff
4201 Cathedral Avenue,NW
Washington DC, 20016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Margaret Alic
122 Raccoon Point Road
Eastsound WA, 98245

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joanne Sorrentino
3030 Shadowbriar Drive
Houston TX, 77082

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Barbara Dickman
193 Koval Court
Delmont PA, 15626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

M. Evans
85 Broadmoor Avenue
San Anselmo CA, 94960

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Swatek
213 Dartmouth Trl
Fort Collins CO, 80525

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Greg Alderson
181 Dykeman road
Carmel NY, 10512

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Allison Phillips
1604 NE 74th Ave.
Portland OR, 97213

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

maria sol
1563 solano ave #248
berkeley CA, 94707

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robyn Werhan
2814 N Jamison Blvd
Flagstaff AZ, 86004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Addie Jacobson
3242 Sunset Ridge Drive
Murphys CA, 95247

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Foley
1796 29TH Ave NW
New Brighton MN, 55112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

You have promoted real net neutrality, for which I thank you. In the upcoming vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion. We want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right once again and vote NO on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lois A. Baum
3750 N. Lake Shore Dr.
Chicago IL, 60613

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beth Olson
4480 N Academy
Sanger CA, 93657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Mishler
2588 Loving Road
Morganton GA, 30560

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann O'Donnell
hc64box740
Grassy MO, 63751

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alice Newton
1023 Del Norte Avenue
Menlo Park CA, 94025

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paull Geib
18 Maple Leaf Road
Spencer VA, 24165

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shandra Bell
119 Shumate Street
Oak Hill WV, 25901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrea Hartranft
419 S Cedar St.
Lititz PA, 17543

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melissa Petersen
4712 Fremont Ave N
Seattle WA, 98103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Papaforti
PO Box 441803
Somerville MA, 02144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
Sincerely, Harry J. Gross

Sincerely,

Harry J. Gross
1301 S/W 15 Street
Boynton Beach FL, 33426

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert James IV
13557 W. Amherst PL
Lakewood CO, 80228

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joe Rogers
PO Box 685111
Austin TX, 78768

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jon Frank
9812 Rosensteel Avenue
Silver Spring MD, 20910

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Laura Evans
PO Box 341
Yosemite CA, 95389

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dale Bonge
1500 S 6th
Albion NE, 68620

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan L. Gullion
42205 Round Hill Dr
Lancaster CA, 93536

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ernest Wohlbold
480 Oakwood Ct
Merritt Island FL, 32953

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lisa Parks
1268 Glen Laura Rd
Jacksonville FL, 32205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bill Kildall
533 E. Vashon Ave.
Port Angeles, WA, 98362

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Betty Stambolian
90 Allen Rd Apt 27
S Burlington VT, 05403

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julia Knight
511 Wellesley SE
Albuquerque NM, 87106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Chairman Julius Genachowski has announced that he plans to push new internet regulations when the FCC meets on Dec. 21st. My fear is that these plans, which have been praised by the telecommunications industry, will benefit the largest carriers on the internet, rather than the average citizen.

As the FCC Commisioner, your vote will be a deciding one on Chairman Genachowski's plans.

Please vote no.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Prance
14 William St
Somerville MA, 02144

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Luna Gooding
606 Venezia Ave Apt A
Venice CA, 90291

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Marie Karle
5130 Mead Road
White Bear Lake MN, 55110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Beth Wright
1029 Maple St.
Edmonds WA, 98020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

brenda harrison
p.o. box 395
hunt TX, 78024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Faklis
810 Battery
San Francisco CA, 94111

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lonnie McDowell
630 N. Atla Vista Blvd.
Los Angeles CA, 90036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Renee Penn
8515 Bustleton Ave.
Philadelphia PA, 19152

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Marcoe
4431 16th Ave SE
Thurston WA, 98503

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William & Wanda Franklin
8701 E. Mill Plain Blvd.
Vancouver WA, 98664

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rick Christensen
6401 Harlan St
Arvada CO, 80003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edward Schwerin
202 Munson St
Greenfield MA, 01301

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Connie Jacob
1612 Putnam Way
Petaluma CA, 94954

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ricki Walsh
1602 E. 15th Ave.
Spokane WA, 99203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Perrin
709 S. Kenilworth Ave
Oak Park IL, 60304

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John k katzenstein
38694 ne Newley Ed
Albany OR, 97321

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wayne Wilkinson
3633 Phillips Place
St Louis MO, 63116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Barnett
2458 Cotswold Rd
Toledo OH, 43617

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

charles deming
311 n. brearly
madison WI, 53703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joanne Sackett
24 Ctagswood Rd.
New Paltz, NY, 12561

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Oliver
7614 Stone Pine Lane
Houston TX, 77041

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janice Foss
PO Box 957
Pinole CA, 94564

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Annette Blanchard
8105 Baseline Road
Little Rock AR, 72209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Johnson
4501 Woodward Ave
Detroit MI, 48201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Pat Munoz
3814 Albemarle St NW
Washington DC, 20016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edgar Chico Bosque
P.O. Box 1537
Aurora IL, 60507

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shawna Blevins
1293 County Road 117
Glenwood Spgs CO, 81601

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruben Romero
4124 W. Orleans St.
Tucson AZ, 85741

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Rheder
P.O.B. 931
Woodstock NY, 12498

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jay Nilva
Reno
Reno NV, 89523

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Plummer
1536 W Roscoe St #3
Chicago IL, 60657

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Corinne de Ciofalo-Guell
965 Sutter St Apt 305
San Francisco CA, 94109

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jacquelyn Sidor
903 Macfarlane
Aberdeen WA, 98520

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Henning
728 Wayne Lane
chico CA, 95926

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adam Strand
4608 South Arden Avenue
Sioux Falls SD, 57103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Darryn Ambrose
8428 SW 7th Avenue
Portland OR, 97219

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ella M. Robson
1730 Robson Lane
Huntley MT, 59037

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paula K Propst
PO Box 72
Steward IL, 60553

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JERI MOE
3710 LOMBARDY NW
ALBUQUERQUE NM, 87105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Milton F. Brzozowski,Jr.
4305 Carlyle Garth
Belcamp MD, 21017

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lyle Oberg
26401 S. Canoa Rd.
Amado AZ, 85645

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Keep the internet open to the entrepreneurial spirit.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wade Brannon
112 N 144th St
Seattle WA, 98133

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

steve simmons
173 james river road
beavercreek OH, 45434

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Conley
1416 Mesilla NE
Albuquerque NM, 87110

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lowell Lochbrunner
1015 Digby Ln
Mount Vernon WA, 98274

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

verlin (lynn) sanden
2588 westridge drive
cameron park CA, 95682

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

deb grojean
124 Genesee Ct
Boulder CO, 80303

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Thu
5960 N. Camino Esplendora
Tucson AZ, 85718

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

We need you more than ever to be a champion for real net neutrality. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

It is imperative that your vote be no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

Don't let powerful corpations control and take complete control of the voices of the people. There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ardelle J. Hansen
4100 Parklawn Ave. #209
Edina, MN, 55435

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Loyal Dodson
1525 Devine St
Schenectady NY, 12308

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Evelhoch, II
17 Pamela Dr
Mechanicsburg PA, 17050

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shawna Berry
32023 NE 142nd St
duvall WA, 98019

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Fullerton
2315 Frederick Drive
Winston-Salem NC, 27103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carole Lindberry
1015 Digby Ln
Mount Vernon WA, 98274

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ron Ford
PO Box 110
Tannersville PA, 18372

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruce Clifton
320 Summit Ave E Apt 12
Seattle WA, 98102

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elaine Gencarelli
4 Putnam Hill apt. 3F
Greenwich CT, 06830

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Dilley
231 NE Hilltop Pl.
Tahuya WA, 98588

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Hydek
3 Village Woods Road
Port Jefferson NY, 11777

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Durand
145 Hunt Drive
Horsham PA, 19044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bonnie Wagner-Westbrook
7 Burlinghoff Lane
Lebanon NJ, 08833

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christi Underdown
246 Trails Circle
Nashville TN, 37214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

steve lasky
2960 Harris Street
eugene OR, 97405

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Daniel Wollrich
1001 Greene Terrace
Davis CA, 95618

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Benson
3230 W. Folsom St.
Eau Claire WI, 54703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Walden Levin
222 E. Montgomery Ave.
Ardmore PA, 19003

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Frederick Pianalto
1303 E. University Blvd. #20579
Tucson AZ, 85719

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marcy M Brown
1166 Yorktown St
Billings MT, 59105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Joseph Miller
1754 North Kenmore Avenue # 303
Los Angeles CA, 90027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Harold Weitzer
1932 So. 95 St.
West Allis WI, 53227

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kendra Waddell
383 N. Wilmot Rd. Apt. 176B
Tucson AZ, 85711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Naomi Amos
`17800 Langlois Rd.217
Desert Hot Springs CA, 92241

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william calloway
po box 91
louisville KY, 40201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maureen Besancon
4329 Ensenada Dr.
Woodland Hills CA, 91364

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Michener
1200 Brickyard Way #405
Point Richmond CA, 94801

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paulette Lieska
3431 Sunset Beach Dr NW
Olympia WA, 98502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

bjoern mannsfeld
2044 gaylord street
denver CO, 80205

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andreas Stein
3100 Hermosa Way
Palm Beach Gardens FL, 33410

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dixie Lopez
440 N. Rengstorff Ave
Mountain View CA, 94043

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Earl Scott Nicholson
120 Strand Ave.
Sicklerville NJ, 08081

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
Sincerely, Terry Barnett

Sincerely,

Terry Barnett
22519 Pacific Hwy
Ocean Park WA, 98640

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roger A. Lewis
P.O. Box 962
Sherwood OR, 97140

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kate Boyd
865 Pond Rd.
Spruce Pine NC, 28777

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sydney Brady
85 S. Seminary St., Apt.2
Galesburg IL, 61401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Lighty
11 North Road
Carson NM, 87517

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Armar Strauss
560 Amalfi Drive
Pacific Palisades CA, 90272

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Hannon
248 Apache Dr.
Paint Lick KY, 40461

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Henry McGuire
1526 11th Avenue West
Seattle WA, 98119

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wm. G. Murrell
92 Juan Tomas Rd
Tijeras NJ, 08059

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sally-Alice Thompson
1519 Anderson Pl SE
Albuquerque NM, 87108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rhoda Sharpee
E23274 Moon Lake road
Watersmeet MI, 49969

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janet Williams
1200 Don Gaspar
Santa Fe NM, 87505

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Bauder
5166 Inspiration Lane
Las Cruces NM, 88011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Perry Pieri
20011 N. Hwy. 101
Willits CA, 95490

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Will Silva
7315 17th Ave NW
Seattle WA, 98117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Geoff Briggs
8404 31st Ave NE
Seattle WA, 98115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

C Gelfand
135 W 16TH St Apt 52
New York NY, 10011

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Goering
1300 N. Maxwell
McPherson KS, 67460

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Kozel
6490 Waverly Park
Morrow OH, 45152

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Georgeanne Wilcox
25058 Senft Road
Oldenburg IN, 47036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be continue to be a hero for American citizens in defending true net neutrality for all. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No morally acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from grassroots organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Bacon
34 School Street,
Middleton MA, 01949

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda Luz
1994 View Street
Myrtle Point OR, 97458

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Leslie Johnson
62 Riverlake Drv.
Rowland NC, 28383

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Rayann Hickey
424 Scruggs Hollow Lane
Hartsville TN, 37074

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Calder
1226 W Hermosa Dr
Tempe AZ, 85282

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

cristina wenzl
415 Lakeview Road K-31
lynnwood WA, 98087

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Warren
6294 103rd Ave
Pinellas Park FL, 33782

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edward Gertler
1025 Cliff View Drive North
Kingston Springs TN, 37082

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.
sincerely,
steve graf

Sincerely,

steve graf
8 lynde st
plattsburgh NY, 12901

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Addison
101 Wye Acres Rd
Queenstown MD, 21658

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carol Schoffer
PO Box 557
Sebastopol CA, 95473

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christine Sawyer RN, BS
1851 Hillpointe Rd. #2112
Henderson NV, 89074

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Americans need just a bit of Real support and reality. Your efforts are greatly appreciated.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Melina Harris
10516 SE 219th Street
Kent WA, 98031

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Deborah Rohrbacher
16-2139 Stardust Drive
Pahoa HI, 96778

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

What is needed in the U.S. is authentic net neutrality. You are the greatest hope for real net neutrality.When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tiana Mylene
2201 W. 74th Ave.
Denver CO, 80221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JOHN MCNERNEY
1029 CLUB CIRCLE
PAWLEYS ISLAND SC, 29585

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Tulman
159 Brewster Rd
West Hartford CT, 06117

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I don't need a "canned" fax to inform me that no one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. There ARE hundreds of thousands of Internet users who are informed and have followed the net neutrality discussion. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doug Walter
1606 L Street
Davis CA, 95616

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph N. Carpenter IV
734 Redwing Place Drive
Houston TX, 77009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maureen Sheahan
20996 Inkster Road
Southfield MI, 48033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jo Davis
3809 Timber Ridge Rd,
Midlothian VA, 23112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Naomi Frost-Hewitt
930 Springfield Church Road
Trenton SC, 29847

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eileen Mothershead
1617 W. 6th Drive
Mesa AZ, 85202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Denison
1835 NE Steele Ave
Corvallis OR, 97330

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

betts richter
7717 ranchwood nw
abq NM, 87120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Allgeier
2007 Baringer Ave
Louisville KY, 40204

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julie Greenfield
6410 Ridgewood Dr
Castro Valley CA, 94552

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marcia Leonhardt
1361 Cortez
Burlingame CA, 94010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sam Koprak
330 Westminster Rd.
Brooklyn NY, 11218

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adina Cathey
127 Airport Road
Monticello KY, 42633

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Christensen
2981 SW 187th Ave
Beaverton OR, 97006

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kim Smith
3205 Jonesboro Dr
Nashville TN, 37214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

jason Balestrieri
17694B US 84/ 285
Santa Fe NM, 87506

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan Bathanti
2118 Linville Creek Road
Vilas NC, 28692

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

anthony tullio
2612 cass
dearborn MI, 48124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Antonio Livaudais
1670 Poplar St
Denver CO, 80220

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lawrence S. Logue
709 93rd Avenue
Naples FL, 34108

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bob Pomeroy
12181 Bartlett St
Garden Grove CA, 92845

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Liz Kessler 363 smith rd
hyde park NY, 12538

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ben Ragunton
2529 N. 22nd Drive
Phoenix AZ, 85009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

April and Joseph Faires
2305 34th Ave SE
Puyallup WA, 98374

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Smith
4649 S. Friday Circle
Cocoa FL, 32926

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

greg anthon
80 church
englewood NJ, 07631

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

william reese
41 meetinghouse lane
southampton NY, 11968

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Anderson
125 River St
no weymouth MA, 02191

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

George Davis
20946 e. parkview ln.
Mayer AZ, 86333

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Russell Yttri
718 9th st
hudson WI, 54016

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Aileen Grant
958 Longview Dr
North Attleboro MA, 02760

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please vote no on Chairman Genachowski's weak net neutrality plan. Please continue to protect the internet for the average citizen. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Antoinette Fein
1617 Cedar Street
South Bend IN, 46617

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Danner
42 W. Mechanic St.
Frostburg MD, 21532

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Akers
2311 Ridgeview
Austin TX, 78704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Zentis
1654 west 38th street
Erie PA, 16508

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Hegarty
743 Humboldt St
Santa Rosa CA, 95404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thom M Chestnutwood
1242 N Gardner St.
West Hollywood CA, 90046

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Teresa Anderson
11677 Marietta Ave
Clovis CA, 93619

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Logan Joseph
236 Ormond St
Albany NY, 12208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stanley Ray
705 Heron Ct. SW
Albuquerque NM, 87121

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark R. Prime 504 NE 2nd
Bentonville AR, 72712

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

M. Delatte
220 Quincy
Long Beach CA, 90803

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

earl mcmanhan
1600-2h charleston place
charlotte NC, 28212

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Porter
1870 Newport Ave
Pasadena CA, 91103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jack Simel
11 B Rundel Park
Rochester NY, 14607

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jade Funk
1928 South Wilson Avenue
Mason City IA, 50401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

izabelle j. doucet
1817 E. Grand ave
escondido CA, 92027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Fran Whitman
13856 Ford Drivel
L'Anse MI, 49946

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason O'Neill
907 Coke St
Yoakum TX, 77995

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sydney Wright
12 Stone Ridge Court
Baltimore MD, 21239

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ken Mason
3739 E Fountain St
Long Beach CA, 90804

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Renee L. Orth
530 Colorado St.
Gooding ID, 83330

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Brohm
4030 Woodfield Dr.
Bettendorf IA, 52722

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia Davison
38 Horseshoe Lane
Sulphur LA, 70663

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Lynne Webb
1020 Willow Branch Dr
Orlando FL, 32828

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Kinzelman
7 Parklane Cir
Peralta NM, 87042

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ahila Livingston
33 E. Cedar
Chicago IL, 60611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Peake-Jones
25 Clark Street
Easthampton MA, 01027

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Diane Boettcher
12607 HIGHLAND DRIVE
AUBURN CA, 95603

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

I have learned that no one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you and I thank you for it. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gloria McLean
320 W. 83 St.
New York NY, 10024

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Karen Duda
3322 89th Street
Jackson Heights NY, 11372

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Whitehurst
541 30th St.
San Francisco CA, 94131

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Thomas G. Murphy
35-16 76 St.
New York NY, 10004

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Meredith Domurat
PO Box 220009
Hollywood FL, 33022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stacie Wysong
P. O. Box 300
La Plata NM, 87418

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gubba Sue
3101 S WABASH AVE
Chicago IL, 60616

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ross Kelman
2559 S Gaylord St
Denver CO, 80210

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lori ploeser
1133 laguna canyon
laguna beach CA, 92651

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Randall Paske
3958 Warwick Boulevard
Kansas City MO, 64111

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Lamport
Lamport
Marion IN, 46952

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Akolotu Moeloa
4805 Ridgehaven Drive
Killeen TX, 76543

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Shyloh Wideman
1919 Evergreen Park Dr. SW #181
Olympia WA, 98502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrew Black
150 Montague Street
Brooklyn NY, 11201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert Sullivan
4017 Ocean Dr
Manhattan Bch CA, 90266

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Dancing Trout
5726 SE Lambert St.
Portland OR, 97206

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

We are selling out the public to the corporations one step at a time. Please, let's not add another sellout to the collection

Sincerely,

William J. Collins
PO Box 57292
Tucson AZ, 85732

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robert & Cindy Allen
9101 Rosanna Ave.
Garden Grove CA, 92841

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dolores Bialecki
7879 Laurelridge Rd.
San Diego CA, 92120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Johanna C Osborn
320 Pine Ave.
Waynesboro VA, 22980

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julia Broome
5866 Colbert St.
New Orleans LA, 70124

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Annette Walker
2125 N. 123rd Dr.
Avondale AZ, 85392

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Brian Fikes
310 Esplanade Ave APT 71
Pacifica CA, 94044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Logan Johnson
860 Mitchell Bridge Rd
Athens GA, 30606

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John F Nagle
504 Glen Arden Drive
Pittsburgh PA, 15208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Greg Bard
8312 Hanbridge Ln
Austin TX, 78736

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ruby Teegarden
756 Abbey
Birmingham MI, 48009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ed pineau
23368 c sw53rd ave
boca raton FL, 33433

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Jenks
384 Cooper Ave
Elgin IL, 60120

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Our "Founding Fathers" spoke at length about the importance of a free press (even John Adams, who was being constantly criticized by the press acknowledged the importance of that criticism to a viable democracy). With corporate ownership of traditional media outlets, the internet is the last bastion of a truly free press.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you, so I hope you will vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

I wouldn't even know about this proposal were it not for the internet, the big corporate-controlled media certainly isn't informing people about the details.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Riggs
15 E Mountain View Rd
Camano Island WA, 98282

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wallace Kennedyjj
6600 Lyndale Ave S
Richfield MN, 55423

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Erica Voell
6044 Ballentine
Shawnee KS, 66203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Darren Figgins
2249 Heritage Dr.
Roseville CA, 95678

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

By the big money, for the big money, and of the big money, is what this country has become.
Enough.
No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Luis Deolazarra
1552 Monterey St
Richmond CA, 94804

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charlie Mac
Box 2446
Land O Lakes FL, 34639

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ann Herdina
78424 320th St
Olivia MN, 56277

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ANNETTE FLORES
3777 E MCDOWELL RD 2001
PHOENIX AZ, 85008

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

linda somma
110 beach road
salisbury MA, 01952

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Please be true to who you are and what you believe.

You believe in democracy and the critical importance of free communications to the survival of our system of governance.

No new technology, no new profit motive can ever compromise these truths.

This is who you are. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Peter Heymann
280 Maiden Lane East
Seattle WA, 98112

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Roy Jensen
36400 159th St
Gardner KS, 66030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

carolle nau
5421 north mercier street
kansas city MO, 64118

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ross Allen
643 Pratt Ave.
St. Helena CA, 94574

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

deborah porter
5575 shasta lane #4
la mesa CA, 91942

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Ana Chou
3256 Ramona St
Palo Alto CA, 94306

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Dayton
3768 Webster St.
oakland CA, 94609

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tom Nulty Jr
24500 Dna Pnt Hrb Dr
Dana Point CA, 92629

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Linda L Oswald
4960 King Arthur Way
Cheyenne WY, 82009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jonell Dean
2924 South Ave W #A
Missoula MT, 59804

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Watkins
12828 S. 45th Place
Phoenix AZ, 85044

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections. The net has been an open forum for information and ideas that help to maintain the freedoms which are the best part of our country.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time and vote "no" on Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Thank you and Happy Holidays

Sincerely,

Tim Shullberg
4101 E. 8th Street
Long Beach CA, 90804

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Robyn Farmer
725 Taylor St
Monterey CA, 93940

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carole Plourde
70 Cedar St
Amesbury MA, 01913

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

anthony chavez
3541 e curtis dr.
sacramento CA, 95818

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

I am tired of big business trashing every thing good that comes along in this country. The internet should be "of the people, by the people, and for the people." Let's not allow regulations that would endanger this.

Sincerely,

Theresa K. Lepthien
23 Tulane St.
Pueblo CO, 81005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Liesl Cotter
20413 12th PL W
Lynnwood WA, 98036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Marc Bunn
321 N. Ridge Rd
Little Rock AR, 72207

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

michael simms
PO Box 281
Augusta WV, 26704

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nick Lawson
1447 West Thome Avenue Apt. 2
Chicago IL, 60660

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jessea Greenman
62nd St
Oakland CA, 94609

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joan Romeo
po box 107
Jackson CA, 95642

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Christopher Vandeventer
12168 Patterson Rd
Rockvale TN, 37153

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Susan Seney
7752 19th Ave NE
Seattle WA, 98115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Julia Willard
2001 W. 69th St.
Mission Hills KS, 66208

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

charlie petrek
612 E. Cypress Ave Apt. 206
Burbank CA, 91501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Noll
124 Trafalgar Drive
Port Townsend WA, 98368

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Angela G Feliccia
12204 Academy Rd
Philadelphia PA, 19154

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

I hope you will stand with those of us who beleive in a open internet.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Labate
3144 Broadway ste4 mb185
Eureka CA, 95501

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Vicki Carlson
615 Hamill St
Oakland MD, 21550

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doug Yamamoto
916 Peralta Ave
Albany CA, 94706

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

lorraine andrew 274 laguna
kalamazoo MI, 49009

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

peggy dart
520 hwy 128
philo CA, 95466

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for holding the position of true net neutrality. We need policies that are PEOPLE-friendly, not give-aways to corporate giants. Corporations should compete among themselves for business, not pay for laws and regulations skewed in their favor.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sky Mitchell
1715 F M 726 N
GILMER TX, 75645

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nick Neverisky
North Ave
Burlington VT, 05401

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Andrea Beckes
111 W Wilson St
Madison WI, 53703

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mike Blatner
38c Bearcat Rd
Tijeras NM, 87059

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

This terrible proposed plan will allow market domination and monopoly in an already suffering economy. Don't let big business put small business out of business. Don't be fooled by the language. It's simple: Comcast wants to regulate the internet and collect fees to do so. Don't give away FCC authority and don't introduce middle men nobody wants. This plan is bad for business, bad for the economy, and bad for consumers.

Sincerely,

Tracy Phillips
126 Sharon Drive
Phoenix OR, 97535

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jason Ober
415 Howard St
Evanston IL, 60202

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Greg Leimeister
1484 Front St Apt 4
Cuyahoga Falls OH, 44221

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Kodrich
12209 East Reidsburg Rd.
Clarion PA, 16214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jill Roseen-Czaplicki
18939 NE 20th Ct
Redmond WA, 98052

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Edward Dee
PO Box 882
Pescadero CA, 94060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judy Dombrowski
5 Yarmouth Place
Boston MA, 02116

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Nestlinger
2373 N. Flower
Santa Ana CA, 92706

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Stephen Cooper
4727 48TH Ave NE
Seattle WA, 98105

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Todd Albers
120 N Alisos St
Santa Barbara CA, 93103

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

susan mulcahy
3910 Warm Springs Rd.
glen ellen CA, 95442

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jacqueline Roth
5927 Alhambra Avenue
Oakland CA, 94611

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Gahagan
1314 18th St
Santa Monica CA, 90404

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Adriane Harm
400 Perkins St. #302
Oakland CA, 94610

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Maranda Kleinert
5901 Newbrook Dr. #91
Riverbank CA, 95367

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Wendy Aeschliman
517 Tamarack Ln
Sagle ID, 83860

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Michael Hair
2472 Lone Pine Ct
West Sacramento CA, 95691

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chuck Zalac
256 Montrose
Columbus OH, 43214

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doris Herrmann
Unterer Fuchsgraben 21
Kitzingen DC, 97318

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mary Carvour
1751 NW 13th Street
Gresham OR, 97030

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

ron kurowski
17700 67th ct
tinley park IL, 60477

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tim Rolle
326 Lower Mulberry St.
Danville PA, 17821

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Patricia D'Ambrosio
610-G San Gabriel Avenue
Albany CA, 94706

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Johan Dodge
675 Nicklaus Dr.
Paso Robles CA, 93446

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Bruno Behrens
Bismarckstrasse 82
Bremen NC, 28203

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Richard Rymer
870 W Highpoint Drive
Claremont CA, 91711

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

marla west
po Box 1743
corrales NM, 87048

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chelsea McLaughlin
2594 Blanchard
Mount Holyoke College MA, 01075

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Coranell Shermer
1523 East Webster Avenue
Fresno CA, 93728

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tina Mulcahy
24219 15th PL SE
Bothell WA, 98021

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you! When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Tracy Thornburg
1901 Steger Ave
Kalamazoo MI, 49048

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Joseph Stomato
509 Manton st
Phila PA, 19147

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

JJ Moody
445 Deatsville Hwy. 206
Millbrook AL, 36054

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

KEITH SMITH
route 3 box 244
buckhannon WV, 26201

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Grady Burrell
240 Willow Lake Dr.
Leesburg GA, 31763

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

I am counting on you, sir, to be a bulwark against the abusive and wrong-headed tendencies of your fellow commissioners.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jeff Granger
1324 W. Albion Ave.
Chicago IL, 60626

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

andres springborn
8923 Ravenna Ave NE
Seattle WA, 98115

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jacque Carlson
64935 Leonard Ct
Desert Hot Springs CA, 92240

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Avis Frein
1928 NE 127th Ave
Portland OR, 97230

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Josh Reilly
310 Hallson Lane
Ben Lomond CA, 95005

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Allen sanders
1109 s 11th st
Bentonville AR, 72745

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Eric Klusman
5424 Newcastle Ave Apt 347
Encino CA, 91316

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Raymond
Lee
San Luis Obispo CA, 93406

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Donald Elmblad
805 Huntley Drive
Los Angeles CA, 90069

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Doug Stevenson
2137 Admiral
Stillwater OK, 74074

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy Stephens
6102 Palmetto Trail
Amarillo TX, 79106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

EA Franz
140 Old Limington Rd
Cornish ME, 04020

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Chris Helwig
94 Woodside Dr.
lakeland FL, 33813

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

As a former online business owner and now a retired senior citizen, I ask you to support true net neutrality.

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Alan Hansen
6201 E 62nd Ave 3103
Commerce City CO, 80022

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William Batt
2134 Brookside Ln
Aurora IL, 60502

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

Thank you for your past votes on net neutrality. No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Nancy York
130 S Whitcomb
Fort Collins CO, 80521

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Charlotte Pemberton
707 Hilldale Circle
Milford MI, 48381

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

John Bernard
56 Mildred St.
South Portland ME, 04106

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Amber Calabro
184 Werimus Road
Woodcliff Lake NJ, 07677

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Hespelt
22 Terrapin Trail
Flat Rock NC, 28731

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Dean DiBasio
18198 Millar
Clinton Township MI, 48036

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

H Motter
12 Sumner Hills RD
mankato MN, 56001

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Ward
13038 NE 113th Street
Kirkland WA, 98033

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Mark Ervin
880 Deerfield Drive
Hailey ID, 83333

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Judith Little 123 Barley Lane
Arcata CA, 95521

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Sandra Coulson
804 Mill St.
Cove OR, 97824

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Jon Joseph
206 Joliet Ave
San Antonio TX, 78209

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Carole Alder
21 Westfield Place
Athens OH, 45701

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

David Rodriguez
355 W 10th St Apt 2
Hialeah FL, 33010

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Paul Rakoczy
23953 NE Aldercrest Circle
Wood Village OR, 97060

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

James Wallace
PO BOX 1715
Etowah NC, 28729

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kathy Landess
1136 Wildflower
Modesto CA, 95355

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

William S Jackson
36491 Yamas Drive #1307
Wildomar CA, 92595

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Kent Cline
1604 Quaill Dr.
Greensboro NC, 27408

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Janice Rocke
Dome House Palo Colorado Canyon
Carmel CA, 93923

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gary Springer
17667 E Loyola Dr
Aurora CO, 80013

Michael Copps
Commissioner

December 11, 2010

Dear Commissioner Copps,

No one at the FCC has been a bigger champion for real net neutrality than you. When the time comes for a vote on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan, your vote will be the deciding one.

Be a hero for the Internet. Vote no on Chairman Genachowski's fake net neutrality plan.

No acceptable proposal can permit paid prioritization; can exempt wireless broadband from the protections offered for wireline; nor can it move forward without reclassifying broadband, providing the legal footing required by the courts for implementation.

There is a powerful public mandate from organizations and everyday people reflecting all America's diversity of race, class, and political opinion who want meaningful, enforceable net neutrality protections.

Thank you for everything you've done to keep the Internet open and free. Please do what's right one more time, and vote no Chairman Genachowski's proposal at the FCC meeting on December 21.

Sincerely,

Gregory J. Sechser
614 South 67 Street
Omaha NE, 68106